

CLEVER OPERETTA COMPANY COMING

Manager Krauth, of the Germania Opera House, Completes Bookings for "Modern Eve" Company

HERE MONDAY NIGHT, NOV. 2

The Piece, As Name Implies, Is Centered About the Modern Woman With Modern Ideas.

It is quite likely that this city, like Berlin, Vienna, Chicago and other cities, will yield to the spell of the tuncful Berlin operetta, "A Modern Eve," which LeComte and Flesher, by arrangement with Mort H. Singer, will present at the Germania theater, Denison, Monday night, November 2d.

The company was at Muscatine recently and the News-Tribune says of the production:

"The season at the Grand theater was opened most auspiciously yesterday with the matinee performance of companies that has been seen on the local stage in years, and no one who saw it experienced a dull moment during the entire production. The evening performance was unusually well attended considering the fact that it was Saturday night and nothing but the highest praise was heard from those who witnessed the play.

"The piece, as the name implies, is centered about the modern woman, with modern ideas of government, and the part she could play in the general distribution of authority. Miss Lee Johnstone as Madame Cascadier, the suffragette, ruled with an iron hand, while Ted V. Arnold, who essayed the role of husband and general utility man about the house, furnished an abundance of rich and really new comedy, though good comedy is interspersed throughout the play, producing laugh after laugh that leaves a lingering smile for hours after the curtain drops.

"Madame Cascadier, ruler supreme of her own household, endeavors to inject the same spirit into the home of her daughter, who marries Justin Pontigraud, which finally leads to the divorce court, but as pretty Renee absolutely refuses to divorce her husband or to make him a slave of the kitchen, the militant mother capitulates and happiness goes on unimpeded.

"There is enough music in the piece to make it very attractive and every musical number was received with enthusiasm by the audience, among the most enjoyable being 'Is the Girl You Married Still the Girl You Love,' 'Good-Bye Everybody,' 'Every Day Is Christmas When You're Married,' 'Won't You Smile' and 'I'm Leaving Home, Papa.'

"However, one of the most entertaining features is the tango scene by Miss Gudrum Walberg and Lawrence Ackerland. The fact that they were repeatedly recalled shows the favor with which they were received by the audience, and their ease and grace on the stage places them in a class by themselves. Their dance was the crowning feature of a highly enjoyable production."

THAT PRINTER OF UDELL'S.

Unique Attraction at Germania Opera House Friday, November 6th—By Well Known Author.

"That Printer of Udell's," Gaskell & MacVitty's production of Harold Bell Wright and Elsbeth W. Reynolds' dramatization of Mr. Wright's successful novel of that name, is a good straightforward story of plain people—a strong, simple, direct drama of everyday life, in everyday circumstances, in the great middle west. Harold Bell Wright, who is also the author of "The Shepherd of the Hills," knows every inch of his ground, literal and metaphorical. "That Printer of Udell's" is based on experience and therefore has the vital human touch that makes it strike home as a true record of real life. The leading character in the play, Richard Falkner, is a type of thousands and although not all who are thrust alone into the vortex of struggling humanity have the inborn stamina that he had to pull himself up and out, yet he is a powerful character—true to life and in no way exaggerated. Opera house, Friday, November 6th.

HALLOWE'EN NEXT SATURDAY.

Property Owners Should Be on Look-out for Mischievous Boys—Extra Precautions Taken

Saturday evening will be hallowe'en and Denison property owners should take special pains to tie down their gates, remove porch furniture and not leave a single thing which might be hauled away by small boys who will persist in having their fun at this time. We understand that Mayor Laub will secure the services of several extra officers on Saturday night to see that property is not damaged. The hallowe'en of today is a great deal different than it used to be years ago when it was largely a girl's affair. It had much to do with the identity, personality and appearance of your future husband. Society queens, aged ten years, were deeply concerned with this imminent problem. They walked down cellars backwards with a looking glass, threw apple perings over their heads and performed other queer stunts. Today the boys have captured hallowe'en and it is celebrated with bonfires, running tick-tacks against windows, rattling blinds and throwing corn against houses. They remove gates and fence rails. When you become indignant and appear on your front doorstep to protest they vanish like the four winds of heaven and one hears their impish laughter in the shrubbery. It is hoped that the boys of Denison will confine their operations to milder things than destroying property on Saturday evening and thus not make themselves liable to arrest.

A WEDDING SURPRISE.

Miss Alice Riddle and Mr. Lloyd Buffinton Surprise Friends by Being Married Saturday.

Miss Alice Riddle and Mr. Lloyd Buffinton, of this city, sprang a complete surprise on their many friends by being quietly married in Dow City last Saturday evening. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Nelson of Dow City, and not even their parents or their most intimate friends suspected that the event was to take place. Miss Riddle left her home shortly after supper, telling her mother she was going to attend the picture show, and met Mr. Buffinton down town, and accompanied by his brother, Mr. Guy Buffinton, and his wife, motored to Dow City, and it was not until a late hour that evening that the news leaked out.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Riddle, of this city, and is a young lady of pleasing personality who will prove a true helpmate to the man of her choice. She has been assisting in the millinery department of the Balle-Brodersen store for some time, a position she has filled with credit to herself.

Lloyd Buffinton is the son of Mrs. Eliza Buffinton, of this city, and is an exemplary young man.

Both of these young people have lived in Denison since childhood and have many friends who will wish them much happiness on their matrimonial voyage. They will be at home to their friends after November 1st.

MANY ATTEND HOME COMING.

Large Denison Delegation at State University Annual Home Coming at Iowa City Saturday

Quite a delegation of local alumni of the State University of Iowa journeyed down to Iowa City last Saturday to attend the annual home coming. The State university makes considerable of this annual event and a fine program was arranged for the entertainment of the guests who were there by the hundreds. One of the big events was the football game between the Iowa university eleven and the University of Minnesota, but the boys from the north proved to be too much for Iowa and they went down in defeat.

Those from Denison who attended the festivities were: C. L. Voss and son, Loyal; Professor Knowlton, Supt. C. E. Humphrey, Prof. Jacob Johnson, Prof. Albert Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kuehne, Miss Lydia Belle and Carl Frederick, Miss Grace Meyers and Miss Mariana Sims.

The tax for capitol extension averages up 20 cents apiece for Iowa people, the "Little Iowans" and all. Pretty cheap vote catching issue.

The democracy put your meat, corn, potatoes, cattle, eggs, etc. on the free list, and protected tobacco, rice, peanuts and other things from the south. It is well to remember that you vote in Iowa.

ANSWERED TO DEATH'S CALL

Former Crawford County Boy Passes Away at Rochester Following Operation for Appendicitis.

FUNERAL HELD AT DOW CITY

Was the Son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Merrick, Formerly Residents of Paradise Township.

Dow City, Oct. 27.—(Special to the Review.)—Lyman Merrick and son, Vernon, came last Friday from Bolivar, Mo., to attend the funeral of his son, Charles, who passed away at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minn., following an operation for appendicitis. The young man had gone through the threshing season and was there at the time he was stricken. The case was a severe one at the very outset, the surgeon at Watertown refusing to operate on him. His brother, Ira, who was with him, took him to Rochester where he was operated on but the young man failed to rally and passed away without regaining consciousness.

Charles Marion Merrick was born Feb. 10, 1887, in Paradise township, this county, and died Oct. 21, 1914 at Rochester, Minn., aged 27 years 8 months and 11 days. He grew to young manhood here, and received part of his education in the Dow City high school. Later he moved with his parents to Ainsworth, Neb., where he resided a few years then moving to Bolivar, Mo., where his parents still reside. On June 2, 1901 he united with and was baptized in the Reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at Dow City and remained a faithful and conscientious member until death.

He leaves to mourn his demise, a father, mother, four sisters, and four brothers, namely, Mrs. Anna Wiley, Mrs. Agnes Massey, Stella and Winnie, Jesse, Ira, Albert and Vernon. The last sad rites were conducted by Elder David Chambers and the body was laid to rest in the Dow City cemetery beside a sister, who preceded him to the brighter and better land. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Postmaster Wright has one of the nicest business offices that it has been our pleasure to visit. The office is located in the northwest corner of the federal building and is fitted up with magnificent furniture and all of the conveniences found in a city office building. A handsome green rug was placed in the office the first of the week, which completes the furnishings. Mr. Wright is of course proud of his fine quarters and enjoys having his friends call on him there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warn on Saturday, October 24th, a daughter.

BUZZ SAW CAUSES INJURY

C. L. Rudd Comes in Contact With a Buzz Saw Which Inflicts a Terrible Wound.

Dow City, Oct. 27.—(Special to the Review.)—C. L. Rudd met with a painful accident last Friday morning about 10:30 o'clock when his hand came in contact with a buzz saw which he was using to rig some lumber. He was in the new addition to A. A. Luke's harness shop. Other persons were in the building and he was carrying on a conversation with them and it is thought that this drew his attention momentarily from the machine. The saw caught his right hand, ripping open the thumb to near the first joint, greatly lacerating the flesh at the base of the member and in the palm of the hand, cutting open the fore finger, slicing off part of the bone besides breaking it in two places and sawing and tearing the flesh on the inside of the third finger. He was taken to Dr. Potter's office where the hand was dressed after which he was taken home. Orin Reynolds accompanied him to Omaha that evening and took him to the Clarkson hospital where the hand was again dressed. Next morning the member was closely examined and word reaches us that the surgeons determined that no part of the hand would have to be amputated. Mr. Rudd is resting comfortably and his numerous friends sincerely trust that he may get along well and have the full use of the hand when it is well.

The high school football team met their Waterloo at Boone last Friday afternoon when they were defeated by the fast eleven of the Boone high school to the tune of 11 to 0. Taking everything into consideration, the Denison team made a good record.

The gridiron was particularly rough and the Denison boys were not used to playing on a field of that kind so that Boone had a little the advantage of them in this particular.

In the very beginning of the game it was evident that the game would be a close one as both teams were evenly matched and Denison was able to cover as much ground as the fast Boone team. By line smashes and end runs Boone was able to carry the pigskin for a steady gain toward Denison's goal during the first quarter and before the quarter was ended had made a touchdown and successfully kicked goal. The Denison boys braved up after this touchdown and it was nip and tuck between the two teams until the last quarter when Boone was able to score another touchdown with another goal kick. Denison was able to carry the ball down the field for good gains, but when within striking distance of the Boone goal that team stiffened up and our boys were unable to gain any ground. From the small score it is evident that the teams were pretty evenly matched, although Denison would like to have had the fourteen points in her favor.

The Sac City game, which was to have been played Saturday, has been called off on account of the death of one of the Sac City players, and the next game is scheduled for Saturday, November 7th, when Correctionville will play here. Coaches Knowlton and Weiss expect to get the high school eleven into good shape by this time.

Gov. Clarke is a clean, high minded, courageous, law abiding and conscientious official. He has had a great deal to do with a splendid program of constructive legislation for Iowa the past dozen years. He will be worth much to Greater Iowa if re-elected. His defeat would mean a setback for the entire state and a blow at her progress and prosperity. His success makes for well rounded development of all Iowa institutions and continuation of all good work for better government and higher citizenship.

HIGH SCHOOL AGAIN DEFEATED

Football Boys Beaten at Boone by the Score of 14 to 0—Field Was in Very Poor Condition.

Snowball Showers.

More than one explorer in cold climates has noted the curious phenomenon of a "snowball shower." The balls, it is true, are not very big, the average being about the size of a hen's egg, but they are true snowballs for all that—compressed globes of snow, not little lumps of ice or hail. A fall of the kind occurred in north London in March, 1850, and at the time it was observed that the balls seemed five times as dense and compressed as ordinary snow and in no way to be told from the usual handmade missiles. They had fallen during the night and were strewn many layers thick over a very large area. No cause—except a doubtful electrical one—can be ascribed for the strange phenomenon, and mountaineers are apt to discredit the stories of snowball showers told them by the old guides till suddenly in the midst of an ordinary storm they find themselves assailed as though by myriads of mischievous schoolboys.—London Standard.

Poor Belgium, like the small boy in school, has to take a licking for the crime of being a little fellow.

hall. The young ladies are loud in their praise of the splendid entertainment.

The P. E. O.'s had a very enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Abbie McHenry Friday evening.

Mrs. Saul entertained the F. H. club on Tuesday. The afternoon was devoted to sewing, after which a very elegant two course supper was enjoyed.

The juniors of the high school enjoyed a hard times party Friday evening at the school house. Games and fortune telling made up an evening of fun. Some very laughable costumes were worn and the room was very prettily decorated for the party. Dainty light refreshments were served and the affair was voted very much of a success.

Mrs. Lulu Woodruff very elegantly entertained the Penelope club and a number of special friends Tuesday. Christmas fancy work filled the afternoon hours, after which the usual fine Penelope lunch was served.

The Friday club meets in the club room this week for the regular program.

Mrs. Lute Seemann gave a very elegant luncheon on Wednesday, which was a pleasant surprise to the guests, inasmuch as it proved to be the announcement of the engagement of Miss Abbie McHenry to Mr. George, of Omaha, Neb. The bride-to-be is a great favorite in Denison and her host of admiring friends congratulate Mr. George on his excellent taste and judgment. Mrs. Seemann did not indicate, in her remarks, anything of the surprise in store for her guests, but when they were seated at the beautifully laid table with favors of golden slippers, pink hearts and doves with rings, everyone was all expectancy. The place cards had verses suggestive of the occasion and very soon the secret was out. Covers were laid for eighteen at several tables, the pink color scheme being beautifully carried out, both in decoration and menu. An artistic daintiness was evident throughout and we predict that an announcement under such charming surroundings is but the prelude to much happiness.

The Philathia society of the M. E. church surprised the young people of Rev. Boyd's family Monday evening and all enjoyed a jolly evening.

Miss Grace Meyers will be hostess to the H. H. club on Thursday evening at the club room.

Miss Vera Menagh was hostess at a delightful tea on Sunday, which was greatly enjoyed by the five young ladies present.

On Monday evening the Woodmen circle enjoyed one of their gala occasions. About one hundred and twenty-five members and friends joined in the fun of a hallowe'en party. Some beautiful marching was done by the members who were fantastically attired as ghosts, goblins, etc. The hall was elaborately decorated with black cats, witches and pumpkin lanterns, while an old witch fortune teller presided over a boiling cauldron of a love potion.
