

VAIL ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. James McAndrews visited in Denison the first of last week at the J. H. Jones home. Miss Marjorie Haas was an over Sunday visitor with friends in West Side. Mrs. Ed. McAndrews, of Denison, spent Wednesday with Vail relatives. Misses Angles Holland and Stella Byrnes returned home Monday from a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Ames. Emil Novotne and family and Mrs. Geo. Dieter motored over to Denison on business Wednesday. Mart Lynch was up from Carroll on Wednesday meeting Vail friends. Miss Julia Sherwood was calling on friends in Denison the first of last week. Mrs. B. Olson and Miss Beulah White spent last Tuesday in Woodbine. Mrs. Ben Wahlin returned home on Thursday from a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rutherford at Grey, Iowa. Mrs. Chas. McCullough and Miss Kittle, were visitors in Denison Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Robertson, of Manilla, were Vail visitors Thursday. Miss Margaret Short spent last week in South Omaha at the Frank Lewis home. George McAlpin, of St. Louis, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jess Dieter, and with relatives in Vail. Mrs. Thos. Powers was a Denison passenger Thursday. Miss Nell Harrington returned home Thursday from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives in Jefferson. Miss Blanche Jorgensen was a visitor in Denison Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell, business callers Friday in Denison. Dr. Clarence Molsede arrived here Friday from Omaha. Chas. Breen, of Ames, spent a part of last week in this vicinity visiting and looking after business interests. He made the trip in his auto. James McKone, of Denison, was a Vail visitor Tuesday. Rev. P. J. Murphy, of Alford, spent a couple of days here last week, the guest of his uncle, Rev. Jas. Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bruening, of Arcadia, were over Sunday visitors here. Mrs. Bartley Mitchell returned home Wednesday from a few days' visit with her daughters in Omaha. Mrs. Janssen, of Carroll, visited here the first of the week at the H. C. Gronemeyer home. H. Tarry and family, of Manning, were Sunday visitors here at the Wm. Harrington home. Mrs. M. J. Keane, daughter, Marie, and son, Ignatius, spent Sunday in Denison at the A. Vernon home. Miss Anna Johnson, of Omaha, spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. E. Johnson. Miss Anna McAndrews, who attends St. Angela's institute at Carroll, spent the first of the week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McAndrews. Paul Mooney, of Denison, was a Vail visitor the first of the week. Misses Hanna and B. Hussion spent Sunday at West Side at the Thos. Tarry home. Landlord Manon and family are enjoying a visit from Mr. Manon's sister, Mrs. Kate Waick, whose home is in Chambersburg, Penn. Ed. Vernon was here from Denison Saturday on business. Mesdames Jas. Watson and daughter Falba, and O. O'Reilly and son, Jack, spent Sunday in Denison at the parental, D. Servoss, home. John Knowles assisted in furnishing music for a dance in Arcadia last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Connor and children, of Carroll, spent the first of the week here at the P. O'Boyle home. Paul Gronemeyer was a Sunday visitor in Denison. Miss Agnes Sheridan, of Omaha, spent a part of last week with her Vail relatives. Mrs. Mary Quirk and Mrs. Thomas Powers were passengers to Denison Monday. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dozark spent the first of last week in Omaha. R. Zimmer moved his family here last week from Manilla. They moved into the Byrnes house in the north part of town. R. Mill, of Denison, spent Saturday night here with friends, returning to his home on the early train Sunday morning. Wm. Murphy spent Sunday with Denison friends. John Duffy came up from Arcadia Sunday morning and spent the day with friends. Mrs. Murphy, of Dunlap, who was a guest in the R. Quirk home, returned to her home Saturday. D. C. Bell, of Lincoln, Neb., was transacting business in Vail a few days last week. Clarence Maher was here from Arcadia the first of last week on business. J. P. Duffy spent the past week here from Omaha. Maurice Anderson, who had his arm broken some ten days ago by falling from a horse, has been a patient little sufferer and is recovering nicely from the injury, but will have to give one hand a vacation. Fred Hoogstradt, of Arcadia, was transacting business in our town the first of last week. A big dance will be held under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality at the opera house on Friday evening of this week. Come and have a good time. P. J. Beirne, of Carroll, spent the last of the week with Vail relatives. County Attorney Bell was here from Denison Monday attending to some business matters. Will Fitzsimmons, of South Omaha, spent Sunday here with his father, Wm. Fitzsimmons. Miss Julia Sherwood, who has been visiting in our midst for the past two months, returned to her home at Cottonwood, S. D., Wednesday morning. The married folks' dance was held at the opera house last Wednesday evening and was well attended. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all in attendance. Miss Clara Krull and Florence Vandesteep visited the schools in Denison last Tuesday. E. H. Buchman and family now occupy the Murphy residence on Bergen street. Miss Emma Connor is spending the week in Jackson township at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. Maxwell. Ed Kenney and Lloyd Dieter spent the last of the week in Omaha with relatives and friends. Jas. Monaghan is the latest one here to invest in an auto. It is a Ford and he is enjoying it. Dr. Meehan was down from Denison last Tuesday. Mr. Puffer, of Carroll, was here on business Wednesday. Misses B. Blake and N. Upham spent Saturday in Denison. Mrs. Kelly, of Denison, spent the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lew Hannon, and husband north-east of town. Mrs. Fred Koester and two daughters, Bertha and Gertrude, spent Tuesday in Denison. Mrs. J. Jorgensen is now the owner of a new Overland touring car. Charley Smutney, of Wilbur, Neb., spent a few days here the past week with relatives and friends. R. J. Kinney was in Omaha the first of last week on business. Mesdames J. M. Glyn, E. Quirk and P. Monaghan were calling in Denison last Thursday. Miss Regina Molsede returned home Thursday from a pleasant two weeks' visit with Omaha friends. Ed McMahon and family motored over from Manilla Sunday and spent the day at the Thos. Powers home. M. Kelly returned last week from Colfax, where he passed some time taking the benefit of that health resort. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill motored to Denison Friday on business. John Doherty and family departed the first of last week for their new home in Denver, Colo. Mrs. J. Brockelsby visited recently with her daughter, Allie, at LeMars. Mrs. R. Tubbs and baby departed last Tuesday for their home in Webster City, after a few weeks' visit at the A. Short home. R. C. Hawley and family, of Denison, spent last Tuesday with relatives and friends in and around Vail. George Friday and wife motored to Denison on business Wednesday. J. O'Connor was here from Denison Tuesday calling on friends. Ed Sheridan and family moved last week to their new home in the west part of town, which he purchased recently of John Doherty. Mrs. D. Servoss, of Denison, visited relatives here last week. Miss Edna Portz, of Denison, was a visitor at the P. Lane home the first of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin, of Carroll, spent Sunday here at the Chas. Macke home. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, of Denison, visited here Sunday between trains at the Jas. McAndrews home. Miss Blanche Sechta, who teaches near Wall Lake, spent the first of last week here with her folks. Dan Molony was here from Denison Tuesday. John Meehan and family motored over from Manilla Sunday for a visit with relatives. The furniture and household goods of Charley Magill, of Arcadia, were badly damaged by fire the first of last week when a lamp exploded and set fire to the place. The family are staying here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wahlin, for the present until they decide what they will do. Charley White, north of town, enjoyed a visit recently from his four sisters. Mrs. Jas. Large, of Sac City; Mrs. T. M. Whitney, of Mitchell, S. D.; Mrs. A. Weeks, of Denison, and Mrs. Alice Hawkins, of Draper, S. D. Thos. Meehan was a Denison passenger Monday.

WEST DENISON ITEMS

John Keating and C. C. Houlihan purchased Studebaker cars recently. Miss Edna Mosler spent Sunday with Mrs. Wm. Lenz. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boger and A. Moeller spent Sunday with Mr. and Miss Frieda Asmus. Miss Marjorie Bryan was a guest in the John Holst home Wednesday evening. Miss Annie Evers, of Denison, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Kruse. Miss Lydia Prosch, of Denison, was a week end guest of Martha Lenz. Mrs. C. P. Harvey has been suffering from heart trouble for several weeks. Her friends are glad to learn she is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pautsch, Martin Runge, Ferdinand Pautsch and Martha Lenz were entertained at the William Lenz home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Holst entertained a number of relatives Sunday afternoon. Ed Kolls and friends were enjoying the former's new Cadillac eight Sun-Albert Lenz and sister, Martha, and Miss Lydia Prosch, of Denison, spent Sunday with Schleswig relatives. Wm. Asmus and family spent Sunday with her brother near Manilla. Mrs. P. J. Farrelly, of Denison, was a visitor at the B. Houlihan home one day last week. Irene Flenhold spent Sunday evening with her grandmother, Mrs. Owens. Monday morning she left for Denison, where she is attending the sisters' school. Clarence Bryan spent Thursday evening with his schoolmate, Glenn Harvey. John Murphy, of Dunlap, and T. J. Flaherty and family, of Charter Oak, motored to the Owens home for a Sunday visit. Kathryn and Emma Brown spent an evening last week with their friends, Helen Keating and Edna Kolls. Henry Adams and family and Mrs. John Holst, Sr., started for the John Holst home Sunday. When they came to a road which was being graded the auto became unmanageable and turned over, throwing the occupants out. The only one injured was Mrs. Holst, who received a broken arm. August Kahl and Bert McCord shipped cattle to Chicago Saturday. Miss Gladys McCord was a week end visitor in Dow City. A Mr. Kremer of Montana has been selected to succeed the lamented Tom Pence as secretary of the democratic national committee. Pence is lamented more and more every day as the difficulties of the administration multiply and become more evident. Pence was a politician and a diplomat than whom there was nobody in the party who was than whomer. As an official explainer Pence was in a class by himself—and the democratic party never required such a man more desperately than it does—and will this year.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS

Mrs. John Thompson, of Council Bluffs, came Monday for a visit with her people in the Oak. A new sanitary fountain has been installed at the corner of the Farmers State bank. Mike Betler has received the appointment of city marshal and promises to enforce the speed ordinance. Work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The I beams were placed Monday for the second story. Contractor Fee has ordered his men to build a story a week until the structure is finished. What came near being a fatal accident occurred Wednesday. Pete Paulkins was repairing one of the electric light wires near the Christensen blacksmith shop when he came in contact with a live wire carrying 220 volts. He being unable to loose his hold of the wire, he fainted from the shock and was held fast until someone could go to the power house and turn off the power. Mrs. G. B. Goin and daughter, Mildred, were shopping in Sioux City Friday. Henry Lipoll, while catching in the ball game Friday afternoon, was hit in the leg with a ball. On account of his already weak condition he has been seriously ill since. Jake Haberman, of Friend, came for an over Sunday visit with his wife and baby in the Oak. Mrs. C. A. Saunders and her mother, Mrs. Graham, of Manilla, came Friday for a visit with Charter Oak friends. The Charter Oak high school team won its second victory Friday, defeating the Ute team by a score of 10 to 0. The game was very fast and lasted ten innings. The pitching by McCain was a feature of the game. The batteries were: Charter Oak, McCain and Lipoll; Ute, Cunningham, Larson and Borthardt. The first team lost their first game of ball of the season at Ute Sunday, the score being 4 to 3. Batteries: Charter Oak, Remmes and Cowell; Ute, Pace and Griese. Bernard Pearsall, an old time resident of Charter Oak, was visiting old friends in the Oak Sunday. An invitation from Rev. Phelps, the Masons and O. E. S. attended the tabernacle meeting in a body Friday evening and listened to a delightful sermon on "Amusements." Paul Schurke, of Onawa, was visiting his mother in the Oak Sunday. Miss Martha Hird, of Manilla, visited in the Jones home over Sunday. Mrs. John Jones, of Denison, visited her sisters in the Oak Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Thompson came down from their home in Onawa Sunday to attend the tabernacle meetings and visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Wright visited in the Wm. Schouten home in Dow City last Friday. Miss Hazel Hall spent the week end in the Goin home. Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Peterson and family autoed up from Council Bluffs Sunday morning to spend the day with Thos. Thomson and family. Mrs. Bert Helvik was shopping in Sioux City Friday. Mrs. Henry Miller came from her home in Kingsley Friday for a visit with the teachers before they leave for their long vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Crow came from Denison Tuesday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. F. H. Davis. Mrs. Fred Wright left Tuesday for a visit with Guy and Hazel Wright. Mr. Wright has sold his farm and bought Wyoming land. He expects to move in the fall and look after his possessions himself. Miss Jessie Marshall was shopping in Sioux City Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reetz came Tuesday from Manning for a visit with their people and to attend to some business matters. Miss Lucile Waterhouse was down from Mapleton Sunday visiting old friends. Mrs. E. A. Topf, of Mapleton, visited her relatives in the Oak the first of the week. The German Lutheran choir and a few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Iversen Friday to tender a surprise to H. A. Ansgore, a most enjoyable time was had and a dainty two course lunch was served, after which the company presented Mr. Ansgore with a beautiful rug. Mrs. O. O. Collins returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit with her people in Dana. Berry Eyer came down from Sioux City Tuesday evening for a visit with his sister, Mrs. John Jones. Father Schaefer enjoyed a visit the first of the week from his brother, who was recently married at LeMars. Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Jasper Hunter occurred the wedding of Miss Cecil Hunter and Mr. Fred Kelms, Rev. Poppenheimer officiating. The young people will occupy the cottage recently vacated by Chas. Oslund. Dr. Roy Probasco, of Ackley, visited his people in the Oak the first of the week. A deal was closed the last of the week whereby Mr. Probasco becomes the owner of the Colonial theater. Mr. Probasco will complete the unfinished story now being shown. Mr. Kirk Patrick will close his show about the fifteenth of the month. F. C. Ries has purchased the building now occupied by B. M. Palmer as a restaurant. Mr. Palmer will move into his own building as soon as the repairs are finished and Mr. Ries will move into his new building with his panatorium. Otto Schultz was a Denison visitor Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Jones were visiting in Denison Tuesday. Mrs. Harry Wood was shopping in Denison Tuesday. Mr. Macumber left Tuesday for his home in Hawarden. Mrs. Manke, of Sioux City, came last Wednesday for a visit with her brother, Wm. Pranschke. Mrs. W. T. Kevan returned Friday from a visit with her people in Denison. Mrs. Isiah Waddington left Tuesday for Sioux City, where she entered a hospital for surgical treatment. She was accompanied by her husband and Miss Nell McGrath.

SINCE TAKING PERUNA

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna." Those who object to fluid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Advertisement for 'Annual May Sale of Waists' at 'THE BOYS DENISON'S POPULAR STORE'. The ad features a central illustration of a woman in a long, light-colored dress with a high collar and long sleeves. The text is arranged in columns around the illustration, listing various waist styles and their prices. At the top, it says 'See the windows' on both sides. The main headline reads 'Now Comes Our Annual May Sale of Waists Thursday Friday Saturday'. Below this, it states 'A sale of unusual magnitude. We will show you more waists and better waists in the different lots enumerated than you ever saw before. No doubt you are familiar with the extensive line of waists we show at all times.' The prices listed are: At $1.00 (We have grouped together the greatest lot of waists we have ever sold at this low price. Every new style feature is represented. Jap silks, organdy, voiles, rice cloth, lace cloth. In all white and dainty colorings. Values to $2.00. May sale price $1.00), At $1.39 (In this great lot will be found waists of chiffon, silks, organdy, madras, voiles, etc., in white and colors. May sale price $1.39), At $1.95 (Waists will be found of unusual character at this price. Tub silks, Jap silks, organdy, voile, crepe de chine, lace waists, georgette crepes. In white and all colors of peach, rose in plain colors and stripes. Values to $3.50. May sale price $1.95), At $2.95 (Stripe Jap silk, crepe de chine, tub silk waists, etc. Values to $5. $2.95), At $3.95 (Georgette crepe, crepe de chine, lace waists, pussy willow taffeta. Values to $6 in one great lot $3.95), At $4.95 (A big lot of astonishing values in all wanted silks, tailored waists, dressy, fancy waists, etc. Values to $7.50. $4.95), and Extra Special (Any new model spring suit in our entire stock, taffeta suits, poplin, black and white checks, etc. Values to $35. In one great lot $14.75). The store name 'THE BOYS DENISON'S POPULAR STORE' is prominently displayed at the bottom.

Advertisement for Butter-Nut Coffee. The ad features a large illustration of a woman in a long, light-colored dress with a high collar and long sleeves, standing next to a large tin of Butter-Nut Coffee. The tin is labeled 'BUTTER-NUT COFFEE' and 'DAXTON & GALLAGHER CO.'. The text reads 'B is for Butter-Nut Coffee Delicious' and 'DAXTON & GALLAGHER CO.' at the bottom.