

A Picture

sent to the absent ones now and then, binds the friendship of youth, bridges distance and knits closer the ties of family and kinsfolk. Have you sent one of YOURS lately?

The Ferguson Studio

Items of a Local Kind

Boil the water. Jacob Elzel is reported on the sick list this week. Mrs. George McHenry is reported on the sick list this week. Mr. Schluzg was down from Boyer Monday transacting business. Joe White spent several days last week in Vail visiting relatives. Mr. Ed. Houston was up from Dunlap Monday calling on friends and transacting business. Mr. Fred Peterson was down from Schleswig Monday attending to some business matters. Mr. A. P. Hollander, of Schleswig, was a pleasant county seat business caller on Monday. C. T. Marshall was over from Charter Oak Saturday attending to some business matters. Miss Ella Reinking, of Schleswig, was a guest of Miss Louise Lenz in Denison last week. Mr. J. E. Balle is quite sick this week being laid up with a severe attack of the grippe. Mr. Claus Gottberg, the Schleswig merchant, was in Denison Monday transacting business. Mr. J. B. George, of Omaha, spent Sunday in Denison visiting at the George-McHenry home. Mrs. Isaac Patterson was down from West Side Monday shopping and visiting friends in Denison. J. P. Byrnes, of Jackson township, was in Denison the latter part of the week transacting business. Sheriff H. J. Cummings was in Dunlap last Saturday serving some subpoenas for this term of court. Henry Lenz and sister, Miss Louise, were at Schleswig over-Sunday visiting their sister, Mrs. Chris. Lafrantz. Mrs. Frank Grimes was called to Leon last Thursday on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Emma Bowman. Mrs. C. P. Lorenzen spent several days last week at Vail visiting her husband who is running a drug store there. Maurice O'Connor, of Vail, was among those from out of town in attendance at the James Gaffey funeral on Monday. Miss Mollie Adams and Fae Goin, of Charter Oak, are spending this week in Denison visiting Miss Rhea Cummings. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelley, of Carroll, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy which arrived at their home last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Jacobsen, Mrs. H. F. Bolton and Mrs. A. F. Ariens were in Dow City attending the funeral of Mrs. Harper. Miss Anna Buessing, who is working in Manilla, spent the week end in Denison visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Buessing. Messrs. M. J. Hickey and B. Mitchell prominent farmers of Hayes township, were in Denison Monday attending to some business matters. Mrs. V. C. Peckenpaugh and children returned to their home in Logan Sunday after a few days' visit in Denison with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Curry. The Hugo Gebert residence was released from quarantine Monday as little Frederick, who was suffering from an attack of diphtheria, has entirely recovered. Mrs. Mollie Kuhn, who has been visiting Mrs. F. J. Young in Denison for the past two weeks, departed Saturday for California where she will spend the remainder of the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reinking and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reinking, of Schleswig, stopped off in Denison between trains on Monday. They were on their way to Omaha for a visit with friends.

Chas. Barlicher was in Kiron Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Haugh will entertain at cards this evening. W. W. Cushman was in Dunlap Monday transacting business. The D. A. R. chapter will meet with Mrs. F. J. Young on Tuesday evening of next week. Very Rev. P. F. Farrelly, of Emmetsburg, visited with Rev. Father Farrelly and his sister, Mrs. J. T. Haugh, in Denison last week. The Shakespeare club will meet at the home of Mrs. Marcus Jones Monday evening, February 1st, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Jones being the hostesses. Miss Marguerite Haugh and a large number of relatives of Miss Bid Houlthorn were entertained at a prenuptial shower at the Bryan Houlthorn home Sunday evening. Mr. W. C. Saul returned last Friday from his ranch out near Douglas, Wyo. Mr. and Mrs. Saul expect to leave in the near future for California where they will spend the remainder of the winter. Miss Martha Lenz entertained at dinner Sunday evening in honor of her brother, Albert, and Mr. Fred Peterson, of Hartwig, Minn. A bounteous four course dinner was served which was greatly enjoyed by all. Mrs. W. H. Laub returned Saturday from Jefferson, where she spent several days with her mother, Mrs. I. Austen, who has been very ill. We are pleased to report that Mrs. Laub left her feeling much better. Otto Dresselhaus is back again at work in the Balle-Brodersen store after an illness of two weeks' duration. Otto has been suffering with grippe, which has been going the rounds for the past few weeks. The Denison Auto company have a much needed improvement at their garage on west Broadway. A portion of the partition running east and west across the garage was torn out allowing them much additional space for the display of new machines. Prof. H. F. Volkman was down from Schleswig last Saturday visiting with friends and interviewing school directors in regard to his candidacy for county superintendent of the schools. Prof. Volkman made the Review office a pleasant call while in the city. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McAhren, who have been visiting relatives in Denison for the past ten days, left today for their home in Des Moines. Mr. and Mrs. McAhren contemplate moving to St. Louis City as soon as they can dispose of their residence in Des Moines. Mrs. L. A. Seeman departed Monday morning for Pasadena, Calif., where she goes to attend the wedding of her sister to Mr. J. E. George, of Omaha, which will take place next month. Mrs. Seeman will remain in California with her father, Mr. W. A. McHenry, until spring. The Knights of Pythias have decided to celebrate the 51st anniversary of the founding of the local chapter on February 19th. It has been decided to give a banquet at the Hotel Denison on that program and a program of speech making and music will be indulged in. Julius Balle has been seriously sick since the first of the week and has been compelled to remain indoors. For a time it was feared that his illness might develop into typhoid fever, but it is believed that he is suffering with an attack of the grippe. Mr. C. M. Dybbro, of the Boys' store, expects to leave the last of this week for New York where he will spend ten days or two weeks purchasing spring goods for the store. Mr. Dybbro makes trips to the eastern markets twice a year and keeps in close touch with the new styles in women's ready to wear garments. Miss Marie Rath, who is teaching school up near Schleswig, spent last week in Denison visiting at the parental William Rath home. On account of the extremely cold weather and snow it was found necessary to close her school as the children were unable to get to and from school. She returned Sunday and opened up her school on Monday. The rural carriers are still having some difficulty in making their rounds on account of the big snow drifts. Only two of the seven carriers are able to deliver mail to all the patrons on their routes on account of the bad condition of the roads. The patrons are receiving their mail, however, as it is being left at houses along the routes, where they can ride horseback across the fields and secure it.

Church Notes

Methodist Notes. The topic for the morning sermon on Sunday will be "The Arithmetic of Religion." In the evening sermon, "Three Steps to Salvation" will be presented. Last Sunday evening's service, which closed the series of special meetings held the last three weeks, was very gratifying. There was a large and attentive congregation. The male chorus gave some pleasing and appealing special numbers. At the close of the sermon, upon invitation of the pastor to begin the christian life, eight young people responded. It is felt that much of real personal benefit was received during these meetings by those attending. Next Sunday morning opportunity will be given to join the church by letter or upon profession of faith. Rev. Boyd desires the official board of the church to meet at his home on Friday evening of this week. A list of subscribers to our church "Advocate" is left with Mr. E. C. Chamberlin, where you can settle for your subscription. All names will be sent in for renewal unless advised to the contrary. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet Wednesday, February 3d, at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. L. C. Goodrich. A large attendance of members and visitors is looked for. Watch for announcement by the Baraca class next week. The Boys' Home Guards announce an entertainment to be given by them at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, February 2d. Admission of 25c for adults and 10c and 15c for school children will be charged, the funds to go towards a scholarship of an Indian boy to the Home Guards interested in helping to educate in one of our mission schools. The program under arrangement is going to be worth the price, consisting of an Indian play, music, etc. Your patronage is solicited. The Philathea society added something over $8.00 to their treasury by their candy sale conducted recently. The Queen Esther circle met at the home of Mrs. C. L. Voss on Monday evening. The lesson, which was about the Indian in America, was very interesting and instructive. Mrs. P. W. Harding gave some interesting experiences with the Indians while on a visit in the west. A fifteen cent lunch was served to a large number of visitors and members of the circle, and a goodly sum added to the treasury. Presbyterian Notes. Next Sunday is special young people's day. At 10:30 a. m. "The Choice of a Life Work" will be the subject, and in the evening the service at 7:15 is entirely in the hands of the young people. A special program is being prepared which will be carried out by the young men and young women of the church. You are cordially invited to be present. Remember the Thursday evening service, the studies of personal workers. Watch for a special announcement next week. Baptist Church. Sunday morning service at 10:30. Subject of sermon, "A Trinity of Parasites." Sunday school at 12 noon. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Junior Union at same hour in north vestry. Evening service at 7:30. Subject of sermon, "Intellectual Christianity." Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30. Truth Seekers on Friday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Choir practice after prayer meeting Thursday night. Mrs. P. J. McCullough of Vail, was a pleasant caller in Denison Thursday. Max Moffitt is spending the week in Back Grove visiting at the Jasper Hain home. M. L. Houlthorn was down from Vail Monday attending to some business matters. Mrs. D. Robertson, of Vail, was among the out of town visitors here Monday. Mrs. Pfeiffer, of Council Bluffs, is expected in Denison today for a visit at the R. Knau home. Mrs. Edward McCaffery visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, at Back Grove over Sunday. Mrs. J. J. McWilliams and Mrs. E. F. Giau were in Denison yesterday, being called here to testify in a lawsuit. Mrs. C. L. Voss expects to go down to Jefferson Friday to spend the week end at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. J. Melson. The Willing Workers class of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a bob ride last evening. After the ride the young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Carpenter, where they were served an oyster supper. Dr. Verne G. Graham, physician and surgeon, who located at Deloit the first of the year, is in Denison today transacting business. He is accompanied by Mr. W. A. Steuck, the Deloit druggist. They made the Review office a pleasant call and left an order for some stationery. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McAndrews entertained forty friends at cards Tuesday night in honor of Miss Bridget Houlthorn and Joe Berne, whose marriage takes place February first. Mr. Berne held a high score and was given a broom to sweep his troubles away, and Miss Houlthorn a dainty basket to remind her of the responsibilities of a home. Mrs. Joe Goss and Miss Mary J. McCarthy gave a number of vocal and instrumental solos, after which Mrs. McAndrews served a dainty two course luncheon. Miss Margaret Goss, of Chicago, was an out of town guest. The Boys' Home Guards society of the Methodist church will give an entertainment at the high school building on Tuesday evening, February 2d. Admission 10 cents for children under twelve years of age; 15 cents for children over twelve, and 25 cents for adults.

Classified Advertising

FOR SALE - TO RENT - TO EXCHANGE - Five Cents Per Line Each Insertion. No Ad for Less Than Fifteen Cents. Card of Thanks Fifty Cents

FOR SALE - 1-2 acres in city limits of Denison. Fruit of all kinds; hard and soft water. Enquire at this office. 38-1t. FOR SALE - 3 first class yearling Shropshire rams. Good ones, in care of Brodersen or Oakwood farm 3 miles west of Denison. 47-1t. FOR SALE - I have for sale some choice thoroughbred Polled Durham bulls. Inquire of A. C. Lochmiller, Phone 23-1. 2-1t. Photographs 10 cents per dozen. This price till I change my mind. Come now. New gallery over Lamborn Drug Store. 3-1t. For Sale at a Bargain: 160 acres well improved farm, 4 1/2 miles from Denison. All good farm land and in good locality, close to school. Must be sold quick. Inquire at this office. 4-1t. Leave your orders for screens with us now while we have time to make them. Paup & Heiden. 4-1t. The Review and Chicago Daily Tribune, 1 year only $4.00. 4-1t. Short Horn Bulls For Sale. Serviceable age. All reds. Any one interested call at my place one-half mile south of Herring. Owned and operated by F. W. Weed. 1-7t. pd. For Sale. Shorthorn and Double Standard Polled Durham bulls, from 6 to 38 months old; these are broad back, beefy fellows. Will also price a few heifers. Farm, Sec. 25, Washington township. Phone 30-M or 30-Z, Arlon, C. F. Chase, Buck Grove. 5-1t. For Sale. At a bargain, one modern 8 room house, equipped with all late improvements. Call and see me if you want to buy a good home. I also have several good, well located residence lots for sale. J. P. Jones. 2-1t. For hides Geo. Kaplan pays from 13 to 15 cents for cattle hides. Horse hides from $3.00 to $4.00. He wants all he can get. 4-1t. FOR RENT - Unfurnished rooms for housekeeping. 208 S. Locust St. Mrs. Theo. Walker. 4-1t. Call 82 for furniture repairing. Will call for and deliver. Paup & Heiden. 4-1t. MISCELLANEOUS. FOR RENT - Small frame building just north of the Review building, and across the street from new postoffice. Enquire at the Review office. 46-1t. Registered Short Horn Bulls for sale. P. W. Weber, Denison, Iowa. Phone 15-1. 48-1t. A good position for a good girl for general housework at good wages. Inquire at Review Office. 1-1t. FOUND - Pair of gold rimmed spectacles near Northwestern station. Owner may have same by inquiring at this office and paying for this ad. 3-1t. Friday, February 12th, is the day to see Dr. Weber, the eye and ear doctor who cures, at Hotel Denison. Examination free. 4-2t. SALESMEN WANTED to look after our interest in Crawford and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address The Victor Oil Co., Cleveland, O. 4-1t. pd. LOST - Roll of bills amounting to $80, on streets of Denison Tuesday. Finder please return to Review office and receive reward. 4-1t. pd.

In Social Circles

The German Priscilla club met at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Lehfeltd on Monday afternoon. The meeting was in the nature of a surprise being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lehfeltd. Afternoon was spent with fancy work and later a very dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Henry Saggau was delightfully surprised on Saturday evening when about ten young lady friends gathered at her pleasant new home in East Denison to spend the evening. After a jolly time spent in social conversation, a delicious lunch which had been prepared by the guests, was served. Mrs. Saggau was presented with a beautiful cut glass dish which carried with it the best wishes of her friends for a happy future. On Sunday at the E. Houlthorn home Mesdames Bryan and Mart Houlthorn entertained about sixty of the friends of Mr. Joe Berne and Miss Bid Houlthorn in honor of the approaching marriage. A feature of the evening was a miscellaneous shower, each gift accompanied by some original poetry. A mock wedding and other games entertained the guests until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses after which the guests departed for home in several bob sleds. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steensen entertained twenty-six of their friends on Monday evening at their pleasant home in Goodrich township, the occasion being the twelfth birthday of their daughter, Miss Lillie. An elegant four course dinner was served at seven o'clock and at midnight the guests enjoyed another light lunch. The decorations of pink and white were very dainty and pretty and added much to the charm of the dinner. The evening was spent with fancy work, and guessing games and the guests departed at a late hour voting the hostesses a very delightful entertainer and expressing the wish that they might meet together again in so pleasant a manner. The K. K. Club were royally entertained last evening by Miss Minnie Rimsland at the home of Miss Margaret Clark. From all reports it was a most pleasant meeting. The P. E. O.'s will meet at the home of Mrs. Philbrook on Friday evening. Miss Agnes King and Mrs. Philbrook will be hostesses for the meeting. The Woman's club will hold their annual banquet at the club room on February 3d. The Teachers' club were entertained at the Strahan home Saturday evening, when the usual good time was enjoyed. Trinity Guild was nicely entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George McHenry. The members met this week Wednesday with Mrs. Philbrook. Mrs. George McHenry entertained eight of the younger married ladies at a 5 o'clock tea on Thursday complimentary to Mrs. Milton McAhren, of Des Moines. As a courtesy to Mrs. Milton McAhren, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson entertained four couples at supper Monday evening. Mrs. Frank Woolston will entertain the Coterie club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Milton McAhren was the honored guest at an informal tea given by Mrs. J. E. Balle Monday afternoon. The H. H. club will meet Thursday evening with Miss Genevieve Richards as hostess. The S. S. club has postponed its guest night until next Monday, when they will meet in the club room for a banquet and fine program. (Miss Jenna Strahan will act as chairman of the menu committee. The Kilcare club was very elegantly entertained by Miss Rimsland on Tuesday evening. The A. B. C. met with Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson Tuesday evening and enjoyed the usual jolly game of bridge. Delicious refreshments were served after the game. Mr. and Mrs. Milton McAhren, of Des Moines, were out of town guests. Mrs. E. W. Pierce entertained the members of the Philathea Sunday school class at an elegant dinner at her home on Tuesday evening. Following the dinner the business of the class was carried on, including election of officers. The meeting was en-

Do not forget to take a bottle of White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup home with you when in the city. Call at Schlumberger's Pharmacy. The Review and Chicago Daily Tribune, 1 year only $4.00. Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

Are You Protected Against Fire? Insurance Without Additional Expense. Get Our Rates - THE LOWEST Service - THE BEST Our Policy - MOST LIBERAL. We represent a few of the largest companies doing business in this state. We write all lines - Fire, Lightning, Windstorms, Tornadoes, Accident, Health, Life, Compensation, Bonds. Get our Dwelling House policy - none better - liberal coverage. We cover everything - adjust our own losses. Let us know when your policies expire and we will be pleased to show you how to get the most coverage for the money. The Office With The Service RICHARDSON BROS. Collections Loans New McCarthy Building

Grocery Special for this week. No. 2 cans peas, sell regularly for 15c per can, special for this week at 2 cans for 21c. No. 2 can sugar corn, 3 cans for 21c. Large pails Dark Karo Syrup, regularly sold at 50c per pail, priced for this week at, per pail 43c. Dried peaches of an extra fancy quality priced for this week at 3 lbs. for 25c. Cocoa, Buttermilk, Oatmeal and Witchhazel toilet soap. This soap is put up 3 cakes to a box, priced at, per box 10c. Fancy California Navel Oranges, sweet and juicy, priced at, per doz. 14 1/2 to 29c. Western Black Twig Apples. This is one of the most delicious eating apples grown, priced for this week at, per peck 56c. Candy Special Saturday Evening Host Chocola tes, put up in one pound boxes specially priced at, per box 28c. Meat Special for this week Fresh Pork Butts, per lb. 12 1/2c. Fresh Hog Liver, per lb. 5c. Milt Delicious Cream Cheese, specially priced, per lb. 19 3/4c. Menagh's Store

How is Your Supply of Fuel? Our bins are well filled with the best grades of fuel that we could find, and we will take great pleasure in transferring it to your bins. Hard Coal, in three sizes. Sunnyside Washed Egg, in three sizes. Virginia Splint. Wonderland Lump. Peerless Semi-Anthracite Lump. Boone Lump. Petroleum Coke. Acme Nut, the COAL THAT MAKES NO SOOT. Acme Coal burns like wood and we guarantee it will not make any soot. Try it and if you are not satisfied we will take it away and not charge you anything for what you have burned. Send us your next order for any kind of fuel. Phone No. 7. The Stewart Lumber Co.