

DOW CITY ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dethlefsen were over from Kenwood Friday to attend the memorial services held for her brother, Louis Miller.

Communion services were held in the Methodist church Sunday morning when the new individual communion set was used for the first time. The sermon for this occasion was delivered by Rev. W. T. Rink at the close of which he administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The congregation had the pleasure of listening to a vocal solo by Chas. Helsley of Denison. A special feature of the evening service was a fine talk by Frank Banyard who recently returned from France. He gave many interesting accounts of his military life, also telling of the customs of the French people, etc. Only shortly before the signing of the armistice, Frank with his company had received orders to go to the front. Preceding his address, Sunday evening, he favored the audience with a vocal selection which was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Ethel Cole was among the Denison visitors Monday. Relatives here have received word to the effect that Elias Edwards has arrived in New York from service abroad. It is also understood that Albert Starkey reached New York at the same time.

The Lyceum committee met in a business session Friday evening at the school house. Several business matters pertaining to the lecture course held the past winter were transacted. Mrs. E. H. Swasey, Mrs. H. G. Scott, and Mrs. R. E. Lusk were appointed as a committee to select the play ground equipment. It was found that the net proceeds contained in the treasury from the lecture course amounted to about $78, which will be used for the purchasing of the play ground equipment. Several arrangements were made for the lecture course to be given the coming winter. Mrs. H. G. Scott, Mrs. R. E. Lusk, and Mrs. E. H. Swasey were selected as a committee to take charge of the sale of season tickets; they to appoint whom they choose to assist them. The course next winter is to be given by the Redpath-Vawter company and it will consist of five numbers as follows: Ladies' Spanish Orchestra, Silent Mora, the Magician, Moryl Buckley, the American Girls' Trio, and the Bonnie Brooke company.

A. W. Wilson has secured Mr. S. Varend to assist him in the barber shop in the place of Mr. Johnson who resigned a few weeks ago. Mr. Varend has just returned from Camp Cody, N. Mexico, where he received his discharge from the service. Miss Janet Rao was a pleasant hostess at a dinner party Saturday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Helsley of Denison. Those invited to partake of the repast were: Rev. W. T. Rink, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banyard and the Misses Marie Helsley, Martha Weiss, and Fernie Kingery. The event was appreciated very much by all present.

R. W. Tech and wife were visiting with relatives in Charter Oak Friday. W. W. Clark and wife have been enjoying a visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moffit of Minnesota the past week.

The Baptist prayer meeting will be held Thursday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. T. E. Allen, beginning at 8:30. The time of the Sunday evening services has also been changed and will be held hereafter at 8:30 instead of 8:00.

Miss Elizabeth Leuck left Saturday for Excelsior Springs, Mo., she having accompanied her sister, Mrs. M. J. Breen there.

Fred Christiansen was among the Denison callers Thursday. William Toon went to Mapleton last week to spend some time with relatives.

Miss Bernice Judd was a passenger to Council Bluffs Saturday where she made a brief sojourn.

Miss Lottie Coleman who had been spending several days with the A. K. and Fred Coleman families, went over to Charter Oak the latter part of the week for a visit at the Clay Killon home before returning to her home in Carson.

On Tuesday of this week W. C. Rolls opened his meat market in the building where he had conducted a restaurant known as the Lincoln Highway Cafe for many years. For the past month or more, he has been engaged in installing the fixtures for his new business. He will also conduct a confectionery department in connection. Paul Miller, of Sigourney, who is an experienced butcher, has been secured by Mr. Rolls to assist in the market.

Mott McHenry, wife and son, James and Aunt Mary McHenry were down from Denison Saturday visiting with friends.

F. Rudd and wife were passengers to Council Bluffs Monday where they made a short visit with Mrs. A. H. Radd.

Mrs. C. J. O'Meara was in Denison Saturday to which place she accompanied Mrs. Enos Cross, who had her tonsils removed.

Mrs. Hunt returned to Omaha Saturday after a visit at the Dow hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bonsall and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Little and Mrs. A. H. Harper were entertained Sunday at the C. C. Bonsall home in Dunlap.

R. W. Houston was a business caller in Omaha one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riddle entertained the following guests at Sunday dinner: Miss Ora Butterworth of Logan, and the Misses Flora Wiggins, Lola Fishel and Hilda Turnlund of this place.

Robert Rule was a passenger to Denison Sunday evening.

T. K. Coleman is the owner of a fine new auto truck.

G. W. Langley was stricken with paralysis the fore part of the past week, which affected his throat. He is very glad to state that he is now able to be about again after being confined to the house for several days.

Mrs. F. C. Buss was hostess to the G. H. C's including a few invited friends Saturday afternoon. The pleasures of the day were enjoyed to the fullest extent by each one present, especially the dainty luncheon which concluded the occasion.

Miss Marie Coleman spent the Sabbath day at the home of her friend, Mr. Leslie Hein near Dunlap.

William Honz was a caller at the county seat Saturday.

Hudson McHenry was a caller in town Saturday from Wall Lake.

Miss Lisle Goldsworthy returned to Marming Sunday evening after a week end visit at the parental, J. T. Goldsworthy home.

Mrs. Warren Ettleman and baby and Miss Mary Staller were visiting in Denison Thursday.

Elder Chas. E. Butterworth was in Denison Sunday where he conducted preaching services at the L. D. S. church.

Wm. Sharp was a visitor at the county capital Saturday.

A business meeting of the officers and teachers of the Baptist Sunday school was held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Harper Friday evening for the purpose of re-arranging some of the classes. Miss Josephine Munsey's class was divided and Mrs. T. E. Allen has been secured to take some of the pupils of this class.

Rev. G. A. Barker, who has been teaching the adult class, will hereafter have the junior boys class and Mrs. Anna Williams is to teach the adult class.

J. H. Killon spent the greater part of the past week in Omaha with his wife who is still there, being treated for her eyes.

The Baptist Missionary circle will meet in regular monthly session Saturday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Augusta Carlson. The lesson will be on the study of Africa. A special feature is being planned for this occasion in the way of a pageant entitled "The Wife That Cost Ten Cows," which is to be put on by several children.

Mrs. Nelson Butterworth, Miss Ruth Swasey, Mrs. Frank Binnall and little daughter, Francella, and Misses Dora Thompson, Ruby Keairnes and Una Adams were Denison visitors Friday.

The Steve Carbaugh family, who have been occupying the David Walters residence for several weeks, vacated the same last week when they moved into the residence of Mrs. Ada Wheelright made vacant some time ago by John Edwards, Jr.

An item which we overlooked last week was an Easter breakfast given by Miss Erma Chamberlain. The repast consisted of four elegant courses and the occasion was enjoyed immensely by each guest. Those present were Misses Lisle Goldsworthy, Ruth Swasey, Nellie Fishel, Berenice Judd, Adelaide Potter, Fanchon Willey, Anna Mae Bell and Balbina Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bonsall and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Little motored to Mapleton Saturday.

Arlo Moeller was a passenger to West Side Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit with his parents.

Clarence Tucker, of Woodbine, was a business caller in town Friday.

Wilber Thomas came home last Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the parental, E. L. Thomas, home.

Chas. Helsley and wife were down from Denison spending Saturday and Sunday at the home of Miss Janet Rae.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keairnes, Mrs. S. E. Wiley, M. A. Pearsall and B. M. McElwain were among those from Dow City in attendance at the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows held at Denison Friday evening.

Friday afternoon Mrs. P. J. Hallowell entertained the Friday club at her pleasant country home. The time was spent in the usual way, with handwork and sociability. There was a good attendance of the membership, several invited friends also being present to participate in the pleasures of the afternoon. The hostess served a most delicious luncheon at the close of the day.

Mrs. Milo Kelly was down from Denison Sunday, a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Zeph Menhold.

Mrs. Lillie Shumate came up from Dunlap Saturday to spend some time at the G. V. Jordan home on account of the illness of Mrs. Jordan who is still very poorly. The trained nurse is still in attendance.

Misses Adelaide Potter, Eva Roy and Ruby Baber were Denison visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Lew Wright and daughter were Dow City callers Friday from Arion.

Dr. Cable, the district superintendent of Council Bluffs, was a pleasant visitor at the home of Rev. W. T. Rink and wife Saturday. That evening he went to Denison, where he occupied the Methodist pulpit Sunday morning and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The county supervisors were down from Denison last week to examine the bridge near the Frank McHenry place, which has begun to cave in as a result of the heavy rainstorms of the past week.

Hans Bohner and wife are the parents of a baby son, born to them on Thursday, April 17th.

A. T. Larson and wife motored up from Missouri Valley Saturday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Adolph Honz, and family. Monday morning Mr. Larson went to Ames for a short visit with his son, Albert, and daughter, Mabel, who are attending school there, also to take in the stock exhibition.

Chas. Smith celebrated his birthday anniversary Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wilson and two children were guests at dinner at the Smith home on this occasion, it being also Mrs. Wilson's birthday. This day too marked the birthday anniversary of Mrs. R. E. Lusk, but on account of being out of town the latter was unable to be present. Dr. J. A. Brill, wife and two children were invited guests at the birthday dinner.

Chas. Christiansen was down from Denison Sunday visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Bybee, and family.

Enos Cross went to Denison Monday to accompany his wife home, the latter having spent a few days there recuperating from her operation for the removal of tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark were in Denison Sunday visiting Miss Bertha Aeberhardt.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. which was to have been held on May first, has been postponed until Thursday of next week, May 8th.

Leslie M. Shaw, former resident of this city, now residing at Washington, D. C., will engage in Chautauqua work this summer. Word has been received here that he has recently signed a contract with the Redpath-Vawter system covering a period of several months. Mr. Shaw will commence his lectures in the south in the near future and his work brings him to Iowa, Nebraska and Wisconsin.

Send us your news. Otto Vosgerau, one of the owners of the Buletin, was operated upon last Thursday at the Denison hospital. The operation was of a serious nature but was successful and he is now on the road to recovery. It will probably be some time before he will be able to be up and around again.

Several members of the I. O. O. F. of this city were in Omaha Saturday attending the 100th anniversary of the founding of the order which was celebrated in every country of the world on that date. Those from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bilsman, Enoch Olson, Otto Andre, Herman Andre and Dr. L. A. Larsen. Odd Fellows from Iowa and Nebraska attended the meeting which was largely attended. Grand Sire Henry V. Borst, of Amsterdam, N. Y., head of the order of the world, addressed members at a meeting held at the auditorium in the afternoon. The Denison delegates saw the one hundred and fifteen Belgian soldiers who paraded the streets of Omaha at noon in the interests of the Victory Loan.

STATISTICS OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUG. 26, 1912. Of The Denison Review, published weekly at Denison, Iowa, for April, 1919. State of Iowa, County of Crawford, ss. Before me, a notary in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared R. P. Conner, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Denison Review and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the act of Aug. 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, postal laws and regulations, printed on the reverse side of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, Review Publishing Co., Denison, Iowa.

Editor, R. P. Conner, Denison, Iowa. Managing Editor, J. P. Conner, Denison, Iowa. Business Manager, R. P. Conner, Denison, Iowa. 2. That the owners are: Review Publishing Co. (Inc.), Denison, Iowa. A corporation, all of the stock of which is owned by J. P. Conner, Denison, Iowa. 3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: None. R. P. CONNER, Business Manager. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 28th day of April, 1919. O. A. PATTERSON, Notary Public. (My commission expires July 4, 1921.)

STAFFORD'S
"A City Shop."
CLEANING, DYEING, PRESSING
Light Goods and Delicate Fabrics a Specialty.
Hats Cleaned and Blocked
Draperies Cleaned
Gloves Cleaned
On Broadway, Facing the Opera House.

THE MAY SALE OF SILKS

Begins Thursday, May First

PRECISELY with the advent of the new month is launched this selling event of silks, which makes the Month of May one of the highest importance in the economy of our patrons. The pricing as always means actual and substantial savings.

Note Them:

- 36 inch SILK TAFFETTA All colors and black $1.45 Yd.
- 36 inch SILK MESSALINE All colors, black and white $1.45 Yd.
- 36 inch SATIN, black and white $1.45 Yd.
- 40 inch TUB SILK White, flesh and pink $1.45 Yd.
- 40 inch SILK FOULARDS Good assortment of patterns $1.45 Yd.
- 40 inch CREPE DE CHINE All colors and black $1.45 Yd.
- 36 inch SILK and WOOL POPLIN $1.45 Yd.
- 40 inch DOUBLE THREAD CHIFFON, $1.45 per Yd.

Specially Priced Women's Union Suits for Summer Wear

—Summer weight closed gore and open style, low neck, no sleeves union suits, sizes 34 to 44, unusual value at 50c per garment.

Fibre and Silk Hose

—Admirably suited to the needs of the hour by the reason of their extreme durability and low prices. Colors are taupe medium grey, brown, bronze, pink, champagne, black, and white, in all sizes, at $1.25 per pair.

The Ralle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.

Nemo Week May 5th In Our Corset Department

Nemo Week May 5th In Our Corset Department

A Book you'll be Proud to Carry

Open a Savings Account for the baby with the Farmers' State Bank of Denison—upon its Opening Day—and have the little one's name engraved upon the engraved Title Page of the beautiful Souvenir Bank Book. It will afford great pride and pleasure—now and in after years. (Deposits received by mail.) Let the baby

Be a First Day Depositor
Watch for Opening Date

The Old Reliable Sherwin-Williams Paints
Flatone and gloss, all Colors.

Marnot
The celebrated varnish

Decotint
Wall Finish. 16 different colors.

Brighten-Up Stain
A varnish and natural wood stain combined.

Wall Paper Cleaner
Fresh.

Your Druggist
Ph. A. Schlumberger

DON'T FORGET OUR HOG WORM POWDER