DUNLAP ITEMS

A very severe snow storm was prevalent Saturday night and all day Sunday. Mrs. Thos. Lehan was an Omaha visitor Friday and Saturday. C. H. Ballard, of West Bend, accompanied by Geo. Wright, of the same place, spent Saturday in town, the guests of the former's brother, Albert Ballard. Miss Zita Taylor was an Omaha visitor several days the past week, being released from her duty of pianist at the Idle Hour owing to the destruction of the light plan incapacitating the theater for work. Donald Moore and wife, of Boone, have been visiting the home folks the past week. Geo. Taylor was a Woodbine visitor Friday. John Lehan made a short visit in Council Bluffs Wednesday. Rev. Fox has gone to Carroll to work in a shoe store. Mrs. I. D. Howorth has been visiting at the Dr. Cobb home, in Council Bluffs. The ten months old child of Wm. Hartwig was buried Friday, Rev. H. Wendt officiating. Rev. Conrad has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church, to be acted upon at their meeting on January 31st. The Dunlap State and Citizens State bank have each installed a Brandt automatic cashier. The Commercial club held a special meeting Monday night to consider a lecture course for next winter, but not enough interest was manifested to insure undertaking it. Dr. P. G. Ingersoll and son, Donald, were Omaha passengers one morning last week. Mrs. J. A. Mair has been in Logan the past week, called there by the illness of her parents. Mrs. Will Helm is visiting relatives in Sterling, Ill. Ray Green, a soldier recently returned from the border, is renewing old acquaintances. He lived here when a boy, but his later home has been at Garden, Neb. Mrs. Hattie Baird has been visiting in Logan the past week. Geo. Wattengel, operated upon two weeks ago for appendicitis, is convalescing very rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nesmith, of Omaha, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Mungan. Mr. McFadden, of Missouri Valley, has been in town several times the past week in the interest of the Iowa Gas & Electric company, owing to their recent fire. John Pounds, whose home is in the south, has been a week end guest of his mother, Mrs. J. Pounds. Misses Nellie Lehan and Bertha Bolte went down to Omaha Tuesday to buy a motorcar. Mrs. M. B. Bailey is in Dow City, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Howorth.

GOODRICH ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Winey visited with their friends, Mrs. and Mrs. George Beaman, Sunday. Chas. Jensen has been hauling ice for his summer use. John Anderson has been assisting his brother, Harry, haul oats this week. Mr. Boysen went to Omaha Monday and got some fine feeders, which he had shipped here and drove them out to his farm in Goodrich this week. Geo. Beaman and S. D. Newton took a hunt for rabbits, but only saw one. That's the reason for their long faces. John Anderson took a load of ladies with their well filled baskets for a big dinner in his bobsled for a surprise on Mrs. Alma Prentice Thursday, it being her birthday. They slipped into her home while she was at her place of business and when dinner was ready her daughter, Mrs. Lella Childress, went to the office to relieve her of her duties and when she entered her home the first thing that met her eyes was a big long table loaded with goodies, the ladies having hid so they might enjoy the surprise more fully. A pleasant time was spent in feasting, visiting and fancy work. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Anderson came for the ladies and they left with many good wishes and happy returns of the day. Geo. Beaman and Verne Wilkinson attended a sale near Boyer Friday. Quite a few Epworthians with their president, Verne Wilkinson, and pastor, Rev. Allen, and family, went to the Harvey Cook home Friday evening to give them a farewell surprise party. They spent a very pleasant evening in games, visiting and music. These people will be missed very much by the Methodist people of Deloit, as they were always in their place when possible. Rev. Allen and family remained at the Cook home over night. L. F. Morris marketed hogs Saturday. Neil Paulson shipped hogs and cattle Saturday night. Buffalo Bill did not shrink at the approach of death. While he was "waiting" he played high five, just to pass the time away. But his apparent fearlessness was that of a game sport, not resignation to the divine plan of life's consummation. How different it was in the case of William McKinley who said: "It is God's way; His will be done."—Carroll Herald.

KIRON ITEMS.

The Clauson Bros. Real Estate Agency sold the 79-acre farm west of Kiron known as the Johnston homestead owned by Neils Larson, to Mrs. Ed Anderson, consideration $18,000. They also sold the tract of land owned by Mrs. Ed Anderson comprising 60 acres, five miles southeast of Kiron, to William Clauson at $200 per acre. Miss Amanda Snare, of Kerkhoven, Minn., has been a guest at the home of Marvin Snare northeast of town, the past week. She may possibly decide to spend the summer in this vicinity. E. E. He intends to retire from farming and together with his wife, will move into their new home in Old Kiron. Albert Bringson has rented the Charles Lindberg residence and a few acres of land located two miles south of Kiron. He, we understand, has decided to quit farming and will divert his time with other vocations. J. L. Riggelman, the prominent farmer near Deloit, spent Friday in Kiron attending to business and trading with our merchants. Miss Edith Linman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Linman, near Arthur, and former residents of this locality, was married on Thursday of last week at Ida Grove to a Mr. Frank Linquist. The couple left for Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they will remain all winter. They expect to return to Ida county in the spring. Edith has a great many friends here who, no doubt will learn both with surprise and interest of her marriage. She is a very accomplished and attractive young lady and her husband a most industrious and highly esteemed young man, who has been a resident of Ida county for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Marv Snare entertained a number of young people at their home on Friday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Maude Snare, of Kerkhoven, Minn. A most delightful time was spent by the visitors present. The Mission and circle will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the church. Fredie Dean, who has been confined to his home for a long time was reported very sick several days during the past week but has recovered. His condition has compelled him to remain home for a long time. Oscar Johnson, who has been working in a hotel at Omaha for some time past, returned home to Kiron Saturday to remain for a while. Mrs. Emma Peterson, who has been spending several months at the Mrs. S. A. Palm home together with her nephew, Oscar Lindstrom, leaves on Friday for Chicago to remain. Oscar has been in the employment of the Peters drug store during his stay in Kiron. Russell Engberg, who has been spending some time during the past year at Belle Plaine, Ia., arrived home last Thursday, coming from Galesburg, Ill., where he visited relatives. He expects to soon return to Ames, Ia., to continue his college work. Mrs. Lars Swanson at Old Kiron, has recovered somewhat from her long sickness. She was taken to the home of Albert Lavine on Friday, where she will be cared for while she recuperates. Lillian Engberg returned on Saturday afternoon from a visit at Denison. Dr. J. O. Nystrom, of Omaha, preached at the Mission church on Sunday morning. The Baptist Sewing Circle was entertained on Friday afternoon at the fine home of C. S. Johnson. An unusually large attendance was splendidly entertained by Mrs. Johnson. Clauson Bros. are arranging for joining the excursion to Texas on Tuesday, February 6. Quite a few are planning to go as cheap rates will be given and a delightful and interesting trip and time is anticipated. Parties desiring to take the trip should arrange with the boys. The Brockman and Hansen sale on Friday drew a large crowd and everything went at soaring high prices. Postmaster Cedarberg received the new post office cabinet last week, which he is arranging and which will soon be ready for public use. The entire cabinet is made of steel and is arranged more conveniently than the old cabinet besides presenting a neater appearance. The Democrats in their enjoyment of the sensation of holding power and authority at Washington remind us of an old maid who has at last landed a man. She thinks she is some girl and the rest of the world should stop aside and kowtow as she passes.—Charter Oak Times.
