Mrs. Dave Miller has been sick for a week or more and is still confined to her bed.

Frank Wiley and E. G. Wiggins returned to Denison Monday morning after spending Sunday with their families. They are serving as petit jurors.

Frank Howarth returned Friday from Omaha, where he has spent the past several weeks while convalescing from an operation for appendicitis. He doesn't look any too well, but it is said that he is gaining right along, so his family is much encouraged. And he will probably pick up much faster in his own home and surroundings than among strangers.

Mrs. Zibe Nurse came up from Dunlap Monday to see her grandmother, Mrs. Dave Miller, who is ill.

Mrs. McElroy and grandson, of Dunlap, spent a day or two at the Ed Mesenbrink home last week.

Born on Monday, April 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Bryan, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Jordan spent a few days last week in Council Bluffs with relatives.

About twenty of the members of the Baptist church gathered at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Nelson last Wednesday evening for a farewell party before the departure of the Nelson family. It was intended to be a surprise, but the news of their coming reached the good people before the guests arrived, but it did not take away any of the pleasure of the event. After a social evening light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were presented with a beautiful berry spoon as a token of their people's regard. Many expressions of regret were heard concerning the removal of the Nelson family. As yet no arrangements have been completed for a preacher to succeed Mr. Nelson.

Mrs. E. P. Williams was down from Denison Sunday and filled the pulpit at the Baptist church. Mrs. W. A. Nelson will have charge of the prayer meeting next Thursday evening.

from the Willow Monday visiting with friends.

The Will Sharp family have moved to Aunt Lucy Gott's house in the east part of town.

Mrs. Steve Carbaugh visited relatives in Denison Saturday.

The serial, "The Master Key," was concluded last Friday evening. Of the several serials shown here this was the most popular of all. The management has secured "The Black Box," which will begin here Friday, April 30th. It has thirty reels and will thus run the fifteen consecutive weeks, and we predict that this will be no less popular than "The Master Key." On the two Friday evenings intervening good shows have been arranged for. On the 16th, "The Tenth Commandment" will be shown in three reels, and on the 23d "America" in seven reels.

Mark Riley was in Denison Sunday to get his car, which has been in the garage undergoing an overhauling.

The W. F. M. S. met last Wednesday with Mrs. Ed Riddle. After a sumptuous 1 o'clock dinner the study of the lesson was taken up. About twenty-five were present. Mrs. Brin-ton Sharp and Mrs. Dave Bremser assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Word comes from Bruce S. D., of the death of Grandma Waters at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Carson. Her illness had been of about two weeks' duration. The body will be brought here for burial. The obituary will appear next week.

R. H. Fishel has installed an electric piano in his place of business, the same being purchased through W. A. Healy, the Kimball agent, and the instrument arrived Monday.

W. C. Rolla has resigned as a member of the council and that body at its session Monday evening elected J. A. Scott to fill the vacancy. Mr. Scott has accepted and has been sworn in. He has served a number of terms in this office and thus knows the ins and outs of it. Our people are much pleased with the selection. However, they regret Mr. Rolla's resignation. The council also appointed Charley Bybee as street commissioner, but it seems as though Mr. Bybee is being over-worked as long as he is already the marshal, nightwatch and relief man at the plant.

The Willard Jackson family were up from Shelby county Sunday spending the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jackson.

Virgil Butterworth came down from Charter Oak Saturday evening. On Sunday he went to Woodbine to spend the day with his family. He expects to move his household goods to the Oak at an early date.

She was hurriedly picked up and brought to town. Although no bones were broken, she was frightfully bruised. She was taken to her home Sunday.

About twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Graul tendered them a surprise last Friday evening, the occasion being the forty-third anniversary of their marriage. The evening was spent in social conversation, after which a two course lunch, which the guests had provided, was served.

Joe Best traded his hardware stock and fixtures for 40 acres of land lying one and a half miles from Grable, Mr. Brunago, of Missouri Valley, being the new owner. The store was closed Monday while invoicing, and the stock will be moved to Missouri Valley. Mr. Best will continue in the implement business as heretofore, but he found the carrying of both lines too much for the help he had. The land is unimproved.

It looks at present as though Dow City would not have a baseball team this year on account of not having a man to play. Ed Riddle is plowing up the field used the past two seasons and Gene Crandall is plowing up the old one near the city park.

The district teachers' meeting was held here in the high school rooms last Saturday afternoon, Prof. C. W.

Manning presiding, and the following program was rendered:

Music—High School Girls' Chorus. Duet—Erma Chamberlain and Marcus McCord.

The increase this spring in the number of applications for automobile licenses suggests that there must be a great many people who are willing to loan money.

Some one asks what has become of the man who used to take a day off in spring and set out a lot of trees all along the highway? Well, just now he is telephoning to the local authorities to come up and set out a tree that will shade his front porch at public expense.

It is claimed that the postage stamps now being used don't have a good flavor. The stenographer says the government should give a choice of vanilla, strawberry and chocolate flavors.

Victoriana Huerta is reported as sailing for New York, but it is not known that President Wilson has yet invited him to occupy the guest room at the white house.

It is suspected that the success of sales for the benefit of the Belgian sufferers is not due so much to the excellence of the cause as to the prettiness of the girls who tend the booths.

In these extravagant times your best girl is no longer satisfied with a treat consisting of a jitney bus ride costing five cents.

To some people the worst horror of war is not so much the list of killed and wounded as the tendency in Europe toward prohibition.

Little Pigs Need Sunshine

U. S. Farmers' Bulletin No. 438 says, "The piggery must have (1) direct sunshine on floor of every pen at farrowing time, (2) fresh air, (3) warmth, (4) freedom from drafts, (5) dryness, and (6) enough space for exercise."

Building Hog Houses Right

makes hog raising more profitable. The notion that anything is good enough for hogs, is out of date. There is no animal on the farm which requires better protection from the cold—nor for which a good bed is more necessary.

Calves and colts have good fur coats to protect them from the cold, but a pig has almost nothing between his skin and the weather.
