Henry Clausen.

One of the big sales advertised in this week's issue of the Review is the sale of Henry H. Clausen. Mr. Clausen has decided to quit farming and wishes to dispose of his property. His sale will be held on Thursday, February 11th, and should draw a large crowd of buyers as he is offering 8 head of good horses, 60 head of cattle, 30 head of shoats and a fine lot of farm machinery. Read over his announcement and plan to attend.

David W. Anderson Sale.

Mr. David W. Anderson, who has been renting the Olaf Larson farm located 3 miles south of Kiron, is comelled to sell his property as the farm has been sold and the new owner is to take possession March 1st. Mr. Anderson's sale will be held on Tuesday, February 9th, and should draw a good crowd of buyers for his stuff in fine condition. He has listed 59 head of live stock, consisting of 9 head of horses, 21 head of cattle, 25 hogs, 12 sows. The horses are the main attraction of this sale for they are all young and well broken. Erne & Reinking will cry this sale. Be sure to read his announcement on another page of this issue.

Poland China Sale.

Crawford county farmers who want to build up Poland China herds will be interested in the announcement of Frank Rainier, who will hold his annual sale of bred sows and gilts at the sale pavilion at Logan on Wednesday, February 10th. Here is a sale that will draw a big crowd for Mr. Rainier has a reputation of having some of the best there is in the Poland China strain. He is going to sell 25 bred sows and 12 gilts, some of which are bred to that noted big type boar, Chief Price Agam.

J. G. Harrington Sale.

Mr. J. G. Harrington, who lives on the Otto Kruse farm in Section 29, Hayes township, located 6 miles south and three-quarters of a mile east of Vail, is announcing in this issue a sale to be held on next Monday, February 8th. Here is one of the big sales of the season and will doubtless attract a big crowd of buyers. He is listing 9 head of horses, 56 head of cattle, 24 head of hogs and some farm machinery. His horses are the kind that should find a ready market. The hogs are Chester White brood sows, all bred to a pure bred Chester White boar, and are due to farrow in April. Boys, here is a sale that you cannot afford to miss. Be sure and read his announcement over carefully.

Nathan N. Cole Sale.

Another good sale advertised in this week's issue of the Review is that of Nathan N. Cole, who is living on the Keller farm 5 miles southeast of Denison. This sale will be held on Thursday, February 11th, commencing at 11 o'clock sharp. He is listing 9 head of good horses, 10 head of cattle, 45 head of hogs and some good farm machinery. Read his advertisement over and plan to attend.

C. E. Parrish Sale.

Mention was made in the last issue of the Review of the C. E. Parrish sale which is to be held on Tuesday, February 9th, on the John Reimers farm, located 2 miles north of Denison on the Deloit road. This sale is one of the largest advertised thus far this season and will doubtless draw a big crowd of buyers. Mr. Parrish has decided to quit farming and will move to Denison, where he is building a new home. In all he is listing 136 head of live stock. One of the attractions of this sale is a fine lot of horses; then he has a nice bunch of cattle, 35 head in all. He will also sell 20 Poland China brood sows, 1 Poland China boar and 70 head of shoats. A fine line of farm machinery goes to make up the balance of this good sale. Mr. Parrish is a firm believer in newspaper advertising and is using a half page ad in this issue of the Review. Read his announcement over carefully and plan to be on hand Tuesday, February 9th.

Henry Lafrentz Sale.

A new sale announcement appearing in this issue is that of Henry Lafrentz, who lives 3 miles east of Schleswig. Mr. Lafrentz has decided to quit farming and will move to Schleswig. His sale will be held on February 10th, commencing promptly at 10 o'clock. He is listing 10 head of exceptionally good horses; 44 head of cattle, 70 brood sows, 40 tons of hay, farm machinery, household goods, etc. Read over his announcement carefully and plan to attend this big sale.

Edward W. Spahn Sale.

Mr. Edward W. Spahn is announcing in this issue a public sale to be held on Thursday, February 18th. Mr. Spahn is living on a farm located 4 1/2 miles north of Schleswig and has rented a smaller farm and for this reason is holding an auction sale to dispose of his property. It will be noticed in his announcement that he is offering for sale 13 head of horses. Most of these horses are good young ones, well adapted for farm work. Farmers who are in need of horses should by all means attend this sale. Another attraction of this sale is the fine lot of cattle, 53 head in all, 46 head of which are Herefords, 7 black Aberdeen Angus, 7 good milk cows, 5 two year old heifers, 1 yearling heifer, 23 calves, 7 choice Hereford bulls, 7 black heifers. He is also selling 37 hogs, consisting of 14 fall pigs and 23 shoats; 1200 bushels of corn in crib, 300 bushels of oats and a nice line of farm machinery go to make up the balance of this sale. Boys, here is a sale you can't afford to miss. Read the announcement and remember the date—Thursday, February 18th.
