

SOLDIER ITEMS.

Mrs. Wm. Meyer came home Friday after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Will Frahm. She was accompanied home by little Malinda Frahm, who will stay with her aunt for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Meyer were callers at the home of his brother, August Sunday.

Misses Hannah Williams and Clara Owens were visiting at the J. E. Owens home Saturday evening.

W. J. Lacey and George Johnson were callers at the Owens home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fester and little son, Edward, motored to Denison Saturday to do some shopping in the big stores and visit at the Dr. Rosburg home.

Peter Bruhn and son, Herbert, were business callers at the Sam Eyers home Monday morning.

Miss Loretta Murphy was a caller at the Chris Henning home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Knudsen entertained a number of friends and relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Langholdt and little son, Albin, Miss Henrietta Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Langholdt and son, Clarence, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langholdt and son, Frahm, were entertained at the Will Frahm home one evening last week.

Fred Schoenfeldt and wife and daughter autored to Denison to do some shopping Saturday.

Thomas Munster and Dr. McWilliams visited at the Aug Rix home Friday.

Ed McGuire, from near Danbury, transacted business in Ricketts Friday.

Fred Kuhlman drove to Mapleton Tuesday to meet his mother, who was coming home from Castana after a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Albert Fester visited at the Adolph Rosburg home Tuesday evening.

Miss Lena Rosburg called on her sister, Mrs. Albert Fester, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Rockleman entertained a number of friends and relatives Friday evening, the occasion being his birthday. The guests departed at a late hour wishing the host many happy returns of the day.

Miss Hattie Bruhn helped her sister, Mrs. Sam Eyer, cook for the threshers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boeck, of Clinton county, have been visiting at the Eggen, Else and Teut homes.

Otto Teut was a caller at the home of his brother-in-law, John Else, last Wednesday.

J. C. Eggen and daughter, Miss Hildee, were Charter Oak shoppers Friday.

Louie Dorale is in Wyoming visiting old time friends and transacting business. Louie formerly lived out there.

James McGrath, Mrs. J. P. Murphy, Loretta, Ellen and Jas. Murphy were guests at the Mrs. Amanda Owens home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Owens and little daughters, Doris and Lois, were Sunday visitors at the Owens home.

Misses Emma and Elsie Dorale and Walter Schwarz were entertained at the McGrath home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ethel Miller, of Denison, is the guest of her friend, Miss Clara Owens.

All of the schools in this township will be closed this week while the teachers are attending institute.

Miss Lucretia Mau went to Omaha Friday for a short visit with her aunt. From there she went to Blair for an over Sunday visit with her folks. She returned to her school duties in No. 5 Monday afternoon. Miss Margaret Murphy acted as substitute during her absence.

Miss Celestine Fitzpatrick, who teaches in No. 2, was an over Sunday visitor with her folks in Danbury.

Mr. and Mrs. John Else and daughters, Helma and Elvira, autored to the Oak Saturday to do some shopping.

Mrs. Carl Krueger visited at the Albert Langholdt home in Ricketts one day last week.

Mrs. George Dorfer is enjoying a visit from her sister.

Will Maas and wife entertained a large number of friends and relatives Sunday.

Tom Serton and family, former residents of this township but who now live on a farm near Danbury, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son. The new-comer was named Norman Francis.

There seems to be quite a number of the farmers of this vicinity who will retire from farm life and move to Ricketts in the spring. Carl and Herman Krueger are going to build new houses in town this fall, and Will Maas has his house ready to occupy. Ed Langholdt expects to move to town and there are a few more who have not fully decided what they will do.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bruhn and daughter, Hilda, and sons, Louis and Raymond, visited at the Haggerman home Sunday.

Anton and Edwin Rosburg spent Sunday with the Haggerman boys.

Willie and Henry Bergendahl, of Schleswig, were over Sunday visitors at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Jurgensen are the proud parents of a baby boy, born on September 23d.

Miss Owens and brother returned home from Sioux City Monday after a few days' visit with their sister, Mrs. T. A. McGrin and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rogers are enjoying a visit with their aunt, Mrs. Burman, who lives in the eastern part of the state.

Miss Anna Kahl went to Denison, where she will spend several weeks learning dressmaking.

Frank Houlihan was called to Kansas City, Mo., Sunday on account of the serious illness of his uncle, Mr. C. Houlihan.

Miss Anna Buesing, of Denison, enjoyed a few days the past week with her sister, Mrs. Ed Kolls.

Mr. and Mrs. Gehring and Mrs. Shade were visitors at the home of Mauritz Jurgensen last week, getting acquainted with the new baby. Mr. and Mrs. Louie Johannsen were Sunday visitors at the Jurgensen home.

BOYER VALLEY ITEMS.

The two Boyer bridges were washed out the first of the week, which makes it very inconvenient for the farmers. They all hope that one of them will be replaced soon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Houston on Saturday, October 2d, a 9 pound boy.

LaVorne Morse, who has been spending a few weeks in Dakota, returned home recently.

Ed Lyons, of Charter Oak, spent Saturday and Sunday at the F. Wilber home.

Margaret Houston, who attends school in Dunlap, spent the week end with her uncle, E. W. Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knight and family spent Sunday at the G. Ramsey home near Dunlap.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Weber gave a dance Saturday night to their neighbors and friends in their new barn. All report a good time.

Donald Liscomb is spending a few days at Omaha taking in the Ak-sar-ben.

Jim Houston and Mayne Liscomb have erected new hog houses on their farms recently.

The metropolitan newspapers jolly the papers of smaller towns because they sometimes print a man's name without any initials. The metropolitan reports never do such slipshod work. If they don't know a man's initials they can always make some up for him.

It looks as if Uncle Sam would have to spend most of his time for the next ten years in collecting interest on the money that the rest of the world owes him.

Notice of Probate of Will.

State of Iowa, Crawford County, ss.— In Probate.

In the district court of Iowa, in and for Crawford county—Notice of the reading and probate of will.

To Whom It May Concern: You and each of you are hereby notified to appear at the court house in Denison, Crawford county, Iowa, on the 9th day of November, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m., to then and there attend the probate of an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of August Beutel late of said county, deceased, at which time and place you will appear and show cause, if any you know, why said will should not be admitted to probate.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of the district court this 29th day of September, 1915.

J. W. MONAGAHAN, Clerk.

Mrs. Rachel Patch, of Coon Rapids, Minn.

PLEASANT HILL ITEMS.

Mrs. George Buhl, of Coon Rapids, came Monday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Silas Thompson. This makes a reunion of all five of the sisters, as three of the others came last week.

Mrs. T. J. Campbell visited Tuesday at the home of her brother, Silas Thompson.

George Macumber drove over to Buck Grove and spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elmer Polzein.

Mrs. Ben Bidlack spent Tuesday at the Earl Bidlack home visiting with her little granddaughter.

Mrs. Wiley Goodenough and little daughter, Jean, of Manilla, spent several days the first of last week at the Silas Thompson home visiting with her four aunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bell, of Denison, and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Bell visited Wednesday at the Howard McLeod home. Mr. Bell also attended the sale at the home of his brother, Dave Bell.

Carl Ibsen completed a new barn for Mrs. Simmerman Wednesday and he is now working on E. D. McLaren's house in Manilla.

The Misses Mabel and Mamie Thompson visited at the Earl Bidlack home Wednesday afternoon.

N. K. Johnson was a business caller on Walter Simmerman Wednesday.

Mrs. Deborah Olson and Mrs. Martha Hazen, who have been visiting with their sister, Mrs. Silas Thompson, left Thursday for a short visit at Manilla with their niece, Mrs. Wiley Goodenough, before returning to their own homes.

Walter Simmerman was a business visitor at the Pat Sheridan home north of Vall Thursday.

Quite a number of the Pleasant Hill people attended the carnival at Manilla the latter part of last week.

Miss Lucy Simmerman spent last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Earl Bidlack.

Miss Mabel Thompson was a caller at the John Calvin home in Manilla on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLeod spent Thursday afternoon and Friday visiting with relatives in Manilla and attending the carnival.

Mrs. Ben Bidlack called upon her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eva Bidlack, of Manilla Friday afternoon.

Truman Campbell and Allen Barber went down to Omaha Thursday to hear Billy Sunday.

Word comes from Mrs. Albert James, of Montpelier, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor, that the operation was successful. Her many friends will be glad to hear that she is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Mary Simmerman and Miss Lucy were callers at the John Harrison home in Manilla Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Rachel Patch, of Coon Rapids, Minn.

came Saturday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ben Bidlack. John Meehan, of Manilla, was a caller at the F. E. Macumber home Saturday, and took them to Manilla in the Dodge car in the afternoon to attend the carnival.

Miss Esther Baiston spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friend, Miss Anna Smethurst, of Manilla.

Ed Saylor went to Omaha last Friday to consult a specialist in regard to a growth that is coming on his eye. His friends are in hopes that he will not have any serious trouble with his eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLeod, son Robert, Vane Baker, and Jeff Wilson at dinner Sunday.

Jacob Buchler and Miss Bertha Trexel visited with Miss Louise Trexel at the Earl Bidlack home, Sunday P. M.

Miss Letta Saylor spent Saturday night with her sister, Miss Minnie, who is assisting Mrs. William Phib with her house work.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren, Robert and little Jessie, Miss Annis McLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Polzein, and Miss Hattie Macumber were callers upon Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bidlack and the new baby, Sunday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Polzein, from near Back Grove, spent Sunday at the F. E. Macumber home, coming over in their auto.

Will Thompson and the Misses Mabel, Mamie, and Alice drove over to Denison Monday, to attend Mr. Hird's funeral. Mrs. Thompson has been helping to care for him the past week. Their many friends sympathize with them in their sorrow.

Mrs. Neille Girard is here from Merville for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Eva Girard.

Miss Martha Otto returned from Denison on Monday evening, where she had spent the week end with her parents. She was detained there on account of the heavy rains of Saturday night.

The Ladies' Aid of the Ev. Lutheran Church were entertained by Mrs. O. Stogeman on Thursday afternoon.

John Nicholson and family went to Denison on Tuesday called by the death of his brother, Eddie, which occurred at Glenwood on Monday evening and the remains were shipped to Denison for burial.

Miss Neita Christiansen has returned from Lake Park, Ia., where she had spent a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huppenbecker, of Deer Lodge, Ill., returned to their home on Friday, after having spent several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwarz and other relatives.

Maurice Miller, of Denison, was a business caller here on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hansen were called upon to part with their seven weeks' old baby boy on Tuesday noon.

The little one has been in poor health since birth. Short services were held at the home of Rev. Wetzel and interment took place at Morgan cemetery.

Section Foreman, Tangborn and crew went to the washout on the Hi-

SCHLESWIG ITEMS.

Line on Monday and Tuesday to assist in the repair of the tracks. Train service was badly damaged all week. The first train carrying first class mail arriving on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ben Witt is spending a few days with her parents in Onawa.

Etta Sterret, who teaches school north of town, spent the week end in Denison with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jahde and daughter, Sylvia, spent Friday in Ida Grove.

Wm. Greaves was a Denison visitor on Monday. He has purchased a barber shop at Delfoit, where he will soon be located.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Petersen and daughter, Ennia, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Mauritz Detlefsen went to Denison Saturday in the Petersen auto, the latter two remaining for an over Sunday visit with Mr. Detlefsen's brother.

Fred Lutz, of Denison, was here the past week transacting business.

A large crowd attended the dance, which was held at the Pastime theatre Saturday evening with the Battle Creek orchestra furnishing the music.

Adolph Jahde and Elmer Watson went to Denison on a business trip Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jochims, of Schleswig, and Mrs. Lena Willert, of Auburn, went to Lu Verne, Minn., last week to attend the opening of the new Palace theatre there, which was recently erected by Herman Jochims, formerly of this place.

W. A. Antrim and his helper, Herschel Perry, of Charter Oak, were here last week, where Mr. Antrim purchased some horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Iwens had what might have proved to be a serious accident on Thursday afternoon, when their auto skidded and turned over and pinned Mrs. Iwens under the car. They were brought to Dr. Schultz's office, where medical treatment was rendered them, and although Mrs. Iwens was quite badly hurt she is getting along all right now.

Martin Godbersen, of Holstein, was a Schleswig visitor last week.

Ennis Stoltenberg returned to Ito Tuesday after having spent a few days here visiting his many friends.

August Rienking, of Ida Grove, was seen on the streets of Schleswig Friday.

Mr. J. Schwartzbach, of Denison, was here on business a couple of days last week.

Carl Grill, of Ricketts, as here on Tuesday.

Elmer Watson went to Denison Sunday afternoon to get Mrs. Watson and children, who had spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. A. C. Weeks.

The Sweet company, which played here Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings gave very good shows all three evenings. They were unable to get here in time to erect their tent and so played at the Pastime theatre Friday evening, but the other evenings they played in their tent. The show was clean and amusing to all. Their band gave fine music.

Robert Naevé and family, of Bronson, are here for a visit with relatives.

A little girl came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rabe on Saturday, Oct. 2nd.

The only trouble with the cattle shows is that it costs so much money for prizes and feed of the cattle, while the people come to see the races and the midway.

$2.50 SHOE SALE

WE MUST vacate the building now occupied by us--it is rented to the Kemming Clothing Co.--and we must turn the building over to them

October 24th

This is the final clean up of this shoe store, and you can buy your unrestricted choice for

$2.50

They Won't Last Long at That Price.

You should buy your rubber goods for winter NOW You can buy them cheap.

Come Today and Save Money THIS IS OUR "LAST AD."

Kelly Shoe Co. Denison, Iowa

Harry Gill The Chicago Horse Buyer Wants Horses and Mares Monday, Oct. 11th Laub's Barn, Denison, Ia. Cavalry Horses Wanted 500 head of cavalry horses and mares from 5 to 7 years old, weight from 1000 to 1100. Must be in good flesh and serviceably sound. Artillery Horses Wanted 500 head of artillery horses and mares from 5 to 10 years old, weight from 1100 to 1400, and must be fat and harness broke. Special order for 1000 head of horses from five to ten years old, weighing from 1250 to 1500. 100 Head of Horses wanted for eastern market from twelve to two thousand pounds. Must be fat. Also want hundred head of horses and mules for southern market, from ten to twelve hundred pounds. Must be fat and smooth. Don't fail to bring in your good horses and get your money for them. Buy anything that is fat and pay all he is worth. Will be There Rain or Shine Harry Gill, Chicago