

DEATH VISITS AT VAIL HOME

Mrs. Stephen Kiniry, Aged 87 Years, Passes Away on Tuesday, July 9th at Vail Home.

WAS MOTHER OF SIX CHILDREN
Husband Preceded Her to the Grave Twenty-four Years Ago—Long Time Settler Near West Side

VAIL, July 15—Special The Review—Mrs. Stephen Kiniry passed away Tuesday, July 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the age of 87 years, 11 months and 7 days. She was born in County Clare, Ireland, Aug. 2, 1830. Her maiden name was Margaret O'Dea and she was the second oldest child of a family of eight and the last surviving member. At the age of 20 she left Ireland and coming to this country resided for a time at Miland, Ill. In 1863 she was united in marriage to Stephen Kiniry at Rock Island, Ill. About 45 years ago she came to this county and resided for a few months at West Side. Seven years ago she moved to Vail and has since made this place her home. Her husband passed away 24 years ago. Mrs. Kiniry was the mother of six children, three boys and three girls, namely: Stephen, who died seven years ago; Margaret, who died when but two years old, and John, Mame and Mrs. J. B. Costello, of this place, and Joe, of Alberta, Can. Mrs. Kiniry was a very active woman for one of her years and was enjoying good health up until two years ago when she was taken sick with pneumonia from which she never fully recovered, and which left her with a cough that resulted in her death. Her chief interest in life was her family, but she always had a cheerful word and smile for her friends and was always glad to meet and greet them. Her memory for one of her age was wonderful and once a friend of hers meant always a friend. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at St. Ann's church. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Murphy who preached the sermon, paying a high tribute to the good character of the deceased. Burial was made in St. Ann's cemetery by the side of her husband. Her four nephews, Thomas and Martin Conway, Daniel and Jim Maack and her two cousins, John Meehan and Michael O'Brien, were the pall bearers. Relatives here from a distance to attend the funeral were Tom Conway and wife and Mart Conway and wife, of Reynolds, Ill.; Tom, Jim and Lizzy Maack, of Viola, Ill.; Mrs. Pat Horn, of Matherville, Ill.; Mrs. John McManus, of Preemption, Ill.; Misses Mary and Catherine Conway, of Reynolds, Ill.; Mrs. Jim McManus, of Oledo, Ill.; Daniel Maack and wife and Mrs. John Maack, of Corning; Mrs. Mary O'Brien and Mrs. Ute; Mrs. Emil Norman, of Dunlap; and J. B. Costello and daughter, of Hamerville, S. D. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the sorrowing relatives.

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Party of Seventy Gather at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schafer, of Paradise Township.

PICNIC PARTY AT COON GROVE.

Jolly Crowd Brave Threatened Rain to Attend Sunday Outing—Noonday Luncheon—Games.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather about fifty picnickers gathered at Coon Grove on last Sunday. The light showers in the morning made the grove unsuitable so an adjoining pasture was used instead. Coffee was boiled over a bonfire, George Lambert acting as chef. Automobile cushions, rugs and newspapers were requisitioned to protect the diners from the wet ground. Dinner was served cafeteria style. The cattle seemed to resent the intrusion of the picnickers and frequently came in on the picnic party. The youngsters found no trouble and much enjoyment in keeping them at bay. Jack Meehan entertained the gathering with some clever sleight of hand work, while the young people enjoyed themselves in the usual picnic games. The invitations were issued by the Misses Meehan and Houlihan.

FOOLISH FEARS OF BACILLI

Quite Possible to Have Too Lively an Imagination, and Thus Shorten One's Life.

It is impossible for a person of imaginative temperament to read without a tremor the pronouncement of the medicine men that door knobs and the like are teeming with bacterial life and dripping with microbes. As the mind fills in the details of the picture, the horrors multiply. To board a street car becomes an operation fraught with extreme peril, for the hand that grasps the handle claps a handful of germs. Consequently Mr. Imagination walks to work, and arriving late, seizes the knob of his office door only to let go appalled with the thought that the bacilli upon its shining surface are more numerous than the inhabitants of the globe. Braving the dangers that lurk in the lunch hour, he approaches the polished brass handle of the restaurant door with a shudder as he pictures it swarming with enemies, like a hive with bees. In the spite of the invisible empire of disease that dog his steps, poison his peace of mind, and scare him stiff. Pretty soon he takes to his bed, and after a while he finds in a nice, anti-septic cemetery an opening for which he is fitted. But Mr. Night Hawk, the policeman, who tries the door knob of every store on his beat at least once a night, and who doesn't know a microbe from a bathrobe, lives to a ripe old age.

CONSTANT FIGHT WITH FLIES

Camera Men Bothered With the Pests, Which Persist in Circling in Front of the Lens.

Flies give the technical department of the movie companies some of their hardest battles, writes Robert Wagner in the Saturday Evening Post. Flies are worse camera hogs than actors; they wouldn't be so bad if they'd stay at the table and eat, but between courses they up and fly in droves all round the camera, just to be in the close-ups, and when they pass directly in front of the lens they take on the proportions of buzzards.

When we stage a banquet scene it is a banquet—not pasteboard eats, such as they have on the stage, but the real Peruvian doughnuts. And when one of these great open-air feasts—for, alas, our banquet halls are usually shy two or more wits—is announced and the diners sit down to their happy feed they soon discover that every fly from as far north as Inyo county is also in attendance. As wicked as it seems to use poison gases at a banquet, we often have to do it just to keep the flies out of our artistic ointment. It was because these creatures liked burnt sugar so much that we had to give up that sticky camouflage for our strong waters; our Martins are now drier than every.

ORIGIN OF "MACHIAVELLIAN."

A favorite epithet for centuries, the word "Machiavellian" has seen tireless service since the beginning of the present war as an adjective to be hurled at rulers who are accused of being treacherous and dishonorable. The adjective is derived from the name of Niccolo Machiavelli of Florence, Italy, who died in 1527. Machiavelli, famous as an author, wrote a book, "The Prince," in an endeavor to prove that, for the establishment and maintenance of government, any means might be resorted to, no matter how treacherous, unlawful, or dishonorable. "The ruler would be justified in using these forces," the author argued, because he would only be pitting them against similar traits of wickedness and treachery in his people. Machiavelli was a friend of popular government, and for several centuries there were a few who argued that "The Prince" did not truly represent his principles, but in reality was a satire on rule by despots. The dispute was set at rest in 1810, however, by the discovery of a letter written by Machiavelli. The author said he wrote the book for the private reading of the Medicis, an Italian family of great wealth and power, because he desired to curry favor with them, and he had no idea the book was to be published. —People's Home Journal.

BIRDS' SHOWER BATH.

Nature first provided shower baths for the birds, and man unintentionally later added another variety of shower for "the little brother of the air." Nature's gift is the dew. Early in the morning, when twigs, leaves and grass are dripping with the rainbow-drops, the birds dart back and forth, under and above and all around them, causing the dew to drop on their feathers. Then they poise in a secure limb and fluff and preen their feathers, all the time singing or chirping in contentment. Man's gift is the hose. When the water is playing over the garden, the birds delight to hop around where the spray will fall upon them, or among the drenched plants which drip cool refreshment upon the songsters.

UNCONSCIOUS BACKING UP.

"The author you seem to be so fond of, Maria, orders the king's English."

"How can you say so, pa? I think his style is perfectly killing." —Exchange.

Irregular Intervals. The Dispensary Intern—There. Take a teaspoonful of this directly after each meal and you'll soon feel all right. The Poet—Do you think two or three doses a week will be enough?

MANY ENJOY PIANO RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Grace Schlumberger Render Excellent Program at the Club Rooms Monday Night

MERIT OF TEACHER DISPLAYED

Are Now Planning for a Fall Recital When a Number of New Students Will Participate.

Monday evening of this week was a pleasant one for the guests of Miss Grace Schlumberger and her piano pupils who were invited to the library club rooms to enjoy a piano recital. The program was an excellent one and the skill displayed by the pupils attested the merit of their teacher, Miss Schlumberger. We are printing the program which will be of interest to friends of both teacher and pupils: The Lovely Month of May... Beryl Faul The Doll Dream... Ruth Freese The Doll Sleeps... The Doll Dreams... The Doll Awakens and Dances... Love's Awakening, Katharine Vennink Clover Waltz... Lena Petersen Cuckoo... Minnie Petersen Alba (Nevin)... Margaret Kinney Buonna Notte... Erna Salomon Song... Elsie Heiden Withering Leaves... Gladys Lewis Pansy Valse... Lillie Varn Massa's in the 'Golf' Ground... Horha Mundi Barcarolle... Marcella McCarthy Off to War... Mildred Romans Right and Left March... Helen Duncan Waltz... Hattie Duncan Love's Avowal... Walter Freese Song... Mrs. Marks Blue Beard... Ruby Finemra Red Roses... Irene Rusterholz Wild Rose... Viola Kuhl Romance... Lillian Scott Patriotic Song... Marcella McCarthy Con Amore... Marie Weiss The Dreamer... Lillian Finemra Valse in B flat... Caroline Kirohoff Waltz... Tisbe Heiden Valse Chromatique... Frances Leahy The following will appear in the fall recital: Jenny McCaffry, Ruth Tucker, Clara Blume, Hertha Blume, Warren Stadford, Elsie Witt, Marie Anderson, Freddie Holz, Marie Holst, Virginia Shields, Herbert Fitch, Beulah Drake, Lillie Stensen and Miss Brandt.

WORLD TRAVELER A GREAT SCHOLAR THRILLING STORY

Lewis T. Guild, Who Has Traveled All Over Europe and Asia, Coming to Chautauqua to Deliver His Masterful Lecture on the Everlasting Eastern Question—A Real Message.

CRESCENT AND CROWN

The magnificent lecture to be delivered at Chautauqua by Lewis T. Guild is altogether unique and of especial interest just now. He will discuss from personal observation and study the eternal eastern question and its relation to the present world war.

Dr. Guild has traveled extensively. He has journeyed throughout Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, England and Scotland. He has visited most of the historic shrines of the old world, drinking in their spirit. He believes that the great world war will reduce us to a few great mental and religious fundamentals, chief of which we may have lightly esteemed before. His recent investigations in Bulgaria and his association with Russian business interests have given him a remarkable fund of information of wonderful interest to all. He is a speaker of rare gifts in eloquence and thrills his audience with the highest flights of patriotic ardor. Dr. Guild will deliver one of the very substantial addresses of the entire Chautauqua.

THE CHAUTAUQUA THIS SEASON ABOUNDS IN PATRIOTISM, BOTH IN THE MUSICAL AND SPEAKING FEATURES.

Prof. Homer Seerly, president of the State Teachers' college at Cedar Falls, addressed the teachers at the summer session of the college at the regular chapel hour this morning.

Professor Seerly is a very able speaker and had a real message to deliver along the lines of education and the war. An opportunity was given to the business men of Denison to meet Professor Seerly at dinner served at the dormitory this noon.

The latest conservation item is that the tramp element have agreed to have soapless days.

The people who find it too hot to attend church through the summer are often the same ones who kick because the church is a failure.

Don't try to play bridge at the summer resorts with strangers unless you can tell who has every four spot after four hands are played.

The school teachers whom we all envy for their long and restful vacations, are now largely doing housework in their mothers' kitchens for ten hours a day.

However, some idle teachers have gone into the country taking light reading in the form of a small library on psychology and apperception.

The small boy carefully located the residence of people who particularly object to noise for use July fourth.

It may be too hot to work in a comfortable office chair, but never too hot to sit out in the blazing sun to see a ball game.

Great courage is shown by the baseball crowds that hand out those sassy remarks to the umpire, as he might take hold and lick the whole bunch of them.

Dr. P. J. Brannon has been confined to his home for several days on account of an auto accident. He escaped with a number of bruises and will be as good as ever in a few days.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES. Miss Rogers, state evangelist, will conduct the service at the Baptist church on next Sunday morning.

Sunday school will follow the church service as usual. The Woman's Mission circle held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Jas. Ballentine on Wednesday afternoon.

Following the usual business session a miscellaneous program was carried out, based upon the missionary magazine topics. The Circle decided to adopt a French orphan. The plan for raising the necessary fund is for each woman to earn a dollar and an opportunity will be given at a picnic to be held in August for the women to report just how they earned their dollars.

The young ladies who attended the national convention of the B. Y. P. U. at Cedar Rapids last week reported the sessions at the church service on last Sunday morning. Their reports displayed not only the help they had received from the meetings, but proved their ability to pass the good on to others. The delegates to the convention were Misses Ione and Erma Johnson and Bula Hover.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES. The pastor will not be able to go to Camp Dodge until the 29th of the month, as he must attend an important church meeting at Council Bluffs next week. He would be glad to have addresses of Crawford county boys who are at Camp Dodge.

JULY CLEARANCE SALES

That Encourage Economy

THE first two weeks of the July Clearance Sales were marked by the same eager and enthusiastic throngs as always attend the July Sales at this store. These July Sales bring their annual advantages once more in the same generous measure as in other years. Every department is bringing forth many unusual opportunities that encourage economy. The savings will interest careful buyers.

15 Dozen Ladies' Hose at 15c a Pair      25 Dozen Women's Hose 25c a Pair

Ladies' Black Lisle weight hose—regular value 25c—Slight imperfections. Only 15 doz. pairs. While they last 15c pair.

Ribbed and Hem top light weight Summer Hose in black and white. Very special at 25c pr.

WASH GOODS AT JULY CLEARANCE PRICES

Selling of Supreme Interest by Reason of the High Character of Our Wash Fabrics

White Wash Goods

36 in. Lace Cloth at 25c yd.
Fine sheer check and striped Dimities at 25c yd.
27 in. Dotted Swiss at 25c yd.
32 and 36 in. Plaid and Checked Flaxons at 25c per yard

Flaxons, Organdies and Voiles

Very fine White Flaxons, Organdies and Voiles, 65c, 75c and 85c values.—An assortment of unusual patterns such that are highly favored this season—to clear at 25c per yard

Wash Skirtings

32 and 36 in. Fancy Heavy Wash Skirtings. Attractive patterns very popular this season. 65c and 75c values at 48c per yard

Silk Striped Voiles

Plain and Brocaded Silk Striped Voiles, 36 and 40 in/ wide in the much wanted shades and combinations, 95c, $1.00, $1.15 and $1.25 values, July Clearance Price 69c per yard

FOR "OUR BOYS" IN THE SERVICE

If he is serving the colors or expects to be called here are many useful articles and garments of interest to the Soldier Boy.

If you have any one in Uncle Sam's Army or Navy Fly a Service Flag.

This store has a very good assortment of silk and wool service flags to select from.

Knit something for Yourself or for Some Boy Over There.

We have a complete stock of fine Wool Yarns, and can provide you on a moment's notice, with the number of hanks you require for the garment you wish to make. Army and Navy colors.

Khaki Extra Weight Sweater Yarn .....$1.15 per hank
Khaki Regular Weight Sweater Yarn ..... .95 per hank
Khaki Mixed Yarn ..... .95 per hank
Light Grey and Light Natural Sweater Yarn... .60 per hank

Toilet articles such as tooth paste, shaving cream and powder, tooth brushes and soaps. Steel pocket mirrors and many other articles no need of mentioning.

See Window Display of These Articles.

Watch the Windows

Watch the Windows

Watch the Windows