OUR OLD PRIVATE COINAGE.

Territorial Gold Pieces Minted by Private Assayers. The old territorial gold pieces, while they never had the sanction of the United States government, passed at different periods as legal tender in that they were accepted as a medium of exchange between buyer and seller. Territorial gold pieces were struck by private assayers in Georgia in 1830, in North Carolina from 1831 to 1850, in California from 1849 to 1855, in Utah in 1849, 1850 and 1860, in Oregon in 1849 and in Colorado in 1860 and 1881. There was nothing illegal in their issue, and the procedure was considered in no sense as counterfeiting. In fact, it was not until 1864 that a federal statute was passed forbidding a continuation of the practice. E. H. Adams of New York told an interesting story about how this statute came about. "A man named Gruber," he said, "senior of the firm of Clark, Gruber & Co. of Denver, had a large private mint, and one day he showed Salmon P. Chase, who was secretary of the treasury from 1861 to 1864, a fine twenty dollar gold piece of his own coining. "Mr. Chase told him that it was a counterfeit, whereupon Mr. Gruber remarked that it was no such thing; that there was no law preventing the issue of such coins. "Then I shall see that there is one," Mr. Chase replied, and he made good his prediction. That conversation took place in 1861, and in 1864 the law was passed." Mr. Adams explained why these coins had been privately struck. He said that in those days gold, in the shape of dust or nuggets, was used for money in the states where it was mined. This necessitated a great deal of trouble. Scissors had to be used whenever a purchase was made, and then there was always the question of how it could best be carried. So to expedite matters the assayers adopted the custom of taking the gold and making it up into their own coins. That certain of these were full value. Mr. Adams added, was shown by the fact that on several occasions when they were redeemed for official money the gold in them was found to exceed the face value.—W. W. B. in Baltimore News.

Capitals We Have Had.

It is asserted sometimes that the United States has had five capitals, but the statement is not correct. The United States has had but three capitals—New York, Philadelphia and Washington. In the period preceding the adoption of the constitution no place was legally constituted a capital. In a loose and unofficial sense it is possible to describe as a capital any city which was the seat of government. Taking the sessions of the Continental congress as establishing a seat of government in the Revolution and the confederation, the following cities may loosely rank as capitals: Philadelphia, Baltimore, Lancaster, York, Princeton, Annapolis, Trenton and New York. The articles of confederation were passed by congress in Philadelphia, and the federal convention charged to prepare a constitution convened at the same place.

IT'S SURPRISING

That So Many Denison People Fail To Recognize Kidney Weakness. Are you a bad victim? Suffer twinges; headaches, dizzy spells? Go to bed tired; get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys. It's surprising how few know what to do. Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidney only. Have convinced Denison people of their merit. Here's a Denison case; Denison testimony. Kidney sufferers' hereabouts should read it. Mrs. Peter Graves, 519 E. Vine St., Denison says: "About three years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and backache. My back hurt me all the time and I often got dizzy, especially when getting up after stooping. My limbs and hands were swollen and puffy spots appeared under my eyes. I had heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got some from the Lambert Drug Co. They helped me at once, simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that my back got strong, the pain stopped, my kidneys became normal and the swelling went down."
