

DOW CITY ITEMS

Special prices on choice seeds at Dow City elevator as follows:
 Red Clover, per bu. $26.00
 Alsike Clover, per bu. 20.00
 Sweet Clover, per bu. 15.50
 Alfalfa, per bu. 13.00
 Timothy, per bu. 5.25

Call and leave your order with us.
 Dr. W. L. Reichelt has recently returned from the army and will resume the practice of dentistry at his old location just opposite the post office at Dunlap, February 5th. A hearty invitation is extended to all old patrons as well as new ones.

The annual banquet of the Palo Alto club is listed among the social functions of the past week. The affair having taken place at the home of Miss Mildred Butterworth on Friday night. At seven o'clock the guests were served with a most delicious menu, consisting of three courses. Toasts were given, Mrs. M. A. Pearsall acting the part of toastmistress. Miss Mabel Cole gave a toast on the club history. Miss Blanche Cole on the club prophecy and Miss Rosalia Scott on friendship.

A toast was also given by Mrs. Morris Griffin. The guests then assembled in the parlor where a musical program was enjoyed. Mrs. A. W. Wilson favored the company with several pretty vocal solos. Several numbers were also rendered by a quartet composed of Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Mrs. Frank Banyard, Mrs. R. E. Lusk and Miss Mildred Butterworth. Mrs. A. W. Wilson and Miss Mildred Butterworth entertained the guests with piano selections. Three contests were given in which prizes were obtained by the winners. The first was a geographical contest, Mrs. Frank Banyard receiving the prize, a box of stationery. The second was a musical contest in which Mrs. A. W. Wilson captured the prize, a sheet of music. The third was a flower contest, Miss Flora Wiggins being awarded the prize which was a book. The evening passed all too quickly and at a late hour the company reluctantly broke up, having enjoyed one of the finest of times. The out of town guests upon this occasion were Mrs. L. E. McBride, of Logan; Cyril Saunders, of Iowa City, and Bernard Fitzgibbon, of Buck Grove.

Mrs. James McBride, who had spent the week at the parental, M. G. Wiggins home, returned to Defiance Saturday, her brother-in-law, Eugene Crandall taking her over in the car.

Mrs. Dave McAllister and baby were passengers from Denison Wednesday for a several days' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Edwards, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patton and little daughter, Alice, have returned from a pleasant week's visit with relatives and friends in Omaha.

Mrs. Mott McHenry and Mrs. Enos Cross were visiting in Denison last Tuesday.

Dan Hemphill, the banker at Buck Grove, was a pleasant Dow City business caller Wednesday.

Mrs. A. H. Harper and Miss Florence Miller returned Friday from a several days' visit at the Woodford Jobe home near Dunlap. They also visited the former's brother, C. C. Boushall, and wife in Dunlap.

W. E. Fishel and wife and Mrs. W. H. Buss went down to Omaha Tuesday where they spent a couple of days.

Mrs. F. M. Arnold, Mrs. H. G. Scott, Mrs. Favorette Weatherly and Mrs. G. V. Jordan and little daughter, June, and Miss Anna Mae Bell were Denison visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. John Johnson and baby have returned from a week's visit with her folks at Blencoe.

The Red Cross ladies packed and shipped a box containing baby garments to the orphans home in Council Bluffs Wednesday. The garments were made from the goods which had been left over from the Red Cross sewing.

Miss Nellie Fishel returned to Buck Grove Sunday evening to resume her teaching in that vicinity after an absence of two weeks owing to a siege of the flu.

Gunnar Carlson came last week from South Dakota for a visit at the home of his brother, O. S. Carlson, and family south of town.

Mott McHenry was in Boone the fore part of last week to attend the funeral of a relative, Geo. Stevens. Fred Nelson was among the callers at the county seat Wednesday.

D. L. Graul, wife and children were down from Arion Wednesday visiting at the parental, J. G. Graul, home.

Rev. G. A. Barker, M. J. Breen and Chas. Smith were passengers to Omaha Thursday morning, where they spent the day.

Mrs. Will Cross, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in Denison about two weeks ago, has sufficiently recovered as to be able to leave the hospital and return to her home here the latter part of the week.

Otto Layne, the baker who has been employed here for a couple of years, severed his connections with the Butterworth grocery and bakery here last week and has gone to Council Bluffs. He is an exceptionally fine baker and all are very sorry to learn of his resignation.

Eugene Crandall spent the day last Wednesday in Omaha on business. Byrd Sams was among the callers in Denison Wednesday, as was also Merton Thomas.

Miss Lona Wiley, who has been employed in the telephone office for several months, has resigned her position, to take effect this month. Miss Vesta Riddle is to take her place.

John Ebson and wife moved from this vicinity and have now taken up their residence in Denison where they have children residing.

One day recently the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brinkman, residing on the Howarth ranch, had the misfortune to fall from a shredder and as a result sustained a broken bone in his left arm above the elbow. At present it is healing nicely, although the little fellow is compelled to carry the arm in a sling.

Private Dorris Griffin has returned to Ft. Omaha after a several days' visit with the home folks. He has been suffering with an infection of his hand and was given a few days' furlough. J. H. Boushall is making arrangements to erect buildings on the 80 acre tract of land which he recently purchased of E. N. Chamberlain south of town. The Boushall family are to make their home there.

Will Spence has been confined to his home for several days the past week owing to illness. Frank Field returned Thursday from a several days' visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Will Burke, in the Bluffs.

E. R. Butterworth, proprietor of the city grocery and bakery, was an Omaha business visitor Wednesday. While there he secured a new baker.

Mrs. Ernest Clark was hostess to the J. P. F.'s one day last week. There was a goodly number present to enjoy the pleasures of the occasion. A nice luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the day.

Robert Rule, one of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rule, arrived home on Wednesday from Camp Dodge, where he had been for a few weeks past since his return from several months of service in France. He is the second Dow City boy thus far to return from abroad.

The Linn Rood family have moved to Dow City from near Arion where they had been residing on the Martin Conroy farm, known as the former Milo Kelly property. They are occupying the Spray Malone residence vaccated some time ago by the Leon Cramer family. Mrs. Carl Kirk was a passenger from Dunlap Thursday for a visit at the parental, O. J. Judd, home.

Chas. Smith and wife returned on Friday from a visit at the Frank O'Neil home in Logan. Mrs. Smith spent a couple of days there while her husband joined her Thursday evening on his return from Omaha.

Mrs. Paul Ahrens and little son, Clifford, were here Friday from Boone making a brief visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Scott, and other relatives. Mrs. Reuben Smith has returned to her home in Dunlap after a week's sojourn at the Will Cross home. The drive for old clothing and shoes for the Belgian relief which has been on for some time, has been very successful here. Many good garments and shoes have been donated to this cause and during the past week the Red Cross ladies packed and shipped several good sized boxes to Newark, N. J.

Fred Colby and wife have made arrangements to open up a barber shop and restaurant business in Buck Grove. They expect to move to that place March 1st.

Mrs. L. E. McBride and daughter, Virgene, came up from Logan Friday evening for a week end visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Brake.

The members of the J. P. F. were delightfully entertained Thursday at the pleasant country home of Mrs. W. N. Schouten. The time was spent in a social manner and at the close of the afternoon very tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. G. Luke has returned to her home in Indianola after having spent several days here visiting friends and looking after business affairs.

IF YOUR CHILDREN ARE DELICATE OR FRAIL under-size or under-weight remember—Scott's Emulsion is nature's grandest growing-food; it strengthens their bones, makes healthy blood and promotes sturdy growth.
 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

WRIGLEYS
 The Greatest Name in Goody-Land

YOU know the realm of childhood dreams is a land of sweets.

Make some of those dreams a delightful reality by taking home WRIGLEYS frequently.

How about tonight?

SEALED TIGHT KEPT RIGHT

The Flavor Lasts!

PUBLIC SALE

Having sold my farm, we will sell at public auction, all personal property on the place, located 10 miles west and 1 mile south of Denison, 7 miles northwest of Dow City, 2 miles west 1 mile south of Kenwood, and 5 miles southeast of Charter Oak, on

Tuesday, Feb'y. 11th

Commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

7 Head Horses and Mules

Consisting of span of brown mules six and seven years old, weight 2400. This is an extra good pair of mules. Span of grey mules eight and ten years old, weight 2400; black gelding five years old, weight 1400; grey gelding seven years old, weight 1300; brown mare ten years old, weight 1000.

41 Cattle Will be Offered

Comprising nine head of milch cows, two fresh now, four will be fresh soon, two fresh in April and one later; 7 two year old heifers; 2 two year old steers; 20 spring calves; 2 young calves, and 1 Angus bull 2 years old

23 Hampshire Bred Sows

All bred to a pure bred Hampshire boar; 52 spring sows; 25 fall pigs. In good thrifty condition.

Machinery, Wagons, Cultivators

3 wagons with boxes; hog rack; single buggy; disc with tongue truck; 24 foot harrow; force feed Sterling seeder, new; John Deere 13 inch stag gang plow; 16 inch stubble plow; John Deere No. 999 corn planter; 2 walking cultivators; riding cultivator; John Deere binder with 7 foot tongue truck; Deering mower, new; hay rake; Deere manure spreader, new; 2 O. K. hog waterers; hog troughs; emery stone; new wheel barrow and other articles.

About 4 tons tame hay; about 400 bushels corn; stack oat straw; 3 sets 1 1-2 inch harness, extra good; 2 sets 1 1-4 inch harness, extra good; 1 buggy harness; 3 sets fly nets; DeLaval cream separator; barrel churn.

Eight Dozen Rhode Island Chickens

ALL HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE: 2 9x12 rugs and a number of smaller ones; 1 brass bed; 2 iron beds; 1 sanitary couch; Majestic range; 12 foot table; complete dining room set; new kerosene stove.

TERMS: All sums of $10 and under, cash. On sums over that amount a credit of one year's time will be given on approved security bearing 8 per cent interest from date. All property to be settled for before removal from premises. FREE LUNCH AT NOON

Wm. Antrim and H. Perry

Owners

MALONE BROS., Auctioneers. EMILL HUGG, Clerk

Farm to be Sold at Auction

On the above date will sell the farm known as the Antrim farm and described as follows: The SE 1-4 and SE 1-4 of NE 1-4 Section 13, Willow township, and the W 1-2 of SW 1-4, Section 18, Paradise township. This is one of Willow township's best farms, and is well improved. Good 7 room house, barn 40x60, double corn crib, chicken house, hog house, good cattle shed. All fenced and cross fenced. It will be sold on very liberal terms, made known on day of sale. 5-2t

Malone Brothers, Auctioneers

Mince Pie
 "The Mother Used to Make" is only one of the many good things that can be made with

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT

Send for Illustrated Recipes
 Merrell-Soule Co., Syracuse, N.Y.

FARM LOANS

We are now prepared to make Farm Loans to the amount of $100 an acre on first mortgage at a low rate of interest. No commission. Long terms. Call and see us.

Abstracts of Title Made and Examined, Real Estate and Insurance

Commercial Bank

Denison, Iowa
 J. W. MILLER, JR., CASHIER

H. T. BLIESMAN (also) for sale or exchange Bliesman Land Co. M. H. KROPP, City Property Loans & Insurance Denison, Iowa