Hattie Voss and Glennie Hennesman of Denison, arrived in West Side Friday evening for a visit at the Aug. Voss home. Miss Hanneman returned home Saturday and Miss Voss spent part of the day at Vail at the Petersen home. Miss Emma Steffen, of Lakefield, Minn., visited at the M. J. Campbell home Thursday. John Moore sold hogs to Voss Saturday. John F. Scheldorf, of Egan, S. D., spent Saturday in West Side. Mr. Scheldorf had been to Sioux City with cattle. Mrs. John Dellef and children, Ralph and Amanda, were Carroll shoppers Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Campbell, of Boone, arrived Saturday for a visit with relatives in West Side. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiese Saturday, Jan. 23rd, twin boys. The one twin only lived a short time. Mrs. Wiese's mother arrived Sunday from Nebraska to help care for her. Otto Vetter, of Arcadia, marketed 20 head of hogs to Aug. Voss Tuesday. They averaged 310 pounds and sold for $4.50 per hundred. The second number of the Lecture course was given at the Germania hall Tuesday evening, which was the "Musical Maids." The young ladies pleased their hearers greatly, but on account of the bad roads and weather, the crowd was not very large. A game of basket ball was played between West Side high school and Denison college Friday evening at the Germania hall. The game was very interesting, the score being so close. Denison kept ahead until the latter part of the last half when the West Side boys began to hustle. The score was 21 to 23 in favor of West Side. Not a very large crowd was in attendance. The masquerade was held at the Germania hall Saturday evening. The masked ones were mostly clowns. The prizes were awarded to 1st, Mrs. Sam Kemp and Miss Josie Walsh; 2nd, Mrs. Jas. Nickelsen and Mrs. A. J. Kelley; 3rd, Adolph Mumm and Mrs. Henry Mumm. 4th, Ida Glasscock and Margaret O'Brien, 5th, Grace Martens and Valentine McGarvey, 6th, Henry Evers and Earl Moeller. Dohse's orchestra furnished the music. Miss Estella Peters spent over Sunday at the parent's J. H. C. Peters home. Art Brotherson hauled hogs to Voss Thursday. Mrs. Al. Starek visited friends at Vail Tuesday. J. B. Malloy returned from Red Oak Friday, where he has been visiting his brother, Bill Malloy. Bill has bought a farm of 320 acres at $160 per acre near Red Oak, and will move on it in the spring. He traded in his farm in southern Iowa. A fire meeting was held Wednesday evening. Some of the members who had been in the company from 10 to 20 years stepped out and let the younger ones take their places. They have all done faithful service, the company of twenty men being organized in 1895. Those who stepped out are Henry Mumm, Peter Sievers, Emil Evers, A. J. Kelley Ernest, Spottswood, Henry Moeller, Jake Mumm and Jas. Nickelsen. The ones who took their places are Elmer Martens, Virtus Evers, Roy Moeller, Harn Kruse, Frank Campbell, George Mumm Lafe Evers and Aug. Bornhoff. A masquerade was held at the Five mile house Wednesday evening and is reported to have been quite well attended. Aug. Voss shipped a carload of hogs to Chicago Tuesday and Thursday. Mrs. Grace Sprecher, of Denison, attended the installation of officers at the Eastern Star Wednesday evening. E. J. Peters returned from Chicago Wednesday where he was on a business errand. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Spottswood and son left for their new home at Mapleton Friday. They will be greatly missed by everyone in West Side and we wish them happiness in their new home. W. N. Walters and family have moved into the residence vacated by the Spottswood family. Herman Anthony shipped a carload of hogs to Omaha Thursday. Jas. Nickelsen, Henrietta Dohse, Mrs. John Bornhoff Sr. and Mrs. George Campbell passed another milestone Monday, January 25th. Two very pretty wedding celebrations took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joachim Noelk on Wednesday when their daughter, Annet and Hannes Herman were united in marriage and their daughter, Mary and Wm. Thies also. They were married at the Lutheran church at Arcadia by Rev. Englert. Miss Dose, of Danbury, was the brides maid for Mary Noelk and William Thies and Aug. Noelk was best man. Both Mr. and Mrs. Thies are well known in and around West Side. Mr. Thies is an industrious farmer and well worth the lady of his choice. Mr. and Mrs. Thies will reside on a farm near Denison.

We wish them all of life's happiness. Miss Emma Noelk and Henry Herman acted as bridesmaid and best man for Mr. and Mrs. Herman. These young people are also well and favorably known in and around West Side. They will reside on the Lange farm, south of town recently vacated by the Pierce family. We wish them happiness and prosperity through life's rugged ways. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moeller spent a few days the last week at Omaha. Henry Hansman and son, Henry, have returned from the hospital at Omaha where they have been taking treatments. John Stratman and Bill Ewalt were in Omaha last week and bought four carloads of hay. Henrietta Dohse suffered this week from a severe attack of appendicitis together with the measles. The little lady is now on the road to Wellville. Shipments made to Chicago Saturday were: Julius Hago, 1 car of hogs; C. Dohler 1 car of hogs, John Goetch 2 cars of cattle, Bill Goetch 2 cars of cattle. Mrs. John Kruse is reported to be on the sick list. Her mother, Mrs. Olive, of Scranton, is taking care of her. Gus. Brocksen and daughter, Margaret were Omaha shoppers Saturday. Alfred Rolwer, of Denison, has been wiring houses in West Side the past week. Mrs. Fred Boock is reported to be on the sick list. Ed. Peters was a Carroll business caller Monday. Herman Martens, John Stratman and Bill Ewalt together shipped a carload of hogs to Omaha Monday. Herman and Louie Martens went with the shipment. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brotherson celebrated the anniversary of their wedding Friday evening. Many neighbors and friends spent a pleasant evening at the Brotherson home. Otto Passick sold hogs to Voss Monday. Miss Mary Detbarn celebrated her birthday Sunday. A large crowd of young folks were royally entertained at the Detbarn home. John Steinhauer, of Arcadia, visited friends in West Side Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Starek spent Monday shopping in Omaha. Chris Kratt is treating his postoffice to a fine new coat of paint which greatly adds to the looks of his ever neat little office. Henry Lamp sold 30 head of hogs to Aug. Voss Tuesday. John Stratman celebrated his birthday Tuesday at his home south of town. Mr. and Mrs. Stratman are known to be excellent entertainers, and always do justice to their record. Herman Buck received a car of cattle from Omaha Monday. It is proposed to have a law making it a misdemeanor to carry a voter to the polls unless he is physically unable to walk. But it would probably still be legal to give a voter of the other party a ride out into the country election day.

BOYER VALLEY ITEMS (Held over from last week) Will, John, Luella and Kathryn Murphy were at Vail, visiting relatives and they attended the dance while there. Miss Ruby Smith has been sick the past week, but is better at this writing. Mr. Bert Smith was a business visitor in Omaha Tuesday and Wednesday. A beautiful wedding occurred at the home of Nels Nelson when their daughter, Cora, was united in marriage to Alfred Olson. Mrs. Olson is a charming young lady and has a host of friends. Mr. Olson is one of our most industrious young farmers. They will be at home to their many friends on their home farm north of Dunlap. The surprise dance that was to have been at Franz Weber's, Saturday night was postponed till later on account of bad weather. Miss Ethel Wilbur and the pupils of Dist. No. 8, Willow, are working on a play. Going to be something doing, boys and girls. J. W. Knight sold one car of hogs to Plato Dunham Saturday. Jas. Houston Jr., who attends school in Denison, spent the week end at the parental home. Fred Wilbur and son, Lloyd, seem to be keeping a good record at wolf hunting. They captured two old, large wolves last week. This makes Mr. Wilbur 58 wolves in about ten years. Let the good work go on. Thomas Lang, who has been sick for some time, is no better at this writing. Mr. Lang, who was shot some time ago, had to have the wound opened and dressed again. We hope for his speedy recovery. Mrs. Winnie Sweet was a passenger to Denison this week. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rudloff, of Dunlap, spent the week end at the Fred Christiansen home. They will make their future home at Mitchell, S. D. W. D. Nurse shipped hogs to Omaha last week. Fritz Weck returned home after an extended trip to various points in Oregon. The William Cook children are quite sick with scarlet fever. We hope to hear of their recovery soon. Miss Marie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Houston, has been quite sick the past week. Word was received in this vicinity of the death of Jas. Gaffey, of Denison. Mr. Lloyd Wilbur was a business caller in Denison last week. E. W. Houston attended the funeral of Jas. Gaffey in Denison Monday. Helen Houston spent a few days with the home folks while the sisters were taking the examinations in Logan. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and daughter, Ruth, were Sunday callers at t. Fred Christiansen home. Mr. J. W. Knight attended the fun eral of Mrs. Adron. She was his aunt. Mrs. Adron was an old resident of Dunlap. A number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Martin Barrett, of Dunlap. Harold Nurse was a caller on the Boyer Sunday. Wm. Rannells Sr. passed away Saturday at his home about 5 miles north of Dunlap. The funeral will be from the M. E. church in Dunlap. He leaves six children to mourn his death. Mr. Edgar Rannells, of Dunlap, Miss Anna Rannells, of Dunlap, Miss Minnie Rannells, of Chicago, JH. Mr. Luther Rannells, of Dunlap and Mr. Arthur Rannells, of Dunlap. One daughter and his wife preceded him to his grave. The remains were laid to rest in the pleasant hill cemetery beside his wife. Miss Ruth Hall was a Sunday visitor at the John Roth home south of Dunlap. Mrs. Fred Christiansen and daughter, Emma, were passengers to Omaha Saturday. Mrs. Otto Miller, better known as Anna Christiansen, was a visitor at Ute. Miss Anna Mesebrink spent Sunday at the Christiansen home. Though wheat is at $1.45 a bushel, some farmer's boys see more money in clerking in a dry goods store at $8 per week. Let not the landlady expect she can put grape fruit over on the boarders now they are so cheap. Effect of Great Kidney Remedy is Soon Realized I feel it my duty to let you know what Swamp-Root did for me. I was bothered with my back for over twenty years and at times I could hardly get out of bed. I read your advertisement and decided to try Swamp-Root. Used five bottles, and it has been five years since I used it, and I have never been bothered a day since I took the last bottle of it. I am thoroughly convinced that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root cured me and would recommend it to others suffering as I did. My husband was troubled with kidney and bladder troubles and he took your Swamp-Root and it cured him. This was about five years ago. You may publish this letter if you choose. Very truly yours, MRS. MATTIE CAMPFIELD, R. F. D. No. 2, Gobleville, Mich. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of July, 1909. ARVIN W. MYERS, Notary Public, for Van Duren Co., Mich. Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do for You Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Denison Weekly Review. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

LINES IN THE FACE Make Women Look Old and they show the effect of unnatural sufferings—of headaches, back-aches, dizziness, hot flashes, pains in lower limbs, pains in groins, bearing-down sensations. These symptoms indicate that Nature needs help. Overwork, wrong dressing, lack of exercise, and other causes have been too much for nature—and outside aid must be called upon to restore health and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription The Vegetable Remedy for Women's Ills that relieves nervous exhaustion and irritability and removes other distressing symptoms due to disturbed conditions of the delicate feminine organism. For over forty years it has been used with more than satisfaction by the young, middle-aged and the elderly—by wives, mothers and daughters. You will find it of great benefit. Sold by Medicine Dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 50 one-cent stamps for trial box by mail. DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS Relieve constipation, regulate the liver, and bowels. Easy to take as candy.
