POSSESSED OF CHARMING WAYS

Nettie J. Kelly, a Citizen of Denison Since 1888, Passes Away at Chicago on April 30th.

DIES FOLLOWING AN OPERATION

Denison Loses a Woman of Exceptional Charm and Ability, and "To Know Her Was to Love Her."

Nettie J. Kelly, a citizen of Denison since June, 1888, died at Chicago, Ill., April 30, 1914.

She had spent the winter in the home of her sister, Mrs. A. D. Ruxton, of Chicago, and had seemed to be gaining strength and flesh until some six weeks since, when complications began to develop, which made necessary a surgical operation. Such operation was performed April 29th, at Ft. Dearborn hospital, Chicago. While she sustained the operation in a hopeful manner, the shock proved too much for her delicate physical condition and she passed away Thursday at 5:20 p. m. A brief service was conducted Friday evening by Rev. M. P. Boynton, D. D., pastor of the University avenue Baptist church of Chicago. On Saturday morning the remains, accompanied by her sisters, Mrs. W. E. Cole and Mrs. A. D. Baxton and their husbands and by her brother, Alfred C. Kelly, were taken to Washington, Iowa, where they were laid to rest beside her father and mother.

The funeral cortege was met at the depot by relatives and friends and the funeral service at the grave was conducted by Rev. D. I. Coon, of Washington, Iowa.

The deceased was born at Washington, Iowa, about two months after the death of her father. Though never of rugged health, she lived an active, purposeful life, securing mental and musical culture which would have done credit to more rugged physical health.

When a small girl she united with the Baptist church at Washington, Iowa, and ever honored with consistent life and serious service the Master whose presence sustained her in the great trial, enabling her to leave for her loved ones a dying testimony full of comfort.

In the death of Nettie Kelly, Denison has lost from its numbers a woman of exceptional charm and ability, of whom it has been truly said "To know her was to love her." Her tender and watchful care of her aged mother, who died a few years ago, was very beautiful. Her devotion to her brothers and sisters, her loyalty to her friends, her kindness to everyone will long be remembered by all from the tiny toddlers in the Sabbath school to those on whose heads Father Time has traced in silver the years of his coming.

Her church will miss her, miss the voice that for many years aided in making the services each Sunday more beautiful, miss the hands that were so ready for service, miss the life that has been so true and helpful. She was a noble Christian woman, a worker for Christ and His kingdom, of whom the Psalmist could write today as of old, "The king's daughter is all glorious within."

She has gone to that other home a little before the rest of us, but she will not be forgotten, for she will live on in the thoughts and lives of those who have known her, and because they have known her, are better men and women today.

May God give the world more women like Nettie Kelly.

Third degree work was indulged in by members of the Masonic order on Thursday evening at their lodge room in the McKim hall. Lute Seemann was the victim and members of the order from West Side, Vall and Dow City took part in the work. After Mr. Seemann was initiated into the third degree supper was served and all report a most enjoyable evening. Those from a distance attending were as follows: From Settling Sun Lodge, West Side, W. N. Walters, E. G. Dannett, E. B. Spottswood, R. T. White, C. R. Kracht, Fred Sierks, John Scheldorf, O. O. Vogenitz, H. J. Moeller, Harry A. Moeller, F. E. Glascock, S. B. McGarvey, T. C. Buton, M. C. Buton, J. E. Smith, E. J. Peters, Peter Sievers, C. A. Boeck, Chas. England, Thos. Buton, Sr., Emil Evers, Carl Moeller, A. G. Schoonjian, Henry Schoessler, A. E. Dahse. From Diamond Lodge, Vall, J. H. Kral, R. R. Robinson, B. Olson, C. W. White, J. H. Johnson, W. E. Mason, John Stakeleman, Alex Linburg. From Ally Lodge, Dow City, L. B. Toon, W. E. Fishel.

Geo. T. Gunn, Fred Rickers, J. M. Peters, Henry Schwanz, Julius Jans, Tom Brogan, W. M. Meyer and Steve Jans, all of Jackson township, were before the board of supervisors on a matter pertaining to the welfare of the township. These representative gentlemen were before the board of supervisors petitioning the board to change the style of culverts which are in use in Jackson township. Their claim is made that the culverts now in use are not sufficiently permanent to answer the purposes. They demand that an improved kind of culvert be put into use in the township. What they ask is that the board use reinforced concrete instead of corrugated iron, which is now in use. The parties made a strong presentation of their claims and no doubt will be able to induce the board to make the changes desired. As the petition is signed by ninety-five representative men of Jackson township, we have no doubt but the board will recognize the wishes of these leading citizens of the county and act accordingly.

We are advised that Prof. W. P. Knowlton, now principal of the high school at Jefferson, has signed a contract with the local school board and will come to Denison in September to assume the position of principal of the local high school. Professor Knowlton graduated from the State university and was a classmate of Supt. C. E. Humphrey while there. He is a lover of athletics and has done much to build up the football, basketball and track teams at Jefferson until that school is recognized as one of the best in athletics in the state. When it became known in Jefferson that he was thinking of coming to Denison considerable pressure was brought to bear upon him to have him reconsider the matter.

CLUB ENTERTAIN GUESTS.

Iroquois Dancing Club Holds May Fete at Germania Opera House Friday Evening—May Attend

Over fifty couples enjoyed the May dance at the Germania opera house on last Friday evening, which was given by the Iroquois Dancing club. The affair was one of the most delightful dancing parties ever held in Denison and those who attended are loud in their praises for those who had the May fete in charge.

The opera house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the entire ceiling being covered with thousands of different colored crepe paper streamers, while a large moon was hung in the center of the room, which cast the mellow light over the dance floor. Settees and divans were tastefully arranged in little cozy corners about the room and the walls were decorated with numerous college pennants.

Music was furnished by the Iroquois orchestra, composed of Miss Hazel Ransom, pianist, and Mr. Dan Voss, trap drummer, and we venture to say that there is no better dance music in western Iowa. Dancing commenced promptly at 9 o'clock and all indulged in the grand march, after which pretty programs were distributed and dancing was in order the rest of the evening.

At midnight a delicious two course supper was served by Mrs. Silletto and her corps of assistants, and but demonstrated her ability along this line.

It was not until the wee small hours of morning that the enjoyable affair was ended and it was the opinion of all that it was one of the prettiest dances ever held in Denison.

The following were among the out of town guests: Arthur Peters, Raymond Peters and Elmer Marzens, of West Side; the Misses Ahrenkiel, Hickey, Dugan and Harring and Howard White, of Vall; Miss Price, of Sac City; Miss Baker, of Missouri Valley; Miss McCord, of Dow City; the Misses Adams, Borchardt and Rogers and Clark Marshall, Richard Nash, Fred Thomson and Jeff Rogers, of Charter Oak; Miss Schellenger, of Ute; the Misses Grady and Roth, of Dunlap; Mr. Clark, of Ames; Ted Breckenridge, of Manilla, and H. Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, of Kingsley.

W. C. T. U. ENTER-TAINED AT ARION

W. C. T. U. Convention at Arion on Friday Last a Great Success—Many Interesting Papers.

AL PEFFER'S NARROW ESCAPE

Hoboes Attack Arion Lamp Lighter and He Has Narrow Escape—Hides in Plowed Ground.

The W. C. T. U. convention held last Friday was very interesting. Mrs. Strahan, county president, presided. It began with a song service and prayer, followed by reports of committees. Afternoon meeting began with a beautiful solo sung by Mrs. Chas. Meyers and a prayer. A paper was read by Mrs. Ellen Cook upon "The Effect of Tobacco and Intoxicants Upon the Mental and Moral Development of the Child." The paper contained an amount of information that would cause any parent to think deeply.

The L. T. L., under the direction of Mrs. N. P. Stilson, is doing remarkably well and sang two songs. Next was a symposium by District President Mrs. Bowers upon local unions was as able as her papers are, covering the ground thoroughly. A quiet get then sang "Be Glad Lass and Lad for the World Lies Before You." Mrs. Williams' paper upon "Silent Influences in the Home," received applause. Mrs. Penney and Mrs. Pearson gave parliamentary drill. Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Strahan; vice president, Mrs. Ellen Cook; secretary, Mrs. L. C. Butler; treasurer, Mrs. Pearson. The Arion ladies entertained the visitors at dinner and supper in the league room.

Albert Peffer had a very narrow escape Friday evening. He had been lighting the town lamps and was just starting for home. He saw three men ahead of him a small distance and overheard one of them say, "Let's wait until he gets a little closer." Thinking nothing of this he came up to where they were standing. The "hoboes"—as far as he can tell that name fits them very well—stood three abreast and grabbed for him. Albert turned and ran as fast as he could up the track and the three men after him. As he just crossed the culvert he turned to see how close they were upon him and one grabbed but Albert gave a lurch and was out of their way again. He ran as fast as he could into some plowed ground where by gaining on them, when he was some few rods away, he laid down in the furrow. It being so dark and Albert was out of sight, the men gave up the search and hit the trail for Dow City. Albert, after gaining his breath, came in town by the wagon road. Several men with the marshal started in search, but it was no use, the hoboes had made their getaway.

ARION ITEMS

Mr. Rule and Miss Lewis were married Wednesday evening. They spent their honeymoon in Des Moines and Council Bluffs, returning to Arion, where they will occupy the Mowrer home. Miss Lewis will be remembered as the clerk in the mercantile store. After it was destroyed by fire she was employed at Council Bluffs. While here Miss Lewis gained friends by her happy disposition and always ready disposition to help anyone. She will make a very good helpmate for Mr. Rule and he is surely to be congratulated on winning her. Mr. Rule is the first trick tower man and while in Arion he has made friends who will wish him prosperity in his future life. Arion friends extend their heartiest congratulations.
