

MANILLA ITEMS.

Mrs. J. B. Schmidt, who had been visiting at Lytton, returned Monday evening. Her sister, Fern Bogenreif, accompanied her home for a month's visit. Mrs. B. O. Wilkinson and children, Mrs. L. S. Goin, Lorraine Beerbauer, Mrs. G. H. Poy and daughter, Grace, and Nellie Knote attended the chaqueta at DeLancey Saturday afternoon. J. L. Breckenridge returned Friday evening from Mitchell, S. D., where he visited a few days with his son, Claude Breckenridge, and wife. F. N. Cose, manager of the Neola Elevator company, was a business visitor in Manning Tuesday morning. Mesdames Jas. Hook and Clarence Barrett visited several days the past week in Omaha and Council Bluffs with relatives and friends. Mrs. Wm. McGilvra and daughter, of Des Moines, arrived Tuesday evening for a brief stay with her mother, Mrs. B. H. Dufflon. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wagner returned to their home in Denison on Tuesday after visiting the past week at the J. J. Meehan home. Mr. Meehan drove across to Denison, taking the family along. Mrs. Thos. Akers left for Grant Center Tuesday noon for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller. Her son, James, accompanied her and went on to Hornick for a visit at the Chas. Schroeder home. W. H. Brockelsby was an Omaha visitor in company with J. J. Meehan last Wednesday, where Mr. Brockelsby secured the agency for the Ford cars; Mr. Meehan having given up his territory surrounding here. Mr. Meehan now has the agency for the Dodge car, having secured a much larger territory than he formerly had. He intends to build a new garage soon in order that he may better take care of his future patrons. W. S. Moore and Henry Jahn were Omaha visitors Tuesday. E. A. Packard sold his farm in Iowa township last week to Henry Raniger. The farm consisted of 180 acres and sold for $2800 or $175 per acre. Mr. Raniger lives north of Manning at present, but will take possession of the new farm March 1st. Mrs. Lottie Thrapp took her son to a specialist in Omaha Tuesday for consultation in regard to the little fellow's hip, which has been giving him trouble of late. Mrs. Chas. Henderson and little son, Harold, of Lewistown, Ill., are guests this week at the O. S. Olson home and with other relatives. Miss Edna Stewart was a caller in Omaha and Council Bluffs Tuesday. Mrs. F. A. Jackson left Sunday for Perry for a week's visit with her son, Frank Jackson, and wife. Mrs. Anna Sethurst returned home Tuesday evening from her visit in Emmetsburg. Fred Breckenridge left Monday for a visit with his brother, Claude, and wife in Mitchell, S. D. S. A. Henry and R. J. Meehan transacted business in Denison Tuesday. Adam Bohlander was a caller in Arion Wednesday afternoon. Miss Edna Stewart went to Dunlap Wednesday afternoon for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Smith. Judd Packard returned Friday from his visit in Sioux Falls, S. D. He will visit with his parents a short time before resuming his school duties at Iowa City. A middle aged man who had wandered on to Will McLaren's farm one day last week and secured work, was run over by an auto some time Saturday night, sustaining a compound fracture in the forearm and a single fracture in the upper arm. He was found Sunday morning in a dazed condition on Joe Schramm's porch and was taken to a doctor's office, where first aid was given and the county physician, Dr. Wright, of Denison, was called. Dr. Wright came over about noon and took the man to the hospital in Denison. Mrs. L. S. Goin visited with relatives near Vall Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clint Dyson and Mr. and Mrs. Vanslyke drove to Logan on Saturday. Thelma Dyson, who had been visiting friends there, returned home with them. Mrs. Ed Smith visited in Dunlap several days last week. Mrs. Nell B. Hird transacted business in Vall Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Mesdames Krogh and Altman were Omaha callers Friday. Dr. C. L. White left for Winner, S. D. Monday morning for a visit with his brother. Rockley Barber returned Thursday morning from Chicago, where he had been visiting his sister, Mrs. Max Bayer. Mrs. Wm. Penterman and baby left Sunday morning for Clearwater, Neb., where she will visit her parents and other relatives. Mrs. John McCracken and daughter, Louise, returned home Sunday evening from Sioux City, where they had been visiting Mrs. McCracken's sister, Miss Gertrude Anderson, of Manning, visited Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ed Keilm. Arthur Barrow and family returned Sunday from an outing at Wall Lake. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mill, er, a boy, Monday, August 16th. Mrs. Ed Keilm visited in Omaha on Saturday. Mrs. E. C. Baker and family spent several days last week at Wall Lake. Mrs. Margaret Smith-Milligan was born in West Newton, Pa., Aug. 15, 1827. On Nov. 1, 1849, she married Joseph E. Milligan. They resided in Pennsylvania until 1865, when they moved to Cedar county in March and then to Crawford county in April, where they resided on a farm near Vall, she died at her home in Manilla on August 11th. To this union were born seven children, two boys having died several years ago. She leaves to mourn her death five daughters, Mrs. E. H. Brockelsby, of Vall; Mrs. Eliza

Bullinton, of Denison; Mrs. Thomas Hayes, of Manilla; Mrs. A. Harvey, of Nebraska; Mrs. C. W. Lyon, of South Dakota, and two sons, Alva Milligan and John Milligan, besides 49 grandchildren and sixty-one great grandchildren. She united with the Presbyterian church in 1857 and was a faithful member as long as her health permitted. Although too feeble to go out much for some time, she was always glad to visit with all who came to see her and always had a cheerful word ready. She was buried from the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon and laid to rest in the Nishnabotny cemetery. The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of all during this hour of sorrow. BROGAN ITEMS Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richardson and the latter's aunt, of the eastern part of the state, visited at Millford Center Friday. Bonnie Albert and Julius Christensen, of Ricketts, visited around in this vicinity Sunday. Mr. Hennings and wife and the latter's sister and husband spent a pleasant day at the Henry Schwartz home with their mother. Chas. Firth had quite a serious accident Sunday while going to Wall Lake in the auto. The roads being muddy the car skidded and turned over. There were some children in the back seat, who were thrown out, all being somewhat injured and one of them was hurt internally. We hope they will soon recover. Frank Meyers shipped a car of hogs to his home at Ulmer Saturday and also shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Monday morning. Misses Agnes Brogan and Marie Ryan spent Saturday evening at Vall. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fredrickson and son and sister and husband and daughter, Luella, and Miss Anna Fredrickson, of Wisconsin, spent a very pleasant day at the F. Brogan home. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jans spent last Wednesday at Arcadia. Mrs. Jans' mother went to Chicago for an extended visit. The Duffy family attended the dance in Breda Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Deiter and family and sister, Ruth McCalpin, and friend, Miss Florence Lynch, spent the last of the week at Ida Grove with relatives. Mrs. F. Brogan, Mrs. A. Slechta, Mrs. Will Maynard, Mrs. Jim Maynard, Mrs. Chas. O'Donnell, Mrs. George Maynard, Mrs. Harry Weed, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gunn and Mrs. Taungal attended the funeral of their old friend, Mrs. Isbell, at Denison last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. George Maynard spent Sunday evening at the H. Schwartz home.

SCHLESWIG ITEMS Mrs. Max Wulf, of Ricketts, was here the first of the week for a visit with old friends. Dr. H. D. Jones has returned from Chicago, where he spent the past two weeks. Elmer Watson and family and Mrs. Cohn and two children were in Denison Sunday afternoon, the guests of A. C. Weeks and wife. Harry Lorenzen, who is now stationed at Kiron, spent Sunday here at the parental home. Lew Herbison, of Ricketts, was calling on friends here Sunday. CHARTER OAK ITEMS Mr. and Mrs. John Deur and two children and Father Schaeffer autored to Lake View Tuesday to spend a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Probaseo, son, Will, and daughter, Fanchion, returned Tuesday from Lake Okoboji after a several weeks' outing. Miss Josephine Fruchs left Tuesday for a visit with friends in Dunlap. Hans Arff, of Mitchell, S. D., was calling on old friends in the Oak last Wednesday. H. H. Riessen made a business trip to Minnesota Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Haakinson and son, Lloyd, returned from their visit with relatives at Sloan Tuesday. Miss Mae Rouse returned to her home in Rapid City, S. D. Wednesday after a good visit with her friends in the Oak. Miss Lena Plough returned to her home in Denison Thursday after a visit with her sister on the farm near here. Misses Jessie Winans and Inez Capps returned home Sunday morning from their visit with relatives in Sloan and Mapleton. Miss Marie McGrath came from her work in Mapleton Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit with her mother and sister. Miss Anna Jacobson returned from Sioux City Thursday, having spent some time with her sister there. Misses Elizabeth Lutz, Elsie and Anne Cook, of Mapleton, spent Sunday at the S. B. Lyons home. Mrs. T. C. Collins was down from Mapleton Sunday visiting old friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. John Jones left last Wednesday morning for Wessington Springs, S. D., for a visit with their son, George, and family. Miss Lillian Peterson, of Council Bluffs, came Thursday afternoon for a visit with her cousins in the Thos. Thomsen home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Probaseo visited their son on the farm near Kenwood Thursday. B. L. Wright went to Dow City on Thursday to bring home his little folks who have been staying with their aunt during their mother's confinement in the Sioux City hospital. Misses Susie and Emma Feine and Letta Klahn returned Saturday morning from a three weeks' outing at Storm Lake and Aberdeen, S. D. Miss Stella Arff, of Mitchell, S. D., came Saturday for a visit with her old friends and schoolmates. Roy Loman drove over from Moorhead Saturday evening to attend chaqueta. Misses Letha and Fern Jones, of Moorhead, spent Sunday visiting relatives in the Oak. Mrs. Charlie Mains and baby left Sunday afternoon for a visit with her people at Woodbine. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reidesel and two little folks came Sunday morning from their home in Randolph, Neb., for a visit with their people in the Oak. Miss Mildred Goin returned from her visit at Ricketts Friday. Miss Harriet Wright went to Sioux City Saturday, returning Sunday in company with her parents. Miss Mildred Perry returned Saturday from an extended visit with relatives in Omaha. Jake French returned Saturday from Burlington Junction, Mo., where he has spent a greater part of his vacation visiting friends and relatives. B. L. Wright went to Sioux City Sunday, returning in the evening with his wife, who has been in the hospital. Little Miss Mary French is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Sturges, in Dunlap. Harry Berger attended the carnival in Denison Wednesday evening. Grover Wilkins came Friday for a visit with friends. Miss Edna Baak came over from Ricketts Friday for a visit among her friends and to attend chaqueta. Mrs. Clifford Dodge returned to her home in Sioux City Friday after spending a couple of weeks with her parents in the Oak. "Aunt Nan" Egbert came from Des Moines Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Robertson. Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Goin, of Manilla, visited in the G. B. Goin home Sunday. While working on the electric light building Friday a derrick carrying a wheelbarrow load of brick broke, letting the brick fall back onto one of the workmen, striking him in such a manner as to break one foot, which will keep him from work for some time. Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Shurtliff came Tuesday for a short visit in the H. H. Sturges home. Their two little girls have been here for some time, while their parents visited in Illinois. They all left Thursday for their home in Tyndall, S. D. Herman Linnenburg received word Wednesday telling him of the death of a brother. He left at once for his home in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Passman are enjoying a visit from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lipman. The conference of governors in open session will discuss reform legislation, but after dinner much more valuable information on how to carry the caucus will be exchanged. Collectors from the churches should reflect that it is not tactful to ask a man to contribute 50 cents to preaching at a time when he has just returned from a vacation costing $100. Gen. Carranza would probably be satisfied if the United States would send an army to Mexico and help him become president.

PLEASANT HILL ITEMS. Silas Thompson marketed hogs at Manilla Tuesday. George Hird, of Manilla, spent from Monday until Saturday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Will Thompson. The Misses Jennie, Pearl and Fayo Woodard, of Manilla, called on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bidlack Tuesday evening. Rev. Miller, pastor of the M. E. church at Manilla, called at the Mrs. Simmerman and Wm. Quantz homes Tuesday afternoon. Wilbur Jahn, of Manilla, spent Tuesday at the home of his uncle, B. H. Bidlack. Mrs. F. E. Macomber visited with Mrs. Silas Thompson Wednesday. The Misses Minnie and Letta Saylor, Clayton Baker, Arthur Barrow and Allen Barber and families motored to Lake View Thursday and returned home Sunday. They all report an enjoyable time. Velle Sowles, W. H. Brockelsby and Ben White and sons, of Manilla, were callers at the Mrs. Simmerman home Thursday afternoon. Mr. Sowles has recently purchased a new Buick six and is now learning to run it. T. J. Campbell and Miss Grace Bidlack were Denison visitors Thursday. Miss Grace Bidlack and little Mava McCutcheon spent Thursday evening and Friday at the T. J. Campbell home. The Misses Mabel and Mamie Thompson visited Friday afternoon with Mrs. Earl Bidlack. Mrs. Saylor and Nellie and Earl spent Friday afternoon at the Ben Bidlack home. N. K. Johnson spent Saturday and Sunday at the parental home in Kirkman. His mother is reported a very little better. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jackson, of Manilla, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Will Quantz and sons, Will and Harry, at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Baker and their friend, Mrs. Dan Clark, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at the N. K. Johnson home. Harold Bidlack and friend attended the chaqueta at Manning Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bidlack entertained Mrs. Ben Bidlack, Mrs. Simmerman, Miss Lucy, Walter, Darwin VanCleave and George Macumber at dinner Sunday. The Misses Hutchins, of Sioux City, are spending a few days at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson. Russell Calvin began work for T. J. Campbell Monday. Collectors from the churches should reflect that it is not tactful to ask a man to contribute 50 cents to preaching at a time when he has just returned from a vacation costing $100. Gen. Carranza would probably be satisfied if the United States would send an army to Mexico and help him become president.

The Greatest Sale on Mens Blue Serge Suits Ever Offered in the Town of Denison

50 mens blue serge suits. This is a special purchase just received. These are garments that would retail at $20.00 a suit. All sizes from 34 to 48, shown in the slims, stouts, and regulars. In this line we know that you can be fitted, and it will be to your interest to buy your fall suit at this time. The suits are made up of high quality blue serge, and are shown in the 3-piece style.

Priced at $13.85

Men's Novelty Suits

Made up of gray check and striped worsteds. Garments bought to retail at $16.50. Priced for this sale at $12.50. These are all new models, fresh from the tailor's needles. Each suit sold at this time is strictly guaranteed as to its wearing qualities.

Advance Showing of Womens Fall Shoes

Shown both in the button and lace style, featuring the very latest ideas for early fall wear. Priced for this week at $4.50 per pair.

Sale on Boys' School Clothing

Commencing Thursday of this Week. The Offering is Made up of Suits, Knickerbocker Pants and School Blouses.

Boy's suits divided into three different lots. The showing is made up of 40 suits received Saturday of last week, and all mod-ifs are shown. Lot No. 1. Suits at $3.48. This lot is made up of 15 suits, shown in the dark mixture cloths, and made up in the Norfolk style. Lot No. 2 at $3.98. These are suits made to retail at $5.00, and are offered very special for this showing. They are made up of novelty mixtures in the Norfolk style. Lot No. 3 at $4.98. These are suits made to retail at $6.00, made up of 90 per cent wool cashmeres in the brown and novelty checks. 100 pairs of boys' knee pants. Regular $1.00 grade, all sizes from 6 to 16. This is a new lot received last week. A special purchase bought by our representative while in the Eastern market. Priced for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 59 cents a pair. Boys' school trousers at 42 cents. All ages 5 to 16. 10 doz. boys' school blouses. All dark colors, ages 6 to 15. This is a blouse we bought to retail at 50 cents, priced specially for this week at 39c.

In Our Shoe Dept.

SPECIAL IN BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES FOR THIS WEEK, SHOWN BOTH IN THE BUTTON AND LACE. Every pair guaranteed. We have just 25 pair of womens' slippers left to clear away. A good assortment is left to select from. Values as high as $4.50 are included. Your choice of any slipper at $1.00. Complete clearance on all mens' slippers for this week. Values as high as $5.00. Your choice for this week at $1.98. A good assortment is left to choose from.

A Sale on Rugs, Linoleums and Mattings That Will Long Be Remembered

The advance in the wool market has caused a heavy advance in rugs and carpetings, owing to the high prices of wool and the scarcity of dyes. We were fortunate in securing one lot of rugs made up of 9x12s, shown in the Axminster velvets. If you are contemplating the purchase of a rug this fall, it will be to your interest to take advantage of our prices at this time. 9x12 Axminster rugs. Marked to retail at $22.50. Priced at $17.50. 9x11 velvet rugs. $20.00 value. 15 rugs in this lot, all different patterns. Priced at $14.85. 27x54 velvet rugs. $20.00 value. 15 rugs in this lot all different patterns. Priced at 98c. Regular $1.50 value. 27x54 velvet rugs, priced while they last at 98cents. Regular $1.50 value. 36 x 63 Axminster rugs. Regular $3.50 value. Priced at $2.65. 27x54 Axminster rugs. Reg. $2.00 value. Priced at $1.48. Sale on floor matting. This is a regular 40c grade, 36 in. ch. width. 120 yards to offer for this sale. Priced at 28 cents per yard. 12x4 floor linoleum. for complete clearance this week at $1.98 per running yard, 12 feet wide.

George Menagh & Company - - - - - Denison, Iowa