

DOWN CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. Minnie Nurse was up from Dunlap Saturday visiting her grandmother, Mrs. D. S. Miller. Mrs. W. E. Fishel went to Mapleton last Wednesday for a week's visit with her sister. Little Roscoe Holcomb is under the doctor's care. Miss Lottie Bixler went out to the Bert McCord home in Paradise township Saturday night to spend Sunday. Virgene McBride returned to Logan Monday after spending several days with her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brake. Elder J. A. Gillen will be here from Council Bluffs next Sunday to conduct preaching services in the L. D. S. church. A bunch of the younger girls went out to Cross' grove Sunday and had a wiener roast. Miss Janet Rae was a Dunlap visitor Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Keehner and children were Dunlap visitors Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Stoner, of Des Moines, spent several days last week in town. Mrs. Gibbs has returned to her home at Harlan, Alberta, Canada, after having spent the winter here and at other Iowa points with her children. Mrs. Jeanette Crandall's children and grandchildren helped her celebrate her birthday by spending the day with her Sunday and partaking of a fine birthday dinner. Mrs. Allen Howarth spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Omaha. George Binnall, W. L. Swatman, Ed Baber and Howard Sterrett attended a ball game at Dunlap Sunday. Earl Johnson came up from Council Bluffs Saturday evening to spend Sunday evening at the L. C. Hatch home. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Atkins were up from Dunlap Wednesday visiting their friend, Mrs. J. A. Brill. M. G. Wiggins purchased twenty-five baby chicks of the Buff Orpington breed last week and was so unfortunate as to lose over half of them the first night by the rat route. Isaac Howarth came down from Denison Friday to see how his father, Uncle Edmund Howarth is getting along. Mrs. Wm. Aldrich and daughter, Florence were up from Dunlap for an over Sunday visit at the J. W. Cramer home. R. T. Baber visited Sunday at the home of his son Fred at Galland's Grove. Theodore Dawson has returned to his home at Minneapolis after several weeks' visit with his aunt, Mrs. Ada Wheelwright. Mrs. Dan Reaser, of Denison, visited Thursday afternoon with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Reaser. Mr. and Mrs. Arch Laird spent two or three days last week with relatives in Denison. J. N. Bell was an Omaha visitor last week Tuesday. John Rudd returned Friday from a trip to Carroll. The L. D. S. people held baptismal services Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Tom McCullough and Misses Grace Edwards and Golda Jordan were shopping in Denison Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Omeara and Mrs. Fred Colby attended the funeral of M. L. Houlihan in Denison Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Howarth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagen and Uncle Dan Howarth were up from Dunlap Friday visiting at the Edmund Howarth home. Miss Vera Williamson spent the past week in Carroll with friends. Elder C. J. Hunt has spent several days the first of the week at Galland's Grove conducting preaching services and will arrive here Thursday to stay a day or two. John Keairnes' team ran away Saturday night when he and his wife were coming into town. After a run of about a mile, the doubletrees and a line broke, freeing the frightened animals. Arch Lambert succeeded in turning the animals so that they ran into the school yard nearby, where they were caught. The school will give a May day program on Friday afternoon, May 19th, to which all are invited. It will be given in the school yard as usual. R. H. Fishel went to Omaha Sunday for a few days' sojourn. E. H. Swasey had a large porch added to his residence last week. Mr. and Mrs. James Baber, Sr. and children returned Monday from an over Sunday visit with her people at Dunlap. Messrs. Patterson and Christman were among those from Denison seen here Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Rae attended church at Denison Sunday and later took dinner at the Frank Woolston home. Mott McHenry's family were also dinner guests at this popular home. Charles McHenry entertained his Sunday school class and teacher at his home on Friday evening, about a dozen, all told, being present. Games were played and a merry time was had after which lunch was served. This is one of the organized classes of the M. E. Sunday school, and Mrs. Rae the teacher seems to have the faculty of getting very near to the hearts of her boys. R. W. Houston, Thomas McCullough, W. C. Rolls and W. E. Fishel took an auto trip to Omaha Sunday. The high school pupils appeared at the picture show Wednesday evening in a minstrel show. Their glee club also gave several con songs. Henry Gibson returned to his home at Bloomfield, Neb., after a few weeks' visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank McHenry. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society held a most interesting and profitable meeting with Mrs. Leslie Poltevin last Wednesday afternoon, a bout eighty, all told, being present. Mrs. Earl Morrison had charge of the lesson, which was a study of conditions in Japan, and the wonderful progress made there in the last fifty years. After the lesson was concluded, a splendid lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. L. Thomas and

Mrs. M. G. Wiggins and daughter Miss Mildred. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Joe Hallowell. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrison drove to Denison Saturday and spent the day shopping and visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Glassburner autoed up from Woodbine Wednesday and attended the missionary meeting at the L. E. Poltevin home. Mrs. Walter Swatman and her father, William Cook, expect to leave in the near future for Omaha, where they will take up their residence. Mr. Swatman will go within a month or two. We regret the family's departure, but wish them well there. Next Sunday being Mothers' day, a special sermon appropriate to the occasion will be given at the M. E. church. An invitation to all to attend is hereby extended. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wiggins spent the day Monday in Omaha. Fred Logsdon came down from Marshalltown Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Lloyd Wells and baby Cleo came down from Denison the middle of the week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cramer. Mr. Wells came down to spend Sunday and the family returned home together Monday. Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy is enjoying a visit from her mother Mrs. Bedford Spencer. E. A. Stone, manager of the Stewart Lumber Co.'s yards, was down from Denison Thursday looking after the business here. Fred Coleman went to Grable Wednesday to look after the construction of a new building on his farm near there. Mrs. W. B. Sterrett and her mother Mrs. Brinten Sharp were in Denison Saturday. John Omeara came in the middle of last week from Nebraska City, and has been spending several days here with relatives. Mrs. Francis Gearhart arrived Wednesday from Maxwell for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Langley. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith, daughter Irene and Miss Nell Rule were in Omaha Thursday, where the ladies attended to some shopping. Mrs. Adamson and Mrs. Straight of Dunlap, spent the day last Tuesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Keehner. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDonald and son Carl and Mrs. Fred Wiley autoed to Denison Sunday to visit at the Claude McDonald home. Excavation has begun for the erection of H. K. Scott's new residence just south of W. E. Dow's. The building will be 30 x 46 feet and modern throughout. We rejoice over the prospect of so many new houses in the near future for Dow City. We need them. Mrs. C. L. Isbell was up from Logan last Thursday and spent the day with friends. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lusk returned last Thursday from their wedding trip to Exeter and Cordova, Neb., and for the present are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Brake. Mrs. Julian Butterworth and son of Laramie, Wyo., were arrivals Wednesday for a few days' visit with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Butterworth. Father J. M. Farrelly and J. T. Haugh, of Denison, were renewing acquaintances here Thursday. J. F. Gibson and family autoed to Dunlap Sunday and attended the ball game. Mrs. H. A. Essex was down from New Hartford several days last week visiting her husband, Pastor Essex of the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bonsall, Mrs. A. H. Harper and Mrs. Mariana Cain spent Sunday at Dunlap visiting with relatives. Ed Ahart, postmaster, has been unable to be at his office the past week on account of having severely wrenched his back. Mrs. Glen Dietz enjoyed a visit the past week from her friend Mrs. Wilson of Woodbine. Mrs. Victor Keehner and daughter Zara returned last week from a week's visit with relatives in Harlan. Dan Kliek came up from Dunlap Saturday evening to spend Sunday at the parental A. A. Fishel home. Mrs. Hugh Butterworth visited Wednesday with her friend Mrs. Howard Brace, near Woodbine. John Mathys is the owner of a fine new seven passenger Buick. Henry Bechner, of Hawkeye, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Odell Wednesday. Mrs. C. W. Manning was in Dunlap Saturday having dental work done. Fred Nelson returned home Thursday from Soldier where he had been called on account of the serious illness of his brother. He autoed to Soldier again to spend the day. Lunk Riddle and daughter, Miss Vesta were in Omaha Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coleman and children autoed to Carson Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives. Herman Lazerus, Will Fishel and C. L. Isbell went to Sioux City Friday to attend a big Masonic doings. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox, Jr. and son, Howard, of Arion, spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. A. A. Fishel. The Fox family expect to leave this week for South Dakota, where they will visit relatives. A. J. Gary's house moving gang was here from Denison last week and moved the C. E. Mutterworth cottage occupied by the H. G. Scott family to a lot farther south. The lot, with others adjoining it on the east, has been sold to the consolidated school district and this necessitates the vacating of the property. Mrs. M. C. Bailey, of Dunlap, visited her daughter, Mrs. Frank Howarth last Thursday. Mrs. R. E. Lusk has been assisting in the post office during the time Mr. Ahart has been unable to work. Hank Cummings, county sheriff, was in town Thursday. We are informed that Dr. J. A. Brill has signed up to play baseball with Dunlap this season. Mrs. Herman Lazerus was hostess to the Priscilla club and a large number of other ladies on Thursday. A delightful afternoon was spent with this popular hostess. An elegant lunch was served. Out of town guests were

W. E. Fishel and W. C. Rolls were in Omaha last week one day to make an offer of our park to the Omaha cadets as a camping place this summer when they take their outing. Some one will be here soon to look over the facilities offered. Many of our people do not look with favor on such an organization coming, while others think it a great thing for the town. Should they come, it will be necessary for a rifle range to be provided. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Omeara were in Denison Monday. Friends of Miss Stella Riddle will regret to learn that she is ill at her father's home north of town, and all trust she may be convalescent at an early date. Word reaches us of the death of Mrs. Will Wiggins at her home in Ottumwa, pneumonia being the cause. Burial will take place at Grinnell, Mrs. Wiggins will be remembered as Miss Eleanor Robertson. Mrs. O. J. Judd and daughter Bernice were Omaha visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Comstock from Denison, spent the day last Wednesday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Omeara. Morris Rubin was up from Omaha Sunday spending the day at the home of his sister, Mrs. Herman Lazerus. Mr. and Mrs. Will Buss, Mrs. L. A. Vore and Mr. and Mrs. Roman Holcomb were visiting relatives at Ute Sunday. Mrs. M. C. Dally, daughter Marie and Mrs. Jerry Holland were up from Dunlap Wednesday visiting Mrs. E. C. Howarth. Mrs. Claus Hansen, son Lester and daughters Mrs. T. E. Baber and Mrs. Charley Bell were Omaha shoppers Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Spray Malone accompanied Arthur Cook and family to Vail Sunday afternoon, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Green. Alfred Jackson visited Sunday with his wife and son Willard in Galland's Grove. The B. F. Sharp family have moved to the country and will live on one of the Howarth farms. Misses Golda and Lena Honz enjoyed a week end visit from their cousin, Miss Larsen, of Missouri Valley. John Simms, the man who was apprehended here early in April charged with stealing clothing from the Siebel store in Woodbine, and who served thirty days for the crime, was in town one day last week, and was promptly ordered to "move on," which he did. Marshal Baber didn't care for the presence of such a crook in town over night. Hugh and Nelson Butterworth, Charley Miller, Gilbert Rudd and Buzz Alexander autoed to Omaha Sunday to take in the Sioux City-Omaha game. Houston sold two more cars last week. Emil Norman and Charley Butler being the purchasers. This is twenty-one cars Mr. Houston has put out this season. Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and children were up from Woodbine Sunday, spending the day at the W. A. Starkey home. Miss Edith Rettig, state organizer of the suffrage work, was in town last Wednesday, the guest of Mrs. F. C. Howarth. Wm. Walters is completing the erection of a fine new barn on the farm north of town. Attorney Leon Powers, of Denison was seen on our streets Saturday. Allen Howarth sent a shipment of cattle to Omaha Thursday night, accompanying the shipment. He returned Friday, bringing back a carload of calves for feeding purposes. The Palo Alto club was delightfully entertained on Saturday at the home of Miss Golda Jordak. The affair was turned into a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Robert Lusk, who was wedded recently. Many beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Lusk, which shows in a small way the club's appreciation of her. At the close of the afternoon a splendid lunch was served. W. B. McDonald is driving a new five passenger Buick purchased from the local agent, A. L. Jackson. Lester Cue, Walter Murphy and Claus Knutzen were over from the Willow Saturday visiting Verne Rule. Mr. and Mrs. Will Holbert visited relatives in Woodbine Sunday. Mrs. S. E. Wiley is having a fine large porch built on her residence a convenience she will much enjoy. Mrs. H. A. Essex had charge of the services at the Baptist church on Sunday, and in the evening gave a suffrage address to an appreciative audience. The food sale held at the Farmers' State Bank last Saturday under the auspices of the M. E. ladies aid socety, was a huge success, the proceeds being $32.00. The only trouble was that they had not anticipated such a great demand for home baking and didn't have enough to fill the orders. The contract for the erection of the new consolidated school house was not let Friday as had been planned, but was postponed until May 20th. J. A. Scott, Alex Bell, A. A. Luke and Cash Miller autoed to Omaha Tuesday in Mr. Bell's car. Word came Thursday from Fremont Neb., that Mrs. Joe Best was critically ill of erysipelas. Her many friends here regret to learn of her illness and trust that she may soon be better. Mrs. Percy Brown departed Saturday for Estherville, where she will join her husband and they will take up their residence. Mrs. Lessie Howarth and son Dan went to Harlan the last of the week to visit relatives. The Mott McHenry family spent Sunday in Denison.

Notice in Probate. State of Iowa, Crawford County, ss.— In Probate. In the matter of the estate of Bernard Reinecke, late of Crawford county, deceased. Notice of Appointment of Administrator. To Whom It May Concern: You are hereby notified that on the 5th day of May, 1916, the undersigned was duly appointed administrator of the above entitled estate, and all creditors of said estate are notified to file their claims in the office of the clerk of the district court, in and for Crawford county, Iowa, within one year from the date of this notice, according to law, and have the same allowed and ordered paid by the said court, or stand forever barred therefrom. Dated, Denison, Iowa, May 9, 1916. HAROLD REINKKE, Administrator. Conner & Powers, 19-21

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES Notice of Appointment of Administrator. To Whom It May Concern: You are hereby notified that on the 5th day of May, 1916, the undersigned was duly appointed administrator of the above entitled estate, and all creditors of said estate are notified to file their claims in the office of the clerk of the district court, in and for Crawford county, Iowa, within one year from the date of this notice, according to law, and have the same allowed and ordered paid by the said court, or stand forever barred therefrom. Dated, Denison, Iowa, May 9, 1916. HAROLD REINKKE, Administrator. Conner & Powers, 19-21

Report of the Condition of the First National Bank At Denison, in the State of Iowa, at the close of business on May 1, 1916

Table with columns for RESOURCES and LIABILITIES, listing various financial items and their corresponding values.

State of Iowa, County of Crawford, ss. I, Sears McHenry, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. SEARS McHENRY, Cashier. Correct—Attest: GEORGE McHENRY, L. SERMANN, M. H. McHENRY, Directors. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of May, 1916. E. W. PIERCE, Notary Public.

Advertisement for Chandler's Six car, featuring an illustration of the car and text describing its features, price ($1295), and availability. Includes the slogan 'The (Chandler) Four-Passenger Roadster is by Long Odds the Hit of the Season' and contact information for Louis M. Coon.