JUBILEE SINGERS DOWN TO DATE VOCAL MELODY AT ITS VERY BEST

Williams Jubilee Singers, Double Quartette of Cultured Negroes, Graduates of Universities and Thorough Musicians—Unexcelled in Vocal Accomplishments—A Rare Treat.

The representatives of the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua System have issued a warning to the public not to get the mistaken idea that the colored singers known as the Williams Jubilee Singers are to be classed with the ordinary jubilee companies that have been heard for generations past in this country. The public is assured that the Williams Jubilee Singers are really one of the very greatest singing organizations in the world today. It is interesting to note that they are all college graduates from Fisk university, Rust university and Oberlin and Knoxville colleges. They are all educated and cultured people. This company was organized nearly fifteen years ago, and in all that time the personnel has remained the same. Each member of the company is a soloist of ability and the program is made up of numbers by the double quartette, male and ladies' quartettes, duets, trios and solos. Their splendid repertoire ranges from the jubilee songs of the Dixie darlings to the best numbers from the great operas. Grant Williams, the organizer of the company, is one of the world's greatest impresarios. The triumphal return engagements in the large musical centers surpass in popular patronage even such music masters as Paderewski, Kubelik and John Philip Sousa. Mr. Williams took his singers abroad, where they sang one hundred and thirty concerts in London. Their European tour was a succession of triumphs wherever they went. You will hear the great operatic choruses sung as you have never heard them sung before. Your feet will tap time with the rollicking plantation melodies and you will wonder at the sweetness and power of the camp-meeting melodies sung with that spirit of religious fervor peculiar to the American Negroes.

THE COST OF WAR HOW WE RAISE IT AND WHAT IT BUYS

A Masterful Patriotic Address to Be Delivered at Chautauqua by Fred Dale Wood—A World Citizen Who Has Made Exhaustive Study by First Hand Methods.

STIRS TO PATRIOTISM

The big Chautauqua tent should be filled to overflowing when Fred Dale Wood comes with his wonderful address on "Financing the War." He is a masterful orator and will deliver an address bulging with interest and many surprises.

Fred Dale Wood has been around the world and is at home in many countries. He has been a prominent campaigner on many platforms for twenty-five years. He has a wonderful fund of information and a vocabulary that is rich and juicy. He knows the power of humor and uses it freely in driving home truths. For this Chautauqua tour Mr. Wood made a special trip to Washington, where by special permission he interviewed the heads of many departments. The result is an address of tremendous interest on war finance, the part the people play in it, and the net results achieved by the use of the money raised. He will lift you to pinnacles of patriotism and give you a still deeper love for home and country. By all means hear Fred Dale Wood.

Al Hulsebus, from near Defiance, was a visitor here Tuesday. Lute Peterson, who has been working for H. G. Neubaum since Joe Bogler was called to war, quit work there Tuesday to start threshing as harvest is in full blast. The threshing rates have been fixed as follows: Barley 4 cents, oats 6 cents and wheat 8 cents. Frank Hain is now working for H. G. Neubaum in the garage. The Misses Rogus and Geniski have been holding meetings in the Union church all week in the evening. Considering the busy season the attendance was good. Miss Mercer, county food demonstrator, was with us Thursday. The meeting was held in the basement of the restaurant and was well attended and enjoyed by all. Dinner and supper were served and all present enjoyed some of the demonstration cooking, and of course it was good. Word has been received from John Herman that he has at last joined the colors. He tried to enlist some time ago but was not accepted but was told if he would have an operation performed that they would take him. He enlisted June 27th in Sioux City and is now with the engineers at Ft. Logan, Colo. He expects to go to Florida soon. John McGrin is visiting his friend, Walter Ruff, for a few days. His home is in Neola. All the crops in this section look well except the honey crop. There will be very little honey produced in Iowa, or in fact it seems to be a failure in general over the United States. What honey there is will be a high price, which people should be willing to pay as everything else has gone up from 300 to 400 per cent. The price of honey has not yet been given out but it will not be as big a raise in proportion to other things. Services at the Catholic church were conducted by a preacher from Trinity college, Sioux City. Father Schiller, of Sioux City, who has been assigned to this parish, will take up his duties here next Sunday. Mrs. Richard Wiese is on the sick list and under the doctor's care. The lady preachers announced that meetings would be held all this week in the union church. The new threshing outfit of John Rabe arrived here Wednesday. With no more old Scotch whisky some people will see no use in having a severe cold.

Advertisement for 'The Review' newspaper. It features a large graphic of a car and the headline 'Sell That Car'. The text promotes the newspaper as a classified ad service, stating 'Right now is the time to dispose of your second-hand car. On account of the difficulty of obtaining new cars many people are buying used cars rather than wait. Prices for used cars were never higher than right now.' It also includes the slogan 'A Classified Ad in the REVIEW will put you in touch with a buyer at a cost so small as to be insignificant (one cent a word each insertion.) No better, quicker or cheaper way exists to reach the buying public in this territory. The REVIEW will take your message right into the majority of the homes of Crawford county. We'll be glad to help you prepare an effective result-producing ad.' The ad concludes with 'Just tell the phone girl 23. The Review A Worth While Newspaper' and a small illustration of a telephone receiver.
