

Pictures Framed Right

CHARLES BARTCHER Undertaker and Florist

Local Mention

Send us your news!

Miss Marie White of Vail was a shopper in the city last Thursday.

Miss Helen Carstensen of Schleswig spent Saturday here with friends.

Miss Rose Clark visited with her friends in Council Bluffs Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mumm on Wednesday, January 30, a son.

Miss Theresa Keeney was down from Vail Saturday visiting friends.

Don Wilkinson, of Deloit, was in Denison Saturday calling on friends.

H. B. Schultz of Schleswig was a pleasant business caller here Monday.

Ward Towne of Arion was a brief business caller in Denison Saturday.

Johannes Herman of West Side, was a pleasant business caller here Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Rundlett was down from Vail Monday shopping and calling on friends.

Miss Lillian Ahart of Dow City made a brief visit in Denison Saturday with friends.

Lille Poole, of Toledo, Iowa, spent Saturday in Denison visiting with his friends.

Miss Hattie Schoessler and brother, Walter were down from West Side Saturday.

Miss Alice Reed was among those from West Side shopping in Denison Saturday.

C. H. Johnston, of Vail, was attending to business at the court house last Thursday.

Mrs. Bernice Hunsicker was up from Dow City Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Jane Wood, of Dow City, was in Denison Saturday, calling on friends and shopping.

Will Staller was up from Arion on Saturday transacting business at the county capital.

Emil Bruns of Buck Grove called at the Review office Monday while in the city on business.

Miss Nathalie Allen spent Sunday at Deloit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Allen.

Dr. J. Miller of Manning, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller of this city Sunday.

Fred Buss was up from Dow City Monday transacting business and calling on acquaintances.

Hans Rasmussen was down from West Side Thursday transacting business at the county capital.

E. H. Swasey was up from Dow City Monday attending to some legal matters at the court house.

Wm. Reimers drove down from Schleswig Thursday to attend to some business matters in this city.

John Lowrey, of Berne, who is attending school in the city, spent the week end at his parental home.

Frank Brogan was down from Vail Thursday attending to some business matters at the county capital.

The Eastern Star will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, February 12th, beginning at 7:30 prompt.

Miss Mary Dieter, of Vail, was a pleasant guest at the home of her friend, Miss Margaret Naughton, Saturday.

Mrs. M. J. Liscomb, of Dunlap, spent Wednesday and Thursday in this city visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Hecht.

Mrs. Guy Neal was down from Sac City over Sunday visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McSorley were among those from Manilla in Denison Tuesday in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. John Flahive, Jr.

Ed Klinker who clerks at the Balle-Brodersen store, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klinker at their farm near Deloit.

Bernard Bamford who is clerking in a general store at Lytton, Ia., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford in Denison over Sunday.

George Richards went down to Perry Friday afternoon where he spent several days visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Stoner.

Fred B. Petersen of Deloit, transacted business in this city Monday. He paid the Review office a pleasant call and extended his subscription another year.

Allan Dudley of Omaha, was in Denison Monday attending the annual meeting of the Farmers Elevator company, which was held at the court house.

Miss Kitty Cowdrey and nephew, Frank Cowdrey returned Monday to their home at Omaha after an over Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Connor.

Mrs. Frieda Sterling, who has charge of the Denison Hospital was called to Council Bluffs Saturday. Her mother, who resides there, fell and suffered a fractured hip.

Mrs. Lou Baer underwent an operation at the Meehan hospital Monday forenoon. We are glad to report the operation as successful and that Mrs. Baer is rapidly regaining her strength.

Miss Mary Dieter was a shopper in Denison Saturday from Vail.

Mrs. Mable Bird, of Ute, visited at the Dr. Wright home Saturday.

W. C. Pollock, of Arion, was a business caller in Denison Saturday.

Stanley Stehlik, of Vail, was a business caller in Denison Thursday.

A. E. Darling, of Boyer, was a business caller in this city Thursday.

Adolph Etzel and son, Louie and wife, of Vail, were in Denison Monday visiting relatives and attending to business matters.

Miss Minnie Rinisland spent Sunday at Carroll with Mrs. Alfred Wright who is confined to the hospital there. Mrs. Wright's condition is about the same as it was a week ago.

Mrs. G. F. Andresen and little daughter were down from Vail Monday, shopping in the city. They were also pleasant callers at the Review office and extended their subscription to the paper.

Guy Martin and C. D. Fink were among those from Deloit transacting business in Denison Thursday. They were pleasant callers at the Review office and had their subscriptions extended for another year.

John Ringold, of Dow City, was in Denison Thursday on a business mission. Mr. Ringold has been farming near Dow City for the past several years, but has purchased a farm near Denison and will move on it this spring.

Mrs. and Mrs. Chas. Penbleton, arrived here Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolston. Mr. and Mrs. Penbleton have been visiting at Santa Monica, Calif., and stopped off here on their way home to St. Charles, Ill.

Hugo Kellar, of Schleswig, was in this city Monday on business. Mr. Kellar has been attending Drake university at Des Moines, but on account of being in the next draft has given up his work there and will remain at home until called to service.

Miss Anna Hartmann, of Everly, Iowa, has been chosen by the local school board to fill the vacancy in the domestic science department made by the resignation of Miss Lillian Miller. Miss Hartmann is a graduate of Ames and has been teaching in the public school at Miller, Iowa, up to the present time.

George Igon and Nettie Justice, both residents of Dow City were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage in Denison Monday forenoon at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. C. E. Hamilton performing the ceremony. The happy couple left on the noon train for Minnesota where they will spend a week visiting relatives and upon their return will make their home at Dow City.

The marriage of Miss Faye E. Blackman of Grimes, Ia., and Paul G. Harley, of Ankeny, Iowa, took place at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, January 30, at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. J. L. Boyd officiating. The young couple were accompanied by Ora McElwain, a brother-in-law of the groom. After a short visit with relatives in this community, Mr. and Mrs. Harley will make their home on a farm near Ankeny.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heeren of this city died very suddenly early Saturday morning. The baby was just eight weeks old and while not very strong, had been very well apparently, and thus it was a very great shock to the mother to find the little one dead, on going to it early in the morning. Funeral services were held at the home Saturday afternoon at 4:00 p. m., with their pastor, Rev. J. L. Boyd in charge. The sympathy of the community goes out to the parents in their grief.

The Jefferson Bee says that when public opinion crystallizes even the white house sits up and takes notice.

"Pioneers of this section who in early days depended on twisted hay for fuel will fail to see any appalling hardship involved in the present effort to save coal," says the Sibley Tribune.

The Waterloo Times-Tribune says the biggest gambling game in this country is farming; that the farmer bets his time, money, labor and life against the weather, insect pests, trusts and storage sharks and, if he wins against those odds, must overcome railroad blockades and rate pools.

The Estherville Vindicator and Republican observes that we are now being instructed to close all the cracks around the windows and doors of our homes, to keep out the cold air, contrary to the teaching of the fresh air educational campaign which has been going on for several years. "The Vindicator and Republican believes this is going too far; that to save coal at that sacrifice is asking too much.

The Atlantic News-Telegraph considers that Secretary Baker was unfortunate in his remark that the war was "3,000 miles away." "On the contrary it is right at our doors," the News-Telegraph asserts. "It is of vital, live, compelling interest right here at home. There is no actual fighting here, but we are submitting to fuel and food regulations and are subscribing to the demands of the various war activities."

*****
KIRON ITEMS.
*****

E. E. Clauson transacted business in Odebolt between Wednesday and Thursday.

S. N. Sandstrom returned Thursday from Denison, where he served on the grand jury.

Edward Eckman spent Wednesday and Thursday at Denison looking after important business.

Jubel Mauritz went to Bronson last Thursday for a short visit.

Mrs. C. A. Larson and Mrs. Jubel Mauritz are expected home this week from a week's visit at Minneapolis.

Archie Norellus, who has been bothered for some time with appendicitis trouble, left last Wednesday together with Dr. Garner and his father, for the Conn hospital at Ida Grove, where he underwent an operation. He is reported as progressing nicely at this time.

Quite a number of our boys were at Denison the past week taking the examination for entrance into the army.

Relatives received a message on Friday of the death of A. J. Anderson at Stromsburg, Neb. Mr. Anderson and family were for many years residents in the neighborhood three and a half miles northeast of Kiron and will be remembered by all our people. He had attained the age of 80 years. Burial took place on this week Tuesday.

Jos. Hamren, of Oshon, Canada, is back in Kiron for a visit among old neighbors and friends and the scenes of former years. Mr. Hamren used to reside in this township for many years on the old homestead now owned and occupied by Mrs. Eureka Mauritz. He moved from here some twenty-six years ago, locating in Woodbury county and removed from there to Canada and expresses himself as very well pleased with that country. He has changed somewhat during these years and many of his friends failed to recognize him upon first meeting him. He also made a wonderful change has been wrought here in his former stamping grounds.

Mrs. McCullough and two children, of Storm Lake, arrived Thursday to remain during the absence of husband and father, who has been called into war service. They will make their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cronquist.

Miss Amanda Snare, after a pleasant month's visit at the home of her brother, Marvin Snare, left last week for Minneapolis, where she spends some time before returning to her home in Kirkhaven, Minn.

At the directors meeting of the Home State bank held last week a committee was appointed to take steps for a new bank building. The lot was purchased on which the present bank building now stands and a new building will be erected on the same.

Grandpa Bjorkvall is reported as improving and is slowly gaining in health which is good news to relatives and friends.

Abel Berglund advertises a sale on the Wright farm four miles south of Kiron on Thursday, February 14th. He is closing out his stock and machinery as he will move to Alcester, S. D., where he has rented a farm.

Oscar Johnson recently went to Omaha and while there enlisted in the aviation corps and left at once for the training camp. It was quite a surprise to his folks and many friends.

The team of Joseph Hassen sold at public sale Saturday afternoon on the street for $250, Roy Eckman being the purchaser. Mr. Hassen left Monday for his newly acquired home on the Alamo tract in the Rio Grande valley, Texas. During the past years he has sold thousands of dollars worth of goods to people around here and his usual rounds will be missed.

Eldridge Clauson returned last week from his visit with relatives at Holdrege, Neb. While there he met Rev. Irvin Johnson and wife and found them contented in their new home and field of labor.

E. E. Clauson left Monday with a crowd of twenty on an excursion trip to San Juan, Texas.

Joe Hassen arrived Sunday from Ft. Madison and accompanied his father, Joseph Hassen, to San Juan, Texas, to make his home.

C. A. Dolk left Monday with a party of landseekers for the Rio Grande valley, Texas.

Renew your Review subscription before March 1 and save 50c.

"There's plenty of coal in the ground and plenty of miners to dig it," says the Britt Tribune, "but there are so many commissions and middlemen that they get in each other's way. If we could burn a hundred officials a month there would soon be plenty of coal."

The man in the old torture chamber who saw the walls gradually coming nearer and about to squeeze him, did not have anything on the old rounder who learns of one state after another ratifying the prohibition amendment.

The J. W. Miller, Jr., Real Estate Agency reports the following sales the past week:

The A. D. Servoss residence property on Railroad Avenue and Church street to Mrs. Anna Losch of Buck Grove. Consideration $4,000.00. Possession March 1, 1918.

The R. Knaut, of West Broadway to E. S. Metcalf of Denison. Possession March 1, 1918. Mr. Metcalf will build a new modern home on this lot next summer.

"Dear Friend: You asked me if you could send me anything . . . if you love your country send me some Bull Durham tobacco"

Writes Bugler John F. Annubis "D" Co.,—Infantry American Expeditionary Force

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM TOBACCO

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. INCORPORATED

The Smoke of a Nation

IF YOU HAVE NEVER USED OUR Hygenic Tooth Paste TRY IT--You Will Find it a Delightful Dentifrice One of the Many Things Sold Exclusively at the Schlumberger PHARMACY

LADIES, YOU CAN SAVE MONEY BY BUYING SHOES OF ME

I have just received a shipment of Novelty Shoes, made up in five different styles that will please the most exacting. This shipment is not a bargain lot, but was manufactured by one of the leading shoe factories of the country. The style is correct and the material and workmanship is of the best. They are high cut, with high heels and come in Mahogany, Black and Tan. A few pairs with cloth tops. Some are made with steel arch supports and flexible soles.

SHOES For Men

A full line of Men's Dress and Work Shoes in stock at all times at prices that are hard to duplicate. If you want good shoes at honest prices better look over my stock before you buy.

English Walking Shoes, rubber soles and heels.

Save from $3 to $5 per pair

$5.50, $6.00, $6.50

Complete Line of Children's Shoes.

Remember, that I conduct a shoe repair shop and can do all mending on short notice. Price reasonable.

YOURS FOR BETTER SHOES AT HONEST PRICES.

W. M. PETCOFF, in Review Building

DENISON, IOWA

Public Auction

BEING forced to quite the blacksmith business, on account of an accident which has incapacitated me from heavy manual labor, I am forced to close out the business and will sell in Deloit, on Saturday, February 16th,

Commencing at one o'clock p. m.

Entire Stock and all my Tools

I will sell my complete blacksmith outfit, consisting of 8-horse gas engine on truck, No. 16 power drill, disc roller, Just Right plow roller, saw frame--two blades--anvil, vises, forge, lineshaft, pulleys and belting, feed grinder--will grind shelled or ear corn. Emery stand and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Blacksmith Shop and Lots

Will sell at same time the blacksmith shop building and lots upon which it is built. Legal description of lots, etc. given day of sale.

TERMS: All sums of $10, and under cash. On sums over that amount a credit of one year's time will be given on approved notes bearing 8 per cent.

G. H. Hempel

MALONE BROS., Aucts.

GUY MARTIN, Clerk