

DOW CITY ITEMS.

visited his father and mother-in-law, Horatio Wingrove and wife. Mrs. Henry Roy and daughter, Eva, accompanied by Mrs. Will Hammond, of Linton, N. D., enjoyed Thanksgiving day with relatives in Denison. The union prayer meeting of the Methodist and Baptist people which was held at the Baptist church Thursday night was very largely attended, a number of Arion folks also being present. These churches have decided to hold a union prayer service once every month. The next meeting will be on the last Thursday of December, at the Methodist church. There will be prayer services at both of the churches each Thursday evening with the exception of the last Thursday of each month, when the union services will be held. Elmer Turnlund was up from Council Bluffs and spent Thanksgiving day at the parental, A. P. Turnlund home. Miss Barbara Scott returned the first part of last week from a several days visit with relatives in Carroll. Mrs. Anna Williams and little son were in Arion Sunday evening where the former conducted preaching services at the Congregational church. Miss Beatrice Smith started Wednesday for her home in Lamoni and was compelled to return after going as far as Dunlap. On account of the week which took place between Dunlap and Woodbine that day, Miss Smith found that her train would be delayed so long that it would be impossible to make connections in Omaha that night so she thought it best to return here. She remained until Friday and then left for her home where she will make an extended visit. Henry Kahle who had spent several months in this vicinity left Friday for his home in southern Illinois having been called to report for military service. Mrs. Emma Wheeler arrived Wednesday evening from Lincoln, Neb., for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Vore and husband. Pete Hallowell was a Dunlap visitor Friday. Miss Vera Paul was home from Pochontas and spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Paul. J. H. Pearsall of Nebraska City, Neb., made a brief visit with relatives here Friday. He was on his way home from Detroit, Mich., where he had gone with a number of gentlemen to drive home some new cars. The men stopped in town Friday for their dinner. There were about twenty new Dodge cars being driven through from Detroit to Nebraska City. Chas. Smith and wife accompanied by their son John, and wife of Clarke, S. D., and also his brother, Joe, of Chicago, spent the day Friday in Omaha. Fred Logsdon was here from Ames and spent Thursday and Friday with relatives and friends. Mrs. E. L. Roberts went to Manning Friday evening to spend a few days with her daughters, Mrs. H. Heller, and Mrs. Eliza Winters. Mrs. Roberts is now making her home here with her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Brown and family. Mrs. N. R. Wilder was an Omaha visitor Friday. Pearl Vore and wife entertained her brother, M. E. Wheeler of Omaha on Thanksgiving day. After the first of January, the post office will be located on the east side of the street between the Informer office and the new meat market, Postmaster Ahart having purchased this building formerly known as the Butterworth meat market. For many years, the postoffice has been located on the west side of the street in the building owned by M. G. Wiggins. B. M. McElwain and daughter, Pural motored to Denison Friday where the latter remained for several days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McElwain to assist in caring for her grandfather, who is reported to be in a critical condition. Miss Marie Bowling of Denison was a guest at the homes of Clair and Hugh Butterworth a few days the past week. The S. A. Dow family entertained Mrs. Dow's sister, Miss Nettie Ernest of Omaha on Thanksgiving day. John Ahart received four hundred head of hogs from Minnesota last week which he will feed for the market. O. A. Cooper was in Minnesota and brought the stock here. Mr. and Mrs. George Binnall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binnall accompanied by A. W. Binnall and wife, of Milwau, Wash., were among the visitors in Denison on Saturday. F. C. Howarth and wife entertained on Thanksgiving day, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bailey and also her cousin, Clifford Bailey and wife and two children from Dunlap. Harry Kuykendall was up from Missouri Valley last week visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Chas. Vassa, came Saturday from Terrill for an over Sunday visit at the parental, Brinton Sharp home. Ralph McKee was home from Camp Dodge and spent Thanksgiving with his wife. The Sam Bixler family who had been visiting among relatives and friends here and at Denison for the past two weeks, departed Wednesday for Portland, Ore., where they will locate hereafter. They formerly resided at Fullerton, N. D. Steve Hammock had a misfortune Friday while out driving in his car. As he was coming down the hill on the ridge road east of town, the steering wheel was in some manner put out of commission and as a result the machine was overturned several times, and quite badly damaged. Mr. Hammock escaped uninjured which was very fortunate indeed. The local Red Cross society have completed and shipped their first box of knitted supplies to Chicago. The articles contained in the box were: 13 sweaters, 10 mufflers, 4 pairs socks, and 7 pairs of wristlets. All the women who can knit are urged to do so, as articles in this line are in great demand. Anyone who wishes to help in the good cause may call on Mrs. W. E. Dow for material, instructions, etc., and they will be gladly furnished. Miss Esther Turnlund who is a student at Boyles' Business college in Council Bluffs was called home Tuesday last week on account of the illness of her mother who has been bedfast for the past week with symptoms of pneumonia. Esther will remain at home until her mother is able to be about again. F. L. Hoffman and son, Charles, of Denison were callers here last Saturday. Hobart Losch who had been visiting at the Henry Siemer and Adolph Ahart homes went down to Omaha on Saturday to visit. Mr. Losch is a brother of Mr. Siemer and Mrs. Ahart. Thos. Munsey was a caller at the county capital Saturday. Miss Helen Bell returned Saturday from a pleasant ten days' visit in Omaha with her sister, Mrs. Mayme Mulvihill and other relatives also. Mrs. Elmer Turnlund was up from Council Bluffs Saturday visiting at the parental, A. P. Turnlund home. Mrs. Jake Burwell was a passenger to Arion Wednesday evening where she spent Thanksgiving day with her friends. The Red Cross revival which was held in the opera house Tuesday afternoon of the past week was a great success, about forty ladies being present. The afternoon was spent in making hospital supplies and the ladies completed nineteen bath robes. These garments had been started before and were finished at this time. At the close of the afternoon, a tempting dinner was served. An admission fee of ten cents was charged for the hot coffee which was served, the proceeds of which will go to the paying of the transportation charges of the Red Cross boxes which are sent away. Mrs. Jim Turner was a Denison visitor Saturday last. Mrs. John Miller was down from Denison Saturday visiting at the parental, Henry Roy home. Saturday Will Spence took possession of the dray line which he purchased of William Ettleman about two weeks ago. Brinton Sharp is conducting the Arch Wight drive, we understand, until Mr. Wight moves to town. Mrs. Manning and spent the Thanksgiving vacation with her folks, returning Sunday evening to resume her school duties. Miss Anna Bell was a visitor at the county capital Saturday. Mrs. John Turnlund and children came Saturday from Cheeokee for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Wingrove and also at the A. P. Turnlund home. Floyd Sharp was home from Camp Dodge Thanksgiving day visiting his folks. Miss Kathleen Luke was here from Indianola and spent several days of the past week among her many young friends here. L. E. McBride and wife were up from Logan and spent Thanksgiving with her people. Mr. McBride returned on Friday while his wife remained for an over Sunday visit. A number of Dow City friends packed a box of fruit, candy and many other good things in the line of eating and sent to York Broadwell last week for Thanksgiving. Mr. Broadwell is located at Camp Wheeler, in Mason, Ga. This kind of act of thoughtfulness by his friends here will no doubt be very highly appreciated. The members of the M. W. M. met Friday evening at the W. E. Dow home and spent the time in knitting for the Red Cross. It was decided at this time among the members of the society that hereafter at each one of the regular meetings the time would be devoted to knitting. Nice refreshments were served at the close and the guests departed for their homes, having had a very pleasant time. A large number attended the box social given by the Rockwell and Kenwood schools at the Kenwood hall on Wednesday night, and a very enjoyable time is reported. We are informed that the neat sum of $46 was realized which will go toward the purchasing of a Victrola for the Kenwood school. Jess Henderson has bought a farm near Guthrie Center and will move his family there next spring. Mr. Henderson left Tuesday to spend a week or so at that place. Mrs. Will McCord and daughter, Mabel and Mrs. John Miller were down from Denison Saturday soliciting funds for the benefit of the L. D. S. church at that place. Mrs. Fred Coleman and children spent Thanksgiving day at the Hecker home in Dunlap. E. N. Chamberlain returned Friday from a several months sojourn with relatives in Illinois. Mrs. Milo Kelly is to hold a sale at her farm near Arion Wednesday of this week. We are told that she has purchased residence property in Denison where she will make her future home. Mrs. A. C. Hunt and two children were passengers from Woodbine Friday for a several days' visit at the Floyd Hunt home. Mrs. John Miller was up from Dunlap one day last week on professional business. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell entertained a company of relatives and friends at dinner on Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McBride of Logan, were out of town guests. Mrs. J. H. Killion accompanied by Mrs. Spray Malone were in Sioux City one day last week. Pete Bahr has a sale booked for the eighth of February and will move his family to Pierce county, Neb., in the spring where he has purchased a farm. This family has been among our most prominent farmers for many years, residing west of town. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lazerus and children spent Thanksgiving with her folks in Omaha. Mr. Lazerus returned Saturday and his wife and children remained a few days longer. Miss Lucinda McHenry was here from Indianola and spent her Thanksgiving vacation at the parental, Mott McHenry home. Miss Erma Chamberlain was also home from there visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chamberlain. David Calderwood and wife returned Saturday from a several days' visit with friends and former acquaintances in West Side. Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark have been entertaining her father, Mr. Moffit, of Minnesota several days of the past week. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cassaday and the families of Leon and Ralph Cassaday, also Mrs. E. W. Pierce, of Denison and Edna Jackson and son, Ervay of South Omaha, were visitors at the Frank McHenry home Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cook and son, Oliver, were guests at the home of her three sessions of the day were very largely attended. Another opportunity will be given next Sunday morning to any who may wish to unite with the church who were unable to be present last Sunday. J. L. Butterworth was in Denison on Sunday where he preached at the L. D. S. church. Miss Florence French spent her Thanksgiving vacation in Charter Oak with her folks. Frank and Bernice, the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rule, have recovered from their siege of small-pox and the family were released from quarantine Sunday. Friends of Mrs. T. W. Swatman, of near Dunlap are very sorry to learn that she is suffering with a severe attack of bronchitis and all hope to soon hear of her recovery. Her daughter, Mrs. Ed Brake, of Magnolia, is helping care for her. The A. E. Aleman family have moved from the former Ballengee property and are now occupying the residence recently vacated by Mrs. Bessie Holcomb and children. The Henry Almstead family were up from Dunlap Sunday visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Killion and family. Rev. Barker went to Burnside Monday and expects to return the latter part of this week with his family. They will occupy the Baptist parsonage. The G. V. Jordan family are making preparations to move into their residence known as the former Graves property. Mr. Jordan has had the house repaired and remodeled and this will indeed make them a fine home. It will be remembered that Mr. Jordan sold the residence property which they are vacating to Miss Barbara Scott, sometime ago, but we understand that she will not occupy it this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Enos Cross entertained a number of relatives on Thanksgiving day. Ed Ahart acted as substitute mail carrier on M. J. Breen's route several days the past week, the latter being confined to his home with small-pox. A young ladies' prayer circle was organized last Friday night. Mrs. Anna Williams was chosen spiritual leader and Miss Marie Helsey social leader. All girls of fourteen years of age and over are cordially invited to become members. The meetings will be held the first and third Fridays of each month at 7:30. The first meeting will be held Friday of this week December 8, at the home of Miss Isabelle Scott. Each girl is asked to take her bible, pencil and paper. Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chandler of Council Bluffs who had driven up from there to spend the day with their daughter, Mrs. Ray Field and family, experienced quite an accident by their car being ditched near the sand bank a short distance east of town. Mrs. Chandler was thrown through the windshield, injuring an arm quite badly. Mr. Chandler being thrown against the steering

(Continued on Page 8.)

Public Sale! Having sold my farm, I expect to move to town, and will therefore offer for sale at auction, on the place located on the Deloit road, one mile north of Denison city limits, on Tuesday, Dec. 11th. Commencing at 10 a. m. the following property: 4 Head of Horses 4 Comprising black mare 11 years old, weight 1650; bay mare, 7 years old, weight 1600; iron grey mare, 4 years old, weight 1500; roan mare, 3 years old, weight 1500. 23 Head of Cattle Consisting of 5 good milch cows, fresh in January, 4 two-year old heifers with calves at side, 2-yearling steers, 1 yearling heifer, 1 yearling bull, 10 spring calves. 30 Duroc Jersey Brood Sows Farm Machinery Farm wagon, disc, seeder, mower, 16-inch sulky plow, 16-inch walking plow, harrow, Jenny Lind six-shovel cultivator, planter with 60 rods of wire, hay stacker and buck, Champion binder, hay rake, hay tedder, single seat buggy, one-hole corn sheller, grindstone, 2 sets work harness, set single harness, set double driving harness, 2 steel tanks and many other articles. Ten or Twelve Dozen Plymouth Rock Chickens 8 Tons of Timothy Hay 250 Bushels of Oats TERMS All sums of $10 and under, cash. Sums over that amount one year's time will be given on approved notes bearing 8 per cent. interest. FREE LUNCH AT NOON Wm. McBride Malone Bros., Aucts. C. L. Voss, Clerk

Public Auction! As I am retiring from the farm, I will offer at public auction at the farm, 4 miles north of Vail, on Monday, December 17, '17 the following property: 10 Head of Horses and Mules Bay team of drivers, 7 and 8 years old, weight 2000, 1 roan, 3 yrs old, weight 1400, 1 sorrel, 2 yrs old, weight 1450, bay yearling, roan yearling, cattle pony 8 yrs old, yearling mule, 2 suckling mules. 30 Head of Cattle Shorthorn bull, 3 yrs old, 9 young cows, 8 yearling steers, 4 yearling yearling heifers, 7 spring calves. 40 Head of Hogs Consisting of mostly fall pigs, among them are 5 summer boars big enough for service. Farm Machinery Incubator, 5 bee hives, 3 sets light harness, 2 saddles, feed cooker, corn planter, with 80 rods of wire, feed grinder sweep, hog oiler, gang plow, disc harrow, mower, 3-section harrow, 6-shovel corn plow, manure spreader, wagon and hay rack, lumber wagon, 2 buggies. 200 bales oat straw. 12 tons choice timothy hay Free Lunch at Noon. Sale at 1 p. m. Usual Terms. J. P. McLaughlin, Auct. W. A. Maguire, Clk. G. B. McAndrews