

Dow City Department By Mrs. Binnall

J. H. Miller and son, Lewis, came down from Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives.

Mrs. Minerva Torrey came over from Charter Oak last week for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Newkirk.

Mrs. Ward McDonald is convalescing from an attack of the mumps.

Mrs. Boham came to town last week and will live with Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggins for a time at least. Mrs. Wiggins had expected to break up housekeeping and live with her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Drake, but when it came time to leave the home, the memories of its associations were too keen to forget, and Mrs. Wiggins decided to keep the home intact and remain there herself. We trust that her physical condition may keep good enough that she is able to live where she so longs to.

Mrs. W. L. Swatman carried the mail on route one last Wednesday, while Carrier Riley was attending to some business matters.

E. V. Goddard has so far recovered from his recent illness that he is able to walk out and thus derive untold benefit from the sunshine and fresh air.

Mrs. Paul Wight returned to her home in Council Bluffs Saturday after spending a few days with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Wright.

Mesdames Enos Cross and Henry Young were in Denison Thursday shopping and visiting friends. They were accompanied by Miss Celia Hargens.

Jay Baber and George Binnall were in Logan the first of the week, bringing up a bunch of horses and mules for Albert Birkhofer, who had been in that vicinity recently purchasing this line of stuff.

Miss Flossie Cramer was up from Dunlap spending the week end at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cramer.

The six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Poitevin has been very sick the past week, but is reported better at this writing.

E. N. Chamberlain returned the early part of last week from a business sojourn in Illinois.

The Ralph Roy family have moved to one of Will Staller's farms, three miles east of town, and will work for Mr. Staller this season.

Mrs. R. G. Luke was in Denison last week and closed a deal whereby she becomes owner of a fine 80 acre farm three miles north of Denison. Mrs. Luke secured it at a reasonable figure and this insures the purchaser of a good profit when the selling time comes.

The James McBride family came over from Defiance Saturday to visit with Mrs. McBride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wiggins. They returned home Sunday.

Bian Iseninger and family spent the Sabbath with relatives at Buck Grove. Mrs. Hattie Poitevin and father, Thomas Binnall, were at Woodbine last week on account of the illness and death of Mr. Binnall's sister, Mrs. Anne Butler. Mrs. Poitevin came home Saturday, returning on Sunday for her aunt's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buss to Denison Friday, the trip being made in the Buss car.

The Fred Bird family have moved to Woodbine, where they will reside. Mr. Bird's health was not good enough that he could stand the strenuous work on the farm.

Mrs. Will Morrison and daughter, Ruby, returned to their home at Indianapolis after spending ten days at the Fred Kremier home helping care for Mrs. Kremier and the baby.

Mrs. Mabel C. Toon was an Omaha visitor last Wednesday.

Mrs. James Baber, Sr. and son, Floyd, went to Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ahrens have moved to the Kuehnie farm one mile southeast of town.

Mrs. O. H. Brace has been ill for a week or more with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

R. H. Woodruff left for his home at Green River, Utah, last Friday after a three weeks' sojourn here. He goes by way of Douglas, Wyo., where he will visit the Bruner family and his sister, Mrs. Helen Isaacs. While here he sold his fine farm of 90 acres, which adjoins the town on the east to Edmund Riddle. This will probably mean the removal of the race track which is located on the north end of the field.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Koenekamp are here visiting at the J. R. Best home. They have sold their holdings in Kansas and after their visit here expect to go to Washington, where they will live on a fruit farm.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Antisdal went to Omaha Friday to spend a few days with relatives.

Lee Cramer, of Denison, visited a couple of days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cramer.

Mrs. C. J. O'Meara and Miss Lucy Healy were Denison visitors last Friday.

Miss Frieda Bartel spent Sunday with friends in Vail.

Howarth Brothers shipped three double deck loads of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Spence moved in last week from Washington township and are occupying Leonard Butterworth's house and acreage, north of the Northwestern depot.

Miss Vera Paul came home from Des Moines Saturday, where she is attending Des Moines college, to spend her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Paul.

Mrs. Chas. Griffin was over from Mapleton last week, visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mabel C. Toon.

Evelyn Staller has been quite sick for several days past.

Miss Nettie Ernest came up from Missouri Valley Saturday for a visit with the S. A. Dow family.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Butler were in Denison Sunday visiting her parents.

Miss Violet Starkey went to Woodbine last week to take care of her sister, Mrs. George Smith. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Smith here will be glad to learn of the birth of a son to them recently.

Word reached here Friday of the death at Woodbine of Mrs. Anne Butler. She was the sister of Thomas Binnall of this place. The funeral was held Sunday, Mrs. H. A. Poitevin and son, Edwin, Mrs. H. B. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binnall, Jr., being among those going down from here to attend the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howarth returned last week from their wedding trip to Chicago and other eastern points. The young folks welcomed them by giving them an old fashioned charivari. Mrs. Howarth will stay at Dunlap for a time with her parents and finish a course in music.

Mrs. Will Seemann and daughter, Maxine, were in Denison Saturday spending the day with relatives.

N. R. Wilder and family expects to move to the country again this summer and we are informed that they will begin moving this week. L. H. Goddard has rented the south part of their town house and will occupy it April 1st. This will provide everybody with a residence again.

The people's caucus was held last Tuesday evening to put candidates in the field for the coming city election. John Howarth was chosen as candidate for mayor and the present council, consisting of W. C. Rolls, J. W. Cramer, R. W. Houston, Chris Vollerstein and Clair Buttrworth were endorsed. W. E. Fisher's and E. E. Newkirk's names were presented for the place as town treasurer and the choice fell to the lot of the latter. A citizens' caucus was called for the following evening, but for some reason was not held.

Miss Lisle Goldsworthy went to Omaha Sunday morning, where she entered the Methodist hospital and on Monday morning underwent an operation for appendicitis. Word reached her relatives here that she withstood the ordeal well and everything pointed to a speedy recovery. Her father accompanied her and will remain for several days and her mother will probably go down in a day or so to see her. We trust she may fully recover her health.

I wish to announce to the ladies of Dow City and vicinity that I have again opened my millinery parlors with a full line of pattern hats, shapes and trimmings. I will be pleased to see all my old customers and will appreciate the new ones and will endeavor to please all.—Miss Lucy Healy, Dow City, Iowa.

Mr. Herman Logsdon and son, Clarence, returned the early part of last week to Ames after spending a few days here with friends and relatives.

Miss Lulu Howarth was in Denison Monday shopping and visiting friends.

A. L. Brown was in Dunlap Monday visiting the dentist.

Carl Grimes and Thomas Hayes, Jr., were over from Manilla one day last week visiting at the M. G. Wiggins home.

Mrs. Earl Chase came over from Buck Grove Monday to visit a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thomas.

M. G. Wiggins and L. E. Poitevin were in Woodbine Sunday attending the funeral of Mrs. Butler.

Alex Bell has purchased a fine new Overland car from our local dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Schouten were in Denison Monday attending the funeral of one of Henry Duncan's children.

About a dozen couples of the younger married set went out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark last Friday afternoon for a surprise. The affair was intended as a welcome to Mrs. Clark who has recently come here to live. The surprise was most complete. After a social afternoon lunch, which the guests had provided, was served and much enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Clark greatly appreciate this testimony of their friendship and good wishes.

Elmer Riddle returned last Thursday from Omaha, where he had been undergoing treatment for the past few weeks. He says he is much improved in health and that the injured knee is progressing slowly. We are glad indeed to receive this favorable report of the young man's condition and trust that he may continue to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Glassburner went down to Ames last week to spend a few days with their son, Fred, who is attending school there.

We are informed that Guild Rudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rudd, was married at Cherokee last Saturday to a young lady of that place. They will probably reside at Cherokee.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Green were down from Vail one day the latter part of the week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lazerus and children went to Omaha Sunday. Mr. Lazerus will remain a day or two on business, but his wife and babies will visit her parents for a week or so.

Martin Wiggins was down from Denison Saturday to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wiggins. He returned to Denison Sunday afternoon.

The Jolly Bunch of Girls was entertained last Saturday afternoon. They spent a most pleasant afternoon together. Lunch was served.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kremien was taken ill last Monday and in spite of all that medical skill could devise passed away Friday at 4:30 p. m. Ernest Otis had been with the parents but eight short days, but in that time had found a secure place in their affections. Their hearts were sorely grieved at giving up their only child, but "God doeth all things well." We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Kremien.

The L. D. S. special meetings closed last Sunday evening after having been in progress three weeks. On Monday baptismal services were held and three persons received the holy rite. Mr. Wildermuth has returned to his home in eastern Iowa.

Elder C. J. Hunt, of Independence, Mo., was visiting in town Monday.

Mrs. Calvin Kuykendall is reported as being quite ill.

Jay Ahart was able to go to school Monday for the first time since his recent accident when he was shot.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Stephens were Denison visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. J. F. Potter went to Scranton last Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Lyman Bartlett, for a week.

The Epworth League held a social at the church last Friday evening and the usual good time was enjoyed.

George Trager, manager of the Crawford County Telephone company, was in town Monday.

Miss Lottie Bixler was up from Dunlap Sunday visiting her friend, Mrs. Fred Buss. Miss Hilda Turnlund was also a guest at the Buss home that day.

Mrs. James Henry has gone to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vore, to stay while she is convalescing from her recent severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gottsch were over from Buck Grove Sunday and spent the day at the Adolph Ahart home.

Mrs. Eugene Crandall is on the sick list.

Miss Cara Williamson returned home Monday from a few days' visit with her friend, Miss Iva Larsen, at Deloit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Meara and Miss Lucy Healy visited Sunday with friends at Dunlap.

Mr. and Mrs. Mott McHenry visited Sunday at the C. L. Voss home in Denison. They returned home in the afternoon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Voss and son, Loyal, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gulick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolston and Dan Voss, the entire company taking lunch at the McHenry home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kuykendall were down from Arion a day or two the fore part of the week and visited with relatives.

The little friends of the Mizener children gathered at their home Saturday for a party. The usual good time was had playing games.

Aunt Janet Rae was up from Omaha Friday. Her broken arm is healing nicely, a fact that many friends will be glad to learn.

The Paradise Sunday school held their basket social last Friday evening. A good crowd was present. We are told that the proceeds amounted to nearly $30, and will be used to purchase supplies for the school. We are glad to know that their undertaking was such a splendid success.

The Friday club will meet this week Friday with Miss Elsie Randal.

John Cramer was in Denison Friday on business.

On next Sunday, March 22d, the pastor of the M. E. church will preach from the following subjects: Morning, 10:45, "The Consolations of the Gospel;" evening, 7:30, "The Prodigal Son." All are cordially invited to attend.

Messrs. Floyd Riggsby, Jas. Turnlund and Robert Lusk spent Sunday in Omaha.

Tom McKenzie and Vern Winn returned to their homes at O'Neil, Neb., Saturday after a week's pleasant visit at the Lee Winn home.

Clarence Wilder is up from Logan again this week giving the band boys their instructions in music. We were pleased to hear them playing some of the old familiar airs and they certainly did well considering the short time they have been studying.

Mrs. Carrington is here from Dickens, Neb., visiting her friend, Mrs. W. A. Bary.

Miss Marguerite Mullen and friends, the Misses Connor of Denison, went to Dunlap Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler and Martin Conroy were Denison shoppers Saturday.

Fred Loeffel has been appointed as city marshal.

Misses Lill Gibson, Hilda Turnlund and Miss Coryell came from Dow City to hear the church entertainment Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kevan called on Arion friends Thursday and went out to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Hobart Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ballantyne attended church here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lang have gone west and are now in Denver in the hope that a change of climate may benefit Mrs. Lang, who has been in very poor health for two years past.

Mrs. Amanda Mackey and daughter, Alta, went to Council Bluffs and Omaha for a short visit Monday.

Mason Remy was called to Lincoln Thursday by the sad news that his father, Mr. Z. M. Remy, had been stricken with a severe illness and had been taken to the hospital for treatment. Mr. Remy left at once for Lincoln. The attack was so severe that medical skill could not avail and Mr. Remy died Saturday morning and was buried Monday. Arion people extend sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Turnlund and children, of Council Bluffs, spent Sunday at the home of their brother, John Turnlund.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Retman, of Denison, spent a pleasant Sunday here. They visited in the morning at Milo Kelly's and enjoyed a pleasant ride with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, who autoed out to Zeph Fienhold's.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. V. Talcott next Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Menagh and daughter, Vera, came to spend Sunday with Mrs. Menagh's mother, Mrs. Catherine Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler, daughter, Grace, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Wm. Butler, Mrs. D. J. Butler and daughter, Stella, went to Woodbine Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. L. D. Butler Aunt Anne Butler was one of the pioneer settlers of Harrison, coming with her husband many years ago. The largest auditorium in Woodbine was taxed to its capacity to hold the number of people who came, some from a distance. She had given the town its name and the kindly and hospitable welcome that was always given by Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Butler will be remembered by all who knew them. The flowers sent and commercial club of Woodbine sent were extremely beautiful. The town coverlet woven of roses and smilax that completely covered the coffin with the words "To the Mother of Woodbine."

The church was crowded Saturday evening to hear the program, which began with a duet by Miss Stella Butler and Dean Talcott. Next, a whistling solo by Mr. Talcott, was very much appreciated. Then followed the "Old Maids' Association," which was very cleverly presented. Miss Alta Mackey, who took the part of the professor, did especially good work. Her part was assigned her at a late date on account of Mr. Remy having to give it up. Little Grace Nelson's solo was very much appreciated, as was also Miss Belle Emminger's. This part of the program was closed by a reading given by LaVanche Butler, after which the visions of the "Old Maids" marched out upon the platform to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne," so that they might see into what beautiful creatures the machine had changed them, and vowed never to doubt science again. It would take too much space to mention the good work done by each one, but each young lady is to be commended for her work.

Rev. Hardcastle did not come to Arion Sunday, but a very interesting sermon was given by Mrs. Bowers.

Mrs. Henry has been visiting her cousin, Miss Alta Mackey.

DRINK HABIT CURED AT HOME
The Neal Drink Habit Treatment Can Be Successfully Administered by Mother, Sister or Wife at Home.

Many men either fear the publicity of going to a sanitarium for treatment for drink habit or cannot spare time to make the trip if they reside at a distance from the Neal Institute.

At the Neal Institute each patient has a private room, strictly modern, equipped with local and long distance phone, and all matters regarding his treatment are absolutely confidential. However, if time cannot be spared to go to the Institute the same treatment may be given at the patient's home by wife, mother or sister.

Men who are postponing taking treatment for the drink habit for above reasons should write Council Bluffs Neal Institute for Dr. Neal's free book which will give full information regarding every phase of the Neal treatment and will be mailed to you in plain sealed envelope.
