Benjamin Harrison, Ind., writes that he is in charge of the football team there and will assist in the Liberty loan drive among the soldiers stationed there. Percy Cavett has sent his parents an interesting display of war trophies which he picked up on the battlefields of France. The assortment consists of a German helmet, hand grenades, cartridge boxes, buttons and chevrons from German uniforms and a parachute which is used to send up flares to light No Man's Land. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson will move here from Schleswig this week, and will make their home here, having rented rooms in the McKim hall recently occupied by the C. W. Smith family. Bostough received the latter part of the week from their son, Glenn, advising them that he had landed safely in France after a most pleasant voyage. Some of the candidates for office persist in discussing economy and efficiency, instead of getting next to the boys in the hangouts. Of course what Kaiser Bill says today doesn't agree with what he said yesterday, but then it is less majestic for the German people to remember what he said yesterday. Success is reported in many places from school gardens, but the yield depends not so much on the fertilizer as on being within brick throwing distance of your own back windows. Although the use of pleasure automobiles may be entirely forbidden to save gas, no one has suggested taking those 100 mile bicycle runs that we used to think were such hot stuff. Some one wants to know what should be done to the motorist who won't co-operate in gas saving? Well, one good place for them would be the trenches with hun airplanes overhead and American planes all tied up for lack of gas.

some time here as cook in the Commercial hotel, left for Denison Monday, where she has accepted a position in the Merchants hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burk, of Battle Creek, were here on Saturday evening visiting with her sister, Mrs. Otto Hollander, and family. Schleswig is to be without a dairy business for a while it seems, or until some one else starts up the business, as Thos. Hollander, who has been conducting the business the past year, will retire this week. It is to be regretted that he will quit. The high school then sang "America," after which Mayor Schultz introduced the first speaker of the evening, Rev. Robert Karr, of Denison, who spoke of the Y. M. C. A. and its work. After this the mayor then called upon Attorney Leon W. Powers, of Denison, to give a short talk and then asked Theo. Rohwer to talk upon the Liberty loan question, after which the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the high school. After the meeting was closed six young ladies, Misses Hattie and Selma Bendixen, Helma Lafrantz, Harriet Reinking, Etta Petersen and Loretta Schmidt, passed among the crowd carrying a large flag in which to take up a collection for the Welfare club of Schleswig and the Y. M. C. A. and over $140 was freely given. After this the crowd went to the opera house to spend a few hours dancing and in a social way. Music was furnished by an Onawa orchestra. During the entire evening, coffee and doughnuts were served by the ladies of the Welfare club. The proceeds of the dance and supper were to go to the Welfare club and they will amount to about $400.
