Denison was without fire protection a greater part of last Sunday and Monday on account of the connecting up of the main line being late in the afternoon. Residents in North Denison suffered the most from lack of water as there seemed to be sufficient water in the mains in South Denison to take care of the needs. People who were so fortunate as to have wells on their premises were busy accommodating their less fortunate neighbors who walked blocks to get water for drinking purposes. The situation was relieved Monday evening, when connection was made with the electric pump and there is now a good supply of water in the standpipes.

The Boys' department store are using four full pages in this issue of the Review to announce a July clearance sale which they proclaim to be the largest sale in the history of their business career. The sale is being extensively advertised in all three of the Denison newspapers and in addition 2000 four page circulars have been mailed to the buying public in this territory. The goods offered in this sale are not such as they would be in the cream of their stock which they are anxious to move in order to make room for the fall stock which will be shipped next month. In order to move the present stock they are marking their goods at unheard of prices and in some instances may be low the first cost. It is to be expected that a success for people will not be slow in appreciating the extraordinary values offered.
