

LARGEST WEDDING KIRON'S HISTORY

Marriage of Rev. Irvin Johnson and Miss Esther Ladinia Anderson Solemnized September 28th

MANY FROM AWAY ATTEND
Couple Highly Esteemed in Kiron and Vicinity Where They Have Both So Long Resided.

Kiron, Oct. 1—(Special to the Review)—One of the largest weddings in the history of Kiron and one which will long be remembered, was that of Miss Esther Ladinia Anderson and Rev. Irvin Johnson, which occurred on Tuesday evening, September 28th, at the Free Mission church at this place. The wedding was of unusual interest as the contracting parties are among our most prominent young people who have grown to manhood and womanhood in this vicinity.

The marriage was performed promptly at 7 o'clock in the evening. Miss Grace Selander, of Denison, playing the organ, and Miss Edna Lindgren, a cousin of the groom, who strewed flowers in the aisle before the bride couple.

Upon arriving at the altar the solemn and beautiful ceremony was performed. The service was brief, but most impressive and the fact that the father of the groom performed the marriage rites was a most happy feature of the occasion.

The church was attractively decorated for the event, flowers and plants being used in profusion. The service was performed under an arch erected near the platform, which was prettily trimmed with vines and flowers. Extending down from the top of the arch was a pennant made of silk bearing the names of the contracting parties inscribed in gold.

After the church service a reception was held at the home of Mr. C. A. Dulk, after which a three course wedding supper was served. Rev. John Cedergren, of Oakland, Neb., and Rev. M. N. Morton, of Kiron, congratulated the happy couple on behalf of the guests and wished them years of happiness, prosperity and health.

Among the out of town guests present at the wedding were: Rev. John Cedergren, of Oakland, Neb.; Mrs. J. H. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Anderson, of Dunlap; Mrs. Henry Goetel, of Lorimer, Iowa, and Mrs. Anvay Bloom, of Lawton, Iowa.

Telegrams of congratulation were read from Chicago, Albert City, Meriden, Iowa; Verona, Neb., and from Minnesota.

This esteemed couple need no introduction to people in Kiron and vicinity, both having been born and reared in this locality. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Anderson, and is a young lady of sterling character and her unassuming ways have won her the respect and esteem of all who know her. For many years she has been the organist at the Free Mission church and a teacher of the primary class of the Sunday school. She is a talented young lady and will be an aid to her husband in his church work.

Rev. Irvin Johnson has been the pastor of the Free Mission church at this place for several years and is a Kiron boy who is making a success of his chosen life work. He is a young man of whom Kiron is proud. He is sincere and zealous in his work and, equipped with his talent as a speaker, he has been remarkably successful in his work. It was through his efforts that the new Free Mission church at Kiron was built.

The happy young couple will make their home in the Jacobson cottage, where they will be pleased to have their many friends call upon them.

This happy young couple start out together in life with the divine blessing resting over them and with the best wishes of hundreds of friends.

Sale Dates Claimed

Saturday, Oct. 9: Auction sale on the streets of Denison.
Monday, Oct. 11: Horse buyer, Harry Gill, of Chicago, will be at Laub's livery barn in Denison.

Tuesday, Oct. 12: Sale of Crawford county farm at auction; 160 acre farm located 2 miles southwest of West Side Sale to be held on the farm at 2 p. m.

Wednesday, Oct. 13: Shorthorn sale. Sale to be held at Waveland Stock farm, located 6 miles east of Odobolt.

Thursday, Oct. 14: Pure Jersey sale. O. S. Larson to hold his twenty-third annual sale of pure bred Duroc Jersey boars and gilts at his farm one-half mile southeast of Logan.

Wednesday, Oct. 20: Duroc Jersey sale. B. W. Hunt's sale of Duroc Jersey boars at Laub's livery barn in Denison.

The public sale season has now commenced and a number of dates have already been claimed in the Review's column of Sales Dates Claimed, which appears for the first time this season in this week's issue. Farmers who intend to hold sales as soon as the date has been fixed so that it may appear in this column. The Review makes no charge for claiming your date and by running your date in this column the possibility of two sales being held on the same day is eliminated. This is a feature that has been appreciated by farmers in the past and keeps your sale before the public right up to the very day that it is held. Mr. Farmer, if you are going to hold a sale, by all means call at the Review office and let us explain public sale advertising methods to you. Most of the public sales during the past decade have been advertised in the Review for farmers realize that Review advertising reaches nearly every home in Crawford county and in counties adjacent.

Farmer's read the public sale column in the Review and it is through this column that they keep in touch with the sales to be held.

We wish to call attention to the following sales to be held in the near future:

O. S. Larson Sale.
Mr. O. S. Larson, of Logan, is using space in this issue to announce his twenty-third annual sale of Duroc Jersey boars and gilts. Here is a sale that is well worth attending and farmers who desire to purchase some pure bred Duroc Jersey stock should read his announcement over carefully and plan to attend. He is offering 40 head of thoroughbred boars and gilts. They are sired by six different sires: King the Col. Redmen, Royal Select, Ming the Col. Dream, King the Col. Jr., and W. Col. If you are interested in a good hog be sure and attend this sale for Mr. Larson has a grand lot of boars. The sale will be held at his farm one-half mile southeast of Logan. Remember the date, Thursday, October 14th, commencing promptly at 1 o'clock. His announcement appears on page eight of the first section.

Farm at Auction.
It is not often that a Crawford county farm is sold at auction, but in this issue of the Review will be found the announcement of a sale of 160 acres located two miles southwest of West Side on Tuesday, October 12th, to be sold at auction. This farm belongs to the Adolph Winters estate and in order to close it up it has been decided to sell the land at auction. This farm is one of the very best ones in the eastern part of the county, being smooth and gently rolling, just sufficient to make natural drainage without wash or waste on any part of it. The farm is well improved, having an excellent modern dwelling, large barns, granaries and outbuildings. The announcement of this sale is printed on page six of the first section. If you want to purchase an A. No. 1 farm, you had better plan to attend this sale.

B. W. Hunt's Sale.
Many farmers have been waiting for the announcement of B. W. Hunt's sale of Duroc Jersey boars. This sale is to be held at Laub's livery barn in Denison on Wednesday, October 20th. He is offering 40 head of fall and spring boars and they are one of the grandest lots that he has ever offered; all in the pink of condition. He will sell 12 head of husky fall boars, including three of his prize winners. They are sired by B. H.'s Crimson Wonder, a litter mate to the second prize winner at Des Moines and a son of Echo's Crimson Wonder, the first prize and champion at Nebraska in 1914. Could you ask for better blood lines? He is selling 28 head of spring boars sired by his 800 pound senior yearling Giant Defender, who is admired by all who see him. Mr. Hunt will have his catalogues ready for mailing this week and will be glad to send them to all interested parties. F. E. Stetckman will cry this sale. Read the announcement on another page of this issue.

Auction Sale.
An auction sale will be held on the streets of Denison next Saturday afternoon, October 9th. A team of good horses, together with buggy and set of harness and some household goods will be sold.

Horse Buyer.
Harry Gill, the Chicago horse buyer, will be at Laub's livery barn in Denison on next Monday, October 11th. Mr. Gill is advertising in this issue for 500 head of cavalry horses and mares from 5 to 10 years old, weight from 1000 to 1100; must be in good flesh and serviceably sound; also 500 head of artillery horses and mares from 5 to 10 years old, weight 1100 to 1400; must be fat and broke to harness. He is also in the market for 1000 head of horses from 5 to 10 years old, weighing from 1250 to 1500. Farmers, here is an opportunity to sell your horses at top prices. Bring them in and let Mr. Gill make you an offer on them.

Confirmation services were held at the St. Rose of Lima church Tuesday afternoon when a class of forty, consisting of twenty-two boys and eighteen girls, were confirmed. Right Rev. Bishop Garrigan, of Sioux City, preached the confirmation sermon and was assisted in the service by Father T. J. McCleary, of Carroll; Father P. F. Lynch, of Manila; Father M. J. Farrelly and Father A. A. Cavanaugh, both of Denison.

Boyer, Oct. 4—(Special to the Review)—This community was deeply affected on Sunday when it was learned that Mrs. Julius Cornish, a former resident of this place, had died at a hospital in St. Paul, Minn., on Friday, October 1st. Mr. Cornish accompanied the remains to Boyer on Sunday.

Another sign of the reversion to barbarism in Europe is that they will not even declare a truce while the world's series ball games are being played.

When the orator refers eloquently to the speedy coming of great events, it is not clear whether he refers to the war in Europe or to the world's series ball games.

Many people will celebrate the national fire prevention day October 9th by starting fires in stoves full of paper, leading to chimneys loaded with many years' accumulations of soot.

On last Wednesday Mrs. Baer entertained the F. H. club and a number of friends in a very delightful manner. Needlework was provided by the hostess and after the sewing session and a splendid visit all enjoyed the delicious refreshments. Mrs. Flynn, of Detroit, Mich., was an out of town guest.

Mrs. Patterson, mother of our townsman, Mr. O. A. Patterson, was the guest of honor at a beautiful luncheon given by Mrs. S. G. Wright on Thursday. Covers were laid for eleven with Mrs. Patterson at one end of the table and Mrs. Enoch Wood at the other, their combined ages being one hundred and seventy-two years. A delicious menu was faultlessly served and the appointments were in keeping with the artistic home.

The Girls' Home Guards met with Marie Weiss and Nita Baum at the home of the former on Tuesday evening. After the program light refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. F. Kuehne gave a beautiful dinner on Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Patterson, of Cedar Rapids, who returned to her home this week. Mrs. Flynn, of Detroit, was a guest from out of town whom all enjoyed meeting.

Mrs. Voss entertained at dinner on Saturday evening as a compliment to Mrs. Flynn, of Detroit, Mich. Covers were laid for ten and a social time enjoyed. Mrs. Flynn is a sister of Mr. Theo. Walker and is enjoying her stay in Denison very much.

Miss Fernie Osborn entertained twenty-five friends at an elegant tea on Friday evening. The evening was devoted to pleasant social conversation.

On Thursday evening at H. H. club Miss Genevieve Richards was presented with a beautiful set of sherry glasses. Miss Richards will soon leave Denison to enjoy the comforts of a home of her own and her club friends and associates are all vying with each other in showering her with blessings and more material things. Mrs. Penney entertained the Woman's club on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Jensen. A clay or game was much enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served.

On Friday afternoon the ladies of the German Methodist church gave a surprise party for Mrs. Lemke at the home of Mrs. Adolphsen. As a token of love and esteem the honored guest was presented with a dozen beautiful silver spoons. Mrs. Lemke is a lady of much culture and refinement and during her husband's parastore in Denison has endeared herself to a great many people who sincerely regret that the family is to sever their connection with this diocese and move to South Dakota. All join in good wishes for their future.

The Frisella club was nicely entertained by Mrs. Kadoch on Tuesday afternoon. The usual sewing and social session was followed by a very appetizing lunch.

The D. A. R. society was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. H. Laub Tuesday evening of this week. After a pleasant evening, dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Hugo Gebert, regent, much to her surprise, was invited to cut a large and delicious birthday cake which had been added in honor of her birthday anniversary.
