

SCHLESWIG ITEMS

Mrs. H. D. ones and baby boy are home again from the Ida Grove hospital. They were shopping in Denison the first of the week.

Mrs. H. W. Schmidt and daughter Verdette, Mrs. Paul Jepsen and daughter Nadine and Mrs. N. A. Hollander and daughter Phyllis were in Denison Monday shopping and calling on a dentist.

Born on Wednesday May 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen, of northwest of town, twin daughters.

Rev. W. R. Wetzeler and Ingwer Hollander are in attendance at a conference which is being held at Donaldson, Iowa. They left here on Wednesday.

Decorations day being a legal holiday and this year falling on Sunday the mail carriers did not have any delivery on the Monday following.

Mrs. M. A. Hollander entertained the Ladies' Aid of the German churches at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

On Tuesday evening of the past week the Puella club was very nicely entertained by Hilda Jurgensen when a nice time was had by all members.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mohr and son and Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Miller and babe were in Denison on Monday.

After a pleasant visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Miller, Miss Laura Kastner returned to her home in Holstein on Tuesday.

John Kahl was in Ida Grove Tuesday to spend the day there with his wife who is in the hospital for an operation.

Henry and Adolph Jahde are in Bronson this week at the home of their brother Herman.

Mr. Fred Reinking returned on Tuesday from a business trip to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Ehner Watson and children went to Denison Monday and spent the afternoon with his mother Mrs. A. C. Weeks.

Miss Emma Wilkins who has taught the past year in the Mohr district returned to her home in Denison Monday.

Julius Andresen and the Misses Roma and Thekla Hollander motored to Denison on Monday and took the train from there to Omaha where they spent a day visiting and shopping.

Mayor Schultz and Hugo Wiegand were in the county seat on business Monday.

Louie Johnson of Charter Oak was in Schleswig on Saturday afternoon. Richard Clausen went to Auburn on Monday to see about some work there.

Miss Marie Rath of Denison has been secured by the school board here to teach the eighth grade the coming year.

John Reimers has gone to Rock Falls, Ill., where he will spend three or four weeks visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Schroeder and son Lowell, accompanied by Mrs.

Henry Jahde and daughter Sylvia started for Bronson on Monday in the Schroeder automobile, but owing to the bad roads they only got as far as Battle Creek, where they spent a few hours and then returned to their homes.

John Schmidt and Joe Benson went by way of the auto to Omaha on Monday.

Mr. Louie Naeve was in Nebraska last week looking after land interests near Omaha.

Miss Birdie Berg closed another successful term of school in the Naeve district Friday and will spend her vacation with her parents in Denison.

Mrs. Chas. Kropp, of Boyer, who was here visiting her mother Mrs. Louie Miller, returned to her home in Boyer on Monday.

John Clausen, Wm. Pipras and L. H. Bassett were in Omaha the first of the week on business.

Rev. Wetzeler and family were called in Denison on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Will Bielenberg and Charles Reinking went to Sioux City on Tuesday.

Mr. August Paulsen and Otto Schwanen went to Denison Tuesday and transacted business at the court house.

Mrs. Max Hollander celebrated her birthday on the 24th of May by entertaining some of her relatives.

Miss Ella Thomas is spending the week at the home of her brother Emil near Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Dethlefsen and daughter Amanda returned home from Ida Grove Monday where they had been visiting with Mrs. Dethlefsen's sisters.

Mrs. Henry Miller is visiting at the August Miller home in Denison.

The Paup brothers came up from Denison one evening the first of the week and brought a Harley-Davidson motorcycle to Otto Schwenn, he having recently purchased it of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hansen and children accompanied Willie Schwenn in his auto to Denison the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jochims and children are here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jochims. They had made the trip from Minnesota in their auto.

Mr. Fritz Engerbrecht returned to his home in Holstein after visiting a few days with his brother Frank.

Mr. John Schmidt of Elwood, Ia., is here on a visit to friends and relatives.

Miss Lydia Thiede returned to her home again at Kiron Tuesday after spending a few days with her parents here.

Mrs. Fanny Garber, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Onken, is in Denison for a visit with friends.

Mr. Gail Richardson, of Denison, was a business visitor here on Monday.

H. W. Schmidt was a Sioux City visitor on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. Ernst Stollenberg and sons Albert and Ennis were in Galva last week on a business mission.

Born on Tuesday May 27th to Mr.

and Mrs. Martin Schultz a daughter weighing nine pounds. Mother and child both getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Freeman went to Correctionville on Thursday where they spent a few days with their home folks.

The schools closed here on Friday and a program was held that evening at the Pastime theatre. A great number turned out to hear the program in spite of a steady rain. The program was very good and those taking part did exceptionally well and showed credit to the teachers. One of the numbers, a song by Selma Bendixen and Cyrenus Schmidt was certainly fine. These two composed the graduating class and the graduating exercises were held on this same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Morgan were called upon to part with their infant son on Thursday. It was on the 13th of May that he and his little sister arrived at their home, but sickness took him away again. The funeral services were held at the house, the Rev. W. R. Wetzeler conducting the short services over the little form. There were four little girls who acted as pall bearers. Hildegard Wiegand, Lillian Berndt, Jeanette Schmidt and Verdetta Schmidt. The babe was laid to rest in Morgan cemetery.

VALE ITEMS.

Miss Joanna Walsh, of Denison, visited the first of the week here with her Vaill friends.

Mrs. Robson, of Dunlap, spent the last of the week here with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Haas, and family.

Adam Shert was in Denison on business the last of the week.

Miss Florence Lynch, of St. Louis, has been a guest in the Jess Dieter home the past ten days.

Miss Marie Keane and Miss Reta Moseed spent Tuesday afternoon with Denison friends.

Axel Linberg made a trip to Omaha on business Tuesday.

George Servoss spent the past week in West Side.

John Mangum, of DeWitt, visited here recently with friends.

Albert Bandow is the owner of a new Hudson touring car.

W. A. Mazure was a Denison passenger Friday.

The Misses Bucholtz, of Arcadia, spent the first of last week here with relatives.

Miss Veronica English, who has been attending St. Ann's school here the past year, departed the last of the week for her home in Peoria, Ill.

Herman Hakken, of Denison, was calling on Vaill friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tomnor spent Wednesday at Arcadia.

Dr. J. M. Young accompanied John Honzik to Omaha Sunday to consult physicians in regard to his health.

H. C. Gronemeyer and men are in West Side building a new house for A. J. Kelly.

Mrs. T. J. Kenney and Miss Ruth were visitors in Denison Wednesday.

Miss Luella Murphy, of Dunlap, visited the latter part of the week here with friends.

M. J. Kelly was a passenger to Denison Monday.

Joe Harrington and son, Joe, spent a couple of days last week in Omaha on business.

Miss Nellie Olson was a Denison visitor Monday.

Rev. P. J. Murphy spent a few hours in Carroll between trains Tuesday.

Harry Allender made a trip to Iowa City on business Thursday.

Mrs. John Pham was a visitor in Omaha Wednesday.

Miss Albertine Grover was calling in Arcadia Saturday between trains.

Mrs. Emma Walters, of Denison, was a guest here in the Meier home the last of the week.

You are invited to attend a grand ball in the Vaill opera house Thursday evening, June 3.

Miss Besie Soper was a visitor in Denison Friday.

Mart Lynch went to Carroll Monday for a visit with his parents.

Miss B. Husson visited last week at the Thomas Tappay home near West Side.

Mrs. W. L. Tupper and daughter were visiting in Woodbine Tuesday.

Miss Bell Downey, of Jackson town, spent a few days here last week with her relatives.

Wm. Adams made a trip to Denison Friday.

The Misses Bral visited the first of last week with relatives north of Denison.

Miss Leona Bucholtz spent the first of last week with her folks in Arcadia.

Mrs. B. Sipple and Miss Hazel Knowles spent the day Friday in Denison.

Rev. P. J. Murphy was a visitor in Dunlap last Wednesday.

Mrs. Len Hoffman and daughter, Miss Gladys, spent Monday in Denison.

Paul Gronemeyer made a trip to West Side Friday.

Miss Albertine Grover spent Tuesday afternoon in Denison.

Mrs. B. Wahlin spent the first of last week in Arcadia with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Odien and Mrs. Chas. Martil.

P. M. Lane and son, Leonard, spent Wednesday in Omaha.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Jones entertained the senior class of the high school at their home last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Glyn was a visitor in Omaha Wednesday.

Jas. Byrnes was a Dunlap visitor Wednesday.

H. McCombs and Mrs. E. W. Chamberlin and two children attended the graduating exercises in Carroll last week. Floyd Fitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fitch, and grandson of H. McCombs, was one of the class.

Mrs. B. Moore and two children, of Masonville, are here to spend the summer with relatives.

J. G. Kelly spent last Tuesday in Denison on business.

A. J. Adams came from Omaha Friday afternoon for an over Sunday visit with his folks.

M. L. Houlhan and John Clark and Medames John McDunnell, P. Deane, Catherine Moughan, Otto Pound and John Doherty attended the funeral of Mrs. Houbert in Dunlap Wednesday.

Thos. Whorley and Jas. Knight spent the first of last week in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. C. DeLance and children of Woodbine, spent Sunday here with Prof. W. L. Tupper and wife.

Herman Christians last week purchased a new Buick touring car from Frockelsky & Adams.

J. F. Goss, of Denison, was transacting business in our town Thursday.

Wm. Byrnes was a business visitor in Carroll Tuesday.

Miss Elsie McAndrews, of Denison, spent the first of the week here at the M. L. Houlhan home.

Mrs. Blanche Sipple, of Waterloo, who has been spending the past three weeks here at the Wallace hotel, returned to her home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Brogan and daughter, of Denison, visited here the first of the week at the D. Scanlan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Biernes spent Sunday at the parental, Pat Lynch, home in Carroll.

The people of this community were awakened from their slumbers last Tuesday night about 1:30 a. m. Lightning had struck the barn of Chas. Dugan, a half mile south of town. The horses were removed but considerable grain, some hogs and machinery were burned. The barn was a total loss, partly covered by insurance. Fortunately it was raining very hard all night, otherwise it would have been hard from spreading to adjacent buildings. Mr. Dugan has John Ryan and his gang of carpenters out there this week building a new barn.

Misses Clara Wahlin and Annie Mannon were brief visitors in Denison Sunday afternoon.

The commencement exercises of the Vaill high school were held at the M. W. A. hall Wednesday evening of last week. The class numbers five girls. Ed and Jess Cranny, of Omaha, visited here Sunday with their mother and sisters.

Delos Servoss and man, of Denison, are working here this week.

Sisters Edwena and Barbara came down from Denison Sunday to be present at the closing exercises of St. Ann's school.

Mrs. Finnigan and daughter, of Carroll, came Sunday afternoon for a visit at the Jas. O'Boyle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vernon, of Vaill, spent Sunday evening with Vaill relatives. From here they went Monday to Carroll and Grand Junction for a couple of days' visit.

Chas. Magill, of Arcadia, Sundayed with relatives here.

The Misses Naughton, of Denison, spent Sunday evening in Vaill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Starek, of West Side, spent Sunday here at the parental, P. Starek, home.

Miss Edna Molsced went down to Omaha Saturday to spend a couple of days with her mother, who is a patient in St. Joseph's hospital there.

John McGovern spent a part of last week in Omaha on business.

Miss Edna Portz, of Denison, spent Sunday night in Vaill.

M. R. McGrath has been laid up the past week with a bad case of rheumatism.

Bert Mitchell went to Omaha Sunday, where he will spend a few days on business.

John McCullough and son went to Harlan Monday in their auto to attend a stock sale.

J. McMahon, from near Manilla, drove over here Sunday evening to attend the closing exercises of the school and to take his sister, who has been attending St. Ann's school home with him.

Mart Lynch was a passenger to Carroll Monday morning.

John McGovern visited the first of last week with friends and relatives at Chicago and Davenport.

Mrs. Earl Lynch and sister, Miss Agnes Holland, went to Carroll Friday for a visit and to get little Inez Lynch, who has been spending the past week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Lynch. They returned Saturday afternoon.

P. Cleary, of Omaha, was an over Sunday visitor here with Rev. Jas. and Rev. P. Murphy.

Miss Anna Flynn, of Denison, was a Sunday guest here in the Mrs. B. Moleed home.

Miss Minnie Evison was a Denison visitor Saturday.

Rev. R. E. Jones and wife and baby were passengers east this (Monday) morning.

Miss Margaret Regan and Miss Fae Ratchford left the first of this week for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Kenwood and Charter Oak.

Mrs. Jas. McAndrews, who has spent the past month at Marshall, Minn., returned home Friday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Healy, and baby, who will make an extended visit here at the parental, Jas. McAndrews, home.

John Walsh spent a couple of days last week in Omaha on business.

Miss Mable Dugan has been quite ill the past ten days owing to a severe case of tonsillitis.

R. Brockelby and wife were passengers to Omaha Monday morning.

Mrs. Dave Tomnor and daughter, Miss Laura, spent Monday in Arcadia. John Holland spent Monday at the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clark spent Sunday in Scranton with his parents.

Frank Paup, of Denison, spent Sunday with Vaill friends.

KIRON ITEMS.

Rev. J. T. Martin, from the Augustana college at Rock Island, Ill., arrived last Wednesday and will spend his vacation filling the pastorate at the Swedish Lutheran church near Kiron and also the charge at Odebolt.

Chas. Lundgren, of Denison, came over Friday to attend the mission meeting, remaining over Sunday.

Miss Edith Jacobson, having ended her term of school here, left Saturday for her home at Denison. Likewise Miss Nellie Caster leaving the same day for Lincoln, Neb., for a visit at the home of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lilleholm and Miss Grace Selander, of Denison, attended the meetings at the Mission church over Sunday.

Quite a number from this locality expect to attend the mission meetings at the Covenant Mission church at Odebolt the latter part of the week and remain over Sunday.

Will Gronau returned from Omaha Wednesday, where he looked after business matters for the Kiron Auto company.

The Clausen Bros. real estate agency made a sale Saturday last in the Mrs. A. M. Larson 66 acre farm due southwest of town to William Lindberg, the price paid being $290 per acre.

Miss Anna Tellegen arrived home Sunday from her college work at Des Moines to remain for some time.

Mr. J. Rodine, of Des Moines, visited old acquaintances here last week and attended the mission meetings.

BOYER ITEMS

Mrs. John Kullberg and daughter, Anna, returned from Odebolt a week ago Monday, having visited friends and relatives there for a few days.

N. Taylor and Earl Paulson drove to Odebolt Tuesday.

The Epworth League program which was to have been held Sunday evening was postponed until next Sunday evening. Everybody welcome.

Miss Mabel Anderson returned to her home Monday from her stay at the George Hansen place.

Mrs. Boston, of Kansas City, Kans., arrived Saturday for a visit with her brother, Henry Boston, who resides on the Geo. Cowhlan farm, north of Boyer.

Mrs. Carsten Christensen and two children, of Crofton, Neb., arrived on Monday for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Katie Dozark.

Chas. H. Johnston returned home from Omaha Monday with Gladys, who has been attending school there.

Miss Anna Nissen was a passenger to Denison Monday.

Mrs. H. R. Hansen and Miss Ella and Vera and Velma Scheidorf returned Wednesday from Schleswig, where they were guests of Mrs. Latrantz, a sister of Mrs. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meyers, of Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corp were county seat visitors Saturday.

Walter Neuman is spending some time in Omaha taking treatment for rheumatism.

Mrs. Pari Jari is spending the week at the home of her uncle, Oscar Tallgren, south of Kiron.

Denison Prosperity Week

FIREMEN'S FESTIVAL

All attractions by Ed A. Evans' Greater Shows, the Cream of American and European Amusements

16 All Star Attractions 16

Featuring Monster Motor Drome

Evans' 10 in 1

$10,000 Carry-Us-All

Giant Ferris Wheel

Evans' Prize Band

Hawaiian Village

Katool's Egypt

Capt. Smith's Museum

ED A. EVANS, Manager

Traveling in their own special train

The Evans Red Flyer

6 Days and Nights of Fun and Frolic

Something Doing All the Time

Clean, moral shows and a sane midway

Endorsed by the officials in every city visited

One Week, Commencing Monday, June 7, All on the Main Streets

