

DOW CITY ITEMS.

Frank Honz was here from Fort Dodge and spent Christmas day at the parental, Adolph Honz, home. Miss Anna Nelson was a passenger to Denison Wednesday for a week's sojourn among friends. Mrs. J. W. Patton and baby went to Omaha the first of last week for a visit. This family resided in Omaha prior to moving here. A fine baby boy arrived recently to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vore. The babe tipped the scales at 9 pounds. Arthur Buller and wife were over from Kiron last week and spent the day Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson. Mrs. Barker and son, Clark, have been on the sick list for the past week but are now better. Mrs. T. E. Fritz returned Wednesday from a two weeks' visit in Ames at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Ahrens, and family. Miss Janet Rae was a caller at the county capital Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Art Wilson and two children were in Denison last week where they spent Christmas at the home of his brother, H. T. Wilson, and family, returning on Wednesday. Miss Fern Kinsery returned the first of the week from Adair to be ready for the opening of school on Wednesday. She also visited in Ames during her vacation. Miss Birdie Metcalf returned to her home in Denison Wednesday after a several days' visit at the J. R. Griffin home. Mrs. Julia Mix was up from Omaha the past week visiting at the parental, J. G. Graul, home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Field and baby returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit of several days with her parents, George Chandler and wife in Council Bluffs. Misses Bernice Hunsicker and Margaret Ryan after having spent their vacation at the parental homes, the former at Indianola and the latter at Creston, returned the first of the week for the opening of school. Frank Banyard, who is a student at the Moody institute in Chicago, arrived last week to spend his vacation with relatives and friends. Misses Corinne Shirk and Muriel Barton, two of the teachers, have returned from their vacation visit with their folks, the former in Spencer and the latter in Nevada. Mrs. M. J. Breen was a Dunlap visitor Wednesday between trains. John Ahart, who for several months has been conducting a furniture and hardware store in the building on the corner of West Main street formerly known as the Jim Turnlund grocery store, sold out his stock to Tim Coleman some two weeks ago and last week Mr. Coleman sold out to M. G. Goddard. Mr. Goddard has given up the position he held in Port Dodge since severing his connection with the Stewart Lumber company here a couple of months ago, and will take possession of the furniture and hardware store this week. He has rented the former post office building on West Main street and will move his stock of goods there. J. U. Wise had been clerking in the store for John Ahart and Tim Coleman but we are told that Mr. Goddard will manage the business himself. Mrs. John Miller was down from Denison Wednesday between trains. The W. E. Fishel family were in Logan last week, where they enjoyed Christmas day at the Frank Odehl home. The Albert Miller family moved from Belltown the fore part of the week and are now residing on the A. A. Birkhofer place one mile west of town. Misses Marie Helsley and Martha Weiss, who had spent their vacation with their people in Denison, returned for the beginning of school Wednesday. Miss Florence French, another one of the teachers, also returned from her home in Charter Oak. Mrs. A. H. Harper enjoyed a several days' visit at the home of her brother in Dunlap the past week. She was also present at a gathering of relatives there on Christmas day. Mrs. Dave Kistler was down from Denison last week visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Edwards, Sr. George Binnal experienced quite a misfortune Wednesday of the past week when he jumped from a load of fodder, striking the ground in such a manner as to sustain a badly injured foot; the bone near the heel of the foot being broken. Since the accident he has been compelled to walk with the aid of crutches. Miss Harriet Gebert, of Denison, was a guest of Miss Irma Chamberlain last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Seemann and daughter, Maxine, spent Christmas day with relatives in Denison. The local Red Cross society shipped another box of hospital supplies to headquarters last week. The box contained 13 wash cloths, 38 napkins, 2 hot water bottle covers, 1 pair of bed socks, 11 pajama suits, 23 bath robes and 14 bed shirts. F. C. Howorth is driving a new Ford which he purchased from one of the local agencies. The J. R. Griffin home was the scene of much pleasure on Christmas day, when a dinner was given complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Griffin. All of the Griffin children were present and to say the affair was a delightful one would be putting it very mildly. Mr. and Mrs. August Mesenbrink and children and Miss Birdie Metcalf, of Denison, were out of town guests. Mrs. Fred Colby and Miss Dorothy Ahart were Denison visitors Thursday. Miss Susie Craft was down from Denison Thursday between trains, a guest of her friend, Miss Mildred Wiggins. Miss Marguerite Luke was here from Indianola and spent a few days with friends the past week. She also spent some time with friends in Woodbine. Miss Bertha Logsdon came Thursday from Ames for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Glassburner, and family. She is engaged in teaching near Ames. Mr. Roy Mahoney and baby daughter returned Thursday from a several days' visit in Denison at the parental home. Her sister, Miss Bessie Narramore, came with her for a visit. Mrs. F. C. Howorth was visiting at the parental, M. B. Bailey home in Dunlap Wednesday. Miss Blanche Cole has been clerking in the post office for a few days while Miss Vivian Sharp took a short vacation. Mrs. L. E. McBride and daughter, Virgene, returned to their home in Logan Thursday after a pleasant visit of several days at the G. M. Brake home. Miss Flora Wiggins was up from Woodbine last week and spent Christmas day with her folks. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and daughter, Leone, of Fremont, Neb., have been spending the past week here with their son and brother, A. W. Wilson, and family and also at the H. T. Wilson home in Denison. Mrs. Ed Ahart was in Dunlap Thursday having dental work done. Warren Ertleman has recovered from the smallpox and the family has been released from quarantine; also the home of Mrs. Lessie Howorth, her son, Daniel, having just recovered from the same disease. Mrs. Herman Lazerus and children were passengers to Omaha Thursday for a several days' visit with her parents. A. V. Munsen, the electrician, entertained his wife and baby, who came up from Omaha Wednesday, remaining until Thursday afternoon. We are told that he has rented a house and will move his family here soon. N. R. Wilder and wife entertained their son, Morris, and wife, of Sioux City, last week. Miss Alice Greder was among the visitors at the county capital Thursday. Jno. H. D. Gray, editor of the Review farm department, was a pleasant caller in town Friday. Miss Gladys Hearst was a passenger from Missouri Valley Friday for a visit at the Lehl Clothier home. Lieut. Floyd Sharp and Privates John Bahr, Ralph McKee and Merrill Sharp left the latter part of the week on their return to Camp Dodge after several days' furlough spent with their people here. Miss Vera Williamson was a passenger to Carroll Friday, where she spent a couple of days with friends. George Sharp and John Mathys were callers at the county seat Friday. The Charley Bray family were quarantined last week for smallpox. Mrs. Jane Wood returned Friday from Denison, where she had spent the greater part of the week at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Fred Northam, and family. R. B. Smith, of Woodbine, was a visitor here last Friday. Mrs. W. E. Fishel and daughter, Iva, spent a few days the past week with their son and brother, H. B. Fishel, and family in Denison. Marie Rudd went to Des Moines Friday for an over Sunday visit with friends at Camp Dodge. Miss Irene Smith spent Wednesday night with friends in Manilla. Miss Vera Williamson has accepted a position in the Bell telephone office in Omaha and expects to leave this week to assume her duties there. Morris Griffin and wife were among the callers at the county capital Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Riddle went to Greenwood, Neb., last week for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Butts, and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Butts were residents here for many years prior to moving to Nebraska several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle returned Friday. R. E. Adams, of Logan, was a business visitor in town Friday. Miss Kathleen Luke, who is visiting here from Indianola, returned Friday morning from a short visit with Woodbine friends. Steve Hammock has given up his position as night engineer at the electric plant and Frank Glassburner has taken his place. The Charlie Bell family, who had been living on the Ed Ahart farm east of town for several years, have moved onto the Frank O'Meara farm which was recently vacated by the Arch Wight family. Lloyd Crandall has rented the Ahart place for the coming year and the family will move there at an early date. W. E. Sharp is reported to be very ill, having been bedfast for the past week. He is being cared for at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Aleman. Mrs. W. H. Rule returned Saturday from a several days' visit in Council Bluffs at the homes of her sons, Fred and Howard. Her son, Garfield, who was also visiting there, returned with her before going to his home in Ft. Dodge. Jim Scott and daughter, Rosalia, were business visitors in Carroll Saturday. They also visited with relatives while there. Ralph, the little son of Dan Schumatke and wife, who sustained a badly crushed foot some time ago, is still quite lame from the effects of the injury. Nathan Hain came home Saturday morning, having been given a several days' furlough. This is his first visit here since enlisting some time ago, since which time he has been at the Great Lakes naval training camp near Chicago. Alf Hansen was a visitor in Manilla Wednesday night. Mrs. O. J. Judd and daughters, Hazel and Ruth, were in Omaha one day last week shopping and also visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schumatke and two children were in Denison Friday on a business mission. George Cornelius, accompanied by his wife, went to Sioux City one day last week, where the latter had a serious operation performed. At this writing she is reported to be getting along quite well. Misses Ruby Rolls and Eva Roy were Dunlap visitors Saturday between trains. Miss Golda Dow was a passenger to Omaha Saturday where she made an over Sunday visit. Mrs. L. E. Goodman and sons, Vernace and Virgil Tillet, were Denison callers Saturday. Mrs. Clifford Purdy and daughter, Violet, were over from Manilla the past week and visited at the parental, Jake Reeser, home. Mrs. John Gibson was a passenger to Denison Saturday for a Sunday visit with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Henry, and family. Mrs. Emma Mason and children, of Omaha, spent the past week at the Walter Homan home. J. A. Gibbs, of Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., and Miss Lela Barber, of Harlan, were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Lessie Howorth, last week. A. E. Bryan was a caller here from Denison Saturday. Misses Martha and Alfreda Hoveka returned to their home in Denison on Saturday after a week's visit at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Riley. A baby boy was born to Jurgen Dethlefsen and wife last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark are entertaining her sister, Mrs. Russell Linman, of Odebolt, who came Saturday to spend a few days. Misses Ellen, Agnes and Lois Goddard spent the day Thursday at the A. Schneckloth home in Denison. Miss Anna Marie Hughs, of Vinton, has been spending the past week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Finholdt. Jack Scott has a sale booked for the fifth of January, when he will sell his hogs and cattle. Mr. Scott has given up the dairy business which he had been conducting for several months. We are told that Milford Sharp, who is soon to move to town, will take Mr. Scott's place in the dairy work, of which fact the many customers are very glad as they would perhaps be unable to purchase milk elsewhere. It being such a scarce article. The Oscar Finholdt family were in Denison last week and spent Christmas day with relatives. Mrs. Marian Arnold, who has been visiting here from Anoka, Neb., expects to leave soon for a visit with relatives in the eastern part of the state, after which she will return to Dow City and make her home, having decided to engage in nursing here. Miss Esther Turnlund left Sunday for Council Bluffs, where she will resume her work at Boyle's business college. She had been called home several weeks ago by the illness of her mother. We are glad to report that Mrs. Turnlund is recovering nicely. Saul Miller left last week for a visit of two or three weeks' duration with his brother in Chicago. Mrs. S. E. Baber and daughter, Ruby, departed the first of last week for a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Martin Christensen, and family in Carney, Neb., and also at Otto Petersen home in Aurora, Neb. The following item will be of interest to people of this vicinity. Several weeks ago a fire broke out in a large brick building at Ames owned by the I. O. O. F. lodge. The interior of the building was completely destroyed, the real estate office of Herman Logsdon, a former Dow City resident, being in this building. It is said the fire started from some coal which was stored in the basement. Mrs. J. H. Young entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Leo Ahart, who leaves the latter part of this week for Camp Dodge where he will take the officers' training course. Those present were Leo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theos. Ahart, his brothers, Linfred, Ted, Bernard and George and wife, and his sisters, Dorothy and Mrs. Fred Colby. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carl, of Kenwood, were pleasant guests at the Oscar Finholdt home one evening last week. Mrs. John Ahart and Miss Lillian Ahart spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week with the former's relatives in Onawa. R. T. Baber spent the past week at the home of his son, Gene, and family at Anthon. Henry Roy was a Denison visitor on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pearsall and baby Dale were Sioux City visitors Wednesday. The Saul Miller home was placed under quarantine last week for smallpox. Mrs. Carl Blackman and daughter, of Denison, who came to remain there during Mr. Miller's absence in Chicago, were also quarantined. Mrs. T. E. Allen and son, Donald, and daughter, Norine, returned Saturday from a pleasant week's visit in Cedar Rapids with her people. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greene spent the greater part of the past week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Spray Malone, and family near Kenwood. A sale was held at the Ed Probasco home Friday, but owing to the extreme cold weather not very many attended. We are told the family will move onto a farm near Castana soon. The George Keairnes and O. A. Cooper families were quarantined the past week for smallpox. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society holds its regular monthly meeting this week at the home of Miss Janet Rae on Wednesday afternoon. Carl Tatro, Merrill Sharp, Bryce Binnal and Frank Banyard and the Misses Bessie Alexander, Jennie Cornelius, Fanchon Wiley and Vivian Sharp were very pleasant entertainers at the home of Mrs. Ida Talcott on Christmas night. Lester Cue was over from the Willow Sunday visiting friends. The monthly union prayer meeting of the Baptist and Methodist people held in the Methodist church Thursday evening, was well attended, considering the cold and disagreeable weather. Rev. Barker, the Baptist pastor, had charge of the service. On account of the scarcity of fuel the churches have decided to hold the mid-week prayer services in the homes of the members. Thursday evening of this week the Methodist prayer meeting will be held at the parsonage with Rev. Adams and wife. The Baptist prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Harper. A good attendance is desired at both places. Miss Bessie Alexander returned to Omaha Wednesday after having spent several days at the parental home. Word reaches us of the birth of a baby daughter to Rev. Zablicka and wife of Harvey. Mrs. Zablicka will be remembered as Miss Sylvia McColl, a former Dow City girl. Friends here wish to be numbered among those in extending congratulations. Jim Riddle was up from Omaha for an over Sunday visit with his folks. Mrs. Adah Wheelright and her nephew, John Burko, returned Friday from a several days' sojourn in Missouri and other places, where they had been on a business mission. Mrs. L. C. Hatch and daughter, Lois were passengers to Council Bluffs on Sunday for a visit at the home of former's mother, Mrs. Mary Rudd. Mr. and Mrs. Vic Keehner and son, Bernard, and daughter, Zara, visited at the parental, Chas. Keehner, home in Woodbine Sunday. C. J. O'Meara, wife and baby, were Denison visitors the first of the week. LaVerne Alexander was up from Dunlap and spent several days of the past week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy. Supt. Jacob Johnson returned Sunday from Waterloo, where he had spent the holiday vacation. John E. Earl, president of one of the Baptist educational institutions, is to give an address at the Baptist church here next Sunday morning in the interests of the college. The Baptist people are making plans for the erection of a college in Des Moines, that is to be one of the very best of educational institutions. Dr. F. N. Rowe and wife entertained at Christmas dinner Mrs. Marie Gibson and daughters, Lillie and Mrs. Ida Talcott and the latter's son, Edgar. Mrs. Fred Colby was a Denison visitor Monday. Mrs. F. C. Howorth visited with her parents in Dunlap Sunday. Owing to the shortage of fuel the evening preaching services at the Methodist church were dispensed with last Sunday, the usual Epworth League service being held at the D. E. Bremser home. The Methodist congregation met with the Baptist congregation for the evening preaching service. The electric lights were put out of commission again Saturday night by the magnetic fields being crossed and to the great inconvenience of the people the oil lamps had to be brought out again and used in the stores and residences. However, the necessary adjustment was made at the power house and on Sunday evening there was light. Vic Keehner and R. W. Tech were county seat visitors Monday. Mrs. J. L. Butterworth has been very ill the past week with smallpox, but at this time is reported to be improving. A. A. Luke and daughter, Kathleen, were Omaha visitors Saturday and Sunday. Dobe Tincker and Carl Kirk, of Dunlap, were visiting friends here on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Henry Roy was visiting her children in Denison one day last week. A fine baby boy came to gladden the hearts and brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Strait on Christmas day. Mrs. S. J. Acker and two daughters returned Monday from a pleasant visit with relatives in Omaha. Miss Flora Wiggins was a passenger from Woodbine Tuesday and is spending the remainder of the week at the parental, M. G. Wiggins, home.

Miss Bertha Logsdon, of Ames, who is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Glassburner, went down to Woodbine Monday for a visit with her relatives, the R. B. Smith family. Mrs. J. M. Pett and son returned to Woodbine Sunday after a visit with relatives in this vicinity. Miss Violet Cowhank came Saturday for a visit at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Clark. Her home is in Odebolt. J. T. Goldworthy was a Denison visitor Monday. A. V. Munsen, the electrician, moved his family up from Omaha the first of the week. They are occupying the residence of Mrs. Ada Wheelright that was recently vacated by Mrs. Bert Winn. The Red Cross drive which was on here recently was very successful, somewhere in the neighborhood of 500 new members having been received in this township. Mrs. W. W. Galland returned Monday from a week's visit with her daughters, Mrs. George Brundige and Mrs. Reuben Huff and their families in Missouri Valley. Chas. Keeliner was up from Woodbine Monday visiting relatives.

Public Sale!

I have rented my farm and will move to Schleswig, and will therefore sell at auction on my place 2 miles west of Boyer, 9 miles south of Odebolt and 3 miles east and 1 mile south of Kiron, and 7 miles northeast of Deloit, on

Thursday, Jan. 10

COMMENCING AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.. THE FOLLOWING DESCRIBED PROPERTY

11 Good Horses

One span of mares coming five years old in spring, weight 2800; two bays, one gelding coming 5 years old in spring and one mare coming 7 years old, span weighs 3000; one gray mare coming twelve years old, in foal, weight, 1400; one grey gelding twelve years old, weight 1500; one span of grays, weight 2500; one bay mare coming three years old, weight 1100; 1 black colt coming 2 years old; 1 sorrel pony, 4 years old, weight 900.

20 Head of Cattle

including eight good milch cows, some fresh soon; one Shorthorn bull.

Farm Machinery

Two wagons nearly new; 1 Mulburn wagon and 2 buggies; 1 new 7-foot Deering binder 1 new 5-foot Deering mower; 1 new Nisco spreader; 12-inch Good Enough gang plow; 16-inch Good Enough riding plow; 2 16-inch sulky plows; 24-foot wooden harrow; 16-foot iron harrow; 2 Avery cultivators; Paddy disc cultivator; Gretchen corn planter, nearly new, with 80 rods of wire; 8-foot disc harrow; new McCormick hay rake; corn seeder, bob-sled; hand corn sheller; grindstone; one new hay buck; two hay racks, one nearly new; four sets good work harness, two sets nearly new; two scoop boards; one hard coal heater and one soft coal heater; new DeLaval cream separator, No. 15; eight bushels 1916 seed corn, 200 chickens.

USUAL TERMS OF SALE. FREE LUNCH AT NOON

Albert F. Baker

TEAQUIST & MCLAUGHLIN, Auctioneers. JOHN KOVAR, Clerk.

Denison Normal and Business College

Denison Junior College

Opens January 7, 1918

Short Courses in Agriculture and Farm Construction

Book Keeping and Typewriting

With Courses to Fit the Students Wishes

Students May Enter Above Courses at Any Time

Preparatory Courses:

NORMAL TRAINING ACADEMIC COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL

Second Semester Begins

January 21st, 1918

There are thousands of positions waiting for commercial graduates and hundreds of schools are closed on account of the shortage of teachers

PRIVATE LESSONS: Piano and Voice, Miss Raine; Violin, Mrs. P. J. Brannon; Band Instruments, Sam D. Grotke; Oratory, Miss Anna Sollinger.

Write or Phone

W. C. ROLLINS G. E. HUMPHREY
Secretary Superintendent

Grand Masque Ball!

At the Bruederschaft Hall

DENISON, IOWA

Monday, January 14, 1918

$16.00 in Prizes

1. Prize Groupe—gentlemen and ladies, 6 or more.....$5.00
2. Prize Groupe, gentlemen and ladies, 4 or more.....$4.00
3. Prize, best ladies' mask.....$1.50
4. Prize, best gentleman's mask.....$1.50
5. Prize, best gentleman's character mask.....$1.00
6. Prize, best gentleman's mask.....$1.00
7. Prize, best comical ladies' mask.....$1.00
8. Prize, best comical gentleman's mask.....$1.00

Nobody allowed on the dance floor until 11 o'clock P. M., unless in costume.

GOOD MUSIC HAS BEEN ENGAGED

Admission—Ladies, 25 cents, whether masked or not. Gentlemen, $1.25, including supper for 2, whether masked or not. Suits and masks can be had at the hall from Mrs. Pfeiffer, who will have a fine line to select from. Tickets can be had in advance at Otto's Cigar Store, Martin Sargau and Wm. Koepke.

EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED

COMMITTEE