Mr. Alfred Wright, tells us that he and Mr. Goss are getting their sand and gravel pit near Boyer in readiness for the year's business and within a few weeks hope to be shipping sand and gravel. They have already booked many large orders and believe that the pit will run full blast until snow flies next winter.

Agents for Ford cars in western Iowa are not letting the shortage of freight cars interfere with their receiving their allotment of cars, and are driving them cross country from the assembly plant in Omaha. On Monday of this week eight new Ford touring cars went through Denison for a dealer located east of here.

Ed Champion traded off his 80 acre tract of land north of Denison, which he recently purchased of Ben Smith, to Chas. Tucker, taking in trade Mr. Tucker's house and 20 acres adjoining Denison on the east. The Tucker property was traded in at $9,500 and the Smith farm figured at $300 per acre, which it originally sold for.

Mrs. Julia Denison-Duboc, a resident of Okaloosa, arrived in Denison last week for a visit at the home of Mrs. M. E. Jones. Mrs. Duboc is the daughter of Mr. Jesse Denison, for whom the city of Denison was named. Mrs. Duboc lived here for many years and has many friends among the early settlers of Denison who are enjoying her visit here.

Mr. E. A. Gerok, of Council Bluffs, this week took over the management of the Svaboda & Company's monument works here in Denison which Mr. J. F. Goss has heretofore had charge of. Mr. Goss together with Mr. Alfred Wright recently purchased the Vernon Sand & Gravel pit located near Boyer and expects to devote his entire time to this.

The Denison candy kitchen expects to open up their new quarters in the Laub block within the next few days. Handsome fixtures have been installed and the fountain is said to be the largest in this part of the state. The quarters in the opera house block were not large enough to accommodate the patrons so the proprietors have decided to operate the two places. We understand that Mr. Wm. Savery is negotiating for the purchase of both candy kitchens, although the deal has not been closed at the time of going to press.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. George Naeve entertained the members of Penelope at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Although the weather was very disagreeable outside, the guests were unmindful of such and the afternoon passed quickly with handwork. Late in the afternoon supper was served at four small and one large tables in the dining room, the tables being beautifully decorated with baskets of jonquils, fresas and ferns at either end of the large tables, and one large basket in the center of the small ones. Place cards of blue birds added to the decorations. A most delicious two course supper was served by Mrs. Renfro, Mrs. Moto and Miss Winger. Mrs. Leon Simmons, of Independence, Mrs. S. P. Ashby, of Fremont, Neb.; Mrs. S. J. Melson, of Jefferson, and Mrs. Barber, of Charter Oak, were the out of town guests.

The members of S. S. held their annual banquet on Tuesday evening, March 13th, in the Carnegie club room, and it being an unusual treat for all present will long be remembered. The color scheme which was in the club colors of red and white was most artistically carried out throughout the delicious menu as well as in the large club room. A very excellent musical program was provided by the chairman and program committee, which included Denison's best vocalists. Miss Lillian Garrison with vocal solos, also Mrs. McConaughy and Mr. Helsley; Mr. Barborka with a harp solo, and Miss Raine with piano selections, and Miss Soller with her usual clever readings. Miss McAhren, who is president of the club, gave a very hearty address of welcome.

Members of the dramatic club of the Denison Normal college had a little spread after their rehearsal Thursday evening, returning home at a late hour.

H. H. will meet on Thursday evening with Miss Winifred Wright as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wright entertained the members of Kill Kare and a few others at a very elegant five course dinner on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rohwer, Mrs. Rohwer having been a member before her recent marriage. The table was lovely with its green and white color scheme and clever place cards, pictures of the Kill Kare club completing the unique decorations. The guest of honor was presented with a handsome cluny centerpiece and hand painted tea pot.

Mrs. Charles Bolten will entertain Coterie at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Voss entertained a few friends at dinner on Monday evening complimentary to Mrs. Leon Simmons, of Independence, and Mrs. S. J. Melson, of Jefferson. A pretty basket of sweetheart roses formed the decoration for the center of the table and pretty place cards were used.

Miss Grace Meyers has issued invitations for a dinner on Wednesday evening and bridge on Friday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. L. Simmons.

Mr. Bradley H. Lee, who formerly resided east of Denison on the Lincoln highway, but is now living near Ashton, S. D., arrived in Denison Friday for an extended visit with relatives and friends in this locality. Mr. Lee has not apparently grown a day older since leaving Crawford county and his many acquaintances are pleased to see him again and wish him good health. Mr. Lee has ordered the Review sent to his South Dakota home for the next two years.

Harry Meyers, who is attending Des Moines college, spent the week end in Denison visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Meyers. Harry is enthusiastic over the new Union college which will be located at Des Moines, and on Sunday morning addressed the Epistolist Sunday school in regard to it. He reports the plans of the institution. He reports that Earl Baum and Brydon Weberg, who recently entered the college, are taking good rank in their studies and are well pleased with the college.

Mr. Ira Gillmor has sold the Tabor residence, which will be moved next month so that Mr. H. G. Lochmiller, who purchased the site, may commence the erection of his garage. Mr. Leon Powers purchased the west section of the Tabor house and will move it to a lot in West Denison. He plans to build an addition and when completed will have a fine modern home. The east portion of the residence was purchased by Mr. H. G. Lochmiller, who will move it to a lot in South Denison, where it will be rebuilt for renting.

Ten applicants for rural carriers on routes one, two and seven out of Denison took the civil service examination at the post office last Saturday under A. Aebischer. The papers will be sent to the department for correction, so it will be several days before the results are known. The vacancies on these routes were brought about when the motor routes were established. The post office department sent two inspectors to Denison and investigated the rural service and reported, we understand, that it was not practical to serve patrons on a fifty mile route in the rural around, and recommended that the old routes be re-established. Upon their recommendation this was done and all of the carriers reinstated with the exception of the routes mentioned above.

We are calling attention to the statement of the First National bank, which appears in another column of the paper. This statement is made in pursuance of the law which requires national banks to report to the controller of currency from time to time under oath the condition of such banks. As this statement shows large sums of money are required to transact the business of this community, and this statement reveals the preparedness of this bank to care for the situation. The total footings are $1,248,827.49, which are the largest ever published by any other bank in this county. The amount of money on hand and in banks subject to call, known as reserve, is $258,013.54, which is more than three times the amount required under the banking laws, and shows a conservative condition. The general prosperity of the bank and its patrons is reflected in deposits of over a million and a quarter dollars above

OPERA PINAFORE PACKS THEATRE

Beautiful Opera Presented by Students of High School, Under Direction of Miss Winifred Wright.

CHARACTERS ALL WELL TAKEN

Those in Charge of Entertainment Highly Pleased With Co-Operation on Part of Students.

The opera, "Pinafore," presented last evening by members of the high school at the Germania theater, was one of the best high school entertainments ever given in Denison. The theater was packed to its capacity and everyone present is loud in their praises of the production and the fine manner in which each part was portrayed. Much credit of the success of the opera is due to Miss Winifred Wright, who had charge of the music, and to the excellent acting and directing of the staging of it. It was evident that great care had been taken in the selection of the cast, for each person seemed to be particularly fitted for the part assigned, and so well did they have their parts in hand that the whole entertainment was carried out without a slip of any kind as far as the audience could find.

The opera, "Pinafore," is a pleasing production in two acts, in which romance and love take an important part. The leading part, that of Ralph Rackstraw, an able seaman, was taken by Lenihan Lally. The part was a most difficult one, but was ably handled by Lenihan, and the fact that he has an excellent, really good voice only added to his success.

Miss Dorothy Jones, as Josephine, the captain's daughter, made a decided hit with the audience, and played her part as a demure maiden most skillfully.

Little Buitereux, a bumpoat woman, played by Miss Dorothy Parr, and Chester Schumberger, as Sir Joseph Porter, portrayed their parts in a pleasing manner.

Prof. Charles Helsley, as Dick Deadeye, the villain in the opera, was immense and had the audience in an uproar several times during the play.

Marcus McCord, portraying the part of Captain Corcoran, commander of the "Pinafore," did commendably notwithstanding the fact that he had only been practicing his part for the past week or two.

Beulah Aylesworth, as Sir Joseph's first cousin, playing an important role in her usual pleasing manner.

Herbert Cushman, Charles Richards and Charles Meyers, as members of the Pinafore crew, were all good in their parts.

We are sorry that space does not permit our giving a synopsis of the play, together with a description with each individual part. The music was a most important feature of the entertainment and showed much training. The chorus work was very pleasing and effective, and much better than is usually found in high school productions. The teachers at the high school who trained the pupils are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

FRIDAY, March 23. Shorthorn sale. Hickey & Campbell sale of 50 head of pure bred Shorthorn cattle at Manning. Hickey & Campbell are using space in this issue of the Review to announce a big sale of pure bred Shorthorn cattle, which will be held at Manning on Friday, March 23d. Here will be an opportunity for farmers and breeders to purchase a choice lot of pure bred Shorthorns. Twelve bulls and 38 females are listed. Be sure and read the announcement on another page of this issue and plan to attend.

Horse Buyer. Monday, March 19.

W. J. Imrie, the horse buyer, will be at Laub's barn in Denison on the above mentioned date. Imrie pays all a horse is worth and farmers who want to dispose of any of their surplus stock should bring them in on this day. Read his advertisement in this issue for particulars.

The city council held a session at the city hall on Monday evening of this week and discussed the matter of bonds for bus and hack men. A few weeks ago the council passed an ordinance requiring every hack and bus line to furnish bonds of $2,500. Owners of bus lines found that it was impossible to secure surety bonds without paying a prohibitive price for them. After considerable discussion the council passed an ordinance changing the bond from $2,500 to $500.

A sample of water taken from the new deep well was sent to Iowa City the first of the week for analysis and when the report is received it will be published in the local newspapers. Many consumers think the water from the new well is not up to standard, but samples already tested by the chemists show that it is of very fine quality with mineral matter that makes it particularly desirable.
