Lieut. Marcus E. Jones Married To-Day

Son of Well Known Denison Banker Weds Miss Adelaide Harter, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Lieut. Marcus E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones, of Denison, will be married today at Syracuse, N. Y., to Miss Adelaide Harter, a resident of that city. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones and daughters, Louise, Eunice and Dorothy, left Monday morning for Syracuse to be in attendance at the wedding. The groom is one of Denison's most popular young men and was born and raised here in Denison. He graduated from the high school here and later attended the university at Syracuse, and it was while there he became acquainted with Miss Harter, whose father is a professor in the university. Marcus enlisted on May 15, 1917, and entered the officers training camp at Madison Barracks, N. Y., and received a commission as second lieutenant. He is now stationed at Metuchen, New Jersey, and is expected to be called for over-seas duty in the very near future. His many Denison friends will be pleased to learn of this happy event and extend hearty congratulations with best wishes for many years of happiness and prosperity.

"Even at that, we believe we prefer a tornado to a cyclone," remarks the Boone News Tribune. "Everybody ought to commend Governor Harding," declares the Mason City Globe Gazette, "for attempting to make the American language taught and used in Iowa these days." "The forces of John Barleycorn are mobilizing and will put up what fight they can," asserts the Knoxville Express. "They are in no shape for a drive, but will try to hold enough positions to prevent national prohibition." The Davenport Democrat believes that "here in America we have been doing well to regulate our eating so as to save and help the allies, but we have not yet been tasting the privations of war as they have been visited upon them." The Council Bluffs Nonpareil declares that "the patriotic people of this country who are demanding that the language of this country shall be more generally used are all right. If we are going to build up an American nation here we must speak the language."

Stop Corn Agony In Four Seconds

Use "Gets-It"—See Corns Peel Off "The relief that 'Gets-It' gives from corn-pains—the way it makes corns and calluses peel off painlessly in one piece—is one of the wonders of the world. The woman in the home, the shopper, the dancer, the foot traveler, the man in the office, the clerk in the store, the worker in the shop have today, in this great discovery, "Gets-It," the one sure, quick relief from all corn and callus pains—the one sure, painless remover that makes corns come off as easily as you would peel a banana. It takes 2 seconds to apply "Gets-It"; it dries at once. Then walk with painless joy, even with tight shoes. You know your corn will loosen from your foot—peel it off with your fingers. Try it, corn sufferers, and you'll smile! "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Denison and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by R. Knaut.
