

DELOIT ITEMS.

J. L. Riggleman, John Judy and Lloyd Winans shipped hogs last week. Mrs. S. W. Streeter was a passenger to Denison last Wednesday.

There will be a basket or box social at the Winey or Larson school (Oster Creek No. 7) on the evening of December 17th. The ladies are requested to bring boxes. The proceeds will be used to pay for records for our school phonograph and for other school purposes. A good time will be assured the young people in games and jollification, but dancing will not be permitted. The teacher and pupils give you all a most cordial invitation to be present. Stanley Browne, Teacher.

There will be a box social at Mrs. Browne's school 1 1/2 miles west of Deloit, on Friday evening, December 10th. Come, girls, and bring boxes. Boys and girls, come and play games and help us to furnish our domestic science room.

The Ladies' Aid society held their bazaar and supper last Friday. They were highly pleased with their success and we understand the proceeds were about $60.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Mearl Myers were at Herring one day last week visiting at the L. O. Myers home.

Mrs. Ann Winans has been on the sick list recently at the home of her son, Earl Winans. She came Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her son, Maurice Winans, and family.

Jennings Newcom returned to his home at Bonesteel, S. D., a week ago Saturday. Deloit will miss his musical talent, his solos at the home gatherings and church and his instrumental music at the public gatherings, the picture shows and dances, etc.

The dentist from Ida Grove was in town again last Saturday.

Mrs. Browne and son, Clifford, began their winter terms of school last Monday. Mrs. Browne has her domestic science supplies and will start in the term demonstrating cooking dinners at the school house.

The hotel and drug store property was sold last week. We understand that work will be commenced at once repairing and remodeling the buildings. Another story will be added to the drug store, which will be used as sleeping rooms for the hotel.

The Willing Workers held another one of the market sales Saturday afternoon. Their proceeds were about $11.50 and they wish to express their thanks to all who so kindly assisted them with their donations and to those who patronized the sale.

Lorin Patchin went to Cody, Neb., one day last week in charge of Mr. Fink's car. Mr. Fink and family took their departure for their new home immediately after their sale. May success attend them in their new home.

Ralph Hattery started Friday for Selby, S. D., where he expects to remain this winter.

Mrs. E. McKim returned from Odeboit Saturday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sarah McKim, who remained until Monday morning. While gone they spent a couple of days at Sioux City.

Elder Barrett preached Thursday and Friday evenings and on Sunday at the L. D. S. church. He will also preach next Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited.

The junior Sunday school class with Lloyd Winans as teacher will hold a bazaar and market sale next Saturday afternoon at the popcorn booth to earn their Christmas offering. Come and see what the young folks have to sell and give them your patronage; it will encourage them to help in a good cause.

Miss Ethel Galland, who has been clerking for several months in the D. W. Case store, began teaching school Monday northeast of Deloit in what was formerly known as the Jordan school.

Word was received from Miss Georgia Nicewanner of Sioux City last week stating that she had just graduated with high honors as a nurse, having received a marking of 99 per cent. She will remain in Sioux City for the present. Her many friends here will congratulate her upon her success.

J. T. Spence went to Ft. Dodge Saturday evening, remaining over Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. Bestman and Mrs. J. T. Spence were among the passengers to Denison Saturday afternoon.
