He purchased some of this seed at $3.00 per bushel and sowed it on four acres of his farm in Denison township, one-half bushel to the acre, and when harvest time came he threshed 242 bushels of wheat, making 60 1/2 bushels to the acre.

He is positive that from three to five bushels were left on each acre on account of it being so badly lodged and the ground so wet.

Mr. Liscomb will have two hundred bushels of this seed for sale and is advertising it in this issue.

FLOWER CONTEST WAS BIG EVENT

Twenty-eight Ladies Compete in Flower Naming and Spelling Contest at Boy's Store Tuesday.

MISS AGENTS KING WINS FIRST
Mrs. Emma Paup and Miss Blossom Baker Also Successful—Some of the Names Were Difficult.

The flower naming and flower spelling contest held yesterday at the Boys' department store created unusual interest among the women of Denison and vicinity. In the neighborhood of forty women registered early in the week, but on Tuesday just twenty-eight participated.

Fifty varieties of flowers grown in Iowa were put on display in a booth on the second floor. Each flower was placed in a separate vase and numbered and each lady was given a card on which to write the names. On account of the large number who entered the contest only fifteen minutes was allowed for each one to remain in the booth.

Mr. C. L. Voss was so interested in the contest as announced by the Review last week that he offered a prize of $5.00 in cash to the first person who was able to name and spell correctly the names of two-thirds of the flowers. However he was not called upon to furnish the prize money as none of the contestants were able to spell and name correctly over 66 per cent of them.

Miss Agnes King won the first prize, a $15.00 dress, as she spelled and named correctly 66 per cent of the flowers. The second prize, a $5.00 pair of shoes, was won by Mrs. Emma Paup, and the third prize, a $5.00 silk waist, was won by Miss Blossom Baker.
