A want ad in the classified department of the Review will bring the desired results. A trial will be convincing.

Miss Helen Phelan, of Omaha, spent several days in Denison last week visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. O. Johnson.

When answering advertisements appearing in this paper kindly mention the fact that you saw the ad in the Review.

Miss Luella Cole, a teacher in the public schools at Des Moines, spent the week end in Denison visiting at the parental, J. H. Cole, home.

Architect E. L. Barber has been awarded the contract for drawing the plans and specifications for the new consolidated school at Dow City.

Mrs. C. D. Evans and Mrs. Chambers, of Columbus, Neb., arrived in Denison yesterday for a few days' visit at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Geo. McHenry.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hohenstein, of Windom, Minn., arrived in Denison Saturday for a week's visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders.

Mr. Carl Hanneman, of Dunlap, transacted business in Denison Friday. While here he took occasion to call at this office and extend his subscription to the paper.

Mr. W. J. Scriver enjoyed an over Sunday visit with his daughter, Miss Clara, who teaches in the Omaha schools. We are glad to report that Mr. Scriver is recovering from his sickness.

Mr. Gus Lapel, a resident of Manilla, transacted business in Denison on Thursday last. While in the city he called at the Review office and extended his subscription to the paper for another year.

Miss Margaret Carey left Sunday morning for Sioux City, where she spent the day visiting with friends at Morningside. From there she went to Lincoln, Neb., for a two weeks' visit with university friends.

Mr. E. A. Stone returned Friday evening from Rochester, N. Y., where he was called on account of the death of his mother. Mr. George Menagh accompanied him to Rochester to be in attendance at the funeral.

Fritz Hoffert, who attends the north brick school, was injured last Wednesday afternoon while coasting in the school yard. His sled collided with a tree with such force as to break his left arm and badly bruise him about the head.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartcher returned Friday morning from Colfax, where they spent several days in attendance at the undertakers' convention. Mr. Bartcher reports a large attendance at the convention, which was a very profitable one.

Mr. Henry Weber turned a wolf pelt into the county auditor's office in Denison on last Friday. The wolf was killed near his home in the vicinity of Dunlap. While in Denison Mr. Weber called at the Review office and ordered the paper sent to his home for the coming year.

Mrs. Chas. E. Maw, of Provo, Utah, spent several days in Denison last week visiting her friend, Mrs. Geo. Lamberty. Mrs. Maw's husband is a professor in the Brigham Young university, which is located at Provo, and she was on her way home from a visit with friends at Washington, D. C.

Henry Saggau and Dr. P. J. Brannon drove down to Omaha Thursday in John Schmadke's car, where it was left to be painted. Henry piloted the car and although the entire distance was made through snow, they made the trip in four hours' time, which certainly sets the record for winter driving. Henry, together with his brother, Martin, returned to Denison Friday driving up two new Fords.

The operetta, "A Nautical Knot," was presented by the Girls' Glee club of Ida Grove on last Friday night, under the direction of Miss Flo Caswell, supervisor of music in the Ida Grove high school. The production is said to have been a very creditable one.

The city dads of Odebolt closed a contract last week with a Chicago concern for the purchase of thirty-four electroliers to be used in lighting the streets of enterprising Odebolt. The standards are said to be of a very pretty design and cost but $16.40 each. The globes were extra and cost $6.11 each. To finance the purchase the town issued six per cent warrants due in two years.

Chas. Boilen returned last Wednesday from New York City and other eastern points, where he spent two weeks purchasing goods for the Balle-Brodersen store. Charlie says that the hotels in New York are crowded and that it is almost impossible to secure accommodations, due to the fact that buyers who formerly purchased goods in Europe are forced to buy at the New York market.

Earl H. Ferguson, an attorney of Shenandoah, was before the state board of parole last Wednesday pleading for a pardon for Solomon Haasan, sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary from Crawford county on conviction of second degree murder. Our readers will remember in the winter of 1907 the two Hassans were convicted of murdering their cousin, Fred Nawfal, and were taken to the penitentiary at Ft. Madison in January, 1908. Joseph, the elder brother, afterward lost his mind and was transferred to Cherokee, where he later died. Solomon learned the tailoring trade at the penitentiary and is said to have become a very excellent workman. The father has been peddling goods in the southern part of the state since the conviction of his two sons.

BROGAN ITEMS.

Mr. H. Franks, of Denison, spent Monday in Herring visiting with his brothers.

A civil engineer employed by the government, was in this vicinity Monday looking over the drainage ditch which extends from Wall Lake to Brogan.

Mrs. J. C. Dose, Ricky Bruce and S. J. Jans shipped hogs from Herring Monday.

Chas. Cochran, of Knoke, W. E. Williams, of Long Pipe, Neb., and Art Williams, of Denison, spent the week end at the Tom Brogan home.

Mrs. C. H. Richardson and son, Clifford, were having dental work done in Denison Saturday.

Mrs. Wilber Perry returned Monday from Nebraska and Spencer, where she had been spending a few weeks.

Mr. John Kiser returned Wednesday from Chicago.

Mr. Dennis McLaughlin, of the Globe Commission Co., of Chicago, spent a few days last week with his uncle, B. C. McLaughlin, in Brogan.

Ernest Schwantz was an Omaha visitor Monday.

Tom Brogan, Herb and James Cochran were Odebolt business visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. L. H. Christiansen was a Denison caller on last Wednesday, having gone down to have some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jans entertained a number of their neighbors and friends at a farewell party at their home on Thursday evening. A very nice time was enjoyed by the guests, who regret the departure of this estimable couple from Brogan.

Miss Dabler, of Kickella, spent a few days the past week with her brother and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dose were in Vail Saturday attending to some shopping duties.

Miss Irene Herring and Raymond Johnston were united in marriage at Spencer, Ia., on last Wednesday, which will be a surprise to the friends of the bride in this locality. Mrs. Johnston was a former Crawford county girl and we wish the happy young couple the best that life affords on their journey through life.

The Ricky Bruce, W. W. Dean, Henry Backman and John Auen families are suffering with the measles this week. We hope that they may soon recover from their sufferings.

George Weed spent a few days the past week with relatives in and around Herring.
