W. S. Moore left for Stockton, Cal., Sunday night to accompany the body of his brother, Rev. Wm. Moore, back to Springfield, Mo., for burial. Rev. Moore died very suddenly at his home in Stockton.

The community was grieved to hear Wednesday of the death of Alexander Simpson at his home here in town. Mr. Simpson has been in poor health for a long time and the last few weeks had suffered intensely and on Sunday, February 25th, he underwent an operation at his home, from which he rallied and it was thought he would improve, but it was not to be so. He died Wednesday evening. Alexander McLaren Simpson was born in Steubenville, O., on Oct. 7, 1854, and died Feb. 28, 1917, at the age of 63 years, 5 months and 24 days. He was married to Mary E. Murray at Eledo, Ill., on July 1, 1875. To that union were born six children, William, of Edgerton, Wis.; Benjamin, of Driscoll, N. D.; Guy, of Lake Andes, S. D.; Andrew, of Sioux City; Mrs. Y. L. Nelson, of Omaha, and Auburn, of Wall, S. D. Besides the wife and children, two grand children are left to mourn. Funeral services were held at the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. R. Miller, of the Presbyterian church, and interment was made in the Manilla cemetery. Friends sympathize with the bereaved in their deep sorrow.
