

TOM THUMB WEDDING HELD

Entertainment Given Under Auspices of Baptist Church at Dow City. Proves Very Interesting.

FIFTY CHILDREN TAKE PART
Photographer Ferguson Takes Photo of the Little Folks Who Participated in Play.

Dow City, Nov. 9.—Special—
The Tom Thumb wedding put on here last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Baptist church was a most pleasant event and a great success. About fifty children took part in it and each one did his or her part most gracefully. Little June Jordan adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jordan, as Lilly Putman Midget aged 3 years, 3 months, was the bride, and wore a white gown made en train, a long wedding veil, a prominent feature of the costume. Russell Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young, aged 2 years, 11 months, as Tom Thumb, was the groom and was neatly attired in a black full dress suit. The bride's maid was little Miriam Lacerus, the best man being Gerald Butterworth. The flower girls were Norinne Allen, Leone Coleman, Lola Baber and Phyllis Goddard, Naomi Butterworth and Ornela Judd were the ringbearers, and carried the ring in a small basket. Charles Smith acted the part of the minister and did it in a most dignified manner. Eldred Hollins and Elbert Goddard were the ushers and seated the guests as they appeared. A take-off that found much favor with the audience was the announcing of the names of the wedding guests who were named for the society folks of Dow City. Mr. and Mrs. Star Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Lacerus, Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth, etc., were among the names given to the little tots who came in couples as guests. Among the old maids attending was Maude Brake, Lola Fishel and Bessie Alexander. Carl Tatroe and Alex Rehn were bachelors. Orin Reynolds, the disappointed lover was also there. Dorothy Edwards, as sister of the bride, was a favorite. The mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers of both bride and groom, performed their parts well. After the guests were seated, Miss Helen Pearsall sang "Dreaming of You." The grandfather and Grandmother Midget came forward and he sang "When You and I Were Young Maggie." Just preceding the ceremony, Miss Marguerite Luke sang "O Promise Me." Then the bridal party appeared. The flower girls strewing pink and white flowers along the way. The bride came in on the arm of her father, (Max Lacerus) followed by the groom. The ring ceremony was used, at the conclusion of which the groom kissed the bride most beautifully. Miss Margaret Pearsall then sang a solo, "Love You Truly." The bride sang "I Can't Sing the Old Songs," and Vernice Thlett gave "Darling, I Am Growing Old." After which the wedding supper was served. The conclusion was a song "I'd Like to Live in Loveland With a Girl Like You." The Baptist people were most gratified at the splendid attendance, and at knowing the affair was so well received. Photographer Ferguson was down from Denison and took the picture of the little folks as arrayed in their costumes.

saloon and the drink habit received a more severe arraignment than upon that occasion. Attention was called to the ramifications of the drink habit into all lines of business and human activities. The speaker spoke in scathing language of the procession which was at the time marching through the streets of Chicago as a protest against the obeying of the state law of Illinois that the saloons should close on Sunday and he paid high tribute to Mayor Thompson who had done his duty as a law abiding citizen of the state in demanding that no longer the Sunday statutes of Illinois should be a dead letter in its leading city. He was listened to with marked attention and many came forward to signify their intentions of ceasing to drink intoxicating liquors and join the Christian church. Evangelist Forsythe gave great credit to many of the leading priests and bishops of the Catholic church for their stand on the temperance question and expressed the hope that before many years it could not be truthfully said that this great church in any way countenanced saloons and the drinking of intoxicating liquors.

ARION ITEMS

The Congregational church was closed last Sunday evening. The minister and congregation attended the tabernacle meeting at Denison.
Wednesday, Nov. 10, two addresses will be given at the Congregational church at 8 p. m. by Rev. Turner of Onawa and Rev. Calkins of Castana. Thursday, Nov. 11, Rev. DEATH VISITS AT CALIFORNIA HOME

WAS INVALID FOR MANY YEARS

Death of Estimable Lady Deeply Mourned by Host of Friends in Charter Oak and Vicinity
Charter Oak, Nov. 9.—(Special to the Review)—Word was received here last week of the death of Mrs. A. S. Criswell in a hospital at Bakersfield, Calif. Mrs. Criswell was one of the earliest settlers of Charter Oak, making this her home for many years. She moved to California four or five years ago to spend her declining years near her only remaining son.
Mrs. Criswell has been a confirmed invalid for several years and it was to give her better care that she was placed in a hospital. She leaves one son and a devoted husband to mourn her death.
Chas. Mains came from Williamsburg Sunday morning for a visit with his parents and to accompany his wife and little son home.
Mr. Lorenzen made a business trip to Minnesota Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Mike Copps visited relatives in Sloan the latter part of the week.
Mrs. John Kortman and children were shopping in Sioux City Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sturges, of Dunlap, spent Sunday with their parents in the Oak.
Mrs. Martha Riddle and two little folks came down from Ute Saturday morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pithan.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Deur and two little daughters are spending the week with his brother, John Deur, and family.
Miss Marie McGrath was an over Sunday visitor with her mother.
Miss Bethel Goin spent Sunday at home. She returned to her school work in Manilla Sunday evening.
Henry Wheelock, of Hartley, visited his sister, Mrs. Grover Smith, the latter part of the week.
Quite a number of Masons and their wives attended the regular meeting of the consistory in Sioux City Tuesday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fester on Tuesday, a son.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haggis left last Tuesday for Chicago where Mr. Haggis will attend to some business while Mrs. Haggis visits relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Thoms Thomsen and Edward and Herbert autored to Council Bluffs Sunday morning for a visit with relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Giau were Sioux City visitors Tuesday.
The Linger Longer society met with Mrs. S. A. Huber Tuesday afternoon. A delightful time is reported.
Messrs. Grabon and Githem were in Sioux City Tuesday taking instructions in the Masonic lodge.
Miss Nell McGrath went to Sioux City Saturday morning to consult a specialist regarding her health.
Neil Goin came home from the hospital in Omaha Saturday morning. He is feeling fine and his friends hope for a complete recovery.
Miss Grace Schlumberger came from Mapleton Friday evening for a visit with the teachers and former friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Purcell and Mr. and Mrs. Spayde, of Sac City, visited in the Robb home Sunday.
While fixing the spouting on his house Friday Mr. A. F. Barber had the misfortune to fall from the ladder to the roof of the kitchen, injuring his arm quite severely, so as to be obliged to carry it in a sling.
Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Goin came up from Manilla Monday morning for a few days' visit with his parents. The doctor has sold his practice in Manilla and bought one in Wheeling, W. Va., to which place they go the first of December to make their future home.
Harry Heger came over from Denison Sunday for a visit with friends.

Church Notes

On next Wednesday the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies will hold a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Brown Romans, the meeting being opened at 10 o'clock a. m. and continuing for an all day session. Mrs. C. L. Voss will have charge of the morning lesson, conducted by the Foreign Missionary society, at which time the opening chapter of the new study book will be discussed. The main feature of the morning session will be a report by Mrs. Voss of the recent convention held at Sioux City, and which will be most interesting to both societies. Following a light lunch, the Home Department will conduct the lesson, led by Mrs. Ira Gilmor, the subject being "Money and the Kingdom; the Social Force of Missions." Every member of the two societies is urged to attend this joint session and attend promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning.
The monthly meeting of Queen Esther circle will be held at the home of Miss Jessie Goodrich on Monday evening of next week. Miss Myrtle McAhren will lead the discussion of the evening which is along the lines of a Thanksgiving lesson emphasizing the importance of the thank offering. A lunch will be served for which a silver offering will be taken.
Attention Methodists.
Let all the members of the church and congregation and those expecting to unite with the Methodist church take part in the big religious parade next Saturday. Meet at the church promptly at 1:30 p. m.

JAMES A. REED

Missouri Senator is Chairman of Manufacturers Committee.
There will be a number of special days this week and on Saturday afternoon will come the great Sunday school parade at which time representatives from Sunday schools all over the county and Denison will form a procession through the streets. This is one of the great events of the tabernacle campaign. Sunday will be a great day as it is the last. At that time the purse will be made up to pay the evangelist and his party. Dr. Forsythe came without any pledges as to compensation. His work has been such an imminent success that there can be no doubt that he will be given a liberal sum. If there are any who have not heard the evangelist they should do so before Sunday, as that is the last day and the building will be speedily torn down.
Charles Lamb did not like May. Here is a fling of his against the merry month:
"I do not mind the utmost rigor of real winter," he wrote to Bernard Barton, "but these smiling hypocrites of May wither me to death. . . . What lies you poets tell about the May! It is the most ungenial part of the year, cold crocuses and cold primroses; you take your blossoms in ice—a painted sun—
"Unmeaning joy around appears,
And nature smiles as if she weeps."
—Westminster Gazette.

Her Notion of Finance

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "do you ever buy on a margin?"
"Never."
"Well, why don't you? It seems to me much safer to dabble around the edge and avoid getting in too deep."
—Washington Star.

Sale Dates Claimed

Mr. G. L. Caswell and Attorney P. W. Harding left Sunday for Des Moines where they were called on account of the trouble between farmers in this county and the Federal Mutual Hall insurance company. The farmers of this locality do not propose to stand for the assessment as made by the insurance company and have raised a considerable amount with which to fight the case should it go into court.

Saturday, Nov. 13. Poland China sale. Frank Rainier will hold sale of 40 head of big type Poland China boars and gilts at pavilion in Logan.
Wednesday, Dec. 1. Closing out sale. Oliver Fink will hold sale on the E. Fink farm, Section 13 Goodrich township, 5 miles north of Denison, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Deloit, on the Deloit road.
Thursday, Dec. 9. Closing out sale. J. B. Glassburner will hold sale on his farm near Dow City of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, etc.
Wednesday, Dec. 15. Clearance sale. S. J. Jans will hold clearance sale of all farm property on his place known as the Chestnut hill farm, Section 5, Jackson township.

Two big sales which will attract considerable attention are announced in this week's issue of the Review, and additional sales will be announced in the next issue. A number of farmers have made arrangements with the Review for announcing their sales during the next few weeks and from present indications it will be the busiest season in the history of the county. Nearly all the December dates are filled and January and February dates are numerous. Farmers who intend holding sales this winter should by all means see their auctioneer and settle upon a date and notify the Review office so that it may be listed in the sales dates claimed column.

Mr. S. J. Jans, a prominent farmer residing in Jackson township, called at the Review office Monday and had his sale date claimed. Mr. Jans will hold a clearance sale and his announcement is to appear soon in the Review. He told us that he had decided some time ago to use space in the Review, for the paper was universally read up in the northeastern part of the county, and he considered it the best advertising medium in the county. Farmers looking to the Review to furnish them with the sale news as nearly every sale held in Crawford county and the adjacent territory is advertised in this paper, and it is a well known fact that Review advertising has paid big money for those who have used space liberally.

The attention of readers is called to the following sales that are announced in this issue:
Oliver Fink Sale.
