DELOIT ITEMS.

Deloit will celebrate. The W. W. society were entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. L. Miller.

P. R. Swearingen has charge of the Northwestern depot at present. We understand Mr. Weir and wife are taking a vacation. Mr. O'Banion is station agent at the I. C. depot. He and his wife have rooms at the depot until they can get a house.

Mrs. R. W. Robertson and son, Sidney, spent a few days at Dunlap recently, returning about the middle of last week. Mr. Robertson came up from Dunlap Saturday and is helping pack their household goods. They will move there this week, where he has a position with a creamery company.

John DeWitt, of West Side, was in town last week looking for a house to move in. We understand he rented the C. W. Winey house. John Cook has rented the R. W. Robertson property and will probably move soon.

The new fixtures for the bank arrived a few days ago. A clothing sale was held at the True mercantile store four days last week. A. H. Radd spent one night last week at the Mrs. T. C. Dobson home and took the early morning train north.

Dell Richardson and family returned to Deloit last week and as soon as A. N. Galland's new house is ready they will get located in their new home recently purchased of Mr. Galland. They are staying at present with her sister, Mrs. G. S. Jordan.

Mrs. Jas. Maynard, of Lake View, visited Friday afternoon with her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Williams. Mrs. Ella Worley visited with her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Prentice, in Denison Friday.

Mrs. Minnie Ehlers and baby visited Friday at the homes of Mrs. S. Hore and Mrs. Beckman. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hockstep were stormstaid at the home of Lloyd Winans last Sunday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roberson and Mr. and Mrs. Jensen spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Joe True, where they enjoyed the piano music of Mr. Hugo Sicht, the clothing man. He is very talented along musical lines and played selections from the operas as well as the ordinary music. He departed on Monday for Rockwell City.

Mrs. Silas Streeter spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Nina, at Auburn. The G. A. R. and people of Deloit and vicinity are going to hold a union memorial service in the Deloit hall on Sunday, May 31st, in honor of the civil war veterans. A speaker will give an address and a choir will furnish music. Besides these there will be other numbers on the program. Everybody is requested to be present and contribute their help in any way. We are our freedom to these old soldiers; think what it means to us.

Misses Eunice Dobson, Iva Mason and Messrs. Guy Johnson and John Maher autoed to Wall Lake, Carroll and then Vail, and returned by way of Denison to Deloit before the storm.

The Don't Worry club met with Mrs. Benjie Winans last Friday afternoon and spent a delightful time. Seven ladies were present. Mrs. Mahoney, of Denison, visited last Tuesday at the Mrs. Zea and Mrs. Landon homes.

Miss Eunice Dobson attended the musical recital of Miss Schlumberger Saturday afternoon, in which she took part. She was accompanied by Miss Iva Mason. Albert Krahl and wife and two granddaughters and Mr. and Mrs. D. Sullivan and children visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Worley.

Mr. Martin, accompanied by his wife, took Rev. Halston and wife and Rev. Torbet to Loyer Sunday afternoon for services. Mrs. Johnson received a visit from two of her lady friends from Denison at her school last Friday afternoon.

A Fourth of July meeting was held at the hall Friday evening with a good attendance. Dr. Smith was chosen chairman of the meeting and W. A. Steuck secretary. Suggestions were made by the chairman whether the crowd was in favor of a celebration. The motion to celebrate was carried by a large majority. Motion was made by Stanley Browne and seconded by Guy Johnson, that the chairman appoint three committees, one on finance and the other two on concessions and ground. Ray Winans, C. J. Newcom and N. H. Brogden were appointed a committee on grounds, with Ray Winans as chairman. Guy Martin, Mrs. Lowry and S. Hore were appointed as committee on finance, with Guy Martin as chairman. On concessions Joe True, Guy Johnson and Lacy Myers were appointed with Joe True chairman. On motion they adjourned to meet next Friday evening. Do not let your zeal slacken, but keep on pushing ahead till you obtain the satisfactory results for a good celebration.

J. P. Nestlebusch, of Omaha, was here Monday.
