

Don't Forget

There is enough interest attached to the mystery of the whereabouts of The Broken Coin for you to make a personal effort to find it and have it returned to its rightful owner. Be on the lookout—let no clue escape you. Remember—The Broken Coin must be found.

Review Adds Another Laurel to its Wreath

Chosen as the Official Newspaper for Publishing the Greatest Photoplay Serial ever Filmed

"The Broken Coin"

Come Along With Kitty

Check your grip for Hours of Pleasure—sit back in your easy chair and take a trip with Kitty Gray through the land of amazing adventure and the realm of soul-stirring romance. Not a dull minute in the whole journey—not a slow-up in the rapid action of our new serial story soon to appear in these columns. You will like this story because it is full of human interest with none of the ordinary slap-stick horseplay or claptrap sensationalism—but chock full of red-blooded life and realism. You can see The Broken Coin at your favorite Universal Theater every week. The story is filmed by the Universal Film Mfg. Co., which is a guaranty of excellence, while the fact that Emerson Hough is the author of The Broken Coin places it as the greatest of Moving Picture serials.

The Broken Coin

See the Pictures—Read the Story

Only last Saturday the Review was notified that it had been selected to publish this great story in conjunction with the moving pictures to be shown at the Germania Opera House every Wednesday, beginning June 30th. That readers of this paper will be given an opportunity to read this wonderful story is a source of much satisfaction to the publishers and we trust not a chapter will be missed.

15 WEEKS 30 REELS

First Episode of THE BROKEN COIN

By Emerson Hough, an Iowa and Writer of the "Mississippi Bubble," "John Rawn," etc.

Featuring Famous Actors

Francis Ford and Grace Cunard
OF "LUCILLE LOVE" FAME

Starts in This Issue

The finding of the Broken Coin in an old curiosity shop in New York city is the starting point of a series of startling and stirring adventures of a clever girl reporter. It is a strong story of whimsical fancy, a story that never loses it grip on the reader from week to week. Coupled with the name of the author is the fact that the story has been produced in pictures by the Universal Film Mfg. Co. and this means the exhibition of the pictures in the most improved and complete manner known to the moving picture world.

LOST-REWARD

To the Public:

Forty years ago the half of a coin as shown in the illustration was lost or stolen in Gretzhoffen. This Broken Coin is of great value, not for the metal which it contains, but, together with the other half, it is the key to a secret of vast importance.

The Broken Coin here shown was traced by detectives to the mate of a schooner, the Marie Bella, who pawned it in London in 1878. It was then traced to New York and from there carried by an Armenian peddler to Chicago.

It has lately been traced to this city. Here the trail ends. Someone has this Broken Coin. It may be hidden in an out-of-the-way place—possibly in an old coin collection.

Look everywhere for the Broken Coin. If you find it you will be rewarded. If you can give any information as to its whereabouts, and it is located through your information, you will receive a large reward. Search now! Look everywhere! Report any clue to the M. P. Editor of this newspaper who will immediately take up the matter with Charles von Kaper, Consul General for Gretzhoffen, N.Y. City.

The One Story Among a Million !!

Don't Miss a Chapter. Don't Fail to See the Pictures.

The opening Chapters of this GREAT SERIAL STORY appear in this issue of THE REVIEW and the First Pictures will be Shown at the

The Greatest Serial Ever Published !!

Germania Theatre Every Wednesday Commencing Wednesday, June 30th.

Have You

Are you GUILTY? Have you The Broken Coin and don't know it? Have you done your share to locate it? Look again, maybe your search was careless. Don't give up—The Broken Coin will be found—watch for it.

"THE BROKEN COIN"

BY EMERSON HOUGH
It is a clean-cut, masterly story of the author's best style. All classes of readers will find it intensely human interest. You will appreciate the pictures.

It This Issue

Who Has

It was last traced to this city—Is it mislaid among a bunch of odds and ends? Is it carelessly thrown aside as a trifle, when it is worth many times its weight in gold? Surely someone is overlooking a chance to make a fortune—if you get a clue, advise M. P. Editor of this paper. Be on the watch.

Where Is

Perhaps in some out-of-the-way corner. Maybe in an old desk drawer. Likely tossed aside as valueless—but worth much to the finder and more to the people of Gretzhoffen. Search every odd place for The Broken Coin.