SETTLERS' PICNIC WELL ATTENDED

Notwithstanding Cool Weather People From Over County Present at Picnic Thursday.

I. A. MAINS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Baby Contest Proves Interesting, As Was Also the Speech Delivered by Mr. Files of Ft. Dodge.

The old settlers' picnic, held at Washington park in Denison last Thursday, will long be remembered as one of the most successful in the history of the association. Although the weather during the forenoon was anything but favorable, the drizzling rain and cold atmosphere did not affect the attendance to any extent and when the sun came out in the afternoon there were over a thousand people gathered to enjoy the excellent program which had been arranged for their entertainment. But few of the old settlers partook of lunch at the park, it being too cold and damp to enjoy this custom, but the coffee house did a thriving business all afternoon.

It was well that the program committee did not provide a long program for it grew cold during the latter part of the afternoon and was not at all comfortable in the park. The games and sports usually provided for the entertainment of the children were dispensed with this year, but the little folks enjoyed themselves just the same.

The assembly was called to order at 2 o'clock by Mr. Z. T. Dunham president of the Old Settlers' association, who resides down near Dunlap. Mr. Dunham made a few brief remarks and announced that the election of officers for the ensuing year would be next in order. Mr. I. A. Mains, of Charter Oak, was elected president; Thos. Norris, of Denison, vice president, and N. L. Hunt, of Denison, secretary. Following the election of officers the new Denison band furnished music, which was heartily appreciated by all. N. H. Brodgen, of Deloit, was introduced and he gave an excellent talk on the incidents of the life of an old settler. Mr. Brodgen then entered into a few remarks regarding the old settlers and his talk was listened to with great interest by all. Mr. N. L. Hunt, secretary of the association, then read the list of the departed old settlers which totaled 120. One of the pleasing features of the program was the song by Mr. Campbell, of Manila. The words were composed by Mr. Campbell and it proved to be the hit of the afternoon. The address of the day was delivered by Mr. J. H. Files, of Ft. Dodge, the democratic candidate for congress in this district. Mr. Files did not touch on politics, but gave a most enlightening address on the development of this great state of Iowa. He told how his father came to Iowa over seventy years ago and the hardships which he met during the pioneer days. Every one present enjoyed the speech by Mr. Files immensely and all were sorry when it was concluded.

At the conclusion of the program the baby contest was announced, and such an array as there was entered in all there were sixteen entries and it was indeed a hard matter for the judges to select the three prettiest. Each little tot dressed up in its Sunday best was tagged with a number and the judges were not acquainted with a single one. The judges selected were Mrs. L. D. Lev, Mrs. Jacob Sims and Dr. J. J. Meacham. After careful consideration the judges announced the three winners as follows: 1st, Walter Hollander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carsten Hollander, Denison; 2d, Benito Boettger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boettger, Denison; 3d, Evelyn Winans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Winans, Deloit.

The Crawford county Telephone company has purchased a new Studebaker truck of the Denison Auto company, which will be used for hauling material. With the new machine it will be no trick at all to make repairs on the rural lines in short order. The machine is so built that poles may be hauled and this feature is well worth the price of the truck.

Mrs. J. H. Thielmann, a resident of Charter Oak was brought to Denison Tuesday morning for an examination before the insane commission. After a careful examination, she was judged of unsound mind and was taken to the State Hospital at Clarinda on the afternoon train for treatment.

DEATH OF MR. A. J. PATRICK

Prominent in Affairs at Ute for More Than Forty Years, Where Remains Were Laid to Rest.

In last week's Review mention was made of the death of Mr. A. J. Patrick, who died at Hot Springs, S. D., on Friday, September 8th, but at the time of going to press we were unable to secure an account of his life. Mr. Patrick made his home in Denison for over two years and his friends here will be interested in the account of his death which appeared in the last issue of the Ute Independent. The article follows:

Saturday morning of last week the sad news was passed about town that A. J. Patrick had died the previous day at Hot Springs, S. D., where he had gone about 18 days previous, to find relief from his suffering malady kidney troubles, that had kept him more or less confined to his home during the past year. It was known by old comrades and friends here that Mr. Patrick must soon give up the fight, but nevertheless the tidings of his death shrouded our people in sorrow for the loss of one who had lived and mingled among them for more than forty years.

The life history of Mr. Patrick is an interesting and active one and we only regret that we can go farther into details on account of the limited time we have to get this obituary into print.

Andrew J. Patrick was born in Decatur county, Indiana, April 20, 1843 and died at Hot Springs, S. D., Sept. 8, 1916.

He lived with his parents until he was 18 years of age, attending the district schools as he had opportunity. He united with the Baptist church Dec. 25, 1861.

He enlisted in Co. I, 68th Indiana Infantry in August, 1862, serving until the close of the war. In the fall of 1865, with his parents, brothers and sisters, he came to western Iowa and settled near the present town of Ute. In the fall of 1869 he was married to Fannie Adams. Three daughters were born to this union, all living, and are: Mrs. E. E. Freese, of Fargo, N. D.; Mrs. E. C. Geary, of Haman, Neb.; and Mrs. John Dieter, of Tacoma, Wash. The two former being present at the funeral. In October 1889, Fannie, his wife, died. He was married to Rosa Geary September 26, 1892, and to this union was born five children, six sons and two daughters all now living and are: John A., of this place; A. W. and Mildred, Onawa; Alfred E., Shickley, Neb.; Ben C., Deloit; Victor, Fremont, Neb.; Ralph and Annie, Denison, all of whom were present at the funeral. On Dec. 29, 1910, Rosa, his second wife, died. Deceased is survived by the above named children, 22 grandchildren, two brothers and one sister, as follows: James at Boone; William at Kennebuc, S. D.; and Mrs. Susan Davis, of this place.

Mr. Patrick had been a resident of this immediate locality for more than forty years and was always prominent in public affairs of the township and town, holding the office of town ship justice of the peace for many years, was postmaster in Ute during the administrations of Harrison and McKinley, was mayor of Ute at two different periods. Three years preceding his death he was deputy state oil inspector and during that time he was a resident of Denison, so he could better look after his work. In 1905 he homesteaded a quarter section of land in Lyman county, S. D.

The deceased became a member of the Baptist church Dec. 25, 1861, and was ever an ardent worker. During the life of the Baptist church in Ute he was the superintendent of its Sabbath school.

Mr. Patrick was quite prominent in politics and a public speaker bearing a wide reputation. No oil venter and reunion was complete unless A. J. Patrick presided at the campfire or was down on the program for a speech or two. He presided here at the reunion last year and related much of his war and pioneering history which intensely interested his hearers. At that time we remembered hearing him remark that Ute and St. Clair township was the garden spot of his eye now as it was forty years ago, inhabited by some of the best and kindest people beneath the sky, and that he was proud that some day he would be laid to rest in St. Clair cemetery where he knew each year on Memorial day his grave would not be forgotten or devoid of flowers, and where friends of his lifetime would continue to gather and do homage to the boys in blue.

Mr. Carl Theo. Johnson and Miss Etta Iona Larson, both residents of Kiron, were married yesterday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage in Denison. They were attended by Alfred Larson and Miss Edna Larson. The couple will make their home at Kiron.

TWO BURGLARIES LAST THURSDAY

Homes of Gus Danielson and Albert Vernon Entered White Owners Were at the Picnic, MONEY AND JEWELRY TAKEN

Burglars Apprehended at Missouri Valley and Brought to Denison and Will be Sentenced.

Two Denison homes were burglarized last Thursday afternoon while the residents were at Washington park in attendance at the old settlers' picnic, but fortunately the authorities were able to locate the guilty parties at Missouri Valley on Friday, where they were arrested and most of the stolen property recovered.

The residence of Gus Danielson in South Denison near the Northwestern tracks was broken into and a ten dollar bill, together with some old coins and jewelry was stolen. The Albert Vernon home on South Locust street was also entered and here a lady's gold watch, together with jewelry, was taken.

Shortly after the noon hour Thursday Fred Berg saw three young chaps sneaking around his barn and surmising that they were up to some mischief he walked out to the alley and dispersed them. They flew in every direction, but tarried long enough to curse him. Soon afterwards the authorities heard of the two robberies and thinking that the three boys who had been at the Berg barn might be implicated, they commenced a search for them. Arriving at the railroad they were just in time to see all three board a westbound train. A message was sent to the marshal at Missouri Valley, where they were apprehended Friday morning.

They were brought back to Denison and gave their names as Floyd Hamilton, Harold Craig and Arthur Reynolds, and all stated that they were fifteen years of age. Much of the stolen property was found in their possession. The boys will be taken before Judge Albert the last of the week and doubtless will be sent to the reform school.

W. A. McHenry attended the 51st reunion of his old regiment, the 8th Illinois Cavalry, at Memorial Hall, Chicago, on the 18th of this month. The president being absent, Mr. McHenry was selected to preside at the meeting. The department commander and assistant A. A. G. of Illinois were present and each gave addresses, besides many comrades. When the 8th Illinois was mustered out of service at the close of the war a veterans association was formed. One of the by-laws was that as long as two or more comrades should live they should hold an annual reunion, hence the 51st reunion was held on the date of their muster into service, Sept. 18, 1891. One of the interesting things of the meeting was the picture of Ex. Confederate Col. Mosby, an old antagonist of the regiment, who passed away on May 30th of this year and was laid to rest at Culpeper Court House, Virginia, his old home. Mr. McHenry captured eight of his gorillas during his service.

Putting Humorist Irvin S. Cobb on the stump for Wilson is entirely fitting. The Wilson administration is a joke anyway.

The congressmen have ingloriously returned from Washington, leaving great numbers of their constituents unprovided with marble post offices deepened creeks, of post office jobs.

It is claimed that consumers are charged $3,000,000 annually for paper and burlap used in wrapping meats, in spite of the fact that the wrappers don't chew much harder than a lot of the beef.

There are bitter complaints from Dusty Rhodes and Wandering Willie about the freight car shortage and poor service rendered by the railroads.

Standardized dress is talked about to save the cost of women's clothes, but standardized methods of extracting money from the old man would be more popular.

VAIL COUPLE MARRIED

Mr. Chas. Benischek and Miss Emma Slechta Married in Denison, Rev. J. L. Boyd Officiating.

This forenoon at 10 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage in this city occurred the marriage of Miss Emma Slechta and Mr. Charles Benischek both residents of Vail, Rev. J. L. Boyd pastor, officiating. Joseph Slechta brother of the bride, and Miss Agnes E. Stark were the attendants.

The bride looked most becoming in a beautiful gown of white silk and wore a bridal veil held in place with a spray of orange blossoms.

The bride and groom are well known Vail and vicinity. Where they have lived for a number of years and have a large circle of friends. They left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip in the west. Upon their return they will make their home on a farm near Vail belonging to Mr. Benischek.

The republican county central committee met at Mr. Kahler's office a week ago, there being a large number of township committeemen present.

The vacancies in the ticket were filled out by selecting C. R. Rhodes, of Vail for the office of treasurer and R. R. Weed, of Charter Oak, for member of the board of supervisors for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1918. They are both good men and should receive the support of all republicans at the polls in November.

W. T. Hackett, of Boyer, was a bus iness caller in Denison Friday.

HIGH SCHOOL WINNING TEAM

Denison High Has Very Bright Prospects for Great Team—About Thirty Candidates in Line.

Captain Locke Workin Fine Schedule Gives Boys a Chance to Rank Up With Other State Schools—Read Schedule Below

Prospects for a winning football team at the local high school never brighter than they are this fall. About thirty candidates are reporting regularly for practice and during the past two weeks have been working hard on the fundamentals of the game. A new tackling dummy, the gift of Mr. C. F. Kuehnle, is saving a long cherished need and is being worked overtime to make up for the deficiency in this department. The candidates are also receiving special work in falling on the ball, charging and blocking, handling forward passes, etc.

The team will not only have weight this year, but also is a speedy aggregation. 155 pounds to the man and as most of the boys have been hard at work all summer they are in excellent physical condition. Captain Locke, the star of last year's team, is working better than ever and much can be expected from him this season. His ability at passing, kicking and carrying the ball is a combination rarely found in high school teams. Other candidates for the back field are Leifeldt, O'Connor, Flinn, Lally, Teut and Wearmouth. In the line, Helsing, G. Brodersen, Gary Cavett, Lally, Laub, Bassett, Strahan Brandt and H. Brodersen are the most likely candidates.

In addition to these are about fifteen new men of considerable ability but with lack of experience. These include McCord, Suiter, Norelius, Mofitt, Weiss, Heiden, Smith, Halloran and Rank.

The schedule this year will give the local doppers a chance to see how Denison ranks in the state football circles. The West Des Moines team is doped as state champion this fall by leading papers of the state. Ida Grove tried for the state championship last year and reports from that city are to the effect that they are "after Denison." Council Bluffs is also out for the state championship with practically the same team as last year. Storm Lake is another contender for the title with their last year's team to work with. Coon Rapids won the southern championship last year and Logan will have their usual strong team.

The schedule is as follows: Sept. 30: Carroll, there. Oct. 7: West Des Moines here. Oct. 14: Open. Oct. 21: Coon Rapids, there. Oct. 28: Council Bluffs here. Nov. 11: Ida Grove here. Nov. 18: Storm Lake here. Nov. 25: Ida Grove seconds there. Nov. 30: Logan there.

LAST LAP OF DISTRICT COURT

Last Two Weeks Devoted to Trial of Jury Cases—Criminal Cases Are Also Disposed of.

IOWA VS WARD, VS JOCHIMS

Chief Cases of Week Under Above Captions Attracted Some Interest—Many Cases Carried Over.

District court is on its last lap for the term and will finally adjourn the latter part of the week. The last two weeks have been devoted to trial of jury cases and the disposition of criminal matters. Criminal cases usually attract the attention of the public, and this term is no exception. Unfortunately for the spectators, however, the cases have been disposed of without public trials in court.

The chief interest centered in the cases of the State vs Ward vs Jochims and vs Jochims. They are both cases of a domestic character. Jochims pleaded guilty to the single offense charged against him by the indictment returned by the grand jury, not so much because he feared the verdict of guilty, but because in the compromise made he felt that he was accepting the least of two evils, and hence his plea of guilty. His sentence, while made under the indeterminate law, may not mean more than a year's incarceration. Mrs. Smith, the woman who was involved with him, was also indicted and a compromise was effected by which she returns to her husband and therefore avoids a prosecution.

The case of the State vs Ward was continued over until the November term of court in order that the defendant could take depositions to sustain his defense. The other defendants pleaded guilty and were given jail sentences.

The ever present, non-ending case of Heller vs Meyer was up for trial at intervals during the term and has been brought to the court for decision which will, no doubt, be made in due time.

The case of Valentine vs Kromin in which an application was made for the appointment of a permanent guardian for the defendant, was decided in favor of the defendant, and the appointment of a temporary guardian was set aside.

The case of Wm. Pierce vs the Sheriff of Crawford county, which was an action to hold the sheriff for the value of an automobile sold under execution by the sheriff, was tried to the jury but before its final submission to the jury the plaintiff dismissed the case and a verdict was rendered in favor of the sheriff.

The case growing out of the Millegan estate is now on trial. This action brought to establish a claim against the estate and is being contested by the heirs of the estate. The case is one of a temporary guardian was set aside.

There probably will be but one or two other trials before court adjourns which means that a large amount of trial work will be carried over to the next term of court.

PAVING COST $89,309.37.

Contractors Flinn & Co., Complete First Paving Job and Council Accept Work As Satisfactory.

The city council held an adjourned session at the city hall on Monday evening, at which time the contract and bonds of the Ward & Weighton Construction company were approved and accepted. The Ward & Weighton company were the successful bidders for the construction of the storm sewer at the foot of Main street to the East Boyer river and work has already been commenced. The company expects to have the sewer all installed before freezing weather.

At a meeting held Tuesday morning they took up the matter of settlement with Ward & Weighton for the construction of the concrete reservoir and water main up Washington avenue. Inasmuch as some of the machinery has not been installed, the council decided not to pay them in full but allowed them the estimate as furnished by Frank Woolston, the city engineer. Mr. Woolston reported to the council that the M. L. Flinn Construction company had completed the first paving contract and in his estimation their work was most satisfactory, coming up to the specifications as laid down by the city. He recommended that the city council accept the work. Mr. Woolston has completed his survey of the pavement and curb stone laid by the Flinn Construction company, as well as the grading and informed the council that the total cost of the work was $89,309.37. The city council voted in favor of accepting the work, but holding the maintenance bond of the contractors for a year. Under the contract the Flinn Construction company is to keep the pavement in repair for one year after its installation.

"September Morn."

The cast of principals to be seen in the world's greatest festival, "September Morn," coming to the Germania opera house, Tuesday night, September 26th, includes several names which have already been distinguished in our best light operas. Ruth Wilkins, in the role of "Argentina," whose clever mimicry is the talk of the season, and the famous Boston Opera company, led by William Moore, in the leading comedy role of "Rudolph Plastric." Was seen in "The Red Mill," "The Heart Breakers," and for several seasons in vaudeville. Other prominent members in the cast include J. Patton, James Baber, Leslie Jones, Billy Murphy and a smart chorus of stunning show girls. Seats on sale Saturday morning at Schlumberger's drug store.

The Crawford County State bank and the First National bank have published this week statements required by the government and state, showing the condition of the banks. The statements are of a flattering nature and show that both banks are in fine condition. The First National shows a total footing of over 1,100,000.00 and both banks according to the statements, are keeping up their reputations for successful banking. It speaks well for a community to have within its border such strong financial institutions and also a compliment to those who are back of the institutions, and shows that safe and conservative methods are responsible for the success of the banking institutions. Denison has reason to be proud of its banks and the conservative manner in which they are conducted.

Firemen's Big Fall Festival.

The firemen's big fall festival week is drawing near. Next Monday, September 25th, will be the opening day. The streets will be ablaze with electric lights. Several extra light poles will be necessary to furnish electricity. The committees in charge are using untiring efforts in making the big festival a grand success. The proceeds go toward getting a new motor fire truck, which is very much needed. In addition a few days of recreation and pleasure will be appreciated by the firemen. Who will say nay? Who is more welcome at your home or store when on fire in the dead of night, to save your life and property, than the firemen? Who is more entitled to your assistance in making this firemen's festival a grand success than the firemen? They have secured the Ed A. Evans shows to furnish the amusements. They were here last year and need no introduction. They will bring 16 car loads of fun and frolic for old as well as young.
