

OCTOBER WEDDING NEAR VAIL

Home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kral the Scene of a Happy Wedding on Wednesday Last.

BRIDE AND GROOM WELL KNOWN Rev. J. L. Boyd, of Denison, Performs Ceremony—Mr. Barberka Assisted in Playing Wedding March.

VAIL, OCT. 9.—Special— A pretty October wedding took place at 4 o'clock last Wednesday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kral, when their daughter, Miss Helen, became the bride of George Buchanan. At the appointed hour the bride and groom took their places in the parlor where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Boyd, of Denison. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white georgette crepe trimmed with pearls. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Agness, who was gowned in pink. The groom's brother, Henry, acted as best man. Following the party came little Nellie Pieper, cousin of the bride, as ring bearer. Miss Mable Leahy, of Denison, at the piano, accompanied by Mr. Barberka, also of Denison, on the violin, played the wedding march. After the bride and groom received the hearties of congratulations from all present. A bountiful wedding supper was served to the company of about sixty relatives and friends who were present. The bride is a young lady of pleasing person and endowed with those womanly graces that are the best guarantee of a happy home. The groom is a most industrious young man of excellent character. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan left late in the evening on a wedding trip to Tennessee, and upon their return will be at home to their friends on a farm west of town. The bride's going away gown was a suit of brown with hat, gloves and shoes to match. They were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. Their many friends extend best wishes and hearty congratulations.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Mt. Whitney is 14,992 feet high. Arabs predominate in old Tunis. American glass is used in China. Tunis is governed really by the French. A windmill in Europe grinds grain into flour for a baker and then mixes and kneads it into dough. Almost automatic in its operations is a new cabinet for quickly developing X-ray photographs for dentists' use.
