

MARRIED AT CUSTER, WYO.

Miss Erma Naeve Becomes the Bride of Mr. M. P. Renfro on Friday Last at Custer, Wyo.

HONEYMOON AT HOT SPRINGS

Wedding Was a Quiet One, Mr. and Mrs. George Naeve Being the Only Ones Present.

The news of the marriage of Miss Erma Naeve to Mr. M. P. Renfro, which occurred last Friday at Custer, Wyo., came as a complete surprise to the friends of the young couple here in Denison. While their most intimate friends know that the happy event would probably take place before the holidays they hardly expected that it would occur so soon.

Mr. Renfro, together with Mr. Geo. Naeve, left Denison last Wednesday for Sylvan Lake, S. D., where Mrs. Naeve and daughter, Miss Erma, have been spending a few weeks at this popular summer resort. The wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal church at Custer Friday afternoon, the pastor of that church officiating. It was a quiet affair, only Mr. and Mrs. Naeve being present. Following the ceremony the happy young couple departed for a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Hot Springs, Lead and Spearfish. Upon their return to Denison they will make their home with the bride's parents until the residence which Mr. Renfro is building in North Denison is completed.

Neither one of the young people needs an introduction to the people of Denison. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Naeve, and was born and reared in Denison. She received her early education in the public schools in this city, graduating from the high school with the class of 1909. After graduation she attended Ferry Hall near Chicago and graduated from that institution in 1912. In the fall of 1912 she attended the State University of Nebraska, and it was there that she became acquainted with Mr. Renfro. She graduated from the university in the spring of 1914. Since completing her college work she has remained in Denison and has been one of the most popular members of the younger set. She is a kind and is most capable.

Mr. Renfro was born and reared at Peru, Neb., where he attended the public schools. After graduating from the high school he attended the State University of Nebraska. He was prominent in the social life of the university and took an active interest in athletics. About two years ago he came to Denison and has been engaged in contracting and engineering. He is an aggressive young man, full of ambition and doubtless will make a success in his chosen work.

FUNERAL OF TILDA NEWMAN

Well Known Lady of Buck Grove Buried on Last Friday From Home of Mrs. L. C. Butler.

ARION, Sept. 12.—(Special to the Review) Funeral services for Mrs. Tilda Newman, of Buck Grove, were held at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. C. Butler, at 10 o'clock last Friday morning. Rev. Essex, of Dow City, spoke very comforting words to the bereft ones.

Mrs. Newman's death came after a short illness but much suffering. Mary Matilda Lanning was born in Linn county, Iowa, in 1854 and was married in 1874 to Mr. Hodgell, making their home in Buck Grove, Iowa. To this union, three children were born, Lydia, Georgia and Ella. The two oldest daughters and husband were deceased and later in life, Mrs. Hodgell was married to Mr. Marion Newman, Mrs. Newman was a member of the Christian church and will long be remembered by her many kindnesses and especially her helpfulness in times of trouble and sickness, when she was always able to assist.

COLLEGE NOTES.

School opened nicely last week. The new teacher in oratory is Miss Anna Solfinger from Northwestern university. John Lee, of the class of 1915, visited at the college last week. He is now employed in a garage at Sioux City.

John Riggelman has been doing special college work this summer at D. N. C. He left for Cornell on Monday, the 11th.

Miss Pussie Schrader, of Battle Creek, one of last year's students, called at the college. She is in town to take the special examination.

Mrs. Noonan, of Defiance, called on her daughter at the hall Tuesday. Quite extensive repairs have been made on the building by the help and under the direction of the Commercial club, much to the credit of the club.

Quite a number of students will take special examinations this week. Melvin Romans and John O'Connor called at the college Wednesday. John was looking up a credit which he had to quiet the anxiety of the faculty at Iowa City and incidentally to help himself in the work he is taking.

Literary societies were organized and began work on Tuesday evening, the 10th.

Mr. Stoelk, of this year's class, is working in the bank at Ulmer. He came down in his car for a short visit last week.

Miss Ciest, of Yetter, comes each week to take music lessons of Miss Raine at the college.

An old student, Mr. Schroeder, of Arcadia, called on Sunday with a friend who is planning to enter college soon.

Veterans. "And pray, madam," asked the pension examiner, "why do you think yourself entitled to a pension?"

"My husband and I fought all through the war," was the reply.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

Mrs. Louise Fielweber, of Manilla, Sent to State Hospital at Clarinda, Following Examination

Mrs. Louise Fielweber, a resident of Manilla, was brought to Denison last Thursday for an examination by the insane commission. After an examination and was taken that afternoon to the hospital for treatment in the state hospital.

Mrs. Fielweber is twenty-five years of age and only a few years ago was afflicted the same way, but after a short stay at the state hospital was paroled and later discharged. Recently the old trouble reappeared and it was deemed best that she be returned to the hospital for treatment. She has a husband and two children.

A civil service examination is announced to be held at the post office in Denison on November 4th, to fill vacancies in the customs service. Competitors will be examined in spelling, arithmetic, penmanship, recit writing, copying and correcting manuscript and geography. Any person over 18 years of age is eligible to take the examination and may secure application blanks of A. Aebischer at the post office in Denison.

In Social Circles

Miss Helen Burch entertained a few friends at dinner at Hotel Denison on Sunday.

The Misses Jessie Goodrich and Jennie Strahan entertained about twenty-five young ladies at the home of the latter on Wednesday evening as a farewell to Willetta Strahan, who will teach in Mason City this year and make her home with her sister, Mrs. Allen Beck.

The Enter Nous club gave a farewell party for Mrs. Thompson on Friday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. Brown Romans. A delightful session was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served. Mrs. Thompson will be greatly missed by a large circle of admiring friends, who wish her all happiness in the new home.

Mrs. Rachwitz very elegantly entertained the Priscilla club on Tuesday. Fancy work was the diversion of the afternoon, after which a very tempting luncheon was enjoyed. Mrs. Anderson, of Davenport, who is visiting Mrs. Adolphsen, and Mrs. Martens, of Montana, who is the house guest of Mrs. Lohfelt, were pleasant out of town guests whom all enjoyed meeting.

Miss Marie Weiss entertained the Home Guards last Tuesday evening, when a pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed.

The Coffee club had an exceptionally jolly meeting Thursday afternoon, when they were royally entertained by Mrs. Grace Sprecher. A unique game was enjoyed and everyone present received a prize in the shape of a paper hat. Wild flowers were used effectively in decoration and a splendid supper was served at the pretty dining table, which was laid for twelve.

DEATH OF CHAS. BROMAN

Pioneer Resident of Manilla Passes Away This Forenoon—Born in Sweden in Year 1849.

MANILLA, Sept. 13.—(Special to the Review)—Chas. Broman died this forenoon at his home in Walkerton after a prolonged illness which was undoubtedly brought on by a fall he sustained about a year ago, breaking his hip.

The deceased was born at Wabsean, Sweden, Sept. 3, 1849 and located at Manilla when this town was first started. He was a shoemaker by trade and followed this trade throughout life. He entered the employ of Frank Westland and when this store was bought out by C. F. G. Kehr he still remained working at the bench. For twenty-nine years he worked as a shoemaker in Manilla and during this long period he never lost a single day from work.

Mr. Broman was respected by everyone in the community and his death has caused deep regret among all. While he took great interest in the welfare of the community he was at all times quiet and reserved.

He leaves to mourn his death his widow, four sons and one daughter, Mrs. Abe Walker. Two of the sons are engaged in the carpentry trade in Manilla and two are serving in the United States navy.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the family residence and interment will be made in the Manilla cemetery.

Soon Fell Out.

"So you have been camping with a party of friends?"

"Well," replied the man who tries to speak the truth and nothing but the truth, "we were all amiable enough when we started, but I can't say we were a party of friends when we got back home." — Birmingham Age-Herald.

W. R. GRIMES PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

Mr. and Mrs. Grimes retired from the firm only a short time ago and moved to Manilla, where they purchased a comfortable home. They took a prominent part in the social functions of the community and it is a notable fact that on every occasion Mr. and Mrs. Grimes were together. In the death of Mr. Grimes Manilla loses one of its foremost citizens and his loss is mourned by the entire community.

Funeral services were held from the late home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. R. Miller, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. The services were attended by members of the G. A. R. and Masonic lodge in a body. The services at the cemetery were in charge of the Masonic order.

PRETTY WEDDING AT DOW CITY

Miss Marie Chamberlain Becomes the Wife of Mr. Charles Carroll Denio on Tuesday.

REV. J. L. BOYD OFFICIATES

Happy Couple Recipients of Many Beautiful Presents—Will Make Their Home at Lake View

DOW CITY, Sept. 13.—(Special to the Review)—Tuesday at 12 o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Trema Marie Chamberlain to Mr. Charles Carroll Denio, of Lake View, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chamberlain, of this place.

Previous to the ceremony Miss Erma Chamberlain, sister of the bride, and Miss Pauline Fischer sang the duet, "I Would That My Love," which was followed by two beautiful solos, "Oh, Promise Me" and "Laddie," by Miss Erma Chamberlain. Just at high noon the thrilling music, Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. F. C. Howarth, filled the house, and the bride descended with her father to the bay window of the living room, where Mr. Denio awaited her. The Rev. J. L. Boyd, of Denison, pronounced the ring ceremony. Little Naomi Butterworth carried the ring in the heart of a big red rose. Mr. and Mrs. Denio then received the congratulations and best wishes of their friends and the guests were seated at an elegant four course dinner served by the Misses Erma Chamberlain, Pauline Fischer, Harriet Gebert, Helen Boylan and Ilva Fishel.

The home was beautifully decorated with red and pink roses and the bay window of the living room was a bower of ferns and nightingales. The bride wore a gown of ecru net trimmed in pink satin and red velvet and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The groom wore the customary black suit.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chamberlain. She has been reared in our midst and is a bright, capable girl, admired by all who know her. She is a graduate of Brownell Hall, of Omaha, and has been a student at the University of Iowa for the past two years, where she was a member of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Mr. Denio is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Denio, of Alta. While he is a stranger in our community, he is very highly spoken of by those who know him personally. He is a graduate of the University of Iowa and a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. At present he is connected with the Farmers State bank at Lake View, where he has built a home for his bride the past summer.

They received many beautiful pieces of cut glass, silver and linen.

The couple left that afternoon for Chicago and other places east, expecting to be at home November 1st at Lake View.

The out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Boylan, Misses Helen Boylan and Harriet Gebert, of Denison; Mr. C. A. Sheley, of Lake View; Miss Pauline Fischer, of Virginia, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Denio, of Alta.

The bride has a host of friends in Dow City and Denison who wish them the very best of prosperity and a long happy life.

The Three Friends.

Answering the question, "Who were the three friends mentioned by Whittier in his poem, 'Tent on the Beach,' written about 1887, the Philadelphia Press says:

"The lettered magnate lordling o'er an ever widening realm of books' is certainly James T. Fields, the poet-publisher and critic; the 'dream born' philosopher is supposed to be Ralph Waldo Emerson and by some Whittier himself, and 'one whose Arab face was tanned by tropic suns and boreal frosts' is Bayard Taylor."

Instinct and Reason.

"Instinct" is the generic term for all those faculties of mind that lead to the performance of actions that are adaptive in character, but pursued without necessity; knowledge of the relation of the means employed and the ends attained. "Reason" is usually applied to such acts as are consciously performed with some particular end in view. Of the two, instinct would seem to be the more perfect, since it seldom goes wrong, whereas the missteps of reason are innumerable.—New York American.
