If a Man Should Write to Santa Claus With the Simple Faith That His Children do, He Would Probably Say Something Like This:

DEAR OLD MAN:

For all these years you and I have been filling the stockings of the universe. You have got a heap of glory out of it, and I don't begrudge you a bit; but if it hadn't been for my checkbook they'd have attached your sleigh for the taxes.

The folks are going to give me something this year, of course. They always do. But tell 'em, won't you, that I am not collecting curios.

I DO NOT WANT

a new collar for the dog, a box of flowers, a box of candy, a bottle of perfume or some nickel cigars.

But there are things I do want.

Some of them I must have. If I get them, they will save me money.

Others I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to me, it would be great!

So, will you kindly give this list your attention, old friend.

I SHOULD LIKE

Some new NECKTIES; nobody ever has quite enough really smart ties (50c to $2.50), and some nobby SHIRTS—every man likes to have a few—75c to $7.50.

A BATH ROBE would be a big improvement on the old garment I wear around the house ($6.00 to $10.00).

My HAT is a little behind the times and one of the new wide-brim, fuzzy kind would be welcomed ($3 to $4.50).

A FUR CAP would be fine in the car ($3.50 to $12.50).

It is about time I had a new pair of GLOVES, but unless some one gives them to me I shall probably go on wearing my soiled ones ($1.75 to $5).

Everybody thinks he is harder on SOCKS than anybody else. I am. Some silk or even lisle socks would certainly come in handy (25c to $1.25).

Many a night at home I would be more comfortable in a pair of HOUSE SLIPPERS; I like the leather kinds best ($2.75 to $3.25).

Every time I go out in the car I wish I had a sweater—one that buttons up around the neck ($1.25 to $12).

And if anyone wants to save me a nice bit of money as well as improve my appearance I am a candidate for a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES or a NEW OVERCOAT (suits $12.50 to $32.50; overcoats $18 to $35).

Yours hopefully,
A MAN

P. S.—And as you love me, fail not to tell 'em to buy the things in a MAN'S store.
