

Kodak Finishing

Developing---Printing---Enlarging

Particular efforts made to get the very best results.

The Ferguson Studio

Items of a Local Kind

Mrs. O. M. Criswell visited friends at Arion Saturday.

Miss Ella Kane, of Buck Grove, was shopping in Denison Friday.

Miss Leona Quade, of the Boys' store, is taking a vacation this week.

Miss Magdalena Schwartz, of Boyer, came down Thursday for a visit with friends.

Mr. Ed Ahart, of Dow City, was a pleasant business caller in Denison Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Hitchcock, of Pipestone, Minn., visited at Mrs. M. E. Paup's in Denison Tuesday.

Fred Landon, of Deloit, is spending the week with his daughter, Mrs. A. M. Justice, in Denison.

Miss Leona Johnston was the guest of Miss Charlotte Phillips at the E. O. Thiem home Friday evening.

Miss Mable Paup went to Omaha Friday. She will visit for two weeks in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Miss Charlotte Phillips, of Haron, S. D., is visiting in Denison and vicinity with relatives and friends.

Miss Erna Beutel visited with her friend, Miss Nellie Welsh, at Buck Grove several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara were among those from Dow City who visited in Denison last Thursday.

Misses Fanchon Jobe and Ruth Tucker were guests of Miss Leona Johnston Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ruby Mullenger spent the fore part of the week east of town at the home of her uncle, Allen Johnston.

Mrs. Frank Parr returned Saturday from a five weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Chicago and Tipton.

Miss Dora Schroeder went to Horrick Thursday after a three weeks' visit east of town at the Rollins home.

Frank Nash and family and Mrs. J. H. Maynard, of Lake View, attended the Isabell funeral in Denison Monday.

Miss Dora Schroeder returned to Denison Saturday after a couple of days spent with her parents at Horrick.

Mrs. Myrtle Brown returned the latter part of the week from Vaal, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

Miss Harriet Hall, who has been spending the summer in Chicago attending summer school, returned on Monday.

Miss Anna Schumacher left the first of the week for Orleans, Neb., where she will visit relatives for a week or ten days.

Miss Dorothy Pfarr will leave tomorrow for Ida Grove where she will spend two weeks visiting at the Picher home.

Mrs. C. M. Dybbro and daughter, Dana, left last Thursday for Lincoln, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Miss Gertrude Fitzpatrick and Miss Marcella Stenglin left last Thursday for Raymond, S. D., where they will visit relatives.

Miss Ruby Mullenger visited the past two weeks north of town at the Leslie Johnston and Ed and Perry Broden homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ebert and children motored down from Schleswig Friday in their new car and spent the day at the Sperry home.

Mrs. F. J. Branaka, who resides in Nebraska, and Mrs. F. C. Buss, of Dow City, were in Denison last Friday visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Gunn and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gunn, of Wall Lake, were in Denison Monday afternoon attending the funeral of Mrs. Isabell.

Clifford Barorka is spending the week at Mt. Ayr visiting friends. He expects to go to Kansas City this fall, where he will take a course in optics.

C. M. Dybbro, of the Boys' store, left Saturday evening for New York, where he will spend two or three weeks purchasing fall goods for the store.

Misses Nell, Anna and Mary McCarthy motored to the country Sunday and spent a most delightful day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedderman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Popkin and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Heide departed Tuesday for a trip to the Pacific coast and to visit the two exhibitions in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Eiling and little daughter departed Saturday afternoon for South Dakota, where they will visit at different points before returning to Denison.

Clarence Schwartzbach, who clerks in the C. L. Ducander clothing store, left Sunday for Des Moines and Muscatine, where he will spend a two weeks' vacation visiting friends.

Mrs. Helen Johnston returned from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Harvey, at Lacey. She also visited with Mrs. Hattie Nichols and Mrs. Crawford at Marshalltown.

Miss Hilda Schmoor, who is in Chicago studying the fall styles in millinery, has written Denison friends that she has accepted a position in a millinery establishment at Sheldon for the coming season.

Jacob Greder was over from Buck Grove Saturday.

Judge Conner is in Schleswig today transacting business.

Miss Mary Potter, of Dow City, visited friends in Denison Thursday.

Chris Willbeck, of Dow City, transacted business here Saturday.

Chas. Green was over from Charter Oak Monday calling on friends.

Henry J. Jensen, of Schleswig, was transacting business here Friday.

Henry Seigner, of Vaal, was a Saturday business caller in Denison.

Miss Helen Kral, of Vaal, was a pleasant caller in the city Thursday.

Miss Clara Schultz, of Schleswig, was a shopper in Denison Thursday.

M. A. Hollander, of Ricketts, was a county seat business caller Thursday.

Mrs. Chas. Larson, of Kiron, was in Denison Monday transacting business.

W. C. Schwartz, of Soldier township, transacted business in Denison Saturday.

Miss Hannah Stegeman, of Schleswig, was a pleasant visitor in the city Monday.

James E. Wolf, of Boyer, was among the out of town business callers in Denison Saturday.

Supr. F. N. Ory and family autoped up to Schleswig Sunday to spend the day visiting relatives.

Fred Mohr, of Schleswig, was an out of town business visitor at the county capital Friday.

Miss Anna Flynn left Sunday for LeMars, where she is spending a few days visiting with friends.

Mrs. Fred Fitzsimmons and daughter, Anna, were down from Vaal Saturday making some purchases.

Nick Naeve was down from Schleswig Friday attending to some business matters at the county capital.

Miss Alice Knaul returned Friday from St. Joe, Mo., where she has been making an extended visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Klinker and little daughter, were guests at the Will Schroeder home in Schleswig Sunday.

Albert Schultz, one of the prominent farmers of Morgan township, made Denison a pleasant call Thursday.

Misses Meta and Ruth Naeve were down from their home at Schleswig on Thursday spending the day with friends.

Mr. Morgan Cornwell, who resides at Spencer, is spending the week in Denison visiting at the home of Mrs. P. E. C. Lally.

Otto Huebner was down from Schleswig Monday calling on Denison acquaintances and attending to some business matters.

Miss Grace Bamford is expected home the last of this week from Boulder, Colo., where she has been visiting friends for the past month.

J. V. Harborka, the jeweler, expects to leave Friday for a vacation trip to Colorado. He will spend two weeks at Colorado Springs and Manitau.

Mrs. Hannah Harris and Miss Eliza Hanke, of Missouri Valley, are spending the week in Denison visiting at the parental, August Hanke, home.

Mr. Theo. Blume and daughters left last Thursday for a trip to California, where they will attend the exhibitions and visit at other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cushman and daughters, Mrs. Emil Herrig and Mrs. Fred Merrick, motored up to Lake View Sunday, where they spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Petersen were down from Schleswig Monday attending to some business matters and calling on their many county seat acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Boylan and children and Miss Boulah Aylesworth drove up to Lake View yesterday for a few days' outing at the Boylan cottage on Denison beach.

Misses Rose and Margaret Clark and their cousins, Misses Rose Clark and Helen Kelly, of New York, spent Sunday at Carroll visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fee.

Mrs. R. W. Bamford and daughter, Grace, will leave Sunday for Chicago, where they will spend ten days studying the fall styles in millinery and purchasing stock for the store.

Attorney Leon Powers returned on Monday from a week's business trip to South Dakota. On his way home he stopped off at Ft. Dodge for an over Sunday visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Johnston and Miss Ruby Mullenger went to Charter Oak Sunday in the former's car to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Max Maas. Mrs. Maas was formerly Miss Alta Kullberg and made her home here with her aunt, Mrs. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown, of Donlap, were in Denison Tuesday and paid the Review office a call. Mr. Brown is getting ready to visit the different state and county fairs, where he will exhibit thirty head of his Chester White hogs. He won numerous first prizes at last year's fairs, and says he has a much better showing this season.

Wm. Koberg, of the Stewart Lumber company, sold his Hayes township farm this week to Ed Olson, a neighbor, for $190 per acre. The land is in Section 20, Hayes township, and is considered a good bargain at the price. M. L. Houlihan, Jr. trustee for the heirs, offers for sale the Cramp farm in Section 8, of Hayes township, at auction, and interested parties should read the ad in this issue.

Mrs. Robertson, of Deloit, is spending the week for Denison visiting her daughter, Miss Flora Robertson, who will remain for a week or ten days attending to some legal business.

Mayor J. E. Hongland, of Kiron, is the proud father of a son, who arrived at his home on Monday, August 9th. The son tipped the scales at 10 pounds.

Clarence Chamberlin, Frank and Arthur Paup and Kenneth Short rode their motorcycles to Sac City yesterday to attend the races at the county fair.

Mrs. Hulda Hall is spending the week at Cherokee, visiting her sister. She will leave there the last of the week for Chicago to study the fall styles in millinery and purchase stock for her store.

Messrs. Geo. Naeve and B. J. Silbert departed Thursday for a ten days' trip through the Dakotas. They have extensive land interests in both states and made the trip to attend to the harvesting of the crops.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carpenter and little daughter departed last week for Escanaba, Mich., where they will spend two or three weeks. Mr. Carpenter writes the Review that they are enjoying their vacation immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brodersen and sons, Walter and George, expect to leave in the morning in their car for Jamestown, S. D., where they will spend a week or ten days visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. G. Catron.

Miss Nedwig Brodersen returned yesterday from Minneapolis, Minn., where she has been spending the summer taking an advanced course in German. Miss Brodersen will teach German in the high school here this year.

Mrs. Parsons returned to her home in Traer Tuesday after a few days' visit in Denison at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Kahler. Mrs. Kahler accompanied her to Traer and will make a visit there at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollen, of Clinton, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, Chas. Bollen, in Denison, departed Sunday for Story City, where they will visit relatives for a few days before returning to their home.

Miss Ruth Selander is taking a vacation from her duties at the Halle-Brodersen store. She is visiting this week at the home of her brother, George, in Boone. From there she expects to go to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Schroeder, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moeller, at Springfield, Minn., has written relatives in Denison that a little baby boy arrived at the Moeller home on July 29th. The baby weighed 12 1/2 pounds at birth.

Herbert Fuller, who was injured two weeks ago, was able to resume his duties in the grocery department of the Halle-Brodersen store Monday. Herbert had the misfortune to fall from a ladder, breaking a rib and fracturing two others.

Mrs. W. H. Laub and son, Harold, departed Monday for Evanston, where they will spend two weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Tufts. They will visit Miss Hazel, who is doing settlement work at Marcel Center before returning home.

The First National bank is displaying a stalk of corn out in front of the bank which was taken from the McHenry farm just south of Denison. The stalk measures 10 feet and 7 inches, and was grown on the land adjoining the Mill sand pit.

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Bond expect to leave Saturday for Jamesville, Wis., where they will attend a reunion of the 13th Wisconsin Vol. Infantry, to which Dr. Bond belonged. They will stop off at Chicago for a few days' visit with John Harrison.

Misses Anna Schumacher and Fannie Hayes returned Saturday from a four weeks' trip in the east. Miss Schumacher spent several weeks in the Halle-Brodersen store. Miss Hayes New York city purchasing goods for visited Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md. and other eastern cities. They report a most enjoyable vacation trip.

Dr. G. W. Townsend has given up the practice of medicine in Denison, and he and his wife left Saturday for Chadron, Neb., where they will make their future home. Dr. Townsend found soon after coming to Denison that there was not an opening for another doctor here so he made arrangements for locating at Chadron. He recently graduated from the Creighton Medical college and we believe that he will make good at the new location.

Mrs. L. B. Thompson and Mrs. J. T. Slater, of near Buck Grove, were brought before the county insane commission Tuesday morning for a hearing and after careful investigation they were both adjudged insane. Mrs. Thompson is thirty-eight years of age and up until recently has been in the best of health. Her case is a particularly sad one and her many friends are hoping that the treatment at Clarinda will be beneficial. Mrs. Slater is seventy years of age and has been in poor health for some time, we understand. Deputy Sheriff John Costello, together with Mrs. S. S. Rice and Miss Johnson, took the two women to Clarinda yesterday afternoon to place them in the state hospital.

Mr. Fritz Muhl, of East Boyer Township, meets with an experience he will not soon forget. The driver stopped his car as soon as possible and got out and pulled Mr. Muhl from under the machine. Mr. Muhl was taken to a physician's office, where a careful examination was made, but fortunately it was found that he was not injured, only receiving a few bruises on one of his arms. If the car had been going faster doubtless Mr. Muhl would have been dragged a considerable distance and injured severely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sims departed last week for Michigan, where they will spend two weeks enjoying an outing.

Mrs. Louie Squires of Council Bluffs arrived in Denison this afternoon for a few days' visit with her niece, Misses Marianna and Katherine Sims.

Messrs. Moore and Sims, horse buyers of Bussey, are in Denison today at Laub's barn purchasing horses. Three head were bought this forenoon.

Prof. W. C. VanNess has made arrangements for the Denison gospel team, composed of C. K. Myers and J. W. Shirik, to conduct services at Kiron next Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and daughters, Fannie and Dorothy, and Miss Hazel Aebischer returned Saturday from a motor trip to Iowa Falls, where they spent several days attending a chalet.

Miss Lessie Marshall received the announcement this morning of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gable at their home in Hastings, Neb., on Friday, August 6th. The little one has been named Rowena Aesop Gable. The Review joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gable in extending congratulations.

Mr. William Schurke had the misfortune to fall from a tree in the yard of Mrs. C. J. Salomon Tuesday morning while picking apples and was quite badly bruised. Mr. Schurke was standing on a ladder picking apples and became overbalanced, falling several feet to the ground. Edward Rotman happened to be near when the accident occurred and took the injured man home. His condition today is greatly improved.

Mr. Fritz Muhl, of East Boyer township, met with an experience in Denison Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock which he will not soon forget and which might have resulted in his death.

Mr. Muhl came to Denison early in the afternoon to attend to some business matters and had occasion to cross Broadway at the intersection of Main street and cut across the corner. When in the center of the street an automobile driven by a farmer who resides just east of Denison came up the hill from the Northwestern station and started to make the turn, running into Mr. Muhl. The driver stopped his car as soon as possible and got out and pulled Mr. Muhl from under the machine. Mr. Muhl was taken to a physician's office, where a careful examination was made, but fortunately it was found that he was not injured, only receiving a few bruises on one of his arms.

If the car had been going faster doubtless Mr. Muhl would have been dragged a considerable distance and injured severely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sims departed last week for Michigan, where they will spend two weeks enjoying an outing.

Mrs. Louie Squires of Council Bluffs arrived in Denison this afternoon for a few days' visit with her niece, Misses Marianna and Katherine Sims.

Messrs. Moore and Sims, horse buyers of Bussey, are in Denison today at Laub's barn purchasing horses. Three head were bought this forenoon.

Prof. W. C. VanNess has made arrangements for the Denison gospel team, composed of C. K. Myers and J. W. Shirik, to conduct services at Kiron next Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and daughters, Fannie and Dorothy, and Miss Hazel Aebischer returned Saturday from a motor trip to Iowa Falls, where they spent several days attending a chalet.

Miss Lessie Marshall received the announcement this morning of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gable at their home in Hastings, Neb., on Friday, August 6th. The little one has been named Rowena Aesop Gable. The Review joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gable in extending congratulations.

Mr. William Schurke had the misfortune to fall from a tree in the yard of Mrs. C. J. Salomon Tuesday morning while picking apples and was quite badly bruised. Mr. Schurke was standing on a ladder picking apples and became overbalanced, falling several feet to the ground. Edward Rotman happened to be near when the accident occurred and took the injured man home. His condition today is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollen, of Clinton, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, Chas. Bollen, in Denison, departed Sunday for Story City, where they will visit relatives for a few days before returning to their home.

Miss Ruth Selander is taking a vacation from her duties at the Halle-Brodersen store. She is visiting this week at the home of her brother, George, in Boone. From there she expects to go to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Schroeder, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moeller, at Springfield, Minn., has written relatives in Denison that a little baby boy arrived at the Moeller home on July 29th. The baby weighed 12 1/2 pounds at birth.

Herbert Fuller, who was injured two weeks ago, was able to resume his duties in the grocery department of the Halle-Brodersen store Monday. Herbert had the misfortune to fall from a ladder, breaking a rib and fracturing two others.

Mrs. W. H. Laub and son, Harold, departed Monday for Evanston, where they will spend two weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Tufts. They will visit Miss Hazel, who is doing settlement work at Marcel Center before returning home.

The First National bank is displaying a stalk of corn out in front of the bank which was taken from the McHenry farm just south of Denison. The stalk measures 10 feet and 7 inches, and was grown on the land adjoining the Mill sand pit.

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Bond expect to leave Saturday for Jamesville, Wis., where they will attend a reunion of the 13th Wisconsin Vol. Infantry, to which Dr. Bond belonged. They will stop off at Chicago for a few days' visit with John Harrison.

Misses Anna Schumacher and Fannie Hayes returned Saturday from a four weeks' trip in the east. Miss Schumacher spent several weeks in the Halle-Brodersen store. Miss Hayes New York city purchasing goods for visited Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md. and other eastern cities. They report a most enjoyable vacation trip.

Dr. G. W. Townsend has given up the practice of medicine in Denison, and he and his wife left Saturday for Chadron, Neb., where they will make their future home. Dr. Townsend found soon after coming to Denison that there was not an opening for another doctor here so he made arrangements for locating at Chadron. He recently graduated from the Creighton Medical college and we believe that he will make good at the new location.

Mrs. L. B. Thompson and Mrs. J. T. Slater, of near Buck Grove, were brought before the county insane commission Tuesday morning for a hearing and after careful investigation they were both adjudged insane. Mrs. Thompson is thirty-eight years of age and up until recently has been in the best of health. Her case is a particularly sad one and her many friends are hoping that the treatment at Clarinda will be beneficial. Mrs. Slater is seventy years of age and has been in poor health for some time, we understand. Deputy Sheriff John Costello, together with Mrs. S. S. Rice and Miss Johnson, took the two women to Clarinda yesterday afternoon to place them in the state hospital.

Mr. Fritz Muhl, of East Boyer township, meets with an experience he will not soon forget and which might have resulted in his death.

Mr. Muhl came to Denison early in the afternoon to attend to some business matters and had occasion to cross Broadway at the intersection of Main street and cut across the corner. When in the center of the street an automobile driven by a farmer who resides just east of Denison came up the hill from the Northwestern station and started to make the turn, running into Mr. Muhl. The driver stopped his car as soon as possible and got out and pulled Mr. Muhl from under the machine. Mr. Muhl was taken to a physician's office, where a careful examination was made, but fortunately it was found that he was not injured, only receiving a few bruises on one of his arms.

If the car had been going faster doubtless Mr. Muhl would have been dragged a considerable distance and injured severely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sims departed last week for Michigan, where they will spend two weeks enjoying an outing.

Mrs. Louie Squires of Council Bluffs arrived in Denison this afternoon for a few days' visit with her niece, Misses Marianna and Katherine Sims.

Messrs. Moore and Sims, horse buyers of Bussey, are in Denison today at Laub's barn purchasing horses. Three head were bought this forenoon.

Prof. W. C. VanNess has made arrangements for the Denison gospel team, composed of C. K. Myers and J. W. Shirik, to conduct services at Kiron next Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and daughters, Fannie and Dorothy, and Miss Hazel Aebischer returned Saturday from a motor trip to Iowa Falls, where they spent several days attending a chalet.

Miss Lessie Marshall received the announcement this morning of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gable at their home in Hastings, Neb., on Friday, August 6th. The little one has been named Rowena Aesop Gable. The Review joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gable in extending congratulations.

Mr. William Schurke had the misfortune to fall from a tree in the yard of Mrs. C. J. Salomon Tuesday morning while picking apples and was quite badly bruised. Mr. Schurke was standing on a ladder picking apples and became overbalanced, falling several feet to the ground. Edward Rotman happened to be near when the accident occurred and took the injured man home. His condition today is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollen, of Clinton, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, Chas. Bollen, in Denison, departed Sunday for Story City, where they will visit relatives for a few days before returning to their home.

Miss Ruth Selander is taking a vacation from her duties at the Halle-Brodersen store. She is visiting this week at the home of her brother, George, in Boone. From there she expects to go to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Schroeder, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moeller, at Springfield, Minn., has written relatives in Denison that a little baby boy arrived at the Moeller home on July 29th. The baby weighed 12 1/2 pounds at birth.

Herbert Fuller, who was injured two weeks ago, was able to resume his duties in the grocery department of the Halle-Brodersen store Monday. Herbert had the misfortune to fall from a ladder, breaking a rib and fracturing two others.

Mrs. W. H. Laub and son, Harold, departed Monday for Evanston, where they will spend two weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Tufts. They will visit Miss Hazel, who is doing settlement work at Marcel Center before returning home.

The First National bank is displaying a stalk of corn out in front of the bank which was taken from the McHenry farm just south of Denison. The stalk measures 10 feet and 7 inches, and was grown on the land adjoining the Mill sand pit.

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Bond expect to leave Saturday for Jamesville, Wis., where they will attend a reunion of the 13th Wisconsin Vol. Infantry, to which Dr. Bond belonged. They will stop off at Chicago for a few days' visit with John Harrison.

Misses Anna Schumacher and Fannie Hayes returned Saturday from a four weeks' trip in the east. Miss Schumacher spent several weeks in the Halle-Brodersen store. Miss Hayes New York city purchasing goods for visited Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md. and other eastern cities. They report a most enjoyable vacation trip.

Dr. G. W. Townsend has given up the practice of medicine in Denison, and he and his wife left Saturday for Chadron, Neb., where they will make their future home. Dr. Townsend found soon after coming to Denison that there was not an opening for another doctor here so he made arrangements for locating at Chadron. He recently graduated from the Creighton Medical college and we believe that he will make good at the new location.

Mrs. L. B. Thompson and Mrs. J. T. Slater, of near Buck Grove, were brought before the county insane commission Tuesday morning for a hearing and after careful investigation they were both adjudged insane. Mrs. Thompson is thirty-eight years of age and up until recently has been in the best of health. Her case is a particularly sad one and her many friends are hoping that the treatment at Clarinda will be beneficial. Mrs. Slater is seventy years of age and has been in poor health for some time, we understand. Deputy Sheriff John Costello, together with Mrs. S. S. Rice and Miss Johnson, took the two women to Clarinda yesterday afternoon to place them in the state hospital.

Mr. Fritz Muhl, of East Boyer township, meets with an experience he will not soon forget and which might have resulted in his death.

Mr. Muhl came to Denison early in the afternoon to attend to some business matters and had occasion to cross Broadway at the intersection of Main street and cut across the corner. When in the center of the street an automobile driven by a farmer who resides just east of Denison came up the hill from the Northwestern station and started to make the turn, running into Mr. Muhl. The driver stopped his car as soon as possible and got out and pulled Mr. Muhl from under the machine. Mr. Muhl was taken to a physician's office, where a careful examination was made, but fortunately it was found that he was not injured, only receiving a few bruises on one of his arms.

If the car had been going faster doubtless Mr. Muhl would have been dragged a considerable distance and injured severely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sims departed last week for Michigan, where they will spend two weeks enjoying an outing.

Mrs. Louie Squires of Council Bluffs arrived in Denison this afternoon for a few days' visit with her niece, Misses Marianna and Katherine Sims.

Messrs. Moore and Sims, horse buyers of Bussey, are in Denison today at Laub's barn purchasing horses. Three head were bought this forenoon.

Prof. W. C. VanNess has made arrangements for the Denison gospel team, composed of C. K. Myers and J. W. Shirik, to conduct services at Kiron next Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and daughters, Fannie and Dorothy, and Miss Hazel Aebischer returned Saturday from a motor trip to Iowa Falls, where they spent several days attending a chalet.

Miss Lessie Marshall received the announcement this morning of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gable at their home in Hastings, Neb., on Friday, August 6th. The little one has been named Rowena Aesop Gable. The Review joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gable in extending congratulations.

Mr. William Schurke had the misfortune to fall from a tree in the yard of Mrs. C. J. Salomon Tuesday morning while picking apples and was quite badly bruised. Mr. Schurke was standing on a ladder picking apples and became overbalanced, falling several feet to the ground. Edward Rotman happened to be near when the accident occurred and took the injured man home. His condition today is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollen, of Clinton, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, Chas. Bollen, in Denison, departed Sunday for Story City, where they will visit relatives for a few days before returning to their home.

Miss Ruth Selander is taking a vacation from her duties at the Halle-Brodersen store. She is visiting this week at the home of her brother, George, in Boone. From there she expects to go to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Schroeder, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moeller, at Springfield, Minn., has written relatives in Denison that a little baby boy arrived at the Moeller home on July 29th. The baby weighed 12 1/2 pounds at birth.

Herbert Fuller, who was injured two weeks ago, was able to resume his duties in the grocery department of the Halle-Brodersen store Monday. Herbert had the misfortune to fall from a ladder, breaking a rib and fracturing two others.

Mrs. W. H. Laub and son, Harold, departed Monday for Evanston, where they will spend two weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Tufts. They will visit Miss Hazel,