

DOW CITY ITEMS

Methodist Church

Prayer meeting Thursday night at 7:30. Usual services next Sunday. Morning subject "The Program of Efficient Evangelism." Evening subject, "Our Allies."

The people of Dow City and vicinity are to have a rare opportunity next week at the coming of the district conference for two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Dr. John F. Harmon, of the Salina Wesleyan college of Salina, Kans., will conduct a spiritual retreat for the ministers and laymen of the Council Bluffs district in connection with the district conference. It is expected that there will be about fifty or sixty ministers and laymen of the district in attendance for the two days. Several of the ministers of the district will be assigned places on the program, all of which will be of great interest to the people of Dow City, and they are cordially invited to attend all of the sessions of the conference and retreat. The entertainment of the conference and retreat will be on the Harvard plan; that is, the Dow City people will entertain them in their homes for lodging and breakfast and the guests will pay their way the other meals of the day. Any who will entertain guests for Tuesday night and Wednesday morning will please notify Rev. A. D. Adams.

Mrs. A. B. Adams entertains the W. H. M. S. on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Bessie Binnall leads the League lesson Sunday evening. The subject is "The Call for Missions for Men and Women."

Grand ball in Dow City Thursday evening, October 21st. Music by Bell Brothers' six piece orchestra. 42-It Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Howarth were passengers to Omaha Tuesday.

Misses Golda and Rena Hanz went to Dunlap Tuesday, where they will attend the wedding of their cousin, Miss Rose Hanz, the latter acting as bridesmaid.

R. T. Baber was in Denison Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Butterworth was in Dunlap last Thursday attending a party given by her cousin, Mrs. Frank Hanz.

Elgie Killion accompanied his father as far as Ft. Dodge last week, at which place they looked after a business matter.

Mrs. J. A. Gilliland arrived last week from Council Bluffs and will spend the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Johnson.

Nelson Butler, of Pierson, arrived in town Monday to spend a day or two with former friends and relatives.

S. A. Dow was a business visitor in Woodbine Monday.

Will Ettleman went to Mission Valley last week to meet his wife, who was returning from a visit with her parents at Windom, Minn.

Miss Veva Alexander, daughter of Howard Alexander, was married last Friday to Mr. Harve Harvey, of Des Moines. The wedding took place at Denison. They have come to Des Moines, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baber, Jr. spent Sunday in Dunlap with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beard.

Lee Cramer came down from Correctionville last week and spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cramer.

Mrs. George Kearnes was hostess to the Sunshine and J. P. F. clubs last Wednesday afternoon, and thus a large company was present. The guests found much merriment in working out two contests. Miss Pearl Clark took both prizes. The splendid lunch served by the hostess found favor with all.

Noah Thompson was hurt last Sunday evening in a peculiar way. He, in company with several others, had spent the evening at the home of Mrs. John Weller, and when the company was leaving, Noah ran across the house yard to overtake the boys. In doing so he came in contact with the clothes line, which caught him under the chin. He was thrown backward to the ground, his head coming in contact with a cement walk with such force that he was rendered unconscious. After he revived he was taken to his home, where he has been confined to his bed. We trust to learn of his improvement at an early date.

The Woman's club met Wednesday at the Baptist church, where County Supt. F. N. Ory addressed them and a number of other enthusiastic workers for a legal consolidated school, on the subject of making the campaign for such an institution. His talk was well received and steps were taken toward putting his plan to work. A committee was appointed to secure a speaker for a public address on the subject, but at this time no word has been so far received. Watch for the date when it is announced and be present to learn what you can do to help secure the school.

Frank Downs and Joe Thompson were passengers to Omaha Tuesday. Charley Starkey was no from Woodbine Sunday and spent the day at the parental, W. A. Starkey, home.

Mrs. Sophia Jenkins is enjoying a visit from her niece, Mrs. Stewart, and two children, of St. Louis, who arrived last Wednesday.

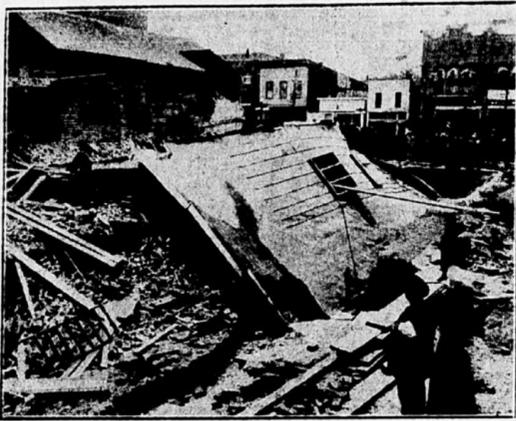

Miss Bernice Alexander came up from Omaha Saturday afternoon for an over Sunday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alexander.

Misses Frieda Bartel and Marie Riddner as were in Denison Saturday shopping any and visiting the former's parents, possible and Mrs. Bartels.

Dr. W. A. E. Calundann is back from Omaha, where she spent several days

The Wrecked Wright-Kinney Building

PHOTOS BY FERGUSON

Scene of Wrecked Building Before Roof Was Removed.

Man in stooping position is where Mr. Kadoch and traveling man were taken out. Opening at right shows where Miss Marie Kadoch was rescued. Mr. ShihVan standing near stooping person.

assisting in auditing some accounts for a Sioux City firm that maintains a business office there.

Mrs. W. E. Fishel was quite sick the past week.

Bert Thompson went to Clarinda Saturday to visit his wife, who is an inmate of the state hospital. He hoped to find her so much improved that she would be able to be brought home. Her sister is expected here from Washington within a week or two, and she will remain for some months to be with Mrs. Thompson while she recovers her health. Later, Mr. Thompson found his wife not able to come home at this time.

Frank Wiley returned Wednesday evening from Kansas City, where he purchased about 175 shoats, the animals weighing around the 80 pound mark. Mr. Wiley desired stock to feed his crop to, but on account of cholera in this section for several seasons the pig crop is too short to admit of buying shoats here.

Sam Steers, the real estate man of Defiance, was in town Thursday.

Mrs. Ina Brink returned to her home at Meeking, S. D., Friday after a two weeks' delightful visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Winn.

A. E. Stone, general manager of the Stewart Lumber company yards, was down from Denison Monday to look after some business details with the local branch.

Miss Relta Coryell spent the week end at the parental home in Indianola.

Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, of Dunlap, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brace.

D. E. Bremser spent last Friday in Sioux City, leaving his order for fixtures for the new store.

Rev. Lynn Stocumb, wife and baby, arrived here Thursday evening from Loup City, Neb., for a visit with relatives.

Rev. Stocumb preached in the Methodist church in the evening, and a large number of his former friends were present to hear him. Miss Mildred Wiggins will accompany them home for a visit, later going to Wisner to spend a few days with other relatives.

S. E. Goldard was under the weather several days last week and unable to be at his work at the store.

Mrs. Will Rule and daughter, Helen, went down to Council Bluffs the last of the week to do some shopping and visit at the Fred Rule home. They returned Sunday evening.

The city council at their regular meeting last week ordered a concrete crossing put in between the M. G. Wiggins and Roman Wight properties. This crossing has been needed for years and will be much appreciated by residents in that section of the town.

Mrs. Jane Wood was on the sick list last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Odell are enjoying a visit from his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Odell, of Lacon, Ill. They are on their way home from an extended trip through the western states and at the exposition. They arrived here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell were among those from here attending the funeral of Dr. Beatty, which was held at Dunlap Friday morning.

Weiss Brothers shipped in two car loads of cattle from Omaha Friday morning. They will be put in the yards as feeders for the future market.

Elias O'Meara left last week for Kentucky, where he will attend some of the big race meets.

John and Martin Wiggins came up from Woodbine Wednesday and visited here until Thursday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wiggins, then went to Buck Grove to visit the other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin.

Mrs. Edith Baker, of Sioux City, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rudd.

Mrs. Charley Bell has been on the sick list for several days past.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bryan and baby are here from Sheildahl visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Spray Malone were down from Kenwood Sunday attending church and spending the day with relatives.

Miss Lisle Goldsworthy was over from Manning, where she teaches in the public school, and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy.

Jim Scott was in Omaha Wednesday.

Jim Turland drove over to Defiance Sunday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara visited relatives in Denison Sunday.

Mrs. Hugh Butterworth and Miss Nell Rule attended the Dr. Beatty funeral in Dunlap Friday.

Link Riddle journeyed to Omaha on a business mission last Thursday. Ben Houston accompanied him.

Mrs. C. D. Williams, of Malvern, was a visitor here a day or two the last of the week.

Fred Busse, Doc Gibson, C. W. Manning and one or two others went up to Lake View Friday on a hunting expedition, returning Sunday night.

Misses Anna and Minnie Mellum enjoyed a visit last week from their sister, Mrs. Orville Smith, and two children, of Soldier.

Mrs. J. F. Rudd and daughter, Mrs. Edith Baker, spent a day or two the last of the week with the Bert Lyman family at Carroll.

Ed Johnson was in Omaha Thursday to consult a specialist as to the trouble he has been having in his right side. The specialist confirmed the local doctor's opinion that he is suffering from chronic appendicitis.

Clarence Wilder loaded out his household goods Saturday for Logan and he and his wife left for that point where they will take up their residence.

Emil Norman is spending a few days at Vail and Denison with his relatives.

Mrs. Clarence O'Meara was hostess to the Friday club last Thursday afternoon. A number of other ladies were present, which added charm to the occasion. Two guessing contests had been arranged. In the first Mrs. Joe Stepanek was awarded the first prize, a cheese plate, and Mrs. Charley Smith the booby prize, a small dish. In the second, a flower game, Mrs. Frank Odell was the fortunate one and was given a tea stand, the consolation prize, a toothpick holder, going to Mrs. Joe Best. The hostess served an elegant two course lunch.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Tomlinson, of Kearney, Neb.; Mrs. Mary McMahon, of Denison; Mrs. J. P. Welsh, of Buck Grove; Mrs. J. W. Odell, of Lacon, Ill. and Mrs. Roy Randell, of Dunlap.

Tom Ahart and Mott McHenry, president and secretary respectively of the Union township school board, visited all the schools in the township on last Wednesday. They were distributing new library books to several schools for the use of the pupils.

Russell Goldard was out of school the major portion of last week on account of being ill.

Miss Clara Williamson, who attends school in Denison, was an over Sunday visitor at the parental, Jack Williamson, home.

Grand ball in Dow City Thursday, October 21st. Music by Bell Brothers six piece orchestra. 42-It J. H. Killion departed Thursday evening for Waterloo, where he goes as a delegate from this district to the Old Fellow state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Backwell and children arrived home Thursday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Viborg, S. D.

John Alexander is here from Earlham for a visit at the home of his son, Albert.

Misses Vesta Riddle and Mae Houston were shopping in Omaha Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah E. Wiley enjoyed a visit last week from Mrs. Ben Wiley, of Manilla, and Mrs. Jack Higgins, of Pittsburg, Kans.

Mrs. Anna Doser was a Denison visitor Monday.

Herman Lazarus autoed to Dunlap Monday.

Esther, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Divine, has been sick for several days past.

Miss Esther Turland spent Saturday and Sunday in Council Bluffs at the home of her brother, Elmer. She also attended the Sunday meetings in Omaha.

Mrs. D. L. Wright returned to her home in Charter Oak Monday after a week's pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. W. N. Schouten.

Mrs. J. L. Butterworth is visiting relatives at Bancroft, Neb.

Mrs. Ed Ahart and Miss Elsie Randel were shopping in Omaha Saturday.

Miss Jane Hollowell entertained the Palo Alto club last Saturday afternoon at her pleasant home four miles north of town. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work, after which a delicious lunch was served. Miss Estler Marty, of Trinidad, Colo., was a pleasant out of town guest.

Mrs. Leslie Holcomb came over from the Willow Wednesday to see how things were getting along. She returned Thursday.

Mrs. Woodard is here from Council Bluffs for a visit at the Frank Field home.

D. E. Bremser made a business trip to Denison Monday.

Word comes from Wisner, Neb., of the birth of a son on October 6th to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt. Mrs. Schmidt is better known here as Miss Cora Leslie.

Willis Wiggins came up from Woodbine Sunday morning and drove on to Buck Grove. His wife came up a day or two previous on account of the illness of her father.

Frank Binnall went to Kansas City Thursday to visit his son, Bryce, who is attending a veterinary college. He bought a load of shoats while there and will use them as a means of getting the full value out of his corn.

Will Morrison's household goods arrived Monday from Milo and the family is expected at any time. They will live in one of Tom Ahart's houses during the winter.

Misses Anna and Minnie Mellum and Elizabeth Lueck were shopping in Omaha Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara and Mrs. Art Wilson attended the funeral of Dr. Beatty at Dunlap Friday.

Mrs. J. W. Cramer, Mrs. Lester Moyer and Mrs. Wilbur Berry visited relatives in Denison Sunday.

Tom Walters' baby was very sick the past week.

Harold Alexander is on the sick list.

The J. P. F. club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Bert Winn on last Thursday afternoon. At the close of a pleasant social session a fine lunch was served.

Mrs. H. G. Scott and Mrs. C. W. Manning were shopping in Denison on Monday.

Mrs. S. E. Wiley went to Waterloo Sunday to visit a sister.

C. L. Ishill enjoyed a visit from his son, Arnold, of Logan, a couple of days last week.

Fred Leavitt has gone to Denison, where he expects to hold a piano sale.

Mrs. Hugh Butterworth entertained the 500 club last Thursday evening, four tables being used for the game. After a pleasant evening light refreshments were served. The club will meet two weeks hence with Mrs. Fred Colby.

The three act farce, "Bringing Up a Husband" was put on here last Tuesday evening to a fair sized audience. Those who witnessed it pronounce it very good and the music fine.

Miss Marie Riddle returned to her work at Dunlap after spending a week at the parental, Link Riddle, home.

Many from here journeyed to Denison the past few days to view the wreck caused by the falling of the brick building last week Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clinton, living in Washington township, are the parents of a son born to them Monday, October 18th.

W. A. Healy left the early part of the week for Payton, where he opens up a piano agency.

William Cook journeyed to Omaha a few days ago to look after some business affairs.

Mrs. Henry Roy visited her daughter, Mrs. John Miller, in Denison Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Abbe returned to their home in Ida Grove Friday after a most pleasant visit here with the Tom Ahart family.

Mrs. Dan Wingrove invited in a company of neighbors one evening the last of the week to help celebrate her husband's birthday and he was considerably surprised at their coming, having received no intimation that anything was stirring. Twenty-eight were present and they had one of those good old fashioned times one hears so much about. All enjoyed the huge birthday supper served. It certainly was a day Mr. Wingrove will long remember.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crandall were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Howarth were in Council Bluffs last week, where they attended the wedding of their friend, Miss Ruth Spindler. Our people pleasantly remember Miss Spindler as one of the performers at the Sacred Concert held at the Baptist church recently.

Miss Violet Starkey went to Woodbine Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. George Smith.

Mrs. Sarah Kaykendall spent Sunday afternoon at Dunlap visiting relatives.

Roy McBride laid off from work at the elevator last week on account of illness.

Art Randel returned Friday from a trip to Cedar Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hollins went to Logan Saturday to spend Sunday with relatives.

Ahart and Chamberlain shipped a car of hogs to Chicago Sunday night and Frank Downs sent a car to South Omaha Monday night.

There was a big dance out at the Fred Stetten home one night last week, when they invited in both old and young folks to help warm up their new barn. A very fine time was had.

Miss Vera Williamson visited Saturday and Sunday with friends near Deloit.

Miss Janet Rae returned home Monday from a visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. J. Woodruff, in Omaha. She also attended several of the Sunday meetings.

The Standard Bearers met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Bryan.

Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy and daughter, Miss Lisle, were Omaha visitors Saturday.

Miss Florence Miller returned home Saturday evening from a visit with relatives in Council Bluffs and Omaha.

N. R. Miller and Howarth Bros. shipped in two cars of hogs from Kansas City a few days ago.

Lloyd Brake has gone to Denison to work with a concrete gang.

Mrs. Emma Goodman and son, Parker, have traded their 20 acres in North Grove to Jack Ahart for his property south of C. O. Miller's, and they expect to move in it at an early date.

"NUFF SED."

CUT PRICE SALE

DURING THE REMAINDER OF

October Month

CUT PRICE SALE

Salomon Furniture Co.

JOHN SCHNOOR, Undertaker and Embalmer, Manager

Will offer Special Reductions in all our departments, and especially will we reduce our prices on all lines Rugs, Iron Beds and Bed Springs

ALL SIZES

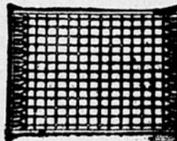

ALL WEAVES

We have an unusually large stock of Rugs of all sizes, and they are extra good values, and you may believe us, you will save money by buying Rugs right now.

See the Link Fabrik Bed Springs

They have sold at $3.50, $5.00, $7.00
and even $10.00

Priced now at $2.50, $4, $7.

We also invite you to look at our line of Iron Beds--they're worth much more than we ask.

Salomon Furniture Co.

Mark Twain said: "Be good and you'll be lonesome."

Frank Hanss

says:

"You'll be lonesome if you don't smoke

"Town Boost"

or

"Blue Valley"

Hanss keeps a splendid line of tobaccos, both chewing and smoking, besides a strong line of pipes and smokers' accessories, and he's just opposite the Hotel Denison.

How about having that Christmas Gift selected and laid aside at

The Corner Jewelry Store