
DOW CITY ITEMS.

Christmas, 1915, has gone down in local history without a blemish. The day was spent in peace and quietness. Many entertained at family dinners, many were guests of those entertaining; the young folks away to school shed the light of their presence on the family gatherings; many out of town folks came in for the day. The Christmas spirit never manifested itself more or to better advantage than in the season just past. We all have much to be thankful for.

Howard Alexander was up from Dunlap one day last week renewing old acquaintances.

Miss Hilda Turnlund was a guest at the home of her brother, John, and wife at Arion last Tuesday evening.

Roy J. Davenport returned to his home at Omaha Wednesday after a two weeks' pleasant visit at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stepanek.

Miss George Fritz left the middle of last week for Ames, where she will spend a week or ten days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Ahrens.

Mott McHenry and wife got away this week on a trip of a month or six weeks' duration with relatives in southern Illinois and Wisconsin. It is hoped that the trip may be beneficial to Mr. McHenry's health, which has not been up to the standard of late.

Misses Fernie Johnson and Rosalia Scott arrived home Wednesday morning from Cedar Falls, where they are attending the Iowa State Teachers' college.

O. A. Cooper has rented the basement room over the drug store and is fitting it up for an office. Mr. Cooper has made quite a success of his insurance work.

John Deitz, of Willow township, was a pleasant caller here last Friday.

Miss Lillie Gibson, who had been at Omaha helping care for her nephew, Harold Horn, returned Thursday evening reporting the little lad as being somewhat improved. She returned to Omaha Sunday to resume her duties at the bedside.

Miss Ruth Glassburner had a program and a Christmas tree last Friday, previous to the closing of the school for the holiday vacation.

About twenty-five of Miss Sater's friends were present. After the presentation of the gifts, dancing was indulged in and a merry evening spent.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McBride and son, Linus, of Denison, and Miss Delia McBride, of Defiance, enjoyed an elegant Christmas dinner at the L. E. McBride home here.

Mrs. Marie Chesboro, of Carroll, has been visiting relatives here for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fagan arrived Friday from Estavon Alberta, Canada, and after a visit with her people the E. V. Goddard family will move to the Mrs. William Walters residence formerly the Graves property. Mr. and Mrs. Fagan will make this point their permanent home.

Miss Flora Wiggins was up from Woodbine and spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wiggins.

Cyril Saunders came over from Manilla the last of the week to visit his young friends here.

Elmer Riddle, Jim Turnlund, Edgar Banyard and Will Turner went to Omaha Saturday afternoon to see the new photo play "The Birth of a Nation", which is attracting so much attention.

Miss Esther Turnlund came home from Arion, where she teaches and is enjoying a two weeks' vacation with the home folks.

Mott McHenry received a dispatch last Wednesday giving the brief news that Robert H. Woodruff, of Green River, Utah, a former Dow City boy, was dead. At present writing no further word has been received as to details.

Ardis McDonald is suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Fred Rule came up from Council Bluffs Sunday morning to visit the Rule families here a few days.

Morris Winder was up from Omaha to spend Saturday and Sunday at the parental, N. R. Wilder home.

Miss Iona Wiley returned Sunday evening from a visit with her friend, Miss Kathleen Luke in Woodbine.

Uncle Edmund Howarth celebrated his 92nd birthday last Thursday. Mr. Howarth is quite hale for one of his years and his friends rejoice to see him in as good health as he is.

Mrs. W. N. Schouten went to Charter Oak Monday on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. B. L. Wright.

A peculiar thing occurred at Gene Crandall's residence the latter part of the week. Mrs. Crandall went into one of the south rooms upstairs and found a window pane shattered and a bullet, about a 22 caliber on the floor. It was evidently the result of careless rabbit or squirrel hunters. It could have as easily entered the room where some of the family were. It seems that persons hunting could just as well have just a little forethought and not shoot towards a residence or any other building for that matter. It is true that, "Pull many a shaft at random sent, finds mark the archer little meant."

Miss Lottie Bixler spent Christmas at the Bert McCord home.

Friends of Jacob Bremer will be grieved to learn of his being ill.

Mrs. W. E. Dow enjoyed a Christmas visit from her sister, Mrs. Olive Carr and son, Vernon, of Champaign, Ill. They went to Denison Sunday evening to spend a few days with friends there.

Miss Mildred Wiggins entertained her Sunday School class of young men last Sunday at dinner in honor of the members who have been away at school this year namely: Merton Thomas, at Ames, Wilbur and Horace at Grinnell, and Bryce Binnall at Kansas City. Plates were laid for fifteen and a most tempting menu served. The young men greatly appreciated their teacher's efforts to give them such a pleasant reunion. Cyril Saunders, of Manilla, was a pleasant out of town guest. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thomas are enjoying a visit from their son, Merton, who is attending the State college at Ames.

Mrs. Mary Christiansen, daughter and two sons, of Denison, ate Christmas dinner at the Chris Vollerens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell enjoyed a Christmas visit from their daughter, Mrs. Mamie Mulvihill. Mrs. Mulvihill returned to her work at Omaha Monday.

The Dow City Informer appeared first week in a special Christmas cover, which gave it a real holiday appearance. Editor Hatch is just bound to make his paper pleasing to his subscribers.

Word reached this place Monday morning that Mrs. Frank Evans had passed away at a hospital at Pocatello, Idaho on Christmas night following an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Evans' home was at American Falls, Idaho, where the family moved last summer. She came to Dow City as a bride ten years ago last September and lived here about two years. She was a most lovable little woman and endeared herself to many who are most grieved to learn of her death.

Miss Anna Thompson arrived Monday from Spokane, Wash., and will spend several months with her sister, Mrs. Bert Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Breen were in Denison Sunday, guests at dinner at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sam McCullough.

Harold Meldrum, of Dell Rapids, S. D., spent several days last week at the F. M. Cole home.

Mrs. James Brister, who came five weeks ago from Washington, Penn., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Igo and other relatives, has concluded her visit and left on Tuesday for her home.

Miss Ethel Smith went to Marshalltown last Thursday for a brief visit with the Logsdon family, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cole attended a family reunion on Christmas day at the home of the latter's brother near Boyer. This is the first time in eight years that the family have been together.

Dr. J. A. Potter made a business trip to Omaha Friday last.

Mrs. Charley Bell and Mrs. Ed Baber were in Dunlap Monday.

Misses Hilda and Esther Turnlund went to Council Bluffs Monday to spend a few days with their brother and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colby went to Earlham Sunday expecting to remain until after New Years visiting among his relatives.

Mrs. John Cramer returned home from Denison Thursday, where she had spent a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Waters.

Elder Charles E. Butterworth returned home last week from Mallard to spend the holidays with his family.

Misses Mabel and Blanche Cole gave a party last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Harold Meldrum, who was visiting at their home. Cards were sent to the evening after which a delicious photo play was given.

Friends of Mr. Raymond Rule will be pleased to learn of his marriage, which occurred in Dunlap on Monday Dec. 27 to Miss Mary Murphy. The ceremony was performed at the Catholic church at 8 a. m., Father J. M. Harrison performing the sacred rites. After congratulations were over the bride and groom were entertained at a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The young couple will make their home on a farm in Willow township. Those going from here to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rule, Mr. and Mrs. George Rule, Mrs. Fred Rule and Miss Helen Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy entertained the Progressive 500 club at their pleasant home last Tuesday evening. Five tables were arranged for the game and after scores were counted, it was found that Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. Frank O'Dell had won the grand prizes, and Mrs. Ed Hart the consolation prize.

Mrs. Will Aldrich returned to her home in Dunlap Monday, after a pleasant visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cramer and other relatives.

Mrs. Nettie Pugsley of Woodbine was a pleasant guest the past week at the home of her cousin, Mr. Luik Riddle.

Alex Rubin spent Sunday in Omaha with his parents.

Nellie Odey, who stays at the Chris Sulv home is visiting relatives at Benson, Neb.

Friends of Mrs. Sam Fox sr. will be pleased to learn that on Friday evening, while preparing to go to the Christmas exercises, she had a stroke of paralysis. Her entire right side is affected except the face which is unaffected on the left side. We are glad to say that she is improving and the attending physician thinks she will be able to be around again in a few weeks. Mrs. Fox had been in her usual health although she felt the attack coming on an hour or two previous to being stricken. We trust that she may gain her usual health.

Mrs. S. E. Baber and daughter, Ruby, went to Denison Sunday to visit at the O. E. Peterson home a few days. Misses Bernice and Beattie Alexander and their friend, Miss Casey, were up from Omaha to spend Christmas at the Albert Alexander home. Miss Besie is remaining through this week.

Butterworth and son have been having their ice pond filled with water pumped from the main and this week they are doing the rest toward ripening the ice cream. Fred Buss and some of his neighbors are making a pond on Buss creek also. The cold weather with no snow will make a dandy good ice.

Vernon Rule was over from the Willow and spent Saturday and Sunday at the parental, W. H. Rule home.

Butterworth and son had the big show case broken in a peculiar manner. Someone from the outside threw a piece of coal through the open door, striking the glass, shattering it was undoubtedly done accidentally but that doesn't repair the damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCullough ate Christmas dinner at the Bert McCullough home west of Kenwood.

Art Wilson's father arrived from Cordova, Neb., Monday to visit here and at Denison.

Mrs. Bert Thompson is visiting at the William Smith home in Denison a few days.

All three churches kept Christmas eve and all had Christmas trees and programs. Good crowds attended each church and the exercises were much enjoyed. The following program was given at the Methodist church:

From 11:55 to 12:05, Singing of Hymn, "Another Year is Dawning," and the ringing of the bells, ringing out the old and ringing in the new, as 1915 dies and 1916 is being born.
The following hymns will be sung:
574, "While with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year."
568, "Come let anew our journey pursue,
Roll round with the year."
573, "From glory unto glory, be this our joyous song."
570, "And now my soul another year, of thy short life is past."
572, "Break, New born Year, on glad eyes break."
571, "Another year is dawning."
The following poems will be read:
Frank L. Stanton's "Ty the New Year."
Susan Coolidge's "The New Year."
Alfred Tennyson's "Ring Out, Wild Bells."
Edgar Allan Poe's "The Bells."
The speakers at the watchnight program at the 10:30 hour will be Evangelist McBride, the pastor and others. During the meetings of the week the various gospel teams will have charge of the devotional services from night to night. Watch for the announcements next week.

We wish to thank the business men of Dow City for closing their stores at 7 o'clock each week night except Saturday night. We believe it will meet much to the meetings. All are most cordially invited to attend the meetings.

ARION ITEMS

Tom Michaelson shipped three cars of fat cattle to Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Kevan visited a few days last week with her friend, Mrs. James Ballentyne.

Dr. Brill and Frank Howarth were business visitors in Arion Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kelly were Denison shoppers Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Noel went to Dunlap on Monday to consult a physician as she is still suffering from severe pain in her head. She went to Omaha Tuesday morning to enter St. Joseph's hospital for an operation, which it is hoped will relieve her affliction.

L. A. Palmer returned from Carroll last week. He left Friday for Council Bluffs, where he will be employed in the telegraph department. Mrs. Palmer and Miss Pauline will remain in Arion until school closes.

A new piano added to the Christmas joy in the Jas. Ballentyne home.

Mrs. G. W. McKee and Miss Anderson, who has been visiting Mrs. McKee this fall, went to Edgar, Neb., to spend the holidays with relatives.

The Congregational church was crowded Christmas eve. A prettily lighted and decorated tree occupied the Sunday school room. It was heavy with many pretty presents for the minister, superintendent of the Sunday school, teachers and pupils. Rev. J. H. Priestley opened the evening exercises with prayers, after which were songs by the choir and the Sunday school. Two tableaux, "The Birth of Jesus" and "The Littlest Boy in the Choir," were presented by the pupils of the Sunday school and were appreciated for the children, directed by Miss Palmer, presented these tableaux very nicely. Mrs. J. H. Priestley gave two recitations and sang a solo which was a very pleasing addition to the program. There were presents and a big sack of candy for each child. Mr. Emil Schwarz gave a generous supply of nuts and candy and every little one in this community was remembered.

Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. J. Oliver were Denison visitors Tuesday.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Harriet Evans, wife of Dr. Frank Evans, reached Arion Sunday. We had heard before that Mrs. Evans had been ill with appendicitis, but was getting better. It seems from the telegram that she was taken to Pocatello, Idaho, from her home near Tabor for an operation which was unsuccessful. The funeral will be held at Dixon, Neb., at which place they formerly lived, on Wednesday. Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Remey went to join the relatives at Omaha.

Another distressing accident was added Monday evening to those that have happened before at the dangerous Central track. Mr. Otto Ben Noth of 1311 Howard St., who was representing the Omaha Tribune, was in Arion on business and expected to take the Milwaukee train for Manilla. He heard a whistle and thinking it was his train ran across the park toward the depot and was struck by the incoming Central. He was hurt terribly on the left side of his face and one leg was broken. No one saw the accident as it happened in the early evening, and he managed to get to the Milwaukee depot unaided. The company physician was called, and he did all in his power for the injured man who was placed on a cot and taken to Omaha on the Northwestern.

Hog cholera is causing heavy losses among herds in this part of the country. A number of owners have had their hogs vaccinated, which is a better preventative than a cure, although some very sick animals recovered when vaccinated.

John Kepford was a Denison visitor Tuesday.

Vern Talcott, who is in the Swedish hospital in Omaha, is reported to be much better at this writing.

A large family party was held at the Wm. Marr home Saturday, all the members of the family being there to enjoy the good time with the exception of Mrs. Fred Marr.

Bryan Butcher, of Missouri Valley, who has been working here on the interlocking plant for the past four months, has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Retman and Floyd Retman spent Christmas at the Milo Kelly home.

Mrs. M. Kamey went to Omaha Monday, returning on Tuesday.

The N. F. Stilson home was the scene of a happy reunion on Saturday. Misses Irene Smith and Fernie Pearsall, from Dow City, visited friends in Arion last Thursday.

Several Arion people attended the dance in Dow City Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Marr is on the sick list at this writing. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jake Kepford has been quite ill for the past week with a severe attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Joe Kepford entertained a large party of young people on Christmas day. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Lin Keppord, Misses Pauline Palmer and Grace Butler and Earl Kepford.

The schools in Arion closed Thursday so that the teachers could get to their homes for Christmas. They will have the usual two weeks' vacation.

Miss Hazel Nesler, of Des Moines, visited with her friend, Miss Pauline Palmer, last week.

Mrs. Percy Dodge went to Manning Friday evening to visit relatives until Tuesday of this week.

Jay Kevan, of Denison, was an Arion visitor Monday.
