

CHARTER OAK ITEMS

Dr. and Mrs. Leytze, of Sioux City, visited friends in Charter Oak Thursday. Maurice Fassman, of Sioux City, has been visiting his brother, J. M. Fassman, and family in the Oak the past week. Mesdames Fidler, Baak and Munster and Misses Mund, Baak and Elsie Baak, of Ricketts, attended chautauqua in the Oak Thursday. Mrs. Ida Dodge, of Sioux City, came Friday evening for a visit with her parents. Leslie Lyons returned home from Dunlap Friday afternoon, where he has been spending the summer on his uncle's farm. Mrs. John Jacobsen and children, of Danbury, spent the week in the Oak attending chautauqua and visiting with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Branson drove over from Dow City Saturday for a visit with their people in the Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fruels and daughter, Anna, left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Denver, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Peterson, of Council Bluffs, drove up in their car for an over Sunday visit with their relatives in the Oak. Misses Fae and Mildred Goin were shopping in Sioux City Friday. Charter Oak and Ute played ball on the home ground Friday with a victory for Charter Oak by a score of 6 to 2. Battery for the Oak, McCain and Hall, for Ute, Greiser and McGraw. On Tuesday Charter Oak played Mapleton, the game resulting in a score of 2 to 2. The game lasted ten innings and was called on account of darkness. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoefler, of Ricketts, attended chautauqua a couple of days this week. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pruehs, Tuesday, a son. Mr. and Mrs. John Grant and little son, of Red Wing, Minn., visited with friends and relatives in the Oak the first of the week. Miss Emily Caruthers, of Manila, visited in the McGrath home, the latter part of the week. Ed Lyons spent Sunday in Dunlap with friends. Little Miss Doris Tinker came over from Dow City for a visit with little friends in the Oak. Dr. and Mrs. Waterhouse and daughter, Lucile, of Mapleton, attended chautauqua and visited relatives in the Oak this week. Mrs. Anneson visited in Ute Thursday. Miss Rose Mundt was a Mapleton visitor Thursday. Miss Flo French returned from her visit with friends at Burlington Junction, Mo., Tuesday. Dr. Thomas Thomsen left Thursday for a visit with relatives in Omaha. Mrs. Oxley, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. O. Collins, is quite ill. Miss Erma Hess was over from Ricketts to call on friends the past week. Miss Eljze Pruehs visited friends in Mapleton Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell were down from Ute Saturday for an over Sunday visit with their people. Mr. and Mrs. Will Peterson and children drove up from Red Oak Sunday for a visit with their relatives in the Thomsen and Peterson homes. Messrs. Williams and Paulson and Misses Elsie Thomsen and Fae Goin drove to Cherokee Sunday morning, returning in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Torrey and baby daughter, of Jefferson, came Friday for a visit with their mother. Mrs. L. C. Kirkpatrick went to Battle Creek Wednesday for a visit with her mother. Hans Hage left Tuesday for Clinton for a visit at his old home. Misses Flo French, Tillie Neubaum and Grace Oleson went to Ricketts Saturday for a visit with their friend, Edna Baak. E. C. Jacobsen has purchased the Schelm residence and will move his family into it as soon as Dr. Shumway vacates. Jack Meehan, of Denison, Sunday with Oak friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and little folks, who have been guests in the A. F. Barber home for the past week, left for their home in Holopko, Colo., Monday.

GOODRICH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. George Newcom, L. F. Morris and Miss Lovick and Mr. and Mrs. D. Newton Sunday at the A. D. Winey home. Hannibal Fink and Asa Brown were in town Monday. Broder Boyson has bought Fred True's home in Deloit and expects to move there about September 1st. Report has it that Hannibal Fink has sold his lots in Deloit to Cash Newcom. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Winey, Verne Wilkinson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkinson, Miss Mary Fink and her friend, Miss Washburn were Denison shoppers Wednesday. Bert Darling and Dick Patchin are finishing up some carpenter work and will soon be at work at the Carl Winey place. Arthur Winey had the misfortune to lose a horse by heat Thursday. He was hauling cats to market. Donald Wilkinson is having a siege of hay fever. Mr. and Mrs. Huskey, E. McNeal and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Winey, Mrs. George Cornelius has rented the farm vacated by Fred Glassburner and will move his family there this week. Anthony Wieland, a nephew of Martin Wieland, arrived Monday afternoon from Kingfisher, Oklahoma. He was at one time a resident of Dow City, and this is his first visit here since moving away some twenty-three years ago. His relatives were very much surprised as they were not aware of his coming. The lecture and concert which was to have been given in the Baptist church Tuesday night by J. W. Haggard, was postponed until Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson Jr. and Mary Voliersen motored to Denison Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lusk motored to Logan Sunday, where the latter visited her sister, Mrs. L. E. McBride while the former went on to Omaha to attend a ball game. John Edwards Jr. has purchased an auto. Frank Odell and family were in Denison Monday transacting business. Teddy Stearns of Logan is visiting here with Bob Hunt. The Wilbur Barry family moved on Monday into the residence left vacant by Glenn Diets and family. Mrs. E. H. Swasey and daughter, Ruth, were in Ames Friday making arrangements for the latter, who will enter college there this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Christiansen and children spent Sunday at the August Meyers home near Ricketts. Misses Louise and Margaret Christiansen visited at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lockmiller, in Denison last week. Misses Ella and Dorothy Christiansen went up to Denison the fore part of this week to spend a few days at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lockmiller. Both candidates for congress are accused of being highbrows, but great things could be accomplished by using slang freely, talking ungrammatically and wearing overalls.

DOW CITY ITEMS

Mrs. Henry Siemers and daughter, Tillie went to LeMars Saturday to spend a week with relatives. Mrs. Ed Ahary was visiting friends in Dunlap Sunday. Virgil Butterworth and wife were at Charter Oak, Monday. Mrs. Roy Brockman and children came down from Denison Monday to visit at the Chas. Kehner home. Mrs. Janet Crandall and daughter, Lulu and Miss Wave Cross returned Monday from Boone where they had been the past week attending the L. D. S. reunion. Mrs. Hudson Downs moved her household goods from near Arion Monday and will occupy the W. T. Goldsworth residence, which has just been completed. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Greek of Fullerton, Neb. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howorth Sunday. W. K. Sharp is able to be about again after a two weeks' illness. Eugene Crandall and family spent Sunday in Woodbine at the W. H. Wiggins home. The Rev. Neighbors will hold a special meeting Friday at 2 p. m. to take in new members. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howorth entertained Mrs. J. T. Carey and son, Gail and Mrs. Norman of Denison on Sunday. The Sunday School classes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howorth and Miss Lulu Howorth, about twenty in all, went to the Michaelson timber Tuesday to spend a few days camping. Mr. and Mrs. Howorth and Miss Lulu Howorth and Mrs. Leslie Howorth and Mrs. Hank Scott went with them. Mrs. Mary Harper and Mrs. Cain went out to the J. B. Bousall home on Tuesday to spend several days. A brakeman was killed Monday morning about three miles west of town on No. 132, a freight train going through here at 2 a. m. We are unable to learn his name or his home. It is reported that he was asleep on the top of a car and fell on a bridge and was killed instantly. He was immediately taken to Denison. Miss Helen Burch came down from

WEST SIDE ITEMS

Otto Mohr, of Clinton, arrived Monday for a visit with his brother, John. Emil Evers, Hans Sievers and C. C. Rundall were passengers to Dow City Monday. Gail Carey was in Omaha on business Tuesday. Gus Gertz, of Boyer, was a West Side visitor Wednesday. Mrs. John Hall and children returned to their home in Belle Plaine last Wednesday after a few weeks' visit with relatives in this vicinity. Tom Malloy, of Denison, visited friends here Friday. E. J. Peters was in Clinton on business Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pacholke, of Clearwater, Neb., arrived Thursday for a visit with relatives. Henry Beck took his third degree in the Masonic lodge Wednesday. Misses Clara Evers and Leona Firth and Ivan Glascock and Lyle Evers attended a ball game at Denison Sunday. Bob Winters has rented the John McGovern house and will move his family here from Manning. The Joe George family will move into the Baak house. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulte attended a wedding near Denison Tuesday. Chas. Schoenjahn shipped one car of cattle Thursday and two cars of cattle Sunday to Omaha. Mrs. John Smith and son, Charles, visited at the John DeWitt home in Deloit last week. W. N. Walters and family left Friday for a visit with relatives in Maquoketa. Herman Bakken, of Denison, is taking Mr. Walters' place during his absence. Herman Anthony went to Omaha Monday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Peter Sievers has treated his buildings to a new coat of paint. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beck and grandson, Milton Bradstreet, left Saturday

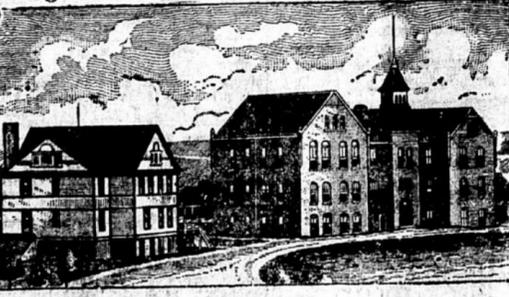

THEY'RE CLOSE FRIENDS BUT NEVER THIS CLOSE

An Attractive Trio From the Cosmopolitan Inhabitants of Ringlingville

"Beauty and the Beast" might aptly serve as a title for the accompanying picture. The two ladies are not only for their bravery because it is apparently their play for them to perform the most hazardous feats in the very top of the Ringling Brothers' mammoth main tent. Yet, fearless as they daily prove themselves to be, it is doubtful if they would care to come

Denison Monday for a visit at the Henry Bell home. The Baptist Sunday school will hold a picnic in the Enos Cross timber on Saturday. J. L. Butterworth and wife and son, Dale, and Jas. Pearsall sr. returned Monday from Boone where they had been attending the L. D. S. reunion. Miss Marjorie Bryan entertained a number of young people at her home Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Bessie Bryan of Redding. Delicious refreshments were served, and a very nice time is reported. George Cornelius has rented the farm vacated by Fred Glassburner and will move his family there this week. Anthony Wieland, a nephew of Martin Wieland, arrived Monday afternoon from Kingfisher, Oklahoma. He was at one time a resident of Dow City, and this is his first visit here since moving away some twenty-three years ago. His relatives were very much surprised as they were not aware of his coming. The lecture and concert which was to have been given in the Baptist church Tuesday night by J. W. Haggard, was postponed until Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson Jr. and Mary Voliersen motored to Denison Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lusk motored to Logan Sunday, where the latter visited her sister, Mrs. L. E. McBride while the former went on to Omaha to attend a ball game. John Edwards Jr. has purchased an auto. Frank Odell and family were in Denison Monday transacting business. Teddy Stearns of Logan is visiting here with Bob Hunt. The Wilbur Barry family moved on Monday into the residence left vacant by Glenn Diets and family. Mrs. E. H. Swasey and daughter, Ruth, were in Ames Friday making arrangements for the latter, who will enter college there this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Christiansen and children spent Sunday at the August Meyers home near Ricketts. Misses Louise and Margaret Christiansen visited at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lockmiller, in Denison last week. Misses Ella and Dorothy Christiansen went up to Denison the fore part of this week to spend a few days at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lockmiller. Both candidates for congress are accused of being highbrows, but great things could be accomplished by using slang freely, talking ungrammatically and wearing overalls.

Denison Normal and Business College ACCREDITED BY THE STATE Fall Terms Opens Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1916 If you wish to teach you can get your 12 weeks of normal training with us at any time. You can also get Bookkeeping, Shorthand, College Preparatory, Music and Oratory. Send for catalogue. W. C. VanNess, A. M., Principal DENISON, IOWA

DELOIT ITEMS

The Ladies' Aid society was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Jas. McKim at her home Friday afternoon. About twenty-five were present. At the close of the afternoon a delicious lunch was served. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Inghram, Mrs. Robt. Hawley and daughter and Mrs. John Cook, of Denison. Geo. Marington, of Fonda, bought the hotel last week. He took possession on Monday of this week. Miss Nina Zea, of Denison, is visiting at the Fred Landon home. Rev. J. L. Ralston went to Chicago last Monday, returning Thursday. Mrs. Dell Richardson, Mrs. Blair Richardson and Miss Iva Mason went to Boone last Wednesday to attend the L. D. S. reunion. They returned home Sunday night. Mrs. C. J. Newcom returned to her home at Spirit Lake last Friday. She was accompanied by Arthur Winey, who went to visit his friend, Arden Newcom. Chas. Campbell is quite sick at the present writing. F. A. Trub sold his residence to Broder Boyson last week. Mr. Boyson expects to move his family here soon. Several of our townspeople went to Boone Sunday to attend the L. D. S. reunion. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Childress, Mrs. Ann Winans and John Rouns. Bessie Picher, of Ida Grove, is spending a few days at the home of her grandfather, Geo. Winey. Mrs. Ann Winans went to Des Moines Monday to visit her brother, Scott McKim, and wife. The principal who had been elected for the high school resigned his position, and Francis Webster of Des Moines has been secured to fill his place. Miss Orpha Campbell commenced her fall term of school Monday in Stockholm township. The three children of Millard Turner, of Denison, spent the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuler. Ardath and Alton Cose, who have been spending the summer with their children, returned to their home in grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Minnesota last week. Deloit defeated Denison in a game of baseball Sunday by a score of 2 to 1.

SOLDIER ITEMS

John Foulkes returned to his home in Fremont, Neb., Saturday after spending a month at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. Owens. Miss Loretta Murphy returned home Saturday after a few days' visit at the Baker and Walker homes. J. E. Owens returned from his trip to Nebraska and Colorado Wednesday. Fred Wadtke was a business caller at the Jas. McGrath home Saturday. Mrs. Sarah McGrath has spent the past few months at the McGrath home, was an over Sunday visit in the McGrath home. Miss Henrietta Murphy returned home Thursday after a week's visit with friends and relatives in Denison and Manila. Louie Dorale and daughter, Miss Olga, were visitors in Schleswig Thursday. Charles Baker, wife and little folks, and Miss Loretta Murphy and Dewitt Grooms attended chautauqua in Mapleton Thursday. They were entertained at the Henry Edgington home for supper. The Misses Emma and Elsie Dorale spent Thursday evening at the McGrath home. Nilmah, Chase and Arlene Baker spent Wednesday with their aunt, Mrs. Harry Walker. Miss Loretta Murphy was a caller at the Elbin Carlson home Friday afternoon. Review and Chicago Daily Tribune, 1 year $4.00

BLUEBIRD PHOTOPLAYS, (INC) Germania Monday Evening August 28 The Secret of the Swamp A Most Beautiful Southern Drama, Featuring Miss Myrtle Gonzalez And a Specially Chosen Cast of Characters See the exciting story Pictured in true Bluebird Artistic Fashion. You're Sure to Like It.

Your Rug Problem Solved In Our Advance Sale of Fall Rugs WE DON'T need to tell you of the heavy advances in the prices of rugs in the last four months. We earnestly advise you, if you are interested or will be interested in the purchase of a new rug this fall, to make your selection during this sale, as we positively will not guarantee these prices, only as long as the stock on hand lasts. We invite comparison as to the quality and prices quoted during our September Rug Sale. About 100 room size rugs to offer. Make Your Selections Early 9x12 Tapestry Rugs. This is a full size, with matched corners. Specially priced for September selling at $9.67 9x12 Axminster rug in the medium weight. Four patterns to select from. Genuine all wool facing and foreign dyed. Priced at $18.75 9x12 Brussels rug. Regular $22.50 value. Priced at $18.95 9x12 Extra Heavy Axminster rug. Floral and conventional patterns. Strictly first class. This rug will retail at $32. Priced at $24.50 8 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft. 6 in. Brussels rug. Priced at $17.45 11 ft. 3 in. by 12 ft. Brussels rug. In two different weights. Regular $22 and $26 values. Priced at $17.95 and $19.95 11 ft. 3 in. by 12 ft. Hartford Bussorah. Regular $42.50 value. This is an extra heavy weight. Priced at $34.95 9x15 Hartford Bussorah rug. Regular $42.50 value. Priced at $34.50 9x12 Bigelow Electra rug. Regular $32 value, extra heavy weight. Priced at $26.40 11 ft. 3 in. by 12 ft. Axminster rug. Medium weight. Regular $39 value. Priced at $31.00 9x11 Diamond A velvet rugs priced at $14.85 9x12 Iran Wilton rugs. These are genuine Wilton rugs and will regularly retail at $65. Priced at $44.75 Rag Rug Special Size 27x54 inches. One bale of 50 to offer. Offered while they last at, each 69c Mottled Axminster Rugs Size 27x54 inches. Priced at 1.98 Extra Special Reductions in Bed Mattresses During Our September Rug Sale These Prices Remain Only as Long as the Stock on Hand Lasts Our 50-pound favorite combination bed mattress. Made up in extra heavy tick. Priced at $5.45 Our Richmond combination felt mattress. Finished with the rolled edge. 50-pound weight. Fancy art ticking. Regular $8.25 value. Priced at $6.95 Our Sampson all felt cotton mattress. Extra high quality. 45-pound weight. Shown in blue and tan fancy art ticking. Regular $14.50 value. Priced at $12.25 COME EARLY WHILE THE STOCK LASTS George Menagh & Co.