

DIES IN SIOUX CITY HOSPITAL

Miss Mary Sanders, of Charter Oak, Dies at German Lutheran Hospital in Sioux City Tuesday

ACUTE ATTACK APPENDICITIS

Deceased Born in Willow Township Nov. 26, 1892—Funeral Held on Friday of Last Week.

Tuesday evening the community was shocked to hear of the death of Mary Sanders at the German Lutheran hospital in Sioux City. Mary had attended school Thursday and Friday morning was taken with an acute attack of appendicitis. She grew rapidly worse and on Sunday afternoon was taken to Sioux City for an operation in hope of saving her life.

From the time of the operation, Sunday evening, her life was despaired of and on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock death claimed the young life. Mary, being the only daughter, was her mother's companion. She was a member of the ninth grade in high school and dearly beloved by her companions, six of whom acted as pall bearers.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Friday morning, Rev. Mahood officiating and the remains taken to Dow City and laid to rest by the side of a little sister who preceded her ten years ago.

Besides her father and mother she leaves to mourn her untimely death three brothers and a host of friends. The entire community grieves with the bereaved ones over their loss.

WEDDING BELLS AT MANILLA

Mr. Edward Hamann and Miss Marie Wenzel Married at Manilla on Last Wednesday

REV. H. WENDT OFFICIATES

Newly Married Couple Go to Minnesota, Where They Will Spend Their Honeymoon.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamann on Wednesday, March 21st, occurred the wedding of Miss Marie Wenzel and Mr. Edward Hamann, Rev. H. Wendt officiating. Marching down from upstairs they took their places under a canopy of flowers and white bells. They were attended by Mr. Edwin Wenzel, brother of the bride, and Miss Annie Hamann, sister of the groom, and the wedding march was played by Miss Freda Wenzel, sister of the bride. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white tulle dress trimmed with georgette crepe and rose bud trimming and wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

The bridesmaid wore a dress of pink silk trimmed with white net and bead trimming, while the groom and best man were attired in blue serge. All the rooms were decorated in pink and white. Immediately after the ceremony a three course wedding dinner was served. Table bouquets were also of white carnations and pink roses. Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present and many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the young couple.

Mr. Hamann is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamann living here in town, and Mrs. Hamann is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wenzel. Mr. and Mrs. Hamann left on the evening train for different points in Minnesota to spend their honeymoon and will be at home after April 1st on a farm three miles northwest of Manilla. Friends congratulate the young people and wish them a happy married life.

Misses Birdie and Gertrude Robinson received the sad news Tuesday of the death of their father at Anita that morning. He had been sick with colic, but it was not thought serious, but pneumonia set in and he died quite suddenly. The girls left Tuesday noon for Anita to attend the funeral. The Indian question in the public mind just now is not so much the condition of the Red Man as the prospects for the Cleveland Ball team.

Attracted by the medal, which closely resembles the Maltese cross worn by some European heroes, an old gentleman asked him how he had won it, and George delivered a picturesque account of stirring deeds on shell torn battlefields, while one by one the crowd gathered and listened in awe-struck silence.

A TRUE GEORGE WASHINGTON

He Tells How He Won a Medal "Somewhere in France." Philadelphia.—George Washington, a United States marine from Kentucky, who does not bid fair to emulate the truth telling record of his illustrious namesake, marched proudly down Broad street with a newly won sharpshooter's medal pinned to the breast of his uniform.

Attracted by the medal, which closely resembles the Maltese cross worn by some European heroes, an old gentleman asked him how he had won it, and George delivered a picturesque account of stirring deeds on shell torn battlefields, while one by one the crowd gathered and listened in awe-struck silence.

"But I say, old chap," interrupted a stranger, "where did all this happen?" "Oh, somewhere in France," returned George cheerfully, and the spell-binder's audience melted away.

No Discrimination. "I'm afraid father-in-law doesn't care much about me," said the young man. "He finds fault with most everything I do."

"Nonsense!" replied his wife. "You don't know his ways. He is treating you just like one of the family."—Exchange.
