

DOW CITY ITEMS

At the meeting of the alumni association recently plans were laid for the handling of banquet as well as the publishing of the new paper, "The Alumni Annual." The appointment of the following committees assures the success of the banquet program: Mildred Butterworth, Bryce Binnall and Horace Thomas; banquet, Mrs. Blanche Seemann, Mrs. Alma Bremser and Mrs. Nettie Goddard; decoration, Dan Killek, Horace Thomas, Ora Butterworth, Bessie Alexander and Maude Brake; invitation, Joe Hollowell, Agnes Goddard, Elmer Riddle, L. C. Hatch has been awarded the work of publishing the new paper, the following having charge: E. R. Glassburner, editor in chief; Elmer Riddle, business manager; senior class editor, Jean Noland; athletic editor, Hugh Butterworth; local alumni editor, Bryce Binnall; out of town editor, Lois Goddard; executive committee, E. G. Wiggins, Fred Glassburner, Elmer Riddle, Mrs. Virginia Hatch and Mrs. Rena McBride, with Mrs. Hatch as secretary. Miss Maude Brake has hosted last Saturday to the Palo Alto club, about twenty-five being present to enjoy the afternoon with this popular hostess. The rooms were beautiful with cut flowers, sweet peas, carnations, American beauty roses and violets being used for decorations. In a guessing game, the floral wedding, Miss Letta Coryell captured first prize, a china plate. Mrs. Hugh Butterworth won first prize in another contest and was awarded a china cup and saucer. Fortune telling proved an interesting pastime. At the afternoon's close an elegant two course luncheon was served and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Florence Carl was down from Denison Sunday visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Langley. Miss Flora Wiggins was up from Woodbine Sunday, spending the day at the parental, M. G. Wiggins, home. Miss Pauline Phoebe, who has served as trier in Miss Healy's millinery parlors during the season, departed Saturday for her home at St. Paul, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. James Baber, Jr. and little folks returned Monday morning from an over Sunday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Beard, in Dunlap. Robert Hunt, accompanied by Bryce Binnall, autoed to Woodbine Sunday to spend the day with the former's relatives. R. W. Houston did a land office business in auto sales last week, selling a Ford to Reub Malone and a Studebaker to Fred Nelson. He has a number of other sales practically completed, but is unable to get the cars fast enough to supply the demand. The auto trade has opened up here with a better outlook than any previous year. Miss Josephine Munsy and Grace Edwards went to Denison Saturday to visit relatives and friends, returning home Sunday. Friends here have received the announcement from Caldwell, Kansas of the birth of a daughter recently to Mr. and Mrs. Bern Blair. Bern's friends here congratulate. Mrs. George Reynolds and Mrs. Lynn Rood were down from Arion Saturday patronizing our merchants. Mr. Charles D. Horn and children came up from Omaha Friday evening for an over Sunday visit with her mother, Mrs. Sol Gibson. Charley Miller went to Cherokee on Friday to spend a couple of days with a friend. He went down to Carroll Monday to attend the big Odd Fellow doings, returning home Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Pratt, of Sioux Falls, S. D., visited her relatives, the Butterworth families, here last week. Fred Eland was up from Council Bluffs for a week and visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Milo Kelly. Miss Gladys Igou and Jennie Cornelius were having dental work done in Dunlap Wednesday. Mrs. Marion Cole was shopping and visiting relatives in Denison Saturday. Miss Wave Cross, who teaches in Shelby county, was week end visitor here with her mother, Mrs. Sabina Cross. Dr. J. F. Potter and wife and daughter, Babina, spent the day Saturday in Omaha. Mrs. R. G. Luke has returned from London, Canada, where she was called several weeks ago on account of the illness and death of her sister. Miss Esther Turnlund went to Woodbine Saturday to visit with her friend, Miss Flora Wiggins, returning home Sunday. Mrs. Ed Brogden and mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, were down from Denison Saturday to see their friend, Mrs. G. W. Langley, who has been ill. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara and Miss Lois Goddard autoed to Buck Grove Thursday, calling at the Jack Welsh home to see Uncle Tom White, who has recently returned from Sioux City. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Honz enjoyed a visit from their son, Frank, who came up from Logan Sunday to spend the day with them. Shorty Petcoff and wife arrived last week from Grand Island, Neb., where they visited the latter's parents. They have rented rooms over the Randel bakery and have gone to housekeeping. Mr. Petcoff will be remembered as shoe repair man who worked at Luke's harness shop last year. He was married recently in South Dakota and he and his bride have returned here to make their home. We cordially welcome them and trust they may find their path of life lies along pleasant ways. A. E. Loring came up from Omaha Saturday evening and spent Sunday at home. He is well satisfied with his work with the Fairbanks Morse company. Mrs. Alleman was down from Cedar Rapids a few days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Milo Kelly. Mrs. Clark Best returned Wednesday evening from Neligh, Neb., where she had gone to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Fink. The Fink family lived many years between here and Defiance and thus the family was well known throughout the country southeast of here. Their friends will regret to learn of the old gentleman's death. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Norman went to Dunlap Friday to attend the funeral of a friend. Mrs. Frank Woolston and daughter were down from Denison Saturday, spending the day at the Mott McHenry home. Nelson Butler came over Saturday from Manning, where he has been working at the electrical business for several weeks, and spent Sunday at home. Walter Cole has been driving Albert Miller's dray for the past week while Albert has been taking an enforced vacation, entertaining the measles. Miss Lillie Gibson went to Arion Friday afternoon to visit Mrs. Matheny and the baby. Mrs. Ed Hoefler was in Denison Saturday having dental work done. Mrs. Frank O'Meara and Joe Pearsall went to Omaha Friday to attend a wrestling match. One of Paul McElwain's children was quite sick the last of the week. Will Stuller was a Panama visitor a day or two recently. Mrs. A. E. Loring and her friend, Miss Effie Fleming, were Denison visitors Friday. Jim Hurst, of Missouri Valley, spent the past week here with friends. We are pleased to report that Mrs. John F. Rudd and Mrs. G. W. Langley, whose illnesses have been mentioned in these columns, are both improved, a fact which will be pleasing to their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kelly, Ivan Weber and Fred Eland autoed to Vail on Sunday to visit relatives. Mrs. F. J. Branaka and sons, Arzyl and Ronald, were week end visitors at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Buss. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mesenbrink accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara to Dunlap Sunday morning, where they attended church services. Arthur and Vernon Spence came down from Deloit Monday to visit their cousin, Eugene Baber. Miss Ora Butterworth went to Council Bluffs Monday to have an operation performed to correct a nasal trouble. Fred Coleman returned Saturday from Witonska, S. D., where he had spent several weeks looking after his farm interests. Herman Lazerus autoed to Omaha Sunday morning, expecting to spend a few days with his wife and children, who are visiting there. Alex Rubin, Orin Reynolds and John Smith accompanied him on the trip, returning on the evening train. Willis Riddle was a Dunlap visitor Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy were in Denison Saturday. Miss Blanche Cole came down from Soldier township Saturday to spend the week end with her mother. Miss Inez F. Reno departed recently for Colorado, Colo., where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Kuykendall. Mrs. W. E. Fishel and daughter, Iva, were Omaha shoppers Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson visited Sunday in Shelby county with relatives. The Morgan Miles family have moved to Council Bluffs. Rev. Daniel Reagan has gone to Omaha, where he has entered the Clark hospital to take treatments for stomach trouble. Mrs. Reagan was down Sunday to spend the day with him. Elias Barnes was a Ute visitor one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ahart and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colby autoed to Dunlap Sunday, where they spent the day at the Clem Honz home. Mrs. L. C. Hatch and daughter, Lois, spent Sunday in Deloit with relatives. Miss Ellen Scott, who is attending the Teachers' college at Cedar Falls, visited a few days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scott, returning to Cedar Rapids Sunday evening. Mrs. Ralph Roy and children were down from Denison Thursday visiting at the Henry Roy home. Virgil Butterworth moved his household goods to Charter Oak last week, where he is employed as trouble man for the Crawford County Telephone company. H. G. Scott has rented the house vacated by Mr. Butterworth and will occupy it this week. Howarth Brothers sent a shipment of cattle to the Chicago market Saturday night. Fred Pearsall has taken the agency for the Chandler auto. He was at Omaha last week and brought up one of the late models for demonstration. Clarence Wilder and C. A. Butterworth autoed over to Gallands Grove Sunday, where Mr. Butterworth delivered a sermon at the L. D. S. church. Frederick Leavitt, general agent for the Kimball Piano company, and who is here to assist the local agent, W. A. Healy, in their line of work, went to Deloit Monday to deliver several pianos. J. G. Graul went to Carroll Monday to take part in the Odd Fellow celebration. Lloyd Brake acted as agent at the Northwest depot during his absence. Mrs. Ed Chamberlain and daughter, Irma, were shopping and visiting with friends in Omaha Saturday. The Standard Bearers held their monthly meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Talcott, about twenty-five young folks being in attendance. After the status of the lesson was completed a social hour was enjoyed and a delicious luncheon served. Mrs. Julius Butterworth and son, who have been visiting relatives at Davis City, stopped off here a few days ago to visit Elder and Mrs. Charles E. Butterworth, after which they will resume their journey to their home at Laramie, Wyo. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrison went to Omaha last week on a business mission. Miss Lisle Goldsworthy was down from Lake View for a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy. Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Jordan were business visitors at the county seat Saturday. Charley Antisdell came up from the Bluffs Monday to renew acquaintance with former friends. He reports Mrs. Antisdell as being a sufferer from an attack of asthma. Mrs. Clair Butterworth and daughter, Mildred, were shopping in Denison Monday. A big bunch of Odd Fellows chartered a special car and went down to Carroll last Monday to participate in the big Odd Fellow celebration, which was scheduled for that day and evening. The degree staff from the lodge put on the work there in the evening. The second nine went to Dunlap on Saturday to meet the nine of that place and they returned home with the bird of victory perched on their banner. We did not learn the score. Mrs. Spray Malone, of Kenwood, visited here Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green. R. W. Houston has the foundation laid for a room on the east side of the garage. The place when completed will be used by the Crawford County Telephone company, who have leased it for a ten year period. It really looks like Dow City is to have what they have long been entitled to—a central office. Ahart & Chamberlain shipped a car load of cattle to the South Omaha market Sunday evening. Ed went down Monday to see them sell. Mrs. M. B. Bailey was up from Dunlap Sunday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Howarth. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spence, of Deloit, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spence at this place Sunday. Miss May Killion spent a few days recently at the S. Malone home in Kenwood. Little Glenn Baldwin met with an accident Saturday. While playing he carried a sharp stick in his hand. He felt running the stick into his mouth, penetrating the flesh near the tonsil. The wound bled freely. It was necessary to have a physician care for him. Rehearsals for the class play, "The Crimson and the Blue," at the opera house next Thursday evening, April 29th, have been on in earnest the past week and every thing is in readiness to give the public one of the best class plays ever put on here. This is a spicily school play of four acts and episode. It depicts the life of the class just before graduating and the situation ten years after. The high school orchestra of nine pieces will furnish music and a number of vocal numbers will also be given. The cast of characters is as follows: Jean Noland, class president. Howard Stenaneck, class treasurer. Medford Ridd, class dunce. Loren Butler, class clown. Ruth Swasey, vice president. Letta Manning, class prophet. Golda Jordan, class beauty. Iva Fishel, class historian. Clara Williamson, class poet. Josephine Munsy, junior president. Babina Potter, high school teacher. C. W. Manning, principal. Neely Butterworth is making his final visit here before he returns to his home in Australia. Mr. Butterworth is a missionary of the L. D. S. church and has been a laborer as such in far away Australia for about twenty-five years. The past year he worked here, but has been reassigned to the foreign field. His family did not accompany him here last year. Mrs. Henry Roy visited relatives in Denison Friday. Miss Anna Mallum was in Dunlap Tuesday. Rev. W. A. Nelson has returned. He has accepted a call to the church at Farmington in Van Buren county, and the family are busy at this writing packing the household goods and getting things ready for shipment to the new home. This appointment is a decided promotion for Mr. Nelson as Farmington is a town of about 1300 inhabitants, and the church organization, with its membership of about 150, is a most prosperous one. Mr. Nelson is an earnest christian man and gives his best efforts all the time for the church and we are glad indeed to know that his worth is recognized and thus the church as well as he will get the benefit of the large association. Mrs. Nelson and Edith will go to Monona and Wayne counties to visit relatives before they go to Farmington. We wish the family the fullest measure of success in the new charge. A. A. Lake was in Omaha Monday on a business mission. B. F. Judd has returned from a winter's sojourn with his son, A. F. Judd, at DeQuincy, Ia., and will spend the summer here with the O. J. Judd family. Mrs. Mary B. Harper and Auntie Cain spent the day Thursday in Dunlap with relatives. The O'Brien young people autoed down from the Ute country Monday evening for an evening at the Emil

Norman home. Tom Maloney, who had been up there several days, returned home with them. The community west of town was shocked Monday morning to learn that Mrs. Dan Kline had attempted to take her own life by poisoning. As soon as she was discovered a physician was called, who worked heroically in his efforts to save her and was rewarded with success. Mrs. Kline is the mother of three small children. Mayor John Howarth departed Monday for Kansas City on a business mission. The Rahdel family autoed to Woodbine Thursday to call on relatives. Mrs. S. H. Downs came down from Arion Monday and went out to her farm to look after the painting of the farm buildings. Miss Lulu Howarth was in Denison Tuesday shopping and visiting with friends. BOYER VALLEY ITEMS. Miss Luella Murphy spent the week with friends in Charter Oak. Miss Hazel Hall, of Charter Oak, was a pleasant visitor at the Fred L. Wil-were callers Monday evening at the Harry Boyens home. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Segebart and son, Alex, Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jochimsen. Herbert Bandow spent several days visiting at the home of Louis Bandow. Lorens Clausen was a business caller Thursday at the Henry Ewoldt home. Mr. and Mrs. George Pfofner and children, Mr. Bonnie Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lamach and children and the former's mother were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seigfried Wenzel Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Petersen were callers Monday evening at the Louie Lohrmann home. Lorens Clausen and Willie Ewoldt called on Denison friends Sunday. BOYER VALLEY ITEMS. Miss Luella Murphy spent the week with friends in Charter Oak. Miss Hazel Hall, of Charter Oak, was a pleasant visitor at the Fred L. Wilber home the latter part of the week. Fred Christiansen and family autoed to Charter Oak to visit relatives. Mr. Anderson and family, of Dow City, were Sunday callers at the H. Mesenbrink home. The school in number 6 Boyer, was closed for the summer vacation Friday. Galen Cook returned to his home after an extended visit with relatives at Council Bluffs. Lloyd Wilber and Bill McCarthy were Sunday callers at the H. H. Morse home. The teacher and pupils of school No. 8, Willow, who had the play some time ago, took the proceeds and purchased a large bell, clock and class bell. The cupola for the large bell has been completed and everything is in working order and everyone is thankful for the success of the teacher and pupils. The Peoria Journal says that once on a time a newspaper editor ran his paper to please everybody, but that he was deported. More likely he went into bankruptcy because no one read the paper.

SPECIAL CLEAN-UP Sale On Odd Lines of FARM MACHINERY on stock taken over from Stewart Lumber Co. Special prices effective for THREE DAYS to clean up Thursday, Friday, Saturday April 29, 30, May 1 This Machinery is All New, Up-to-Date and Fully Guaranteed

	Reg. Price	Sale Price
2 Columbus wagons	$75.00	$62.50
2 Bain wagons	$85.00	$80.00
3 Osborne Harrow Carts	$ 6.50	$ 5.00
1 Blue Bell Cream Separator No. 70	$70.00	$55.00
2 Blue Bell cream separators No. 60	$60.00	$45.00
5 Sattley flat drop planters	$35.00	$29.50
1 Sattley New Way, edge or flat variable drop	$43.00	$38.00
1 International planter edge and flat variable drop	$42.00	$35.00
2 Deering, 1 Thomas hay tedders	$45.00	$35.00
1 3-wheel Deering pull buck	$24.00	$20.00
1 Deering swing stacker	$45.00	$35.00
3 Grand Detour 16-in. walking plows	$16.00	$14.00
1 Sattley 14-in. walking plow	$14.00	$12.00
1 Grand Detour 12-in. gang plow	$58.00	$55.00
1 Grand Detour 14-in. gang plow	$60.00	$57.00
3 3-section harrows	$16.50	$15.00
1 Miami Engine, 6 horse power, mounted on heavy 8 horse power horse truck	225.00	175.00

M. J. Casson Denison, Iowa Successor to Stewart Lumber Co.

Galvanized Metal Fence Posts Square Deal Woven Wire This combination will build a fence that will last a life time and will be an ornament to your place. You can buy the fence line without damage to the fence or posts. It makes a lightning proof fence as each post acts as a ground. You can drive the posts and thus save a lot of hard work digging post holes. We have a fine stock on hand and will be pleased to show it. You will not be under any obligation to buy. The Stewart Lumber Co.

The Co-operative Tire Goodyear has always built co-operative tires. Every saving has gone to the user. The more men bought the better we built them, and the lower we sold them. That is why Goodyear has held top place, outselling any other tire. 3 Reductions Note that in two years we made three big price reductions. The last—on February 1st—brought the total to 45 per cent. Yet in costly ways these tires have been bettered. In not one iota were they ever skimped. Your Ally In all these ways, Goodyear is your ally. You do injustice to yourself when you fail to secure this advantage. Never in tire history was such value given as you get in Goodyear tires today. No smaller makers can ever give so much. Any dealer will supply you. Our Fortified Tire is still "On-Air" cured to save blow-outs. Yet that one extra cost us $450,000 yearly. It still has our No-Rim-Cut feature. It has in each base 126 braided piano

GOOD YEAR AKRON, OHIO Fortified Tires No-Rim-Cut Tires—"On-Air" Cured With All-Weather Treads or Smooth

Goodyear Service Stations Tires in Stock DENISON—Denison Auto Co. Pautsch Bros. BOYER—C. S. Johnson. BUCK GROVE—Ben Quathamer. CHARTER OAK—Home Auto Co. L. F. Lorenzen. DOW CITY—R. W. Houston. KIRON—Kiron Auto Co. MANILLA—W. H. Brockelsby. SCHLESWIG—C. P. Hollander.