Miss Harriet Gebert left Monday for Indianola, where she will resume her studies at Simpson college after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Gebert, in Denison.

Clarence Bell and sister, Miss Queen left Sunday for Des Moines to resume their college work at Drake after spending the holidays in Denison at the parental home. Union week of prayer services are being held this week Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the Methodist church and Thursday and Friday evenings in the Presbyterian church, beginning promptly at 7:30. Harry Meyers, who has been spending the holidays in Denison at the parental, C. K. Meyers, home, departed Monday evening for Des Moines to resume his college work at the Des Moines college. Miss Amelia Haskins returned the fore part of last week to Milford, Iowa, where she holds a position in the bank there, after having spent a few days visiting the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Haskins. Misses Mary Day, Lois Hoel, Bess Swenson and Sybil Woodruff visited Miss Irene Van Ness in Denison Sunday. The guests, all of Omaha, were on their way to Mt. Vernon, where they are students at Cornell college. Jacob Weiss shipped two car loads of lambs to Chicago Saturday night, which were sold on Monday's market. Mr. Weiss reported that the lambs brought 10 cents, which he considers a good price as they were fed on soft corn. It has been decided to hold a union men's meeting every Sunday afternoon in the future at one of the three churches. The men's afternoon meetings have proven very popular and a goodly number are always in attendance. All will be pleased to learn that this will be a permanent feature in the future. Next Sunday afternoon the meeting will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church.

In Social Circles

On last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Chamberlin, the Coffee club had a covered dish party as a parting courtesy to Mrs. Mollie Young, who left this week for Sioux City to make her home. Mrs. Young was presented with an Eastern Star pin as a token of regard from the club members with whom she has been intimately associated ever since the organization of the club. All friends join in wishing Mrs. Young much pleasure in the new home and surroundings. The envelope club will meet with Mrs. Kate Johnson next Tuesday, January 11th. Miss Marie Weiss entertained a large party of girls at a watch party on New Year's eve. Games and music were enjoyed by some, while others took advantage of the fine coasting after which a delicious lunch was enjoyed. Mrs. Henry Saggau and sister, Miss Blaind Lally, entertained thirty young ladies and gentlemen at a delightful dancing party in the Saggau hall on New Year's eve. Excellent music had been arranged and frappe was served those who wished refreshments. The evening enjoyed greeting Mrs. Clem Mahon, of Kansas City, and Miss Beatrice Lally, who was home from Fairfield for the Christmas holidays. On Wednesday evening of last week Ruth Silletto celebrated her birthday by entertaining twelve of her schoolmates. The evening was devoted to games and music and terminated with a dainty lunch. Ruth received a number of pretty gifts from her admiring friends. Miss Rhea Cummings was hostess at H. H. on Thursday evening, when the usual good time was enjoyed by all. The S. S. club had a pleasant session at the club room Tuesday evening, when Miss Bettie Ohms acted as chairman and served an elegant supper. The girls Home Guards met with Martha Leheldt on Tuesday evening. After the lesson and business session light refreshments were served. The F. H. club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. C. Saul Tuesday afternoon. The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Hubbell; Secretary, Mrs. Jim McKim; Treasurer, Mrs. Jacobsen; Reporter, Mrs. Robt. Hawley. Two guests from out of town added to the pleasures of the meeting, Mrs. Cole, of Missouri, and Mrs. Flint, of Boise, Idaho. After the usual session of fancy work a bounteous and delicious supper was served. Miss Edna Wright was hostess at a 6 o'clock dinner on Thursday evening of last week. The table was prettily decorated in red and white, red carnations and ferns being used as the centerpiece surrounded by red candles. The eight young lady guests found their places by means of dainty red and white Christmas cards and all enjoyed the excellent menu served. The evening was pleasantly spent with ukelele music and conversation. As usual during the Christmas holidays, about forty young people of Denison gathered at Hotel Denison on Thursday evening last and enjoyed the hours until twelve dancing. The music was excellent and everyone enjoyed meeting those home from college for the holidays.

CATTLE BUSINESS

(Continued from page One) bred cattle thoroughly and at all times the McHenry herd was in the pink of condition. C. A. Tow made Mr. Brown such an attractive proposition that he could hardly afford to let it pass by, so he accepted it. Mr. Brown left today for Norway, where he will get acquainted with the new herd and week after next he will accompany the show herd to Denver, where it will enter the stock show. Mr. Brown's family will remain in Denison for some time before moving to the new home. Included in the sale of the McHenry herd was Irwin C. the grad champion bull this year; Black cap Bertram, junior champion last year, and also the highest priced yearling bull ever sold.

CO. SUPERVISORS IN SESSION

Board Recognizes and C. J. Bohnsack, the New Member, is Sworn Into Office Monday. JOHN HOLLAND MADE CHAIRMAN Bids Received for Stewardship of County Home—Official Papers Are Chosen—Checking Up Officers The Crawford county board of supervisors convened at the court house on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the first meeting of the new year, and to transact such business as was necessary for the conducting of the county affairs for the year 1916. C. J. Bohnsack, the new member of the board who takes the place of John Haggie, was sworn in. Mr. John Holland was elected chairman of the board for the ensuing year. The following committees were appointed to look after the road and bridge work for the year: John Holland; Jackson, Stockholm, West Side and Milford townships. Martin Nehls; Washington, Boyer, Willow and Union townships. H. C. Kolls; Otter Creek, Goodrich, Denison and Paradise townships. Hans Hage; Charter Oak, Soldier, Morgan and Hanover townships. C. J. Bohnsack; Iowa, Hayes, East Boyer and Nishnabotny townships. The following appointments were made at the Tuesday morning session: H. C. Kolls was appointed to purchase supplies for the court house and heating plant. H. C. Kolls appointed overseer of the poor in city of Denison. Holland, Nehls, Hage and Bohnsack were appointed to look after matters pertaining to the county home near Arion. Nehls, Hage and Bohnsack were appointed to purchase fuel for the county home and court house heating plant. Bids were received by the board for the stewardship of the county home for the year 1916, but up to the time of going to press no appointment had been made. Seven different parties made application for this position as follows: Harvey Homrick, $79 per month. Edward C. Dorsey, $70 per month. James McAllister, $80 per month. W. B. Matlock, $80 per month. Henry H. Frahm, $800 per year. John Blackman, $1000 per year. Ben Weiss, $1100 per year. As only three English papers and one German paper made application to be appointed official papers for the publishing of the board proceedings and legal matter for the county for the year 1916 they were appointed. These papers are the same as last year, namely: The Review, Bulletin and Manilla Times and Der Denison Herold in the German language. The board will probably be in session for the balance of the week checking up the county officers and attending to the rush of business which is so common at the beginning of the year.

land, Ore., where the accident occurred. Virginia Margaret Gilbreath, nine months old, Robert C. Gilbreath, seven years old, and Curtis Gilbreath, their father, of 786 Tibbets street, were injured when an automobile struck them at Greenwood avenue and Division street at 3 o'clock last night. Their injuries were not serious, however. The little girl was in a baby carriage and the boy in a go cart, while the father was pushing the baby carriage and pulling the little cart. Owing to the condition of the sidewalk Mr. Gilbreath was traveling with the children in the street. The automobile first struck the cart, knocking the boy out to the ground, then Mr. Gilbreath and then the baby carriage. The driver of the automobile did not stop except for a moment. According to Mr. Gilbreath the car carried Oregon license tag 21807. This tag is in the name of S. B. Golden on Route No. 1, Box 303, Lents. Following the accident the injured were taken to a nearby residence and cared for by Dr. M. C. Hampson.
