The popular service in the evening will interest you. Our auditorium is cool and pleasant. The singing by the young people's chorus is splendid. And the address, practical and interesting, and will help you to higher living.

The parents are especially requested to see that their boys and girls are regular in attendance upon the Sabbath school services during the summer. So many are away that it behooves those of us who are in town to make a special effort at this time of the year.

Episcopal Church Notes. Evening prayer and sermon at 8 p. m. A cordial welcome to all. Rev. H. J. Buxton, Rector.

Mr. Meyers, the county Sabbath school secretary made a visit on Sunday last to a school in the extreme southwest part of the county. It is known as the Nelson school and is three miles northwest of Dunlap. Mr. T. C. Christensen has been the superintendent for a number of years. When elected he lived near by, but has since moved over east of Dunlap, but such has been his interest in the work that he has made the drive to the school every Sunday. His sister Miss Gertrude, has been equally enthusiastic. At present the pastor of the Congregational church at Dunlap preaches at the school house every other Sunday. Rev. Conrad is proving an earnest minister and the people both up in Boyer and in Dunlap are well pleased with him. Ed. Miles and family live near the Nelson school house and are regular attendants at the Sunday school. His capable daughter, Miss Lucy, teaches the home school, which is in the Dunlap independent district.

The dispatches report a scarcity of currency at Tampico, which probably means that every one has only a few barrels of paper money left.

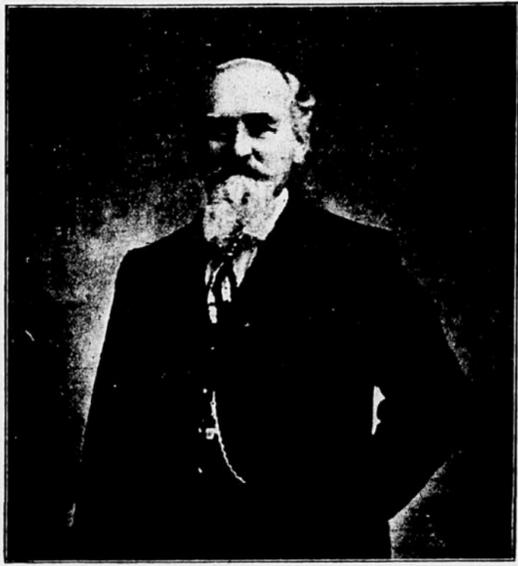

The Council Bluffs Nonpartiel suspects that Meredith by "hooping coals of fire on their heads," has in mind to prove to his democratic brethren that they made a mistake when they denied him the nomination which he sought.

"Nobody seems satisfied with the new way of nominating judges," remarks the Webster City Freeman-Tribune. "It was adopted in the hope of securing nonpartisan nominations, but it is evident from the first trial that the democrats are attempting to elect a democrat as a member of the supreme court. It is impossible for the democratic party not to play politics under any and all circumstances."

Those in the party are: Irene Cook, Grace and Myrtle Ingram, Irma and Hazel Beutel, Glennie Hanne-man, Martha and Hertha Leifeldt, Dorothy Tucker, Vera Norris, Alice Swanson, Lydia Otto, Marie Paus, Clara Weiss, Beulah Aylesworth, Maurine Hamley and Vera Poole.

Weather Crop Bulletin. For week ending June 21, 1914. Des Moines, Iowa.

With the exception of light and widely scattered showers on Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, the week was dry, and until Saturday, cool. The conditions were, however, unusually favorable for field work and the growth of crops. The average temperature was about five degrees below the normal, and two nights were quite cool. Corn has continued to make rapid growth and most fields are clean. Much of it, in southern counties, has been laid by, and in many fields in all parts of the state, it is knee high. The cooler weather has been beneficial to small grain and grass. Winter wheat and rye harvest has begun in southern districts and will be in full progress during the coming week. There has been some damage by drouth and in some localities by the Hessian fly, but there has been but little rust. Oats are filling well, but the straw is short. In the northern part of the state all small grain is rank. The recent rains were also beneficial to fruits, but more moisture is needed in southern counties. Potatoes are promising and garden truck is generally in good condition.

After all the publicity Kermit Roosevelt has had, it must be a relief to drop into obscurity as a June bridegroom.

If President Wilson keeps on cautioning his chauffeurs not to exceed the speed limits, he may have to drive his cars himself.

Many men feel that they do not have to take their wives on a vacation, as the latter can hear them tell about it after they get home.

The boys are generally willing to go on a Sunday School picnic, provided the business will drop their work and mark out a baseball diamond for them.

Col. Roosevelt engaged passage on the Imperator and was assigned to the imperial suite. If this be imperialism let Col. Watterson proceed to make the most of it.—says the Sioux City Journal.

Already there is talk of eight candidates for governor at the next republican primary. From which we take it that the fear of the early demise of the party is not widespread.—observes the Harlan Republican.

It is pointed out by the Marshalltown Times-Republican that "many Iowans who would be able to pick a candidate for a baseball team on his record seem to be utterly ignorant of history and biography when they vote on a supreme judgeship."

The re-election of George W. Clarke as governor of Iowa is going to forever put out of business in Iowa a lot of petty politicians. It is going to emphasize the fact that Iowa people are as big and broad minded as the acres of the state are fertile and good to look upon. Iowans are in favor of wise progress.—Council Bluffs Nonpartiel.

JUMPED ON BY HIS HORSES.

Cliff Hoyt of Wall Lake is Severely Injured While Leading Team.

Wall Lake, Ia., June 22.—Saturday afternoon Cliff Hoyt, who lives on a farm about three miles south of Wall Lake, was the victim of a serious accident. He was at work in the hay field and when attempting to drive his team across a ditch the horses refused to move. He stepped in front of the horses and started to lead them across. The horses jumped and threw Hoyt to the ground, the wagon wheels passed over his body. He received a broken arm and his body is almost covered with bruises. Cliff is the son of Late Hoyt and is about 21 years old.

Wasn't Her Papa.

The death of Dave Moffatt calls to mind a story we heard about him in Denver ten years ago. He went to Chicago. He was alone, and when he stepped from the pullman into the crowd on the platform a sweet, fluffy young thing threw herself into his arms.

"Oh, dad!" she cried, with a series of ecstatic hugs. "Oh, papa, dear, I'm so glad to—oh—"

She perceived her error and blushed painfully, but gloriously. "I—I beg your pardon," she stammered. "I—I— I—thought you were my papa. I—"

And she tried to escape into the throng where she could hide her confusion. But the gallant empire builder would have none of such. He still held her firmly in a quasi-paternal embrace.

"I am not your papa, it is true," he whispered, tenderly, "but I am going to play that I am for a while. Don't try to get away from me, my dear. I'm going to play papa to you until the police come."

When the police came they restored Mr. Moffatt's watch and diamond scarf pin to him and led the struggling broiler away.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Keen Cutters, hailing from Hays township and our home boys crossed bats at Eilfert's ball park Sunday afternoon and our boys came out on the long end of a 15 to 5 score. Fifty dollars had been wagered on the game to take place the Sunday before but as the Keen Cutters failed to show up, the game was postponed until Sunday, when the boys proved to the opposing nine that they were the better team. The boys have been practicing quite a bit of late and they certainly showed considerable improvement Sunday, hacking up their battery to full extent and nabbing everything that came their way when hits meant runs. At batting they also showed up considerably better and they seemed to be able to hit the opposing pitcher "slants" at will. Although there was much excitement at the game on account of the money put up between the two teams, no trouble of "rag chewing" whatever occurred during the game, the boys jumping into the lead the first inning by trotting four runners across the plate and although it more reached the tally station, their lead was never threatened, for when the opposing nine would run in a score, the boys came back at them by running in two or three more and then letting up again. The Hays bunch although feeling a little "blue" over their loss, were willing to admit that the victory had been gained squarely and that they were outclassed in every department of the game. Batteries for West Side, H. Eilfert c.

V. Evers and H. Detlefs, p., for Hays, Kruse c. and Startzman p. The boys have been doing well so far this season and have yet to meet their first defeat, they having put in all their evenings practicing and are working hard to get into condition for the next victim and we learn that Denison and Breda have both asked for games and as these two have good teams, some exciting games will be expected.
