ANCESTRY OF OUR SHAME.
We have repeatedly declared that the humiliations which have come upon this country in our negotiations with the belligerents of Europe are the direct result of the policy of shame which the Wilson administration pursued in Mexico during the seventeen months of its rule prior to the outbreak of the European war.

TALKING TARIFF.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(Special Correspondence)—When the democratic national committee met at Washington last December the president gave them a luncheon at the white house and made a speech to them.

The assertion is not true—but, even if it were, we need no other issue. The tariff if the one question in this campaign which affects every voter, in which every voter displays an interest and to which every voter responds.

When Hughes talked about Mexico, or about efficient government, or about the problems which will arise after the war, or about the "reshaping of the civil service by "deserving democrats," or about the necessity and his intention to put none but competent and experienced men in posts of diplomat-is responsibility, or about the need for a budget system in handling the national finances, or about any other of the numerous topics with which he engaged his hearers' attention—he found a section of his audience interested, informed and responsive.

REPUBLICAN THRIFT IS SQUANDERED BY WILSON

Build Panama Canal Out of Current Revenues, Patriotically Hoarding Bonds in Treasury Which Democrats Filch to Hide a Deficit.

CARNIVAL OF DEBAUCHERY IN PUBLIC EXPENDITURE

Senator Penrose Believes the Looted Condition of the Treasury Will Necessitate the Withholding of Contracts for Battleships and Delay the Whole Scheme of Preparedness—Nation's Money Frittered Away to Finance Hare-Brained and Ill Advised Projects.

William R. Willcox, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, has received from Senator Penrose a brief but positive summing up of the extravagances of the Wilson Administration during the session of Congress just about to close.

"When the country realizes what this Congress has done in the way of appropriations it will be dumfounded. Already, it has been shown that over a billion, seven or eight hundred million dollars have been appropriated—more money than was ever appropriated in any one year in the history of the American government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(Special Correspondence)—Secretary McAdoo's tour of the country with the farm loan board bringing him some first hand information regarding the manner in which the people look upon this scheme.

"It is only too evident that this bill which is expected to bring in some two hundred million dollars will absolutely fail to meet even the requirements for the ill-advised and certainly not urgent projects authorized by the present Congress.

"Only about $120,000,000 of bonds were put out in the construction of the Panama Canal. The balance of the cost of that stupendous undertaking was paid out of current revenues; and now, to advance the novel doctrine that these bonds which represent the thrift of preceding years shall be issued for these questionable projects is, in my mind, preposterous.

"No amount of reasoning on the part of the Chairman of the Committee on Finance will alter the fact that outside of preparedness there has been at least $200,000,000 of wasteful appropriations and expenditures by the present Congress.

"The figures of the Secretary of the Treasury may be juggled as they may, but when the Secretary is up against the brute fact of not having money to pay for these projects he will then find that figures will not make a surplus in the treasury."

SACRIFICED COUNTRY'S HONOR AND INTEREST
Mr. Wilson's defenders say he "has kept us out of war." As a matter of fact his policy in Mexico has combined all the evils of feeble peace with all the evils of feeble war.

A HEARTLESS ADMINISTRATION
This Administration has displayed no more feeling of responsibility for the American women who have been raped, and for the American men, women and children who have been killed in Mexico, than a farmer shows for the rats killed by his dogs when the hay is taken from a barn.

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.

President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, not once but repeatedly, made attacks on American towns, and killed American citizens, and mutilated them in September, 1915. Yet on October 19th, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his own Secretary of State, formally announced to Carranza's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico, of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive.

(N. Y.) SUN STROKES.

Roger Sullivan steps aside.—Newspaper headline. Students of Democratic politics know what a thin line divides stepping aside and sidestepping.

The Democrats seem to realize, to their dismay, that if they can't persuade Mr. Hughes to change from plaintiff to defendant the case is lost.

The President "will not take the stump," but "will accept invitations to speak at different places."

It is not what Wilson has kept us out of but what he's got us into—that counts at present.

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING.

In March last, Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing.

Mr. Wilson during the past few days has become such a life-long opponent of the pork barrel that he is almost sorry now he didn't veto some of those bills.

SUPPLY (LITTLE) AND DEMAND (MUCH) BY BART.

Editorial Comments.

The Democrats continue to ignore Mr. Hughes' speeches to the extent that all they do is to sputter and gasp.

Let it be conceded there are really strong grounds for the opinion that President Wilson may carry Texas next November. If these indications are taken at their full worth, some enthusiasts will soon be going out to bet that the tide will sweep on until Mississippi and Alabama are also enrolled in the Democratic column.

Many big Democrats willing and ready to speak for Wilson are careful that their money shall not say anything on his side.

President Wilson says he is utterly indifferent as to his re-election. Perhaps that explains a good many things nobody has heretofore been able to understand.

"Help me, Cassius, or I sink!" For "Cassius" read "Congress."

The notion seems to be that the Democratic national chairman is claiming more than he will get, but not any more than he will need.

As further evidence that he is warm-hearted and intensely human, Mr. Hughes likes apple pie.

No man is going to be elected—or re-elected—to high office by votes gained from States' rights declarations this late in the game. The States' rights question was settled some fifty years ago to the evident satisfaction of a considerable majority.—Kansas City Star.

THE NEUTRALITY OF PONTIUS PILATE.

But as soon as the need for deeds arose, Mr. Wilson forgot all about "the principle he held dear." He promptly announced that we should be "neutral in fact as well as in name, in thought as well as in action," between the small, weak, unoffending nation and the large, strong nation which was robbing it of its sovereignty and independence.
