Side Lights on Next Sunday's Lesson for Teachers and Pupils Edited by Charles K. Meyers.

CRAWFORD COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION President... Sec. Treas... Executive Committee...

Oct. 15—Appeal to Caesar.—Acts 25. Our lesson today has again to do with the great Apostle Paul.

On becoming the new governor Festus paid a visit to Jerusalem and soon the leading Jews made known their enmity toward Paul and wanted him sent to that city for trial before the Jewish council.

When this proposition was laid before Paul let us note what he said. His words were in line with the nobility of character of the man.

"If I be an offender or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die. But if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man shall deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar."

That Paul was no coward had been proven in his missionary labors of the last years. He had endured brutal suffering for the cause of Jesus with out complaint at the hands of the Jews.

We can learn from this lesson to build up such a character that we can do the right, no matter if to do so does seem against our prosperity in the world.

DECLINED TO PERMIT A SQUADRON TO DEFEND AMERICANS.

At Tampico there was a general movement of attack by the Mexicans on Americans and other foreigners. We had a squadron of American warships in the neighborhood.

Political Jottings

If plans "to get Villa" are abandoned Villa should reciprocate and refrain from organizing expeditions "to get" American citizens.

The fact that Mr. Wilson could endorse this Pork Congress shows that he isn't senile, anyway.

Mr. Pinchot also seems of the opinion that God Hates a Quitter.

The man who quotes the Baltimore platform is regarded as a political archeologist.

"He kept the country out of war," but he robbed it of its peace.

Up in Maine they are now rhyming Hughes with Moose. And there is reason as well as rhyme connecting the two words.

"Victory," Mr. Fairbanks told Oklahoma Republicans, "surely will perch on our banner." But Champ Clark tied it up in a neater and more compact bundle when he said: "They licked hell out of us."

Members of President Wilson's cabinet are ready to do anything to reelect their chief, except resign.

Writes a former Princeton man: "At first we called him 'W. W.'; then we made it 'I. W. W.'"

That one term plank in the Democratic platform of 1912—it is more than likely to hold, after all.

When President Wilson called upon the Mexican commissioners at New London he revived old precedents, but did he wave the Stars and Stripes?

A man in Washington has made a bust of the President, thus anticipating Mr. Hughes by several weeks.

A WORD WITH WOMEN. Valuable Advice for Denison Readers. Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Denison woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. C. E. Parrish, 502 W. Vine St., Denison, says: "On the different occasions that I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills, they have done me good. I have had attacks of kidney trouble, but Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Lamborn Drug Co., have done me more good than any of the others. I highly recommend them to all who suffer from kidney ailments."

Prices 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Parrish had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
