He is now serving in the navy, but was granted a furlough which he is spending visiting relatives at Dow City. Hallowe'en was quietly observed in Denison and we are glad to report that no property damage has been reported. Of course the children were out in full force with jack-o'-lanterns and played a few pranks which were of an innocent nature. Clarence Chamberlin writes his parents that he has completed his flying course at West Point, Miss., and has been recommended for overseas service. He expects to receive orders to report at Garden City, N. Y., within a few days. Friends of D. P. Phillips, who was an instructor in the high school last year, will no doubt be interested to learn that he has recently been promoted to rank of sergeant. Sergeant Phillips is located at present at Camp McClelland, Ala. Mrs. Alva Crampton was a passenger to Des Moines Saturday morning, where she visited over Sunday with her son, Raymond, who is at Camp Dodge. Raymond was stricken with influenza but is again enjoying his usual good health. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jones on Friday, November 1st, a 10 pound girl. Mother and babe are being cared for at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Emma Johnstone, of this city. Roland came from Rock Island, where he is employed in the arsenal, on Friday to get acquainted with the little miss. George Savery was up from Camp Dodge for an over Sunday visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Savery. George informs us that the epidemic of flu has subsided at the camp and the quarantine is now lifted. For two weeks he assisted in caring for those who contracted the disease and fortunately escaped from catching it himself. Mrs. B. M. Lockard departed Friday evening for Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., where her husband, Capt. B. M. Lockard, is stationed. Captain Lockard has received his orders for overseas duty and expects to leave in the very near future. Mrs. Lockard will return to Denison, remaining here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Temple, until his return.

Howard has been taking instruction in veterinary surgery and received his commission in that department of the army work.

Mrs. R. O. McConaughy, who has been visiting for the past month with her sister, Mrs. Wilson Kipp, at Seattle, Wash., returned home Saturday. Mrs. McConaughy returned by the way of Rochester, Minn., where she stopped over several days to consult with specialists in regard to her health. Relatives and friends of Crawford county boys now serving in France should send letters from the boys "over there" to the Review for publication. Every resident of the county has a personal pride in these brave young men and will be interested in hearing from them. Either mail or hand in the letters to the Review office. All letters will be returned. Every reader of the Review can help to make the paper more interesting by telling us items of interest. It is impossible for our reporter to secure all the news without the co-operation of the readers. If you have guests from out of town or plan a visit phone or send in the news item. Our phone is No. 23. Remember we are no further away than your telephone. Mrs. Peter Boysen and daughter, Miss Hilda, of Schleswig, were in Denison Saturday visiting friends. They had just returned from Camp Dodge. Bernard Hoyman, who had been confined in the hospital at that place for the past four weeks. They report him much better at present, and able to be up and he expects soon to be able to leave the hospital. Friends of Corporal Seth E. Elliott, a former instructor in the high school, have received word of his recent transfer from Camp Gordon, Ga., to Camp Taylor, Ky., where he will enter officers training camp in the artillery department. Corporal Elliott left Denison July 26th, and since that time has been stationed at Camp Gordon, where he soon was promoted to rank of a corporal. His friends here will be pleased to learn of his further advancement. Chester McGrath and family will move the latter part of this week to Sioux City, where he has accepted a position with the Lindholm Furniture company where he will manage their musical department. Mr. McGrath has had charge of the phonograph business for the past year or more and is considered one of the best salesmen in western Iowa. Grover Tucker, who is a member of the Rainbow division, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tucker, that it looks as if the war will be over by Christmas. He says the boys are being urged to enlist for service for six months after the war closes to help clean up the battlefields. They are being offered $120 per month for this service. Grover mailed his parents a German gas mask which is a most interesting trophy. An invitation of Mr. Meyers, who has been writing comments on the Sabbath school lesson for over twenty-five years, Rev. Hamilton of the Baptist church, gives his views this week on the lesson for the coming Sunday. We might add that our Sunday school column is one of the strong features of the Review in many homes, particularly where distance from church privileges makes what the column says about the only religious matter which comes from week to week. Announcements were received in Denison last week of the marriage of Howard Johnson to Miss Marjory Vivian Priestly, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Aberdeen, S. D., October 9th. Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Johnson, former residents of this city. He attended the public schools of Denison, completing his high school education at Redfield, S. D., where his parents moved. Howard completed a course of dentistry in Chicago. Friends of the family extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

DUNLAP ITEMS  DUNLAP, Nov. 4—(Special to the Review)—The community was terribly shocked and grieved Monday to hear of the death of Mrs. P. G. Ingersoll. She was one of the most popular young married women of the town and will be greatly missed from all circles. Her husband is the homeopathic doctor in town. She leaves a son, Donald, about twelve and two daughters, Margaret and Ruth, aged two and four. Her death was the result of a relapse from the flu. The meeting of the Womens Federation has been postponed from the middle of October to the 11th and 12th of this month. It will be somewhat harder for the club to get delegates at this time than it was earlier. Miss Bess Chandler, of near , is visiting at the home of her cousin, J. R. Roush, in the country. The entire family out there have been victims of the flu, but are convalescing nicely. Mrs. F. C. Howorth and daughter were callers at the M. B. Bailey home the first of last week. The wedding of Miss Marie Dally and Leo Cover took place the last of the week at St. Patrick's church. The young couple will make their home in Cleveland, where the groom is stationed during the war. The town has been very quiet during the quarantine although there was quite a crowd in town Saturday. Mrs. Emmett and daughter, who have been visiting here from Hagen, Mont., at the home of her father, A. K. Jones, returned to their home. Joe Speake of Dow City, was here a short time Sunday morning. Merilyn Rawlings was home from Camp Dodge on a short furlough Sunday. He is in the commissary department. The management of the Hotel Jensen closed the hotel and it is quite a proposition for the boarders to find a place to eat. The Taylor restaurant has been closed the past week or two on account of sickness and there is a question of whether they will open up again. Geo. Wettengel leaves Monday with a number of other boys to take up training at Ames. This is the second son of Frank Wettengel to go into training in the last few weeks. Leo, who went some time ago, has been transferred from Des Moines to Camp Grant. Mrs. I. Siglin, who underwent an operation at an Omaha hospital some time ago, is in a very precarious condition and unable to leave her bed. Fred Smith, who has charge of the jewelry store here, spent the week end with his family in Woodbine. Dr. Bols, who has been practicing dentistry in town for several months, will move to town soon and leave the farm where he has been living for the past year. He came to this farm a year ago from Scribner, Neb. Frank Dally is home on a furlough from a southern camp. John Trett and children are making their home with his father and mother since the death of his wife. It is hard to get even a quorum out these days to do Red Cross work on account of so much sickness. Two of the high school teachers, Misses Gepson and Tinker, who have been victims of the flu, are both getting along nicely at the present time. Miss Gepson will probably not be able to resume her school work for some time. Mrs. Preston has been in Des Moines the past few days, called by the death of a friend. She will remain several days. Miss Marie Brace has been home for a week or more, not returning when she planned on account of the illness of her parents. Donald Moore, of Omaha, spent the week end visiting friends and relatives here. He was formerly in the employ of Nels Baker. Miss Raine, of Denison, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. A. N. Jordan. Cedar Rapids Gazette: Belgium and Serbia lost everything, but had the fortitude to stick. France was bled white, but grimly held out. Italy was all but smashed, but refused to surrender and, of course, England never dreamed of anything but final victory, even in the darkest days. It remained for Germany to throw up her hands and yell for mercy when things began to go badly. Thus ever with cowards; the yellow streak always comes to the surface at the first real good belt in the jaw.

GOODRICH ITEMS  Wesley Green spent a few days out at the Winley farm. Miss Lovicle Morris and Mrs. Kuhn were Denison shoppers Wednesday. Quite a few farmers have finished corn husking and have gone to plowing. Bob and Jim Anderson of Denison were up to see their brother, Sam, and were glad to find he is able to sit up. Mrs. Willard Rickman is on the sick list. Mrs. Ben Beaman and Mrs. S. D. Newton spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winley. The Epworth League will give a handkerchief shower for Miss Hester Lingle and Miss Luella Vennick on Wednesday evening at the A. D. Winley home. They are anticipating a lovely time. HEARD IN DENISON How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected All over Denison you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good word. Denison people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. Follow this Denison citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you. Mrs. M. C. Fuller, 714 E. Broadway, says: "Recently Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and I began using them. They have acted as represented, as I have had great relief from their use. My back has become strong and the constant ache has stopped. Another of the family also praised Doan's Kidney Pills." Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Fuller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Catarrah Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrh of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrh of Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
