lap, visited here Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Munsey. J. N. Bell and son, Robert, spent the day Friday in Omaha. Mrs. Lincoln Goddard and son, Merritt, arrived Sunday from Ft. Dodge to make an extended visit here with relatives. Dr. R. G. Moore, of Dunlap, made a professional call here last Wednesday. Walter Homan moved from west of town to one of the Howarth farms last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butterworth and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brace autoed over to Harlan last Wednesday to attend the fair. Mrs. Sarah E. Baber and daughter, Ruby, returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Ames. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith went to Defiance Sunday to visit her parents. Mrs. Smith expects to remain for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cook and son, Oliver, spent the past week at Rolfe and Emmetsburg visiting her brothers. They returned home Sunday. Mrs. Clark Best and little people returned last week from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Leslie at Orchard, Neb. We are pleased to report that Mrs. Will Rockwell, whose illness from erysipelas was noted last week, is improved, a fact that her friends will be glad to note. Frank Wiley and Julius Ahart shipped a car of sheep to the Omaha market last Thursday. Herman Lazerus, one of our popular merchants, was unable to be at the store several days last week on account of being ill. Jake Reese has been appointed substitute carrier on route two and has been making the trips with the regular carrier, Walter Swatman, so as to learn the route and the business. Mrs. Charley Horn was up from Omaha two or three days last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Maria Gibson. She returned home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bixler and children, of Fullerton, N. D., have been pleasant guests at the Charley Smith, Joe Stepanek and Tom Ahart homes the past week. Byrd Wood is here from Jefferson visiting his mother, Mrs. Jane Wood, and other relatives. Mrs. Daniel Reagan arrived Friday from her home at What Cheer on account of the illness of her brother, P. C. Howarth. Misses Ellen and Agnes Goddard arrived home Sunday from a month's visit with their sister, Mrs. Ed Fagan, at Estavan, Sask., Canada. The Friday club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Odell last Friday. A number of other ladies were present, which added charm to the occasion. Mrs. George Sprecher, of Denison, gowned in Dutch costume and wearing wooden shoes, entertained the ladies with a monologue in the Dutch dialect which was well received and heartily applauded. She responded to an encore and appeared in a song and dance which was much appreciated. A guessing game of "Watermelon" was next instituted, Mrs. J. A. Scott winning the first prize, a pretty handkerchief and Mrs. M. A. Riley receiving the consolation grant two course lunch brought the afternoon to a close. Out of town guests were Mrs. J. P. Riddle, of Creighton, Neb.; Mrs. L. M. Baer, Mrs. George Sprecher and Mrs. Clyde Cochran, all of Denison. From Ainsworth, Neb., comes the news of the marriage of Jay Langley, formerly of this place, to Mrs. Bessie Storey, of Ainsworth, the wedding taking place August 22d. Mr. Langley grew up here and has many friends who wish to offer best wishes to him and his bride. Mrs. Charles Bell and Mrs. T. E. Baber entertained a number of ladies Thursday at the home of the former in honor of their mother, the day being her fifty-fourth birthday. At the close of a pleasant afternoon, a two course supper was served. Mrs. Hansen's many friends unite in wishing her many more happy birthdays. Frank Honz was down from Denison Saturday spending the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Honz. Mrs. Wilbur Berry is numbered on the sick list. Five auto loads of ladies and gentlemen went to Dunlap Friday evening, where they gave a delightful program at the M. E. church for the benefit of the Epworth League at that place. Floyd Sharp arrived from Terrill Saturday and will spend the week at the parental, Brinton Sharp, home before leaving for Kansas City to resume his studies at the Kansas City Veterinary college. This is his senior year. Mrs. Jim Baber, Sr. and children returned Saturday from a visit with relatives at Denison. Mrs. Enos Cross received a dispatch Saturday from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emil Doser, at Artesia, N. M., stating that Emil was very sick and Mr. and Mrs. Cross left on the early train on Sunday for that place. Mr. Doser left here several years ago, hoping to improve his health and his friends here sincerely hope that the present illness is at least not a recurrence of the old trouble. We trust to hear soon of his improvement. Misses Violet and Lulu Starkey have returned from their visit at their former home in southern Iowa. Frank Binnall and son, Merle, and George Binnall and Will Sterrett autoed over to Harlan Wednesday to attend the fair. Misses Ruth Glassburner and Jean Noland were hostesses to the Palo Alto club last Saturday afternoon and a most pleasant time was had. A delicious lunch was a feature particularly enjoyed. Messrs. A. E. Calundan and C. R. Ridd went to Sioux City Friday to get the former's household goods. Mrs. Calundan will be here in a few days and the new home prepared for occupancy at an early date. They will occupy the north part of the A. H. Ridd house. The Woman's club met Wednesday with Mrs. E. H. Swasey. Mrs. C. W. Manning presided and a most interesting session was held. Roll call was responded to with current events which were discussed at length. Mrs. J. A. Brill gave an interesting talk on suffrage in Colorado. The club will meet the second Wednesday in September with Mrs. Brill. Arthur Starkey is back from a week's visit at Woodbine. Miss Ora Butterworth spent the week in Des Moines visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, and attending the state fair. Arch Laird moved his household goods last Friday into the P. W. O'Meara building north of the city hotel, and the T. E. Baber family are occupying their house vacated by the Laird family. It is a shame that we cannot have more houses to rent and that it becomes necessary for families to occupy vacant store buildings. Miss Irene Smith returned Saturday from a visit with her friend, Miss Gladys Welsh, in Buck Grove. Fred Copleman and Medford Rudd are back from Wintonka, S. D., where they have been putting up a house on Mr. Coleman's farm. Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Anderson spent the day Monday in Omaha. Friends of Mrs. Fred Coleman are pleased to learn that she is able to be about again, following a week's illness. Mr. and Mrs. Art Wilson arrived the first of the week from Humboldt, Neb., and we are informed that they contemplate remaining here permanently. They are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dow. P. J. Hallows was in Omaha Sunday to spend the day with his daughter, Miss Jennie. Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy and daughter, Mrs. Lise, were shopping in Omaha Monday. Miss Helen Hayes came down from Denison Saturday to visit her friend, Mrs. E. G. Wiggins. Her sister, Miss Mae, came Sunday morning and they returned home together in the evening. Considerable frost was reported on Monday morning, but no damage was done. Mrs. Frank Holmes, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Yackey and daughter, Hattie, of Defiance, were calling on Mrs. Ed Ahart Monday. The Palo Alto club picnicked in Cross' grove last Friday. After a big picnic feed the girls were busy with their kodaks. The day's pleasures were completed with a picnic feast, and all returned home at eveningtide tired but happy, having spent a memorable day close to nature. Herman Lazerus has received word from his mother, Mrs. Louie Cohen, telling of their having encountered the terrors of the recent Galveston flood. The Cohen family are located at Dickinson, about fifteen miles from Galveston. The flood waters ran so high as to sweep away their horses and all other stock, machinery, 500 chickens, their entire crop and the family were forced to spend several days in the second story of their home, the lower part being filled with water. Mrs. Cohen writes that they passed through the greatest trial of their life during the awful period and that the family will probably leave there at an early date. School opened Monday morning with the following: Principal, C. W. Manning; first assistant, Miss Reta Coryell; second assistant, Miss Bernice Hunsaker; grammar, Miss Hilda Turnlund; second intermediate, Miss Ellen Goddard; first intermediate, Miss Lam; primary, Miss Agnes Goddard. There are seventeen beginners enrolled, a greater number than for several years. On the other hand, the attendance throughout is an average. The first and second grades number 32; third and fourth, 29; fifth and sixth, 25; seventh and eighth, 22; ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth, 18; total, 170. We have the outlook for a very prosperous year. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chamberlain and Miss Erma went to Denison Monday to make arrangements for the latter to enter the high school at that place. The Baptist Sunday school held a joint picnic with the Paradise Sunday school in the grove adjoining the Paradise Center school last Saturday. Although the day was threatening and at times the rain pattered merrily down, they were not daunted. A large crowd assembled and partook of the big picnic dinner. After the feast was over stunts were pulled off, games played and finally a fine program was given. The day was greatly enjoyed despite the elements and is one that will long be remembered by those participating. Miss Ellen Scott came home last Wednesday from Cedar Falls where she has been the past year, a student at the State Teacher's College. After a week's visit she will leave for Irwin where she will serve as teacher in the public schools. Miss Scott is a teacher with several years' experience, and always has been a devoted and efficient of the schools there are to be congratulated on their good fortune in securing her. Clarence and Stanley Logsdon, of Ames, spent several days here recently with their sister, Mrs. Frank Glassburner. Mrs. J. R. Best is able to be out after several days' illness. The Jolly Bunch of Girls held a picnic in the big park last Friday and although the attendance was light, those present had a dandy good time. The big dinner, the pretty scenery, taking pictures, etc. all contributed their share to make the day pass most pleasantly. They plan on having one soon again. A number went from here Sunday to witness the Dunlap vs. Utg ball game, witnessing a shutout to the former team. Miss Nora Finnegan, of Omaha, was visiting friends here the first of the week. Mrs. Daniel Reagan went to Omaha Sunday to see her brother, Frank Howarth, who is in the Presbyterian hospital where he underwent an operation last week for the removal of the appendix. We are pleased to state that

Mr. Howarth is getting along as well as can be expected, a fact that many friends will be pleased to learn. Ray Field went to Council Bluffs last Thursday where he was united in marriage to Miss Ollie Chandler, the ceremony taking place at the Presbyterian manse. The newly wedded couple have gone for a visit with relatives at Lincoln and Stapleton, Neb. They will make their home here. We offer congratulations. Miss Gladys Talcott has resigned as operator in the local telephone office and Miss Ollie Lee, of Arion, has been secured to take her place Miss Lee begins work Wednesday. Dave Miller is on the sick list again. Mrs. H. E. Butterworth and her houseguest, Mrs. William Torbert, of Denver, were in Denison Thursday attending a party. Uncle Dan Howarth was up from Dunlap Sunday visiting his brother, Uncle Edmund Howarth. This is Uncle Dan's first visit here since his trip to the San Francisco exposition. The second team of ball players went to Charter Oak Sunday where they defeated the latter to the tune of 6 to 2, and could do it again if necessary. Mrs. Bessie Wells, of Denison, is visiting at the parental, J. W. Cranmer home. Mr. and Mrs. John Chesebrough came down from Carroll Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ridd. Mrs. James Lankton, of North Dak., and Mrs. Claude Stewart, of Dunlap, took dinner Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. E. H. Swasey. O. J. Judd visited relatives in Omaha Sunday. Burton Lygman, of Carroll, Sunday in town. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Vollerson attended the State Fair in Des Moines from Friday to Sunday. Miss Mamie Potter began the fall term of school at Paradist Center last Monday. The Fred Pearsall family spent last Wednesday in Harlan at the fair. Mrs. Isaac Howarth, of Denison, spent a day or two here with relatives the last of the week. Mrs. Perry Showers, who lives south east of town, met with a painful accident Sunday. While gathering roasting ears a corn blade ran into her eye, injuring the ball and cutting the eye lid. She has been suffering terribly. Geo. Fritz is giving a couple of his residences a new coat of paint, which adds considerably to their appearance. Miss Hilda Turnlund was hostess to the Golden Hour club last Thursday afternoon and a very pleasant time was spent with this popular hostess. A fine two course lunch materially added to the pleasures of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHenry enjoyed a pleasant visit from their brother-in-law, E. W. Pierce, of Denison, Sunday. Mrs. Walter Swatman returned Saturday from Omaha, where she had been called on account of the illness of her father, Wm. Cook. She left him much improved and Mr. Cook expects to come here to stay a while when he gets able to make the trip. The adjourned session of the quarterly conference will be held next Saturday, at 2:30 p. m. at the M. E. church. On Sunday morning the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed. Regular services for the remainder of the day. This will be the last Sunday before Rev. Adams leaves for Des Moines to attend the annual conference and thus closes the conference year. Mrs. Dan Wingrove's niece, who has been visiting here for two weeks past, returned Sunday to her home at Council Bluffs. F. A. Smith has sold his barber shop to Art Wilson and possession has been given. The Smith family have gone to Defiance to live. Mr. Wilson's many friends will hail with delight the news of his going into business here and thus becoming a permanent resident. Charley Starkey, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Geo. T. Smith, came up from Woodbine Sunday and spent the day at the W. A. Starkey home. Herman Lazerus was a Denison visitor Monday. One of the most profitable meetings of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. Glassburner. The day was pleasant and the attendance large. Mrs. A. B. Adams had charge of the lesson study, the subject of which was "The Open Secret—Prayer." The election of officers for the ensuing year was then taken up with the following result: President, Mrs. J. B. Glassburner; first vice-president, Mrs. Frank McHenry; second vice-president, Mrs. A. H. Cook; third vice-president, Mrs. Thos. Rae; recording secretary, Mrs. Ida Talcott; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank McHenry; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Morrison. We are pleased to state that the society has had a most prosperous year, having met their full apportionment, $200, and sent $68 surplus. For the past fifteen years they have supported one scholarship in China and for the past two years have paid for one additional one in India. At the afternoon's close Mrs. Glassburner and Mrs. Joe Hollowell served a delicious lunch. This meeting closes the present year's work. Mrs. J. L. Butterworth has been taking care of a very sore hand, caused by running a sewing machine needle entirely through a front finger. It was necessary to call a physician, who split the finger open before the needle could be removed. Misses Elizabeth Ebzery and Nellie Fishel returned Wednesday from their visit at the Harker home in Mapleton. Lela Baker arrived from Sioux City Saturday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rudd.
