Edited by Mrs. Bessie Binnall

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rogers came down from Denison Wednesday and spent the day at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber. On Thursday they visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young, returning to Denison in the evening. Miss Mable Cole was taken sick last Tuesday and was unable to be at school. Her sister, Miss Blanche, taught the remainder of the week in her place. She was able, however, to resume her work Monday. Mrs. Jake Schwartzbach and son, Maynard, of Denison, and Mrs. Harry Lyon and son, of Jefferson, were in town Friday visiting at the Wise and Hain homes. Rev. Daniel Reagan went last week to Washington, Iowa, where he is attending a meeting of the Iowa Baptist association, serving as delegate from the local Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schneider, of Denison, were recent visitors at the Marcus Christiansen home. Mrs. C. J. O'Meara and Miss Lois Goddard were shopping in Dunlap last Tuesday. The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Barry fell down the cellar steps last Thursday, striking the back of his head on the cement landing at the foot of the stairs. The child was unconscious when the mother reached him and remained so for ten or fifteen minutes. A physician was called, who looked the child over, but found no bones broken. His head was quite badly bruised. The little fellow seemed all right the next day. Mrs. Anna Doser spent several days last week in Denison, the guest of relatives. Edwin Poitevin is driving a fine new Buick car. Miss Sunshine Rudd has recovered from her recent illness and returned last week to her work at Council Bluffs. Mr. and Mrs. George Igou went last week to Lincoln, Neb., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Igou. Miss Delia McBride came down from Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McBride. Little Dorothy Rolling, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rolling, was quite sick last week. Miss Clara Bartel, of Denison, has been the guest of her sister, Miss Frieda Bartel, for several days past. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHenry, Mrs. A. H. Harper, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. Arthur Cook and Aunt Maggie Talcott attended the W. C. T. U. convention at Arion Friday. Mrs. Nelson had a place on the program. A very interesting and profitable session is reported. Miss Emma Lueck was shopping in Omaha last Thursday. The Friday club went out to the home of Mrs. Fred Coleman last Friday afternoon for their regular meeting. After a pleasant session devoted to fancy work and merry making, a fine two course lunch was served. Two of Ralph Roy's children have been ill the past week. Mrs. N. B. Butler and Miss Janie Butler were shopping in Denison last Saturday. John Chambers returned to his home in Council Bluffs Thursday after a visit among his kinfolks here and at Arion. The Royal Neighbors will meet on next Tuesday with Mrs. W. H. Rule. Friends of Mrs. M. A. Rigby will be grieved to learn that she has had a great sufferer recently with that dread affliction, rheumatism. Jim Henry shipped 500 head of sheep to the South Omaha market on Sunday. He and Charles Vore accompanied the shipment. Mrs. Myrtle Brown came down from Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her friend, Mrs. Clarence O'Meara. Misses Stella and Marie Riddle and Frieda Bartel were in Omaha shopping last Wednesday. They called at the Clarkson hospital to see Mrs. James Riddle, of Creighton, Neb., who had recently undergone a serious operation. They report her as convalescing nicely, a fact that many friends will be pleased to note. Rev. A. B. Adams moved his household goods here the past week and the family has arrived and they are nicely settled in the M. E. parsonage. He will find among us pleasant and profitable welcome. C. C. Antisdal gave away a pair of shoes after the picture show on last Wednesday evening. Little Elbert Goddard drew the slip with the lucky number and an amusing feature was that his father, S. E. Goddard, held the corresponding number and thus was given the pair of shoes. Mrs. Albert Loring was in Denison last Wednesday shopping and visiting friends. Bernice Bremser was five years old last Wednesday and her mother invited in a number of her little friends to help celebrate the day. The youngsters found many ways of entertaining and at the close of the afternoon all participated in a fine lunch Mrs. Bremser had provided. M. G. Wiggins went to Council Bluffs last Thursday to attend the district conference of the M. E. church. He came up to Woodbine that evening and stopped there to visit at the home of his son, W. H. Wiggins, coming on home Friday. Monroe Goddard, of Davenport, spent Saturday here at the home of his cousin, E. V. Goddard. Mr. Goddard had been to Charter Oak to see his sister, Mrs. Neal, who is ill. W. E. Fisher and W. C. Rolfs spent Sunday in Omaha. Edith Mae Holmes came down from Denison Friday to visit her mother, Mrs. W. W. Holmes, who is taking care of Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggins. The little girl was taken ill and her mother took her home Sunday. Misses Alice Brummer, Emma Saggau and Mildred Moeller and Ralph Holmes, all of Denison, were guests at the Charles Smith home Friday evening. They came down to attend the dance. R. W. Houston and children, Mae and Ben, were in Omaha Wednesday. Mrs. A. H. Rudd went to Deloit on Sunday to spend a day or two with relatives. Tommy Tarkington came up from Portsmouth Sunday to visit at the Art Randel home. Eldon Edwards is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Sr. He has been acting as relief man on the Illinois Central, having recently been at Oto and Cherokee. He expects to leave the early part of the week for Storm Lake to substitute there for a time. Eldon is a capable and reliable young man and the L. C. is recognizing him as such. We are glad to see the young man doing so well. Uncle Daniel Howorth came up from Dunlap Sunday to visit his brother, Edmund Howorth. Mr. and Mrs. Mott McHenry entertained Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Adams and daughter, Eva, at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Tom Manney has returned from Denison, where she has been caring for Mrs. O. B. Petersen and the new baby. Nelson Butler and John O'Meara were passengers to Omaha Monday, and went from there to Sioux City on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rule and daughter, all of Harlan, and John Fadden, of Omaha, were in town Sunday visiting with Grandmother Rule. Miss Celia Hargens went to Moundamin Saturday to spend a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hargens. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley were up from Woodbine Friday to attend the funeral of her brother, Charles Merrick. Miss Phoebe Pett, who attends school in Denison, was here for a week end visit with the home folks. Messrs. Ed and Paul Ahrens were up in Dickinson county last week looking over the farms they expect to move onto next spring. Charley Ahart came down from Denison Saturday to spend Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. N. B. Butler. Virgil Butterworth came up from Woodbine Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Butterworth. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Randel were up from near Dunlap Sunday and visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art S. Randel. Miss Pauline Fischer, of Virginia, Ill., who has been a delightful guest at the E. N. Chamberlain home for the past ten weeks, departed last Saturday for Independence, where she will visit until the holidays. Miss Fischer made many friends here during her stay who will be glad to welcome her again whenever she may come. Mrs. J. C. Saul, of Denison, and Mrs. W. C. Saul, of Carroll, came Friday for an over Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wiggins and daughter, Flora, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Poitevin and children, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wiggins and Mrs. Jeanette Crandall and daughter, Lulu, were entertained at Sunday dinner at the Eugene Crandall home. Mrs. J. F. Potter and daughter, Miss Mamie, were shopping in Omaha Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gullick and son, Leslie, Miss Grace Bamford, all of Denison, and Mrs. S. J. Nelson, of Jefferson, auted down Sunday to visit Aunt Mary McHenry at the Mott McHenry home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barger, of Marion, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Rowe. Mrs. Julia Beck and daughter, Amelia, started Saturday for their home in Denver after an extended visit with her brothers, Adolph and Joe Stepanek. A deal was closed last Thursday whereby Clarence Wilder, of Logan, becomes owner of the former Iseminger residence property. Mr. Wilder and wife will move here soon after the first of the month. We extend them a welcome to our city. Mr. and Mrs. Wilder were former residents here and many old friends will be glad to renew their acquaintance. Mr. and Mrs. F. Lang and Miss Lucy Healy auted to Woodbine Sunday. Miss Florence Miller returned home Saturday from a visit with the Harry Jones family near Charter Oak. The Nathaniel Brundige family moved here last week from Avoca and have moved out northwest of town. Miss Mary Connors came from Vail Sunday to visit her friend, Mrs. P. W. O'Meara. Mesdames George Fritz and Loren Jones spent Sunday with the Dr. Larsen family in Denison. Mrs. Maria Gibson and daughter, Lillie, went to Omaha Wednesday to visit at the Charles Horn home for a day or two. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Howorth spent Saturday and Sunday at the M. B. Bailey home in Dunlap. L. C. Hatch journeyed to Council Bluffs Thursday on a business mission. Mrs. L. E. Butterworth entertained a large company of ladies last Friday afternoon complimentary to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Asa Butterworth, of Little Rock, Ark. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work and social chat, after which a tempting lunch was served. Mrs. Elizabeth Ahart has gone to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Stepanek for an extended visit. Mrs. E. H. Swasey and daughters, Rena and Alice, spent Saturday in Omaha with friends. The L. A. Vore and Will Buss families, Fred Bess' two children and Romanan Holcomb motored to the Jim Hecker home below Dunlap Sunday, where they spent the day and partook of one of Hecker's fine dinners. The Dow City Rebekah lodge is making great plans for the entertainment of the 10th annual convention of this, the twenty-fourth district, which convenes here November 4th. A fine program has been prepared and every thing points to a big time. Frank Honz was up from Logan on Sunday and spent the day at the parental, Adolph Honz, home. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mathys, whose illness was mentioned last week, is not much, if any, improved and the family feels alarmed over its condition. Elijah Justice went to Iowa City last Thursday for a physical examination by the physicians at the medical school. He has been in poor health for some time and his many friends trust that he may receive benefit from his trip. Mrs. I. A. Anderson entertained the Golden Hour club last Wednesday in a unique and pleasing way. The members were requested to come dressed in costume to attend an old fashioned spelling bee. Miss Agnes Goddard was the teacher and was arranged as became her part. There appeared little boys (?) and girls (?) and older ones. Much merriment was created by the different costumes. After the spelling was over Mrs. Anderson brought out lunch baskets for the teacher and students and all enjoyed the repast. Those attending will long remember the day. Miss Irene Smith went to Omaha Saturday to visit friends. Her father and mother went down Sunday and they all returned home together. Two of Will Staller's children were sick the past week. Miss Goida Dow was in Denison on Saturday shopping and visiting with friends. Ned Wilder sprained his wrist so badly last Thursday while cranking his auto that he has been unable to drive the car since. J. A. Gibbs and daughter, Josephine, Miss Lena Barber, Verne Hann and Henry Larson auted over from Harlan Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Lessie Howorth. Miss Barber remained and will spend several days at the Howorth home. The Golden Hour club went out to the pleasant country home of Mrs. Clarence Bryan last Saturday for their regular meeting. An elegant 1 o'clock dinner had been prepared, to which all did ample justice. The usual good social time was enjoyed. W. B. Gibson returned the latter part of the week from a two weeks' hunting trip in northern Nebraska. He found shooting good and says their camp life was certainly fine. Fred Randel has gone to the home of his brother, Roy, near Dunlap to spend the week. The Standard Bearers met with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glassburner last Friday night. After the study of the lesson, of which Mrs. Frank Glassburner had charge, a social hour was enjoyed and a fine lunch served. Mrs. Lessie Howorth entertained about thirty friends at a Kensington last Tuesday afternoon. A very pleasant time was had and all enjoyed the excellent lunch served. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lazarus auted to Omaha Sunday to spend a few days with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang were Denison visitors Saturday. Dr. F. N. Rowe went down to Iowa City last Thursday to attend a home coming of the medical students of the university medical school. He returned the first of the week. Vernon Spence stopped here Sunday on his way home from Omaha, where he had been to see his brother, Arthur, who was so seriously hurt there two weeks ago in an auto accident. He reports his brother much better and gaining gradually with excellent prospects of getting well. Many friends of the Spence family are indeed glad to receive such favorable report of his condition. Butterworth and son, owners of the meat market, have leased 15 acres of E. N. Chamberlain and will move the slaughter house to that land at an early date. The house now stands on the Crandall land northwest of town and the new location is just east of the I. C. stock yards. It will be much more convenient for them. The Palo Alto club met last Saturday with Miss Rosalia Scott. The usual good time was had, an elegant lunch being an enjoyable feature. Word reaches us of the death of Rev. C. L. Baxter, who for six years had been presiding elder of the Council Bluffs district of the Methodist church, death occurring in the Methodist hospital at Des Moines on October 21st as a result of pneumonia. Mr. Baxter was well and favorably known here and his many friends regret to learn of his untimely death. He was the belt of the engine and threw him against the air compressor with such force as to break one rib loose from the breast bone. A physician was summoned and Mr. Reynolds is able to be about, although he has suffered considerably. Wm. Eggers and L. C. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doidge took a trip through Nebraska in Mr. Eggers' car looking at land. The beautiful weather made the trip very enjoyable. Mrs. Doidge stopped at Sioux City on the return trip to visit her sister. One of a car of Greek section men awoke last Wednesday morning to find that a twenty dollar bill that he had tied around his leg in a handkerchief had disappeared. Suspicion fell upon two of another gang who had asked for their time and the marshal was notified. After passing the day in the new jail one of them confessed and led the way to where the money was concealed by a water tank. Mrs. D. J. Butler and daughter, Stella, were guests at a very pleasant party given by Mrs. Hugh Butterworth Thursday. Mrs. Percy Doidge returned from a visit with her sister at Manning Monday.

55 years of age. His wife is the only survivor in his immediate family. He had moved to Des Moines but recently, the last conference making him the head of the Iowa Public Welfare league, of which he was the founder. He was buried at Des Moines. Mrs. George Talcott entertained a company of ladies last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Buss entertained a number of friends at cards last Thursday evening. Tables were arranged for 500. A jolly evening was spent, after which lunch was served. The annual banquet of the M. E. church will be held next Thursday evening, November 5th, at the church. The plan will be slightly different this year from the preceding banquets, in that 25 cents will be charged for each supper, the proceeds to be turned into the fund for a new parsonage. The rest of the affair will be conducted on the same lines as the preceding ones. The outlook for the success of the event is very promising. The committee have their plans all made and are working them out. Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Bryan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glassburner. A decided novelty has been in evidence here, roses of the rambler variety being in full bloom in M. G. Wiggins' yard. Violets are blooming also, and are the red hazy trees in the big park. This is most unusual, but is accounted for on account of the late fall. Art Randel and Ed Ahart auted down to Roy Randel's near Dunlap Monday. Friends of Miss Bessie McDougall will be surprised to learn of her marriage at Virgille, Mont., recently to Mr. Roy F. Keller. Miss Bessie made her home here for several years with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Houston, and has many friends who congratulate her. Sam Passman, a merchant of Charter Oak, received his fine Style 4 Kimball piano from W. A. Healy recently. His brother-in-law, Sam Lipman, one of Sioux City's leading business men, spent Sunday with Mr. Passman and became so attached to the beautiful case and tone of the Kimball piano that he duplicated the order from Mr. Healy, same to be shipped to his home as a present to his daughter, who is an accomplished musician, 43-1. Miss Lou Howorth spent Saturday and Sunday at Council Bluffs. I. B. Hammers, of ElPaso, Ill., spent Sunday with the family of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Nelson. The B. V. P. U. will give a halloween social at the home of Mrs. Bonnell Friday evening of this week. Suitable amusements and refreshments. Admission 10c for expenses.

A Happy Home (Read What Peruna Did)

Mrs. James F. Summit, No. 1006 East Eighth St., Muscatine, Iowa, writes: "My health was so miserable for years that I was practically an invalid. We had no family, owing to my ill health. I was induced to give Peruna a trial, and found very quickly that it was helping me.

I am now well and happy. We have a baby boy, which we believe is the direct consequence of my improved health. He is our first and only child, and if Peruna had not cured me of my ailments we should never have had him. I hope every suffering woman will give Peruna a trial, the same as I have." Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.
